Old Kaintuck

"Old Kaintuck" was an interesting character. He married Nancy Bias, ^{an aunt} ~~sister~~ of Maggie Lawson ~~who~~ ^{who was} married James B. Alberts. ~~Both were~~ daughters of Thomas and Letha Bias Lawson of Winfield, W. Va. After the death of her husband, Nancy Inck went back to Lincoln County, among her people. She and Letha Bias were sister of Sam and Lee Bias, all children of Roland S. ("Snuggly") Bias who lived at the Falls of Guyan, above West Hamlin.

Nancy and "Old Kaintuck" had no children.

By James B. ("Bo")
Alberts, July 29, 1941.

The Alberts Family

William Alberts Sr. lived on Clinch River, in Wythe Co., Virginia. He married Margaret ———, and both died before their son, William Alberts, came to Cabell County, about 1873 to 1875. We came, in a covered wagon, over the Kanawha Road, by way of Flat Top Mountain, and settled, about two miles above the mouth of Booters Creek, and on Booters Creek.

"I do not know how many children William Alberts Sr. had, but a brother to my father, James, ("Jimmie") Alberts, lived at Blue Sulphur Springs. He married Virginia Calvert. They had two children, Henley and Fred Alberts. All are dead. They were buried on the Davidson farm, above Elmwood Church.

William Alberts married Lulitia Patterson, daughter of Harvey and Crosby Patterson of Tazewell Co. Va.
They lived ——— in the town of Jeffersonville, on Second Street.

William and Luitia Alberts
had daughters and sons,
as follows:

1. Eliza Alberts
m. John Bandy. They made their home on Davis Creek, about two miles above the mouth. John Bandy was raised in Tazewell County
2. Pierce Alberts. He was never married. He lived on the head of Hollands Creek.
3. Sam Alberts died single,
about 1935.
4. Margaret Alberts died single.
5. Ettie Alberts m. Jack Broy.
They lived in Barbours-ville.

6. Mona Alberto married Jim Cazad.
They live in Barboursville

7. Floyd Alberto
m. Mimmie Lawrence. They live on Hollands Creek.

8. Andy Alberto
m. Augusta Beach, dau.
of John and Beach.

9. Steve Alberto
m. Lottie Bryant

10. James B. ("Bo") Alberto.
b. in Tazewell Co., Aug. 20, 1863.

11.

When the Alberto family came to Hollands Cr., there was not a single family living on it. "Old Kaintuck" and his wife, Nancy Tuck, probably lived there before Alberto junior came.

THE ALBERTS FAMILY.

Alberts--James B. ("Bo"), Born Aug. 20, 1863, in Tazewell County, Va. My father, William Alberts, came here when I was about ten or twelve years old. He drove in a covered wagon, over the Kanawha Road, by way of Flat Top mountain. My mother was Lutitia Patterson, daughter of Harvey & Crosby Patterson, of Tazewell County, on Second Street of Jeffersonville, Va.

My father lived about a mile from Jeffersonville. He was a son of William Alberts, Sr. William, Sr. married Margaret William A., Sr. lived in Wythe County, Va. on Clinch River. He and grandmother died before we left there. My father came here because my sister Eliza, who married John Bandy, lived on Davis Creek, and kept writing for us to come. John Bandy lived about a mile down the river from Holland's Creek, about two miles up Davis Creek from Tom Luster's. John Bandy was raised in Tazewell County. My father moved to Holland's Creek, where Andy A. now lives.

"Old Kaintuck" lived on Holland's Creek, I think, before my father came here. His wife, "Nancy" Tuck, was an Aunt to my wife, who was Maggie Lawson, daughter of Thos. Lawson and Letha Bias Lawson. She was a sister to Lee Bias and Sam Bias Lawson. Lived at Winfield. Hence, Nancy Tuck was a Bias. After "Old Kaintuck" died, she lived about Salt Rock. They never had any ~~chi~~ children. No stages were running when we came through.

My father had a brother "Uncle Jimmie", who lived at Blue Sulphur. He married Virginia Calvert. They had two children-- Henry and Fred. All are dead. They are buried in the Davidson graveyard, on Guyand River. I don't remember any Tazewell relatives.

I had five sisters and six brothers.

Eliza was the oldest. Pierce, my brother, was next. He lived on the Morris place at Martha, and lived on the head of Holland's Creek.

Pierce was never married. He made his home with father.

Floyd and Andy live in the home place.

Steve lives in Barboursville.

Floyd married Minnie Lawrence.

Andy married Augusta Beach, daughter of John and Beach.

Steve married Lottie Bryant.

John Beach, I think, lived on Tom's Creek.

Sam Alberts was not married. He died about 1935.

Margaret was single.

Ettie married Jack Broy, and lived in Barboursville.

No one lived on Holland's Creek when we went there.
