Biographical Notes:

Louise Bailey was a professor in the English Department at Marshall University. Her name is listed on a card in the collection as being Louise (Hagle or Slagle) Bailey, the daughter-in-law of G.A. Bailey, a lawyer near Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Scope and Content:

This is an artificial collection of materials collected by Louise Bailey. The collection includes a scanned copy of an 1859 will of John Branch and a financial ledger spanning the dates 1923-1937 belonging to G. A. Bailey. The material contained in the ledger is extensive, relating to cash received monthly, and covers approximately 200 pages. The will is only marginally legible given that it is a copy.

Processing Notes:

This collection was already processed at the time the finding aid was created. No folder names, content, or other information was changed.
