Mr. F.B.Lambert,
Barboursville, W. Va.

Dear Mr.Lambert:

My father was Lewis Jackson Ashworth and his only full brother was Marion Ashworth. His father died of disease while serving with the Confederate army. His mother later married a Henderson, and raised several children of this marriage namely: Albert Henderson, Jane Henderson, Hollandsworth, Molly Henderson Hanna, and there may have been another child; but I am not sure.

My father's nickname was "Sonny", and he was one of the founders and Treasurer of the Twentieth Street Baptist church, in Huntington. He was, also, a founder, and President of the Twentieth Street Bank, of Huntington.

My mother was Florence Brown Goode, born in Lincoln County, the daughter of William Patrick Goode, of Virginia. She is one of several children, as follows:

M.D.Goode, of Griffithsville; Henry F.Goode, of Huntington, Grace Goode, of Illinois; Virginia Goode Wilkerson, of Huntington; Ella Goode Henderson, of Barboursville; Mary Goode Holstein, deceased, of St.Albans; Martha Goode Hutson, of Huntington, and Stella Goode Grass (deceased), of Griffithsville.

They all have children, and they are scattered all over the United States. Getting back to my father: He had the follwijg children: Eyhel Ashworth Hickman (deceased), of Roanoke, Va.; Lillie Ashworth Pribble, of Tampa, Florida,

4
Anna Marie Ashworth Herrenkohl, of Roanoke, Virginia, and myself.

I have two sons--Lewis S. Ashworth and John L. Ashworth; and I married Johnnie Summers, of Shepherdsville, Kentucky.

My father's history is written up in more detail in a book of biographies which my mother has, and I will secure any additional information you need from it.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) Lewis Ashworth.
