GLOWING TRIBUTE PAID TO THE MEMORY OF MRS. THOMAS HARVEY.

Resolutions Passed by Confederate Southern Memorial Association, of which Mrs. Harvey was President, Made Public.

- - - - -

Glowing tribute of the life and qualities of the late Mrs. Thomas Hope Harvey, who died on May 11 at her home here, is contained on resolutions made public Saturday morning by a Committee of the Confederated Southern Memorial Association, of which Mrs. Harvey was President. The resolution follows:

A tribute of love and resolutions of respect on the passing of Mrs. Emma Clarence Harvey (Nee McCullough);

"Immortal life, immortal love

"Two words that blend in one,

"For life is Love, and Love is Life,

"And Heaven's glad day is come.

"Behold, the Divine touched the brow

And lo the whisper came--

Let her rest sweetly, her life work is done,

The conflict is ended, the glory begun.

"So ripe for the Kingdom,

"So longing for home

"On earth's dreary shore,

"No more to roam

"Let her rest."

These lines were recalled by the writer on receiving the sad note of the passing of Mrs. Emma Florence Harvey to her heavenly home. Mrs. Harvey was stricken with paralysis on Sunday morning, May 8 and passed away Wednesday, May 11th, at 1:05 o'clock, at her home, the "Maples", 71 West Fourth Avenue, Huntington, West Virginia.

"She awakened pure, fresh, and sinless
For thy Holy eyes."

The subject of this brief memorial was born April 12, 1852, in Barboursville, Cabell County, Virginia. She was the last surviving member of the family of Dr. Patrick Henry McCullough and wife, Rachel Ward Thornburg, distinguished pioneer family of Cabell County, Virginia, of Scotch-Irish and Huguenot descent and strong religious principles of the Wesleyan faith.

She is survived by her husband, the venerable Thomas Hope Harvey L.L.D., former judge of the Circuit Court of Cabell County, Commander of the second brigade of the West Virginia division, United Confederate Veterans, a prominent citizen and business man--a sterling Christian character, to whom she was married on April 24, 1874. There were no children and besides her husband, her only surviving relatives are nephews and nieces.

She leaves a precious heritage of a good name to the beloved members of her family, and here was a rich, deep nature, full of understanding sympathy, responsive to the varying moods of her friends always left in the heart the impression, yea, the assurance, that she had a thorough appreciation of our worries and anxieties, and that things would be brighter and better because of her love and interest. Her sweet smile and gentle greeting to those who met and knew her made them happier, yea, lifted up just as a ray of sunshine, beaming from a cloudy sky heartens one.

With rare endowment of personal charm, a keen sense of humor, and a frank naturalness, it was easy for her to make friends who delighted to be with her.

There is no way to estimate the joy and helpfulness brought to individuals as in the influence and enrichment of her Christian life and living. Though to the church of her faith and choice she was loyal, yet because of her frailty and long years of Physical inability, she was barred from actual affiliation and active service of the Presbyterian Church of which she was a member, and the Johnson Memorial Church with which her husband was connected, but in which she was deeply interested, and strongly loved.

Mrs. Harvey united with the Presbyterian Church while attending Marshall Academy, at the early age of eighteen years. From that time, truly, can be said of her, she adorned the doctrine of God, her Saviour in all things without reservation of self, though it is not given to us to draw aside the "Veil of Mystery", or question the "wherefore of Providence. Suffice it to say, in her case, in all the relationships of life, her family circle, her home life, community, and reaching out of the larger circle of devoted friends, she left to all her happy soul that never had a minor note, May this life inspire others to cry:

"Lord, help me to live from day to day,
In such a self-forgetful way--
That even when I kneew to pray,
My prayers shall be for others".

After the close of the war, Mrs. Harvey sought outlet for her great patriotism in various Confederate organizations. She was made an honorary life member of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Also a member of the National Society of Sons and Daughters of the Pilgrims, an organization founded in Huntington in 1924. The cause dearest to her heart was the Confederated Southern Memorial Association, of which she was President from the date of the Society's formation in December, 1921. To this cause she laid her claim, her devoted and undivided interest, untiring, but weakened energy. So, happily, she was given the happiness to live to see this great work firmly established in the hearts and lives of her co-workers, in which her faith was gratified, her prayers answered, her labors reqrded.

"Now the laborer's task is over,
 Father in thy gracious keeping,
 Leave me now, thy servant, sleeping."

Funeral services were conducted, jointly, by Dr.T.S.Hamilton and Dr.J.Layton Mauze from the residence Thursday afternoon. Interment was made in the Harvey plot in the Spring Hill cemetary, under a bower of flowers, the last testimonial of love. "We forget thee, not."

Whereas, God in His providence, has called from our midst our dearly beloved friend and fellow member, Mrs.Thomas Hope Harvey and whereas we feel keenly that in her going our C.S.M.A. Association has lost a devoted and faithful worker, and the community a tender and sympathetic friend.

Therefore, Be it Resolved, That we submit to the will of our Creator and extend to ~~xxx~~ the bereaved family our heart-felt sympathy, commending them to God, who doeth all things well.

Furthermore, Be it Resolved That these Resolutions be incorporated in the minutes of the Memorial Association, copies be sent to the family, to the city papers, the the Confederate Veterans, and to the Christian Observer.

My grandfather Nash was James Nash who m. Fanny Gillet, dau. of H. M. Gillet, a steamboat capt., my great grandfather. I believe there was another Gillet there. A son of H. M. Gillet, Ora Gillet, bro to my gr. mother Nash.

I think the Nash's came from a northern state, possibly N. Y. There are 3 Paddy Creeks, all fork at or above Rome. Little Paddy is below Rome. Big Paddy and middle Paddy. The road up Big Paddy went on to Tick Ridge. We lived on the head of Big Paddy.

I came to Cabell Co. about 1876-7. I have date

~~my~~ I was b. July 4, 1861
My father was timbering at Laurel Hill ~~etc~~ in July 1861. N. S. Rec. 70

Tanbark was $26 a cord.
He bought hoop poles, Tanbark, timber, etc. He had a large flat boat over 100 ft. long, & 25 feet wide, which he built,
& took 125 or 100 cord, & thousands of hoop poles. At the time of about 1862-3, the Yankees burned his boat at Laurel Hill. He lived on one of the McComas farms then.

Uncle John was the only one I knew of. He was killed at Millersport, by Bill Guthrie, an officer, or constable, etc; He had an execution against Uncle John the builder in part against of the Dusenberry, Merrill & Howell's Mill.

Uncle John had a saw mill & the officer was going to levy on it. They were to have a trial that day.

John m. Sarah who after John's death m. a Baker. John fell when shot from a window at her feet. She turned him over, got his gun & tried to kill Guthrie.

My father in 1861, had an ox team of 4-5 yoke of cattle hauling tambark principally, at Laurel Hill, and some hoop poles - bought boundaries of timber, etc (for tambark) and shipped by flat boat to Cincinnati, had it towed back to Guyandotte by steamboats.

Capt. Bill Knight of Millersport, probably owned the boats. From Guyandotte, they brought it up push boat style. Union soldiers burned his boat & Tambark, at Laurel Hill, about 1863-4.

I was born in 1861, and I was 3-4 years old when they burned our boat, & mother put us on a horse, captured Father, who had been down with typhoid fever, and took to Logan, a doctor told the captain "That man is going to die and you must send him

Troy near opening of the Hellespont (Dardanelles)

Paris son of Priam, (handsome son) King of Troy, comes to Lacedaemon, in the Land of the Achaeans, induced Helen wife of Menelaus (king), and the loveliest woman in all Greece, to flee with him to Troy. War followed. Agamemnon, brother of Menelaus, and many Greek heroes assisted. After many battles (10 years) a wooden horse solved the controversy. The Greeks concealed opened the gates, men killed, women & children carried off slaves.
