Biographical Notes:

The Burlington Macedonia Church, also called the Macedonia Baptist Church, is located at Ohio's most southern point in Burlington, Ohio. Given the geographic nature of the church, the area saw a large number of runaway slaves and free African American people leading up to the Civil War. This church was founded between 1811 and 1813 and the congregation was predominantly African American.

Scope and Content:

This collection contains a copy of the church's minute book from 1884-1896, containing information about church and other affairs relevant to the African American community. Given that this is a copy, the degree of legibility can vary depending on the page.

Processing Notes:

This collection was already processed at the time the finding aid was created. No changes in folder content or name were made.
