Biographical Notes:

Low Gap United Baptist Church was founded in 1898 in the Harts Creek District of Lincoln County, West Virginia, one of the few churches in the area.

Scope and Content:

This collection consists predominantly of copies of minute books for the Low Gap United Baptist Church from 1898-1944. Also included in this collection is a copy of "A Brief History of the Low Gap United Brethren Church" written by Brandon Kirk in 1993 and two photocopied photographs of the church and some church members. Because most of these materials are copies, legibility can be limited.

Processing Notes:

This collection was already processed at the time the finding aid was created. No changes were made to the folder titles or content.
