Biographical Notes:

The Office of the Adjutant General was responsible for the records, orders, and correspondence of armies and militias. Major duties included recording, authenticating, and communicating to troops and individuals in the military all orders, instructions, and regulations issued by the Secretary of War. The letters and enclosures reproduced in this microcopy were received from officers and enlisted men of the Army, the Secretary of War, the President, officials of other Government departments, Members of Congress, Governors of States and Territories, private persons, and business firms.

Scope and Content:

These sixteen reels contain correspondence relating to military operations in the Departments of the Platte and Dakota against the Sioux tribes ("Sioux War Papers"), 1876-96. Letters are organized by date of receipt and include materials received between 1876 and 1896.

For additional information about these reels, search for Microfilm Publication Number 666 here:
