Struggling Herd hits the road

By ADAM POLSKY

The Marshall University’s softball team will look to snap its six game skid against Furman University this weekend in Greenville.

This past weekend, the Herd competed at the Bulls Invitational on South Florida University’s campus in Tampa.

Junior pitcher Asia Range won the 100-meter hurdles with a time of 14.13.

Senior sprinter and jumper Loren Dyer won the 400-meter hurdles with a time of 1:03.22.

Freshman Bryanna Hargrove placed second in the long jump on Saturday.

Last weekend, the Invitational was Hargrove’s first outdoor college meet.

But as far as everything goes, I’m really excited with my time,” Hargrove said. “I’m not expecting to make history.”

The Herd’s next challenge is to snap its cold streak against Furman University this weekend in Greenville.

This season is the first time the Herd has competed at the Raleigh Relays since 2003.

The Badgers pulled away from UNC down the stretch to reach the Elite Eight for the second straight year.

While I’m handing out congratulations: Big Blue Nation, you win.
