INDEX
TO THE BYRON MORRIS
'OUT OF THE PAST'
COLUMNS
IN THE
WAYNE COUNTY NEWS
1967-1991

Manuscript Collection (MS 127)

Byron Morris's 'Out of the Past' newspaper columns printed in the Wayne County News constitute the most comprehensive history of Wayne County, West Virginia currently available. Mr. Morris's columns contained family genealogies; obituaries; lists of marriages from not only Wayne County, but Boyd County, Kentucky and Cabell County, West Virginia; court records from the early county records of both Wayne and Cabell Counties, West Virginia; rosters of Civil War soldiers; minutes of early town councils of Ceredo and Kenova, West Virginia; and cemetery listings, to name but a few of the topics.

This index is an attempt to provide minimal access to the wealth of information contained in those columns. The reader should be aware of the following:

- This is not an every-name index. Subjects, places, and family surnames are covered. Individuals are listed only in the obituary listings, the marriage lists from outside Wayne County, or when the person is the subject of an article.
- The numbers following an entry denote the year, month and day of the column, e.g. 86-11-13 signifies November 13, 1986.
- Some of the columns were not dated, so their entry in the index appears with question marks.

Mr. Byron Morris loaned his collection of newspaper columns for photocopying in August 1990 and December 1991.

Scope and Content:

Copies of Mr. Morris's newspaper column, "Out of the Past," written for the Wayne County News; subjects include histories of communities in Wayne County, West Virginia, genealogy of Wayne County families, registers of marriages in neighboring counties of Wayne County persons, and school and church histories.
