Mr. Lambert:

I have received the births and deaths of my brother's family. His name was Wyatt McKinley Bias. He once lived, at Arthur Dale, W. Va. He is now with his daughter, in New York.

I have been waiting, for a letter, from his son, Richard Bias, who is married, and has two children. I thought I had better mail this to you, and, if I ever receive the other, I will mail it.

b. Oct. 13, 1812 (Record on Tombstone is 1815.)
d. Feb. 9, 1888

m. 1. Elizabeth Deatly, as claimed by persons now living, but the record, in Cabell County, shows that he married Elizabeth Rogers, and that she was a daughter of George and wife, Rogers, who lived about the mouth of Cabell Creek, now near Roach. She was a sister of William S. Rogers of Martha, now known as Elmwood. If Elizabeth Deat-ly was the same as Elizabeth Rogers, she must have previously married a Mr. Deatly, and was separated from him, and kept her maiden name. I have a record showing that wife No. 2, was born Nov. 16, 1821 and died August 5, 1866, ~~but this does not agree with~~ ~~a statement, by Alva Bias of~~ ~~West Hamlin, that Linville~~
