Biographical Notes:

Ina Crawford (January 13, 1889-February 22, 1970) married Okey Kline Hayslip (March 8, 1868-August 8, 1955) in June 1936. Hayslip was an accountant (CPA) in Huntington, a banker and businessman, and mayor of Guyandotte. Crawford worked at and assisted in running the Rainbow Garden, a restaurant and store in Huntington, WV.

Scope and Content:

The collection contains mixed printed and manuscript materials as well as a scrapbook. Correspondence primarily consists of letters from Okey Hayslip, Crawford's future husband. Other materials include personal and business papers such as greeting cards, menus, programs, clippings, and financial documents.

The scrapbook is a repurposed cash book with extensive amounts of clippings, correspondence, and ephemera pasted in. The clippings relate to local events, including deaths, social engagements, news, and miscellaneous subjects such as kitchen tips. The correspondence consists of postcards and empty envelopes. Ephemera includes personal and business cards, materials from the Rainbow Garden, Martha Washington Candies, and Eda E. Thomas Candy Companies, greeting cards, and a sketch of Crawford's future tombstone.
