John Sharp Jr., son of John Sharp Sr. of Dublin, Ireland was the oldest member of the Sharp family, who came to America and settled at New Garden, Pa. He came there with his parents, but moved to Rockingham County, Virginia, and married Margaret Blaine whose parents resided at Rawley Springs. They continued to live there for several years, but moved to the vicinity of Frost, Pocahontas County, in order to secure land for his large family of six boys and six girls. He came to Frost in 1802. He had six sons and six daughters: —

John Sharp III, Robert Sharp,
Daniel Sharp, William Sharp
James Sharp, Joseph Sharp,
Margaret Sharp, Anna Sharp,
Isabella Sharp, Elizabeth Sharp
Rosa Sharp, and Polly Sharp.

John Sharp married Rebecca Moore

Robert Sharp died when a young man.

Daniel Sharp married Margaret Palmer, in Rockbridge Co., Va., and settled on Buffalo Creek, beyond Greenbank. They finally went to Lewis County and settled on Leading Creek. The record of this marriage is found in Rockbridge Co., Va. The date is 1804. Daniel Sharp was father of Robert Sharp who was father of Thomas Sharp and grandfather of Otto Sharp.

James Sharp married Margaret Wanless, and settled in the head of Thorny Creek. They had five sons and two daughters: - William, Andrew, Robert, James, and Lindsey Sharp; Jane Sharp who married Nicholas Swadely. Nancy Sharp married James Moore.

of Nicholas Co., W. Va.; Lindsey Sharp lived on the old homestead; Andrew on Back Creek. He was born July 3, 1800, and lived beyond 1897, and was able to do considerable work

William Sharp married Margaret Nesbitt, of Rockingham County, and settled near Frost, Pocahontas County and settled in Pocahontas County, near Frost. They had one son and three daughters:

a. John Sharp

m. Elizabeth S. Wade, of Highland Co. They lived near Frost. They had five sons and four daughters. Only two of the daughters lived to be married.
