Last Will and Testament
Of

J. H. & S.C.Blackwood, Dec'd.

*James Harvey Blackwood
m. Sarah Caroline Payton, dau. of Archibald Payton*

We, J.H.Blackwood and S.C.Blackwood, of the City of Huntington, Cabell County, West Virginia, realizing the uncertainty of life and certainty of death and being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this our joint and several last will and testament.

Whereas, we, J. H. Blackwood and S. C. Blackwood are the joint owners of certain real estate situate in the City of Huntington, Cabell County, West Virginia the legal title to a part of which is in the name of S.C.Blackwood, and the legal title to the remainder thereof being in the name of J.H.Blackwood S.C.Blackwood, jointly, and Whereas, we desire that upon the death of either of us, that the survivor of the other shall take all of the personal estate of the other, and after the death of both of us, that such personal estate remaining divided equally among our five children, excepting however the furniture, fixtures and kitchen utensils then situate in the house located at

No. 1127 Sixth Avenue in the City of Huntington, County and State aforesaid, which we desire, upon the death of both of us to go to our daughters Garnet Blackwood; and that the survivor shall take the real estate of the other during his or her lifetime and after the decease of such survivor that all of such real estate shall go to the devisees, as hereinafter set out, Now therefore

We, J.H.Blackwood and S.C.Blackwood give and bequeath to the survivor of the other all of our personal estate and, upon the decease of the survivor we give and bequeath all of said personal estate, excepting, however, the furniture, fixtures and kitchen utensils then situate in the house at No.1127 Sixth Avenue, in said city to our five children, Mary L. Blackwood Staton, Kate Blackwood Wilson, Garnett Blackwood, Sue M. Blackwood, and Joseph Blackwood; and if any difficulty shall arise as to the division of such personal estate, then the same shall be sold by the executor hereinafter named and the proceeds therefrom divided equally among said five children, as aforesaid; and upon the death of both of us, as aforesaid, we give and bequeath unto our daughter, Garnett Blackwood all of the furniture, fixtures and kitchen utensils then situate in the house at No.1127 Sixth Avenue, in said city.

II.

We, and each of us give and devise to the survivor of the other all of the real estate belonging to the other for life, and after the decease of the ~~other~~ survivor we give and devise unto our daughter Garnett Blackwood, her heirs and assigns forever, the house and lot situate at No.1127 Sixth Avenue, in the City of Huntington, Cabell County, West Virginia; unto our daughter Kate Blackwood Wilson, her heirs and assigns forever the house and lot situate at No.739, Sixth Avenue, in the City, County and State aforesaid; unto Joseph Blackwood, his heirs and assigns forever, the house and lot situate at No. 737 Sixth Avenue in the City, County and State aforesaid; unto Sue M. Blackwood, her heirs and assigns forever, the house and lot situate at No. 615 Twelfth Street in the City County and State aforesaid; unto Mary L. Blackwood Staton, her heirs and assigns forever, the house and lot situate at No.617, Twelvth Street in the City, County and State aforesaid.

III.

In the event that either of us shall die before the 1st day of September, 1917, we give and bequeath unto our daughter , Sue M. Blackwood, the rents, issues and profits of all our real estate except the house and lot situate at No.1127 Sixth Avenue, in said City of Huntington, Cabell County, West Virginia from the date of our death until the said first day of September, 1917, and the devises under clause two hereof are made subject to this contingency, it being the purpose of this provision to afford our said daughter Sue M. Blackwood, an opportunity to complete her education.

IV.

For the purpose of carrying out the provisions hereof; we hereby nominate and appoint the survivor of the other as the executor of this, our last Will and Testament, and stipulate that neither shall be required to give bond; and upon the death of both of us we hereby nominate and appoint F.M.Livezey as Executor of this, our last will and testament.

In Witness whereof, we, J.H.Blackwood and S.C.Blackwood have hereunto set our hands and seals this 1st day of September, 1913.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

O f

C. W. BLACKWOOD.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

I, C.W.Blackwood, of Milton, W.Va. being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and desiring to make such disposition of my worldly estate as I deem best, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby any and all former wills and codicils whatsoever by me made.

First: I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate as soon after my decease as conveniently as may be and to that end charge my whole estate, real and personal, with the same.

Second: I give, devise and bequeath to my two daughters, Mabelle E. and Ernestine C. Blackwood One Thousand Dollars each to be paid out of my personal estate.

2nd I give and bequeath to my dearly beloved wife, Mary Frances Blackwood, all the remainder of my property, both real and personal, now owned by me, or hereafter acquired, wherever located, for and during her natural life, and at her death I give and bequeath the remainder thereof in fee simple to my two daughters mentioned above, share and share alike.

I nominate and appoint Mary Frances Blackwood to be the executor of this my last will and testament to serve with bond.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal to this my Last Will and Testament at Milton, W. Va. this 27th day of November, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand, Nine Hundred and Twenty-six.
