Schools

Mr. Kelly Perry

Millard Plymale taught first free school on Melam Creek, Grant Hist. An old hewed log house built by citizens for a school before free schools came in.

Teachers before the war charged 50¢ a month. If more than 4 from a family came he charged no more.

Early pre-war teachers:

Joe Ward, Walter Queen,
Fanny Raines of E. Va.

Jim Hamron also before the war.
when I was about 15?

Wayne Hamron, his bro. was crippled. Went to Callletts ^{till he d.} Berg, & run a saloon. He had been a merchant at Cassville. They were of Squire Sam Hamron J. P. who m. (7 times, it was said)

My grandfather had a brother who went back east & settled. A brother & two sisters came here. I have heard my grandfather said say that his father was ~~and~~ He was killed by lightning. (See Black Arnold Perry, on Sweet water near Kenner.)

Sweet Run is on Sweet Water over a hill from Kenova Great gr. father was killed by lightning

A sister Aunt Betsy⁴ never married but lived on Kiars Creek. She was small

Another sister & a brother went east.

They came from over the ocean.

My gr. grand father Marcum was really not a Marcum but was raised by a Marcum

My mother said her father's father was Josiah McDonald from Ireland but he was named after his benefactor. He ran away from home & hence changed his name.
