Visiting Officers Quarters

McClellan AFB, California

21 Aug -

Fri 15th

Well another layover - Couldn't get an altitude so we leave tomorrow 16th.

I had a pretty good visit with everybody at Grass Valley, It was pouring rain so I didn't get a chance to get out to the ranch. Your mom was baking cookies when I got there. must have made a six month supply because they were everywhere. we had soup beans with french bread. no I didn't go off my diet!! only one slice & one bowl. I did make the slice length ways of the loaf & used a big bowl. went up to mammals around 7PM. Harry was in Arizona & came back that nite after we left. I went up and had breakfast with Harry the next AM & then left around noon.

TSOT! That house is a real mess. It really is falling apart. The joists run over, everything is broken or beat up. Steph has had two or three operations on her nose and she looks a thousand percent better. The end is pretty chopped up but may smooth out in time. Greg is really shaping up. looks a little like Mike.

They are still horse nuts & still messing around the horse barn. The place looks like a jig saw puzzle - no master plan at all.

you would have thought I was a long lost son the way everybody treated me, no snide remarks or undertones. Dick did say that his biggest problem was to see that both you and Marnell got equal shares of his estate, but he didn't have any solution.

I stopped at Auburn on the way up and saw Ted & Kathryn. They are about the same. Ol Mrs Stanley is still in good shape. I saw her for a few minutes & she is the sharpest one of the whole family. She asked about Mike & it was quite clear that his affair with the lay & hippy land had been a major subject of conversation.

Kitty was enroute to Wash. DC. to try & line up a job - sure was hard to get a word in edgewise around that place! Miss you & hope how soon I get back. Be sure & write me a sugar report now so I'll get them when I do.

all my love
