Biographical Information:

Mr. Paul Robert Cooley Senior and Mrs. Viola Green Cooley are natives of Greenbrier County, West Virginia; Mr. Cooley was from Lewisburg, West Virginia and Mrs. Cooley was from Ronceverte, West Virginia. Residing in the historical Maple Street district of Lewisburg, they had three children, Paul R. Cooley Junior, Maurice Cooley, and Janice Cooley. The family was very active in their church at Mount Tabor Baptist, where Paul served as a deacon and Viola held several leadership roles. Mr. Cooley was a recognized and longstanding Lewisburg and Greenbrier County community activist, served on the City Council of Lewisburg for decades, and was employed at the Greenbrier Resort for over 30 years. Mrs. Cooley, retired from the Federal Reformatory for Women (Alderson, WV), and also founded and facilitated the Greenbrier Valley Breast Cancer Support Group for many years. Maurice and Janice Cooley were both graduates of Marshall University and they wanted students to be able to research and see these pieces from such an important and memorable time in our nation's history.

Scope and Content:

This collection contains six newspapers from West Virginia, Virginia, and New York documenting historic events that occurred during the Civil Rights Movement, specifically during the March on Washington on August 29, 1963 and the events that occurred after the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. on April 4, 1968.
