THE PRIESTLEY FAMILY.

Leonard Joseph Priestley, born Feb. 4, 1897, in Priestley, Lincoln County, W. Va.. Married Maud Mitchell, daughter of Frank and Sarah Beckett Mitchell, of Putname Co., W. Va.

My father, Wilburn Chapman Priestley, born Jan. 29, 1866, at Priestley. He was a farmer, exclusively, and successful. My mother was Edith McClure, daughter of Joseph R. McClure and Isabel Hall (Sister to Columbus and John Hall; Union soldier of Falls of Cole, &c).

My grand-father was George Priestley (son of Samuel), who married Amanda Stephens, daughter of Jeremiah Stephens, of Cabell's Creek. George Priestley lived on Midkiff Fork of Pauley Branch of Cole River across from Fuqua's Creek. Samuel Priestley was married twice, but I am not certain who.

I was a school teacher in Lincoln and Kanawha Co. from 1913 to 1921. Served in World War as a private Sept. 3, 1918 to March 7, 1919, at Camp Lee, Va. Was overseas three months in France. At the close of the war located at Sabin with 161st Infantry, a part of the 41st Division. Previous to entering the war I was licensed to preach July 1917. Ordained March 29, 1918 while serving as pastor of the Forks of Coal church. I served the following churches:

Pleasant Hill, Kanawha County, Coal River Assn.,

Ronceverte Baptist church

Cobb's Creek Baptist church, Lincoln County,

Olive, Boone Co. Baptist church, at Julian,

8 miles below Danville.

Joe's Creek, at Tango, Lincoln Co. Coal River Assn.

Wharton, Boone Co. (I organized it 1929. 2 yrs. pastor.)

THE HARSHBARGERS.

Geo. Washington Harshbarger (See Clyde for records), married Alice Walker, daughter of John Walker, of Brazil, Indiana. George Harshbarger attended, and graduated at Marshall College. He then went to Brazil, Ind. and was pay master for the Block Coal Co. owned by his brother-in-law, Ezekial Jones, of Jackson, Ohio. He stayed there about seven years, after which he became Supt. of the Star Furnace, of Jackson, Ohio. He was son of David Harshbarger and Mary Garrett, a sister of John Garrett, father of Jas. T. Garrett.

John Harshbarger, father of James Harshbarger, ran the mill here, but died many years ago. He was son of David and his first wife. My brother, C.L. Harshbarger and I, were the only members of the family. I can furnish picture when wanted.

George Harshbarger came to Milton about 1888 (?). Clyde was born in 1884. I was born Sept. 11, 1875 at Brazil, Indiana (Harmony, a suburb). He formed and engaged in the the oil and gas business many years. I have ran the mill since 1895. He and Ira J. Harshbarger owned it until Ira J. died. It was incorporated in 1903 by name of Harshbarger Milling Co. The present mill was built in 1903 by above company.

Another mill was built in 1872, at foot of Smith Creek by John Harshbarger. It was a two-story frame, painted red. It was down in 1903. John Harshbarger, G.W. and Ira J. bought John out and built the present mill.

Cabell Creek School

By John Stevens, 6

An old log residence was once used as a school house on Cabell Creek. It was also used as a U. B. Church. It was situated near  $\frac{1}{4}$  miles above old Sammy Davis house, and on left of creek going up & across from the Davis farm. It was torn down and the new school was built on the same site. The old Lady Carnes lived over to the left of the school. Later Frank Wallers, Geo. Nippo, and others lived there.

Some of the early teachers were: Allen Brailey, Bob Blackwood, Lizzie Mc Chesney, Lizzie Step Stevens. Old Samuel Mossman taught in the old log school. Helen Gwinn, Emma Rutherford. James Petit, Tom Floyd, Jeff Cooper (nephew of Wise), Alva Williams.

Haskells were from Tygerville Ohio, near Gallipolis. I am a descendant of Thomas K. Haskell a Revolutionary soldier. His name is on the Tablet at Point Pleasant. Some of the Petits, I think, were in the Revolution. Haskell was a mason, & was with Washington at Braddock's defeat. My husband, Frederick S. Bown,
b. in Lynnington, England, son of Crandell's Mill.

Came to Cabell Creek about 56 years ago - say about 1888.

A man name S. B. Crandell was owner. It was a stave factory. He built the tram road from above John Gibsons up Bear Hollow & down to the mill. It passed the Z Warner church.

The timber was bolled in the woods - sawed and split. Hauled staves to Ona & shipped by C. & O. R. R.

many men employed

It was chief public industry of the creek, for several years.

John Shoemaker, father-in-law of Wilder Cooper, ran a saw mill in Rush Hollow for 2-3 years. He lived at Petit place before Petit came there. Jacob Schully lived there & sold to Jack Woodard, <sup>son</sup> of Amos Woodard of Little Cabell Cr.

Beulah Ann Baptist Church

Beulah Ann Church was organized on December 26th A. D. 1874 in the Lower Creek school house. The old house has been torn down and a new one built on the same lot. The Church was organized by Rev. John Andrew Petit, and he was one of the charter members. Rev. Thomas Hawkins and Bro. B. L. Perry were in the council that organized the Church. The Church was named for their wives, Sister Beulah Perry and Sister Ann Hawkins. There were seventeen charter members which are as follows Hugh Petit and Frances Petit his wife, and father and mother of John A. Petit the organizer. John A. Petit and Sarah C. Petit his wife; John McComas, first clerk, and Lucinda McComas his wife, William McComas and Julia McComas their son and daughter; Griffin B. Reynolds and Harden Reynolds and Quintina Reynolds his wife, son and daughter in-law of Griffin B. Reynolds; James Arthur and Elisabeth Arthur his wife; John Gideon Chapman and Martha Chapman his wife; Charley Davis and Thomas Elkins. The Church staid on Lower Creek some time and then moved over to Big Cabell Creek and had their meetings in the school house. Some time after this move the Rev. John A. Petit gave up the Church and moved away. The Church was then as a flock without a shepherd. Then the Rev. John Perry came and gathered the flock together and became the second Pastor. He served the Church for some time, resigning about 1883 or 84 He had some additions to the Church among these were. William E. Petit and his wife Mary A. Petit by letter from the Guyandotte Church in 1879. The third Pastor was Rev. D. Ash under his care the Church grew and prospered, but the school house was shut against them and they had to build a church house, which they built and it was dedicated in September 1888 Rev. W. P. Walker preaching the sermon Rev. D. Ash served the Church until March 25, 1894 when he resigned. The fourth Pastor was Rev. W. T. Justice who was called on March 25, 1894

And he served until December of that year and resigned.

The fifth Pastor was Rev. A. Griffith preaching his first sermon Jan. 20th 1895 and he served until March 13, 1897 then he resigned.

The sixth Pastor was Rev. S. C. Priddy who was called the 16th of June 1897 and served until March 11, 1899 when he resigned. Under his care the Church had several additions.

The Seventh Pastor was Rev. S. L. Parker ---I can not give the date as there is one leaf gone from the record -- But the minutes of April 7, 1900 gives him as Moderator, so he was elected either in January, Feb. or March. The last minutes that give him as Moderator dated January 12, 1901. The Church was without a Pastor until the September meeting when Rev. J. T. Paul was called to the Church. He served from September 1901 until he resigned at the October meeting to take effect at the November 19, 1904 meeting.

The Ninth Pastor was Rev. W. B. Hicks, who was Moderator at the December 17, 1904 meeting. Resigning November 18, 1905. Called back January 20, 1906; Resigning August 18, 1906. Called back January 5, 1907 at a called meeting and served until January 18, 1908 when he resigned.

The next Pastor was Rev. J. T. Paul called back to the Church at a call meeting February 8, 1908 and he served until November 13, 1915 when he resigned. He and his wife were given letters at this time to join the Olive Church.

The next Pastor was Rev. G. C. Hutchinson called May 13, 1916. He served until March 12, 1921 when he resigned.

During Rev. J. T. Paul's second pastorate a new church was built being the second one built. The house was built in 1909 but was not dedicated until 1911. On Saturday September 9, 1911 the Church met to dedicate the church house. The sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. M. L. Wood, He read the 122nd and 123rd Psalms and prayer by Rev. J. T. Paul.

Then Dr. Wood preached from Psalms 122 first verse, " I was glad when they said unto me' Let us go into the house of the Lord'"The dedication prayer by Rev. B. F. Caudell, then the song, " Blest be the ties that bind", after which the benediction. Served dinner at the church. After dinner Rev. B. F. Caudell preached, after which the song, "My Savior First of All" and had a hand shake.

On March 12, 1921 we called the Rev. C. A. Foster as Pastor, who served until May 20, 1922 when he resigned. On May 20, 1922 the Church called Rev. O. L. Akers as Pastor who served until the November meeting. Then he missed December and January meetings and not being able to get there in winter on account of bad roads, through G. W. Petit he resigned on February 10, 1923. Rev. G. C. Hutchinson was called back to the Church on February 10, 1923, and served until February 16, 1924.

On April 19, 1924 the Church called Rev. W. S. Billups to the pastorate.

On Sunday morning June 29, 1924 the church house washed away down the creek nearly to the school house near Elmer Waugh's Being without a house we met in the school house on July 6th and until we got back in our new home. After Sunday school the Church was called to order by
