Larry Bruce Elected President

LARRY BRUCE, Huntington junior, is the new student body president. Bruce was elected to office Wednesday. His running mate David Frost, Huntington junior, is the new vice-president. Bruce and Frost ran against the team of Adkins and Jarrell. Elected to the presidency of the sophomore, junior and senior classes respectively were Larry Sonis, Doug Warner and Conrad Neeley.

David Frost, V-President Amendments Are Out

By SHERRY SAGE
News Editor

Larry Bruce, Huntington junior, is the newly elected president of the Student Body.

Running on the same ticket was David Frost, Huntington junior. Bruce and Frost polled a total of 686 votes over the team of Adkins and Jarrell who had 519 votes.

Conrad Neeley was elected to the presidency of the senior class.

The new senior senators are Ben Hale, Thomas Johnson, Carol Grace, Betty Theis, and Jim McQueen. Hale, receiving the highest number of votes will serve as vice president.

Doug Warner is the new president of the junior class.

elected to sophomore senatorial seats: Jane Clay, Keith Cottrill, Linda Lawrence, Bill Blenco and Lynda Clay. Miss Jane Clay had the highest total of votes, thus designating her as sophomore vice president.

The results of the Constitutional Amendments which were being voted on have been thrown out due to two reasons according to Caroline Massey, election coordinator. First, there was a half-hour delay Wednesday afternoon at which time students were unable to receive ballots containing the amendments. Secondly, one of the amendments was accidentally left off the ballot. Miss Massey said there may be another election in a few weeks.

A total of 1,127 students voted in Wednesday's election. There were 441 freshmen, 370 sophomores, 228 juniors and 88 seniors voting.

The election results were announced immediately following the Senate meeting Wednesday night prior to the mix.

Election activity was hectic Wednesday outside the polling place, the Student Union. Candidates jammed the sidewalks to catch prospective voters who were entering and leaving the Student Union.

One candidate complained that students, not wanting to talk about the election with the candidates, would avoid the walks where the candidates were situated.

Campaign signs had dotted the campus since Sunday at 3 p.m. when the signs were legal on campus. Most of the signs were for individuals on campus with Lowell Adkins and Randal Jarrell constructing signs together and David Frost and Larry Bruce doing likewise.

As of about noon Wednesday only about 200 students had voted in the elections. Voting machines were available—one for each of the four classes.

The voting machines were provided by Keith Arthur, clerk of the Cabell County Court.

There were at least two write in candidates and for those students who wished to write in a candidate's name, a special ballot was provided.

Outside, at least one candidate, Sam Samworth, Huntington junior, was busy telling his constituents how they were to go about writing his name.

All election posters on campus had to be down by 8 a.m. yesterday.

Bookstore Announces 'Pac' Sale

By ROGER JARVIS
Staff Reporter

If you have 33 cents and need a shave, the campus bookstore may have just what you've been looking for.

Percy Galloway, bookstore manager, announced that packages containing various toilet articles will go on sale in the bookstore and the Student Union next week.

Two packages will be offered, he said, one for men and another for women.

The men's package will include: a tube of Macleans Tooth Paste, a can of Tackle Shave Cream, a bottle of Alka-Seltzer, a container of Absorbine, Jr., a bottle of Old Spice Lime After Shave Lotion, a tube of Brylcreem, a 2-blade package of Gillette Super Stainless blades and a box of No-Doz.

Included in the women's package will be containers of: Pond's Dreamflower Talc, Pond's Angel Face Compact Make-Up, Pond's Angel Face Cream Make-Up, Pond's Fresh Start, Macleans Tooth Paste, Lustre Creme Shampoo, Confidet Sanitary Napkins, Deep Magic Moisture Cream and Alka-Seltzer.

This package, nationally advertised as the Campus-Pac, is being offered to students at this low price in order to acquaint students with the products, said Galloway.

"This is such a bargain," said Galloway, "that students are to be limited to one Pac per person."

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

The International Club will meet at 6 p.m. tomorrow in the Campus Christian Center. All interested people are welcome to attend.

Leadership Meet April 1-3 Slated For Jackson's Mill

By FRANCES CHIRICO
Feature Writer

The annual Marshall University leadership seminar is being planned for April 1-3 at Jackson's Mill, Weston, W. Va.

All organizations recognized by the Marshall student government are asked to send two representatives. Also all faculty members, cabinet members and senators are urged to attend.

This year's theme is centered around apathy, the tangible and intangible aspects. The program for the weekend will include speeches and discussions on this topic.

The weekend activities will begin Friday with registration from 4 to 5:30 p.m. The keynote address will be given at 7:30 p.m. by Dr. J. Stewart Allen, vice president of academic affairs. The evening's entertainment will be centered around a square dance.

Discussion groups will highlight Saturday's activities. The speaker for the evening session will be Lyman White, speaker of the house of the W. Va. legislature. The entertainment will be provided by a hootenanny.

The seminar will conclude on Sunday with a summation of the weekend activities by President Stewart H. Smith. Summations will also be given by several

This seminar will serve as a

The discussions will include the topic of student, faculty and administrative apathy. They will be led by two students and one faculty member.

"This seminar can be very beneficial and successful with the aid of the students and faculty," according to Miss Alexander. She also stated, "Last year's seminar proved quite successful and we hope to make this year's seminar even more of a success."

All organizations have been informed on the details of the weekend and are strongly urged to send their delegates and make the seminar a big success.

Barbe Speaker On Education

Dr. Walter Barbe, editor of "Highlights for Children," will speak on special education tomorrow in the Science Hall auditorium. Special education students and personnel will attend the meeting to be held at 2 p.m.

Prior to the afternoon meeting, Dr. Barbe will speak at the Hotel Frederick at 9:30 a.m. He will lecture the local chapter of the IRA on "The Gifted Child." At 11 a.m. he will speak on the TV reading seminars on the subject, "Individualized Reading."

Elections At End; Let It Start Here

Elections are over and with them all the glamour and excitement. Now is the time to get down to work and correct the problems that have beset Student Government in the past year.

The Student Government had a lot of problems, and many of them were bordering on the ridiculous, and should never have happened in the first place. And so now these problems fall to our new officers in Student Government.

I call them officers instead of leaders, because they have not had the opportunity to prove themselves to be leaders. A leader as defined by Webster's International Unabridged dictionary is: "A person that goes before to guide or show the way, or one who precedes or directs in some action, opinion, or movement." Our officers of Student Government have not shown these qualities, or at least have not exercised these essential qualities, for some time.

The situation of poor organization and poor leadership in student government has brought a growing number of Marshall students to question the need of student government at all.

When seeking opinions on student government, one gets such answers as: "What have they ever done," "It's worthless," and "It's a waste." This attitude has come to such a point that many students will openly state that they would like to see student government on this campus abolished.

What factors have brought about such a consensus by some students, and why are their numbers growing? To pin down the multitude of factors responsible would be an impossible task. Two main factors stand out from the others.

The first is a general wave of student apathy concerning the Student Government and its activities. This is partially due to the limitations of scope of our present system of student government. Many students never feel the affect of ANY student government programs, and are never able to become personally involved in it, and therefore could care less what it does do.

This reason for student apathy does not necessarily lie with the Student Government. It is due simply to the lack of funds available to the Student Government, and the facts that Student Government officials are students themselves, and have only so much time to give.

The second reason for this growing anti-Student Government feeling DOES lie with the Student Government. It is the simple fact that they have not been living up to their responsibilities as the servants of the students — in short, not doing their job.

When faced with this truth, and it is a truth, Student Government officials will say — "well, we have had financial problems," and "well, that was the responsibility of someone else." Well, passing the buck just won't work now, because the students have passed the point of tolerance and the school administration is getting there fast.

And so we would present a "modest proposal" to the new Student Government officials. Get the machinery of Student Government rolling and get it rolling fast or prepare to defend your government.

And also to the new Student Government, "The Parthenon" sincerely extends its best wishes for the job ahead.

No Ballots For Amendments

Sometime before 2 p.m. on election day, the Election Commission ran out of ballots for the constitutional amendments. An undetermined number of students were denied the right to vote on these amendments while election officials were out trying to dig up more. Last year the Student Court threw out several amendments and required a new election because of similar election irregularities. This is just another example of Student Government inefficiencies that students are getting tired of, and we would suggest that something be done about it.

Science Fair Competitors Vie For Honors April 1, 2

It's science fair time again and the twelfth annual Regional Science Fair will be held at Gullickson Hall on Friday and Saturday, April 1 and 2.

Approximately 280 junior and senior high school students will be competing for awards. An all-expense paid trip to the international Science Fair in Dallas, Texas will be awarded to a boy and a girl, in the senior division. The International Fair will be held May 3-7.

Students participating in the Regional Fair will be the winners in local science fairs which are now being held. A 20 county area including counties in West Virginia, Kentucky, and Ohio will be represented.

Exhibits in the senior division will cover the areas of biology, chemistry, earth sciences, physics, mathematics and engineering. Junior division exhibits will represent biological and physical sciences.

Judging of the exhibits will take place Friday afternoon and evening and awards will be presented Saturday afternoon at 1:30. The exhibits will be open to the public from 7-10 a.m. on Friday and on Saturday from 9 a.m.-3 p.m.

Cash awards will be given to first, second, and third place winners along with medals, ribbons, and certificates. Other prizes in certain categories will include a microscope, slide rule,

FALLOUT WORKSHOP

Samuel Stinson, associate professor of engineering, will conduct an updating workshop in fallout shelter analysis today and tomorrow in Charleston. The workshop, which is designed for engineers and architects who have already completed the course in fallout shelter analysis, will be conducted at the West Virginia State Department of Civil Defense and Mobilization, Charleston, W. Va. George E. Cort, engineer from Westinghouse, Inc., will conduct the workshop along with Professor Stinson.

a set of encyclopedias, and a 50 volume collection of paperbacks on topics of science.

Creative ability and scientific thought will be the major criteria in the judging of the exhibits. Thoroughness, skill, clarity, and dramatic value are the other qualities that the judges will be looking for in the entries.

Accompanying the two grand award winners on their trip to Dallas for the International Fair will be Dr. George Ward, professor of science and department head, and James P. Gillespie, assistant science professor. Dr. Ward is the director of this year's fair and Mr. Gillespie is the director-elect.

Also accompanying the winners will be their teacher or sponsor. The group will leave for Dallas on Monday, May 2 and return the following Saturday or Sunday.

Please don't zlupf Sprite. It makes plenty of noise all by itself.

Sprite, you recall, is the soft drink that's so tart and tingling, we just couldn't keep it quiet.

Flip its lid and it really flips. Bubbling, fizzing, gurgling, hissing and carrying on all over the place.

An almost excessively lively drink. Hence, to zlupf is to err.

What is zlupfing?

Zlupfing is to drinking what smacking one's lips is to eating.

It's the staccato buzz you make when draining the last few deliciously tangy drops of Sprite from the bottle with a straw.

Zzzzzlllupf!
It's completely uncalled for. Frowned upon in polite society. And not appreciated on campus either.

But. If zlupfing Sprite is absolutely essential to your enjoyment; if a good healthy zlupf is your idea of heaven, well...all right.

But have a heart. With a drink as noisy as Sprite, a little zlupf goes a long, long way.

SPRITE. SO TART AND TINGLING, WE JUST COULDN'T KEEP IT QUIET.

SPRITE IS A REGISTERED TRADE MARK

Marshall English Institute To Meet April 14 And 21

By FRANCES CHIRICO
Feature Writer

The sixth annual Marshall University English Institute will be held at 7:30 p.m. in Old Main Auditorium April 14 and April 21, according to Dr. Mervin A. Tyson, chairman of the English department.

This Institute consists of programs related to instructional information in the English language. Subjects include authors, areas of literature, problems of grammar, composition and reading. The Institute was established as a service for public school teachers and provides a channel communication with teachers in the same field.

Public and parochial school teachers on the secondary and elementary level from seven adjacent counties in Ohio and Kentucky are invited to attend the Institute.

The Marshall English department is in charge of the programs. Scheduled to speak on April 14 is Hollis Summers, professor of English at Ohio University. Prof. Summers, who is a poet, will discuss creative writing with an emphasis on poetry. The April 21 meeting will feature creative writing of prose and poems.

The planning committee is made up of Marshall faculty members and includes the following: Mary B. Byus, instructor of English; Ann S. Emery, instructor of English; Charles G. Houston, assistant professor of English; Louise Kirby, assistant professor of English; Bernice Phillips, assistant professor of English; Marilyn Putz, associate professor of English; Walter Sawaniewski, instructor of English; Eric P. Thorn, associate professor of English and William Wassum, instructor of English. Dr. Tyson is chairman of the committee.

A booklet entitled Proceedings of the Marshall University English Institute is published every year and contains abstracts and proceedings of the Institute. It is edited by the English department faculty and is sent to libraries over the United States and Canada. Over 1,500 copies are published and mailed to West Virginia High schools and libraries and to all those who attend the Institute.

Dr. Tyson says, "We have received an enthusiastic response to the Institute and over 150 to 200 teachers attend the meetings each year." The English department plans to continue the program since it has been met with such success and enthusiasm.

Mormons Topic For 'Encounter'

"Man's Search for Happiness", a film on the story of the Mormon Religion, will be presented Sunday at 7 p.m. in the Campus Christian Center as part of the Encounter Series.

Two missionaries, Elder Robert Chamberlain of Ogden, Utah and Elder Dean Rowley, a student at Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah, will be present to explain the film and the past, present and future of the Mormon Church. A short explanation of the Book of Mormon will also be given.

Part of a six man team that has been working in Huntington since the first of February, these two are fulfilling a belief of their church which asks that each male spend two years using his own time and money in missionary work. They are presently serving the East Central State Mission which includes Kentucky, Tennessee, and West Virginia.

Sowards Joins Education Staff

Harry E. Sowards has been appointed as assistant professor of education. He replaces Bernard Queen who has assumed the position of director-coordinator of the Elementary-Secondary Education Act, Title III.

A graduate of Huntington East High School, Mr. Sowards earned his B.A. and M.A. at Marshall. He has been teaching in Cabell County for the past 8 years during which time he has served as principal of Salt Rock Elementary and Junior High School, Cox's Landing Elementary School, and Martha Elementary School.

National History Honorary To Hold Initiations Tonight

By PAT GROSECK
Staff Reporter

Phi Alpha Theta, the international honor society in history, will initiate new members today at 6 p.m. in the cafeteria basement, announced Dr. Oliver D. Ross, assistant professor of history and faculty advisor to the organization.

Following the initiation will be a banquet with guest speaker Dr. Robert P. Wilkins, professor of history. His topic will be "Middle-Western Isolationism—A Re-examination." Dr. Wilkins has written many articles on this topic and next month will address the West Virginia Historical Society on a similar topic.

The Gamma Chi Chapter of Phi Alpha Theta was established at Marshall University in 1950. Its membership is composed of students and professors who have been elected to membership upon the basis of excellence in the study or writing of history, said Dr. Ross.

Dr. Ross commented that any student of history may become a member by maintaining a 3.0 overall average and a 3.5 average in History after taking 12 hours of History courses.

Phi Alpha Theta is the largest, in number of chapters, of the accredited honor societies holding membership in the Association of College Honor Societies. The total number of national initiates since organization is 38,000.

Dr. Ross said that Marshall University's chapter holds one initiation a year. This year 12 members are expected to be initiated.

Dr. Ross requests that all eligible initiates and all members of the society please contact him in the history department in the Science Building to make reservations to attend the initiation and banquet.

Wind Ensemble Tours Next Week

THESE FACULTY MEMBERS and guests will accompany the Wind Ensemble on a tour in northern West Virginia and Ohio next week. Seated is Mrs. Alvis Heger, guest harpist. Standing, Theodore Heger, oboist; Professor Howard Bell, director of bands; Professor Thomas O'Connell and Professor Eddie C. Bass.

Annual Speech Contest Starts; Educational Workshop Planned

The annual Speech 103 contest will begin with preliminary contests on April 26-27; and an educational broadcasting workshop will be held March 26.

All entries for the contest must be registered with the contest director, Dr. B. W. Hope, professor of speech, by April 20.

One contestant may be entered from each Speech 103 section. The contest is also open to students who took Speech 103 last semester.

Entrants are limited to a seven minute persuasive speech, concerning a significant issue or problem.

The rules, however, do not exclude the "speech to build attitudes" or "speech to convince," but suggest that if the speaker is trying to change minds he should confine himself to the 'need' or 'problem' issue.

This will reduce the speaker's burden of proof and give him a better chance to achieve the level of interest and to achieve the emotional impact that can be achieved by a speaker presenting a "speech to stimulate."

Speeches must be original. A complete list of sources must be compiled and submitted to the speaker's speech instructor.

Dr. Stephen Buell, professor of speech, and Walter C. Felty, associate professor of social studies, will participate in the educational broadcasting workshop.

The workshop, which will be held at West Virginia State College, is part of the program of the Educational Television Association of Southern West Virginia. Dr. Buell is acting chairman of the organization and Professor Felty is acting secretary-treasurer.

A session on higher education utilizing educational television will be directed by Professor Felty. Dr. Buell will deliver a progress report at the opening meeting.

The workshop will begin at 9:30 a.m. and will adjourn at 3:30 p.m. Any teacher or other person interested in attending should contact Professor Felty.

CAMPAIGN PUPPY

A small very friendly dog ran around campus all Wednesday afternoon with a Thomas Johnson campaign sign around its neck. Some people will do anything to get elected.

Apartments Under Construction; Ready For Use By September

A private women's apartment building is being constructed on Sixteenth Street across from the main entrance to campus, according to Kenneth Cohen, director of housing.

The three story building, which will be ready for use by September 1, will house 42 girls, with four students to an apartment.

The rooms are completely furnished four room apartments including a kitchen with an electric stove and refrigerator, bedroom, study-living room, and a combination shower-bathroom.

The common facilities include a laundry room and a parking space for each apartment. The rent fee will be $40 plus utilities per student each month. Purchase of meal books will not be required.

Jack Hill, Huntington junior, has been named resident manager by university officials, and he and his wife will live in the building.

The deadline for room applications is June 1. Applications can be obtained by writing to Breton Jones, 31 Simpson Drive, Huntington, or by calling 522-4413.

Stewart Nominated For Rights Post

Dr. Paul D. Stewart, professor and chairman of the political science department, has been nominated for the position of chairman for the Huntington Commission on Civil Rights.

Dr. Stewart was recommended following the tentative resignation of the Rev. Charles Smith at a meeting last Tuesday night.

Dr. Stewart explained that the commission was set up by the mayor to cope with problems arising between the people of Huntington and is especially concerned with racial problems. He also said that primary aim of the commission is to offer possible solutions to prevent these problems.

Symphony Contest Scheduled June 11

The 13th Annual State Contest will be held by the Charleston Symphony Orchestra on June 11, according to Dr. C. Lawrence Kingsbury, professor of music.

The amateur classification will be held at 1 p.m. in the Morris Harvey College Auditorium. Any Marshall student under 25 who has not performed professionally is eligible.

Ensemble To Tour

Marshall's wind ensemble will play the opening concert at a meeting of the music educators of West Virginia, at Ogelbay Park, Wheeling, next Thursday evening.

They will be accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Alvis Heger, guest harpist; and Theodore Heger, oboist. The trip will include concerts at various towns along the way. The first concert will be at Ravenswood, Wednesday at 8 p.m. From there, the group travels to Belpre, Ohio for a Thursday morning concert. A concert at St. Marys, W. Va. will be given Thursday afternoon. The main concert before the state's music educators will be given Thursday at 8:30 p.m. On Friday, the group will give concerts at Bridgeport, Ohio; Wheeling Junior High School, in Wheeling, W. Va.; and Warwood High School, Warwood, W. Va.

The Wind Ensemble is a group of 48 select musicians, who play music from all periods, with emphasis on the masterworks.

Howard L. Bell, director of bands, is a graduate of Central Missouri State. He received his Master of Music Education degree from Louisiana State University, and has done graduate study toward his doctorate degree at Indiana University. Professor Bell has held clinics in Missouri, Texas, Louisiana, Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio, and West Virginia.

PRACTICING THEIR gymnastic exercises are Sue Ellen Reynolds, Huntington sophomore, and Judy Coster, Huntington freshman. Although the number of students practicing gymnastics now is small, the group has plans for becoming larger. If more students show an interest in the program, more shows, such as the one presented at the Marshall-Toledo basketball game, will be possible. Mrs. Marion T. Barone, assistant instructor of physical education, is the organizer of the gymnasts.

Gymnast Group Needs Explaining; Future May Include More Shows

By KYLE NYE
Feature Writer

A small group of dedicated students interested in flying through the air with the greatest of ease, doing flips, and various other forms of tumbling are interested in becoming a larger and more dedicated group.

In case you haven't guessed what group this is, then go back in your memory to the Toledo-Marshall basketball game in which this group performed during intermission. That's right. It is the gymnasts that put on such a fine performance during that game.

The group is under sponsorship of Mrs. Marian T. Barone, assistant instructor of physical education. Mrs. Barone organized the group and instructs the members in their various forms of gymnastics.

The group consists of both men and women who are interested in forms of gymnastics such as: free floor exercises; exercises on the sidehorse; parallel and unparallel bars, and trampoline.

The gymnasts have added another aspect to the sports picture of Marshall, but in order to continue their particular contribution they will need more people interested in learning and performing these gymnastic skills.

"Gymnastics are one of the most beautiful and rewarding sports that one can participate in, and if there is a interest shown in them, then we will be able to put on more shows in the future," commented Mrs. Barone.

If you are interested in learning gymnastics and would like to fly through the air or do flips then please contact Mrs. Barone in the Women's Gym.

Recreational Society To Hold Annual Meeting At Marshall

For the first time in the history of the school the West Virginia Recreational Society's annual meeting will be held at Marshall, March 25 and 26.

The Recreational Society, composed of professors and lay people of recreation in the state, is sponsored by Marshall and the Huntington State Hospital.

Societies of recreation began in 1962 when a survey was made of the entire United States. Each state was required to report of its outdoor recreational resources at that time. Following the survey Congress established the Bureau of Outdoor Recreations which was assigned to the Department of Interior.

From the survey the bureau was able to project what facilities would be needed in 1975 and the year 2000.

The meeting being held at Marshall is for the development of the needs of facilities and centers in West Virginia.

Among the guest speakers at the two day discussion will be Lovell Greathouse, recreational coordinator for West Virginia in the Department of Commerce.

All students are invited to attend the meetings which will be held in Gullickson Hall.

Sig Ep Tourney Starts Tomorrow

The Seventh Annual Sigma Phi Epsilon Basketball Tournament will be held at Gullickson Hall tomorrow and Sunday.

Chapters from the University of Cincinnati, Davis and Elkins College, Bowling Green University, West Virginia Tech College, Virginia University, and East Tennessee State College are planning to participate. Marshall will have two entries, the regular chapter and its alumni chapter.

The teams are scheduled to arrive today. The tournament begins at 10 a.m. tomorrow, with the final slated for Sunday at 1 p.m. Trophies will be awarded to the top four teams following the final game.

Softball Intramurals Start Tomorrow

Softball intramurals will begin on March 28 if the weather permits. Rosters will be due this Monday.

The final roster will be due before the first game is played, with 18 men allotted to each roster, and 9 men to each team. Each team will be charged $1 for an entry which will be pooled for trophies at the end of the season.

The games will be five innings in length and the required underarm pitch will be enforced.

Kruthoffer Faces Rebuilding Task

By WOODY WILSON
Sports Co-Editor

New Coach Bob Kruthoffer continues to practice his Thundering Herd baseball team in preparation for its 1966 opening game Friday, April 1, at Marietta, Ohio, against Marietta College.

A vast rebuilding job faces Kruthoffer in hopes of bringing MU its first winning baseball season since 1959. His present 25 man squad has only five letterman from last year's 6-19 club and only two are returning regulars.

Juniors Dan Hartley, first baseman, and Don Rockhold, third baseman, are the two returning regulars. Juniors Mike Fullerton, Carl Nelson and Charles Yonker are the other letterman back.

At the present Kruthoffer's infield positions are still up for grabs. Hartley, who was fifth last year in batting with a .259 and second in fielding with .989, will probably open at first and Rockhold, who batted .198 last year but tied for the team leadership in homeruns with two, is the leader at third base.

Nelson and sophomore Bob Lemley have the inside shots at the second base and shortstop spots. Nelson, batted .205 last season the only player with a sure starting birth for the opener. Lemley is a former Huntington East High School slugger who should lend added power to the offense.

Heading the catching position is Yonker who hit weak as a soph. He batted only .164 and is being pushed for the spot this year by sophomore Ranan Dillard.

Right-handed Fullerton will head the pitching corps this season. He topped the Herd last year with three wins and five defeats while posting a team-leading ERA of .500.

Filling the other pitching slots will probably be sophomores Bill Blevins, Bob Hale and Tom Harris.

In the outfield, six players are in the running for the three births. They are juniors Bob Hall and Walt Garnett, sophomore Ken Zornes, and possibly Blevins, Fullerton and Yonkers, when not at their regular spots.

When talking to Kruthoffer on the baseball outlook, he remarked, "The biggest problems are pitching shortage and inadequate depth. If we can fill these two spots, we may have a good chance to break even."

Football Drills Begin Monday

Football spring training begins Monday leaving Coach Charlie Snyder with two big problems. In the 20-day training period he has to find a new defensive unit, and a new quarterback.

Out of the 11 men on this past season's defensive unit six were seniors. They were defensive backs Gary Marvin, Ray Henderson and George Kosanovich, line backer Tom Good, middle guard Clyde Owens, and tackle Dave Aritt. Good, a two-time All-MAC performer, has signed with the San Diego Chargers of the American Football League.

To add to the problem, both quarterbacks, Howie Miller, and Alex Sansosti are graduating.

Coach Snyder said that the emphasis this training session will be on next year's sophomores in an effort to pick the men who will have to fill the holes next year. He also said that it will be try-out time for new techniques and for trying people in different positions.

Thinclads Compete In Meet Tomorrow

The Thundering Herd track team will compete in the Dennison, Ohio relays tomorrow. It will be the final indoor meet of the season for coach Michael Josephs' thinclads.

Among those who are expected to take part for MU are Mickey Jackson, Arthur Miller, Earl Jackson, Gary Prater, Steve Mays, Larry Parker, Richard Dillon, Orville Stepp, Jim Odum, Paris Coleman, Charles Rine and Bob Bloom.

Pianists Here March 28

Ferrante and Teicher, the famed piano duo who made their first claim to fame with "Theme from the Apartment" and then "Exodus," will appear next Monday, March 28 on the Student Artists Series. This will be their second appearance in Huntington.

The concert will be held at 8:30 p.m. in the Keith-Albee Theatre, and student tickets will be distributed this Monday and Tuesday 8 a.m.—3 p.m. in the Rear Hall of Old Main. Students must present activity cards in order to get the tickets.

Ferrante and Teicher have been the cause of more "Standing Room Only" signs in front of concert halls and theaters than almost any other attraction on the touring circuit, and have been for the past six years.

Their piano techniques have compiled a sales total of over nine million single discs and three million long playing albums.

On occasion, the pianists have been called "The Theme Team", and they have arranged and recorded the themes from more Hollywood pictures than any other group of instrumentalists.

They have been active on many other fronts of the entertainment scene, aside from recordings.

They have played to packed rooms in the key cities on the night club circuit, and made numerable TV appearances.

They are this generation's most exciting instrumental team. They play the songs of Gershwin, Bernstein, Rodgers, interspersed with classical works and hit parade numbers, in their own unique style.

West Hall Will Enter 'Sing'

West Hall will join Prichard Hall as the only two non-greek organizations participating in this year's Mother's Day Sing.

This is the first year that these dorms have planned to participate in the "sing". "West Hall plans to enter the competition because we feel that with all the work involved it wouldn't be fair to the girls to do otherwise," stated Jackie Gleason, Chesapeake senior and president of the dorm.

The girls plan to sing "All the Things You Are" by Jerome Kern and Oscar Hammerstein II. Out of the 85 girls who signed up only 60 are expected to participate. Sandy Davis, Eastbank senior, will direct the group.

Dynamic Duo

FAMED PIANISTS Ferrante and Teicher will make their second appearance in Huntington next Monday night when they will perform on the Student's Artists Series. In addition to their many hit records, the team has also played in many of the top night clubs across the nation, and has recorded more movie themes than any other instrumental groups.

Launch an Exciting Career as an

Intelligence Specialist

Comprehensive Career Development Plan for College Graduates Helps You Grow Swiftly into Positions of Responsibility and Exceptional Challenge.

The Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) is a unique, independent organization serving diverse intelligence requirements of the Department of Defense. We are active in many areas directly or indirectly related to national security... analyzing not only purely military conditions, trends and forces, but also pertinent economic, social, cultural, physical, geographic and scientific factors.

Each year we seek out qualified individuals for DIA's entry level Career Development Plan. This is a program designed both to equip you for a responsible and challenging permanent career position, and enable you to complete most or all requirements for an advanced degree.

1966 DIA College Program for BA/BS, MA/MS Graduates in

Area Studies	Geology
China	Library Science
Far East	Mathematics (majors, minors)
Latin America	Meteorology
Southeast Asia	Nuclear Physics
USSR	Pedology
Chemistry	Photogrammetry
Civil Engineering	Photo-Interpretation
Computer Science	Physics
Economics	Public Health
Electronic Engineering	Structural Engineering
Forestry	Transportation
Geography	Urban Planning

As is evident from the list above, there are career opportunities in many fields and disciplines at DIA. Your salary at entry into the Career Development Plan varies, dependent upon your degree level and grades, but all participants follow essentially the same program.

THREE-MONTH ORIENTATION COURSE

All college graduate recruits attend a three-month Intelligence Orientation Course. Its objectives are to orient the trainee to the Department of Defense generally and the Defense Intelligence Agency specifically, with particular emphasis on the role of civilian analysts in the military intelligence community.

Following completion of this course, trainees are assigned to substantive areas of work related to their disciplines. At the beginning of the second year, you will be selected for a specific assignment leading to a position as permanent member of the work force.

OPPORTUNITY FOR ADVANCED STUDY

All trainees are eligible for educational programs leading to advanced degrees. These opportunities—plus many additional training opportunities—may be provided either during or after normal working hours (or both).

You will find that the advantages of a career at DIA are many and varied, including the liberal fringe benefits associated with Federal employment. Our locations (the Pentagon and nearby Arlington, Va.) afford your choice of city, suburban or country living... and a wealth of recreational, cultural, historical and educational attractions are within a few minutes' drive.

And by no means least, you will derive much satisfaction from contributing personally to the achievement of vital national objectives.

VISIT YOUR PLACEMENT OFFICE NOW

... for further information about DIA career opportunities. You may write DIA headquarters for additional literature. Note: All applicants must be U.S. citizens (preferably by birth), subject to thorough background inquiry and physical examination.
