Biographical Notes:

Emma Childress was a Marshall College alumna of the class of 1895 and a teacher.

Scope and Content:

This collection consists of an eclectic mix of materials collected by Childers throughout her professional career. They include a 1904 letter from Principal Corbly regarding an institution not accepting Childress' teaching certificate, a pamphlet entitled "Flood Views of Huntington, W.Va." [1913], a 1930 Marshall commencement program, a newspaper clipping about the death of Knute Rockne, official programs for the National Education Association from 1911 and 1936, a 1928 Marshall College Directory, a program for the Huntington Women's Club's Freiburg Passion Play, and the envelope the collection was received in.

The collection was misspelled as "Emma Childers" in the accession record and on the folder. This error has been fixed in this finding aid.

Processing Notes:

This collection was already processed at the time the finding aid was created. No folder names, content, or other information was changed.
