WILL OF HENRY L. BECKETT.

I, Henry L. Beckett, beong of sound mind but in poor health, and realizing the uncertainty of life do declare this to be my last Will and Testament.

FIRST: I desire that all my debts and dues, if any, if any, be paid in full and as promptly as possible, after which I bequeath all my property, both real and personal, including any money I may have in bank, to my wife, Lethia V. Beckett to be used for her maintenance and support as long as she lives. At her death I desire that all remaining property, or the proceeds thereof, shall be equally divided between my two children Carrie E. Beckett and Oliver--S.L.Beckett . Should either of them die, all to go to the one living. Should both die I bequeath all property, , or the proceeds thereof, to my two grand-children, Ruth Virginia Beckett and Kantha Naomie Lee Beckett, to be used to further their education. I shall not name an administrator, but I desire ~~my~~ my son, Oliver, to see that this, the provisions of my will be carried out to the best of his knowledge and ability. Having full confidence in his honesty and integrity, I desire that he be not required to give bond. I also appoint him my agent and invest him with power of attorney and authorize him to withdraw any money I may have in bank forthe purpose of carrying out the provisions of my will. My earnest desire is that no unnecessary expense be incurred in funeral arrangements. Do not rob the living to honor the dead.

This will is all written by me, personally and does not require Witnesses.

Andrew Lee Beckett - born in Cabell County, July 24, 1824, and Emily Samuels Hatfield, born in this county Sept 2, 1824, united in marriage on the 24th of June 1850.

Their children were;

Two sons,

Lewis Henry Beckett
born Aug. 13, 1851, married
Latha Virginia Roffe,
Aug. 15, 1875, and Oliver
Francis Beckett, born Oct. 1, 1861.

The wife of Mr. Beckett was a daughter of Adam and Mary (Williams) Hatfield, and she died, in this county, at her husband's farm, in Grant (now McComas) District January 3, 1883. She was a faithful wife, and loving mother, a strict and exemplary member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was loved in life, and mourned in death. Andrew L. Beckett is a son of James and Hannah Lee Beckett.

55

His father was born in Montgomery County, Virginia, Sept. 18, 1772, and died Jan. 20, 1868. His mother was born in Patrick Co., Virginia, Sept. 20, 1788, and died Dec. 16, 1862. James Beckett settled in what is now Grant District, in 1810, and was a prominent pioneer.

The father of Hannah Lee Beckett served under General Anthony Wayne, in fighting the Indians, in the Kanawha Valley, and was a son of Light-foot Lee. Mr. Beckett has a farm of 115 acres, on Judges Creek, the land, under cultivation, fertile and well-improved, the remainder having fine building stone, some iron ore and stone coal, in abundance.

He was commissioned, by General Wise captain in the 120th Virginia militia, and served three years. Since the inauguration of the free school system he has been constantly a school officer.

In 1866, he was elected Justice of the Peace in Grant District, and has served six years, and has filled the office of registrar, in the same district, four years.

For fourteen years he has been postmaster at Judges Creek, Cabell County, and is still the incumbent.

---

Emsley Wilson Beckett, is a son of Moses Beckett, who, in 1805, settled in what is now Grant District, Cabell County, and helped to rear the first cabins, fell the first trees, and bring this new <sup>fertile</sup> ~~settled~~ country into cultivation sharing with those who ate their bread without having mills to grind the grain. Moses Beckett married Rebecca S. Wilson, and their son, Emsley W., was born in Cabell Co., Aug. 28, 1832. In this county, Sept. 26, 1854, he married Mary S. Roberts, and their children were fourteen:
