Biographical Notes:

Due to the generic nature of the name and lack of provenance, no information could be determined with certainty for Harold C. Smith.

Scope and Content:

This collection consists of a 26 page typescript titled "A Historical Survey of Lexington During the Civil War". The paper includes no sections to assist in determining content, but there is a focus on slavery. A note on the folder states that the paper was possibly written for a class taught by Dr. Sam Clagg at the University of Kentucky.

Processing Notes:

This collection already processed at the time this finding aid was created. No folder names or content were changed.
