Mr. Lambert:

You asked me for a copy of my brother's genealogy report when it was finished. I don't know when he will ever finish it. But here it is so far, beginning with Benjamin Ball in Tazewell County, Virginia, where he was born, apparently, about 1804. So far as we know, the only child reaching maturity was our grandfather, Peter. Benjamin married Temperance Fortner. Peter married Mary Miller Cecil, daughter of Joshua Cecil of Tazewell county. Peter and Mary had 11 children, all living to at least 50 years of age, a pretty good record. Our father was Charles M. Ball, fourth of Peter's children. All are dead.

Yours,

Frank Ball

Dear Mr. Lambert,

Barboursville, W. Va.

Your letter addressed to my mother, Mrs Emma V. Givens, at hand.

I know very little about the Dick side of the house, except here, of course.

I am a son of Emma V. Dick Givens. There is a second edition of the Dundas Genealogy, that gives the John Dick family here, in Missouri. It is edited by Frances de Sales Dundas, of Staunton, Va. Robert F. Dundas of 1905, 7th Avenue, St. Albans, W. Va., or his father, Alva Dundas, of 1832 Charleston Avenue, Huntington, W. Va. I am sending you a sketch of his children (John Dick's), and bring it down, to nearer date, if you prefer.

My mother was the oldest, and died, in 1950. My uncle, John Dick, the youngest of the six, died this last January.

Sadie Dick, the half sister's married name was Miller. (She married Leroy (?) Miller. She died, in California, at about the age of 75.

Yours Truly

John Dick Owens Sr.

The first three were born, in Cabell County, all the others were born near Lincoln, Missouri.
