THE LAST WILL and TESTAMENT OF MPSES BECKETT.

Cabell County, W. Va.

Know all men by these presents, that I, Moses Beckett, in this, my last Will and Testament do bequeath my property as follows, to-wit:

To my wife, Mary, I bequeath all my property, both real and personal except such articles as will hereafter be specified and to have and to hold the same so long as she shall live; but at her death then said property, both real and personal, shall be equally divided among each of my children.

To, my daughter, Louisa, I I bequeath one set of silver teaspoons Jennie Ann, I bequeath a Bible now in her care. To my son Josiah I I bequeath my rifle gun and a book, entitled "Life of John Bunyan" and the "Pilgrim's Progress" , and all his school Books. To my daughter Susan Josephine I bequeath a book entitled "Life of Christ", and all of her school books.

To my son, William Beckett I bequeath a pictorial "Life of Andrew Jackson" and all his school books, and my kit of shoe tools.

And I do further make and appoint my son, Charles W. Beckett of this, my last Will and Testament, to be my executor and to carry out the provisions of said will. Given under my hand and ~~mark~~, signature this the 30th day of May, 1871.

Emsley Wilson Beckett,
is a son of Moses Beckett, who in 1805 settled
in what is now Grant District, Cabell county, and helped to rear the first cabins, fell the first trees and bring this now fertile country into cultivation, sharing with those who ate their bread without having mills to grind their grain.
Moses Beckett married Rebecca S. Wilson, and their son Emsley W. was born in Cabell county in August 28th 1832. In this county, Sept. 26th 1854 he married Mary S. Roberts, and their children were fourteen: John H. born Aug. 28th 1855, married Eliza N. Kilgore: Louisa Matilda E. born Dec. 6th 1856, married John Hanley: Rebecca F. born May 7th 1860, married Hollis Braley: James A. M. born Sept. 16, 1858

October 14th 1873; Allen, born July 5th, 1875; Ezra W.
born Jan. 7th 1878; Josephine O. born April 28th 1881.
Alex D. and Susan (Wells) Roberts were the parents of Mrs. Beckett, who was born in Cabell county Feb. 14th 1839. Mr. Beckett has been school trustee and road surveyor, and is now member of the board of education of Grant district. He was chosen deacon in the Baptist Church at Union, and clerk of the church at Foar. He resides on his farm of 115 acres, having 50 acres under cultivation, the rest heavily timbered, with limestone and iron ore indicated.
He is a shoemaker as well as a farmer, and has his postoffice address at Milton, Cabell county West Virginia.

Andrew Lee Beckett.

Born in Cabell County, July 25, 1824, and Emily Samuels Hatfield, born in this county in September 2, 1824, were here united in marriage on the 24th of June 1850. Their children were two sons: Lewis Henry, born Aug. 13, 1851, married Latha Virginia Riffe, August 15th 1875; and Oliver Francis born Oct. 1st, 1861. The wife of Mr. Beckett was a daughter of Adam and Mary (Williams) Hatfield, and she died in this county, at her husband's farm in Grant District, Jan. 3rd, 1883.

She was a faithful wife and loving mother, a strict and exemplary member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was loved in life and mourned in death. Andrew L. Beckett is a son of James and Hannah Lee Beckett. His father was born in Montgomery County Virginia, Sept. 18th, 1772, and died January 20th 1868. His mother was born in Patrick County, Virginia, Sept. 20th 1788, and died Dec. 16th, 1862. James Beckett settled in what is now Grant district in 1810, and was a prominent pioneer. The father of Hannah (Lee) Beckett served under Gen. Anthony Wayne in fighting the Indians in the Kanawha Valley, and was a son of Lightfoot Lee. Mr. Beckett has a farm of 115 acres on Fudges Creek, the land under cultivation fertile and well improved. The remainder having fine building stone, some iron ore, and stone coal in abundance. He was commissioned by Gen. Wise captain in the 120th Virginia militia, and served three years. Since the inauguration of the free school system he has been constantly a school officer.

In 1866 he was elected Justice of the Peace in Grant district, and has served six years, and has filled the office of registrar in the same district four years. For fourteen years he has been postmaster at Fudge's Creek, Cabell County, West Virginia and is still incumbent.

 Alex. Hamillon Swan, a physician of Middleport, Ohio. He never came here. James and Harvey Swan were brothers of Alex S.

My father and Al. W. Swan came here in 1885. Al S. came 2-3 yrs. later. My father settled on Little Cr., a branch of Kilgore. He bought a saw mill in Puliam Co., staid a yr. or two and then returned here when I was four years old.
