^{Peter Hanger}
Annals of Augusta Co. by Waddell 1726 - 2 Vols. Very fine

p. 208 - George and Nancy Crawford had a dau Martha Crawford who married Peter Hanger.

This book mentions Peter Hanger several times, and gives a rather full account of the Crawford, his wife's people.

Same p. 36 -

"From 1738, to the First Co. Court" "Up to the time to which we have now arrived, the whole region west of the Blue Ridge constituted a part of the County of Orange.
In the year 1738, however, on Nov. the General Assembly of the Colony of Virginia, passed an act establishing the counties of Frederick and Augusta.
The new counties were so named in honor of Frederick, Prince of Wales, son of King George II and father of George III, and wife, the Princess Augusta, The act separated all the territory west of the Blue Ridge, and extending in other directions, "to the utmost limits of Virginia", from Orange County, and created it into the two counties named. The line between them was "from the head spring of Hedgman's River, to the head spring of the river Potomac". Augusta was much the larger of the two counties. It embraced, northward, the present county of Rockingham and a part of Page; to the south, it extended to the border of Virginia; to the west and northwest, it extended over the whole territory claimed by Great Britain, in those quarters. It included nearly all of West Virginia, the states of Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and as contended by Virginians, a part of western Pennsylvania.

(The rest of page 36, gives an interesting poem, on "Prince Fred", etc.)

p. 37 - Bottom - "and now we have the first reference to a public road west of the Blue Ridge, June 1739, John Poage, David Davis, George Hutchison, according to an order of Court, viewed and laid off a road from Beverly Manor" etc.

p. 38 - A great number made oath that they imported themselves, etc.

Among these were:

"Robert Poage, his wife Elizabeth, and his children: Margaret, John, Martha, Sarah, George, Mary, Elizabeth, Isabella and Robert." Also others.

Same p. 42 - "William Thompson qualified as administrator of John Campbell, in 1741, John Lewis, security. The decedent was the ancestor of Col. Arthur Campbell, General William C. and ..."

p. 147-149 - History of the Campbell family, but does not give enough details to identify John Campbell whose dau m.
John Handley.

The first John Campbell came from Ireland to America, in 1726, and settled in Lancaster Co. Pa. moved to Orange (that part which became Augusta, in 1738) Three of sons came with him Patrick Robert and David.

David Campbell,
son of John T m. in Augusta Co., Mary Hamilton, had 7 sons & 6 daus. A son John the eldest, rec'd a good education, went with Dr. Thos. Walker, on his exploration in 1765, purchased land for his father, near the head of the Holston river, & about 1771 - the whole family went there.

p. 149 - John Campbell was a Lieut. in Wm. Campbell's company, Col. Christian's Regiment, in 1774, and arrived at Point Pleasant too late for the battle.

More, but can't identify him

Hutchinson vs. Boyd -

Mr. Gabriel Jones, Augusta Court House. Sir: I humbly beg your advice in a matter of consequence, and that is, one of my neighbors, named Robert Boyd has abused my wife and my mother-in-law in a most scandalous manner, and publicly reported that they were both perjured.
I shall beg, if you be pleased, to take the affair in hands, and execute as far as the law directs, in such a case, and beg that you will let me have an answer by Mr. Smith, the sheriff, for I shall be down shall be paid to your full satisfaction.

From your most humble servant.

Complainants are:
Patrick Cullon & Mary,
his wife.

Susannah & Nancy Hitchenson, Children and heirs devise of Robert Hitchenson, whose will is recorded, in Rockbridge; and who died June 1806.

Widow died intestate before the appraisement. One of the gr. children, named Adams, a female, was dead before making the will. Patrick and Mary married in September, 1807, and have moved to Tennessee. Adams answer says the Adams child was not dead; that Robert supposed the name to be Polly, but it was really

Jenny. Will of Robert Hitchenson

LIVED 115 YEARS.
Aged Man Dies Near Glenwood in this County.

HENDERSON CREMEANS

Has 9 children, 60 Grand-children, 131 Great-Grand-children and 17 Gret-Great-Grand-children.

Henderson Cremeans died near Glenwood, this County, at the advanced age of 115 years. At the time of his death he was strong and hearty--in fact, he was walking along the road, on his way home from the store, when he died. For several years he had been making his home with his Grandson, Clark Cremeans.

His father and mother are said to have been the first couple married west of the Blue Ridge Mountains, in Virginia. His mother died at the age of 120 years; his wife at the age of 100 years.

In the year 1812 Henderson Cremeans, then a youth of 18 years went with his Uncle along an Indian trail through the woods to the Ohio River at a point where Glenwood is now located, where his Uncles crossed the river bound for the war of 1812, and Henderson returned home with the horses.

Mr. Cremeans has lived in three centuries, being born in 1794 and living until Jan. 21, 1909.

It is thought that Mr. Cremeans was the oldest man living in the United States. He was born and raised in what is now called Mason County, West Virginia, and spent his entire life in this community. He has seen this country change from a wilderness to its present, modern state.

He was the father of nine children, as follows: Henry, Peter, Ham and Ballard Cremeans, Mary and Eliza Holley, Sarah Fetty, Nancy Starkey and Cummie Sampson.

He had 60 grand-children, 131 great grand-children, and seven teen great-great-grand-children.

Lee Harper, of this city, was called upon to take charge of the remains. The funeral was held at Fairfield Church Saturday, Jan. 23rd, at 11 A. M. There were about 600 people present to look for the last time on this venerable figure which had so long been familiar to them in their daily walks of life.

The interment was in the church yard at Fairfield--and may the earth rest gently upon him.
