Claudie Peyton (December 15, 1894-March 24, 1984), sometimes written as Claudie and Cloudia, lived in Cabell County prior to her choice to serve as a missionary for more than fifty years in Zambia. She was part of the Pilgrim Holiness Church Missionaries and Wesleyan Church Missionaries.

Scope and Content:

This collection consists primarily of correspondence sent from Claudie to family and church members in the United States between 1921 and 1979. Some early letters from the 1920s contain photographs of her time in Africa. Other materials include printed material such as her publication "Twenty Years in Africa", a Mount Union Sentinal Newsletter, a poster and letter about her book "Forty-Six Years in Africa", letters from her adopted children in Africa about her estate, negatives of her last visit to Huntington in 1963, unrelated birth announcements sent to family members, and envelopes.
