Weekend Set For Parents

Registration begins May 6 at noon in front of the Student Union for the 11th annual Parent's Weekend.

The registration will continue until 5 p.m. May 7. Activities on May 7 include a Marshall University Symphonic Band concert at 1 p.m. on Northcott lawn conducted by Howard L. Bell, assistant music professor, and Thomas S. O'Connell, associate music professor. The concert will include selections from the "Sound of Music."

At 2 p.m. the ROTC Review will be held on the Intramural Field and at 4 p.m. the President's Reception will be held at the Student Union.

On May 8, at 11 a.m., an inter-denominational church service will be conducted at the Campus Christian Center. At 2 p.m. the annual Mother's Day Sing will take place along with presentation of ODK awards.

There will be open house following the "sing" by dorms, sororities and fraternities.

One of the highlights of this year's Parent's Weekend will be a concert at 8:15 p.m. May 6-7 in Old Main Auditorium by the Marshall University Community Orchestra. The orchestra will be under the direction of Alfred P. Lanegger, associate music professor.

Huntington area parents and students are urged to attend the May 6 concert, leaving May 7 open for parents who have further to travel. Tickets are $1.50 and may be purchased at the door.

'Panty Raid' Attempted

There was an attempted "panty raid" Wednesday night at Prichard and West Halls.

The raiders, estimated to number around 200, tried to gain admission to Prichard and West around 10:30 p.m., failed, milled around, and finally police, college officials, and rain dispersed them.

Dr. John Shay, dean of student affairs was told that a group of male students from South Hall, having left the Wednesday night mix at the Student Union, formed into a band of "raiders" intent on invading West Hall. They failed.

Senior's Banquet Set For May 10

Invitations to all Marshall seniors are now in the mail to attend this year's Senior Banquet, which will take place May 10 in the basement of the Main Dining Hall at 6:30 p.m.

David Foard, Jr., president of the alumni association will be the speaker. Harry M. Sands, director of alumni affairs, will also address the seniors.

Mr. Sands stressed that this is not a solicitation. "This is a dinner at which the alumni association pays tribute to the graduating seniors," he said.

Seniors are asked to return their reservations to the Alumni Office immediately. There will be no charge for the informal dinner and married seniors are invited to bring their spouse.

'We'll Sing In Sunshine--We'll Laugh In Rain'

Parthenon Checks For On-Campus Housing Discrimination, Finds None

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The Parthenon recently conducted routine investigation of the possibility of segregation in on-campus housing. The following story, written by Katura Carey, staff reporter, and Bob Rogers, news editor, tells about the results of the investigation.)

Since September, 1965, school policy has stated, "Room assignments are made in order of application regardless of race, creed, or color."

Housing Director Ken H. Cohen, and the housemothers of the three women's dorms, confirmed that this policy is working.

There have been three integrated rooms in Laidley Hall since the beginning of the academic school year. Mrs. Orva W. Speicher, resident director of Laidley Hall, commented, "Generally the situation has been very satisfactory here. We've had no problems."

There are two rooms in Laidley Hall that are occupied by Negroes. "We have Negro girls living together, but they want it that way," said Mrs. Speicher.

In Prichard Hall there were three integrated rooms at the beginning of the academic year; now there is one.

Mrs. Beatrice Terry, resident director of Prichard, said, "I know everything is perfectly agreeable. I have one integrated room and I think it's working out fine. It depends entirely upon the individual and the co-operation that one gives."

West Hall has one integrated room. Mrs. Vanna Hensley, West

Hall resident director, said that there have been no problems. "Everything said to me by the residents has been favorable. We are having no trouble and the girls get along fine."

When asked if she would expect favorable conditions to continue were more Negroes placed in the dorm, Mrs. Hensley said, "It depends on the individual — absolutely, because everyone can get along if they want to."

There are four Negro students living in South Hall. Two of them, David Henderson, Logan freshman, and Walt Garnett, Beckley junior, are with white roommates, and two, David Byrd, Weirton freshman, and Bob Bloom, Weirton senior, are rooming together.

Byrd and Bloom said that they chose to room together and were not asked to do so. Bloom said that as far as he knew the room assignments were made without regard to race.

He also said that it seems to have worked out well, and that there are no more problems between mixed roommates than when both are white or both are Negro.

He said, "Roommates sometimes have their little problems, but they don't seem to be race oriented."

Negro residents of Hodges Hall also said that there was no discrimination and that all room assignments were made without regard to race.

Mr. Cohen said that there have been five freshmen rooms integrated, and out of these, three problems arose. Two rooms remained integrated. In the room where no suitable solution could be found, the "would-be occupants" found rooms in unapproved housing.

In the latter situation, the university policy was also applied. It states: "Should you reject an assignment your name will be placed at the end of the waiting list for future assignment if space is available."

"It isn't just theory," Mr. Cohen said. "It is a workable policy and we don't plan to deviate from it in the future in any way, shape or form as far as the dorms are concerned. If there is a change, it would be to strengthen the policy."

An Editorial

MU Policy Working; Administration Lauded

The Parthenon recently ran a routine investigation into the possibility of discrimination in on-campus housing.

Reporters interviewed resident directors of dorms, administration officials, and students to find out if Negroes and whites were being segregated with regard to dorm room assignments.

The reporters found that there is not discrimination in on-campus housing. The Parthenon commends the administration on its non-discriminatory policy. This is a policy of a progressive university.

Mandamus Writ Appeal To Go To Dr. Smith

By BOB ROGERS
News Editor

Tuesday afternoon, the Student Court voted 5 to 2 to issue a writ of mandamus to the Election Committee ordering it to conduct an election for proposed amendments to the Student Government Constitution.

The case dates back to the general elections in March when, due to an Election Commission error, some students did not have the opportunity to vote on several proposed amendments to the constitution.

Sonis Takes Action

Caroline Massey, then election coordinator, declared the constitutional election invalid. Miss Massey planned to hold new elections, but was unable to before she was replaced as coordinator by Ann Debussey.

No action was taken since that time until Sen. Larry Sonis petitioned the Student Court to issue a writ of mandamus to the Election Committee requiring them to hold special elections this spring to allow students to vote on the amendments.

At the outset of the trial, Student Prosecutor Bill Evans said that he agreed with Sonis that the elections should be held. The court decided the case after deliberating for half an hour.

Appeal Is Planned

Chief Justice Mike Smith said Wednesday that he would appeal the case to President Smith in an effort to have the decision reversed. Chief Justice Smith cast one of the two dissenting votes.

Commenting on the case, Sen. Sonis said that the court had upheld his contention that constitutional amendments do not have to be ratified in conjunction with other elections.

Sen. Sonis said that if Chief Justice Smith's appeal is rejected by President Smith, the elections would have to be held within the next two weeks. The writ of mandamus stated that the elections were to be held as soon as was practicable.

927 To Graduate At Commencement

A record number of students will graduate at the May 29 Commencement, reported Registrar Luther E. Bledsoe.

About 927 students tentatively are scheduled to receive diplomas. The previous record was 888 students at the 1965 Commencement.

The new record includes 454 students completing their graduation requirements this semester, and 473 who completed their work last summer or at the end of the fall semester.

Kentucky Gov. Edward Breathitt will be the Commencement speaker. The ceremonies are to be held on the lawn in front of the Student Union.

SENIOR CLASSES

Graduating seniors must report to classes through noon, May 20, and grades may be lowered until that hour, according to Dr. Robert B. Hayes, dean of Teachers College. All graduating seniors are expected to observe this date. Although senior grades are due May 13, they may be changed up until noon, May 20.

Dr. Stewart's Book Reprinted; To Be Used As Asian Text

Dr. Paul Stewart, professor of political science and chairman of the Political Science Department is one of the three authors of the book "Introduction to Political Science" that is being reprinted by Affiliated East-West Press Private Ltd.

According to Dr. Stewart, "The East-West editions are books that are published under the Joint Indo-American Standard Works Program for India. The titles are approved by the Ministry of Education of the Government of India and the United States Information Agency before a contract is approved."

This means that the reprinted editions will be for sale only in India and other parts of Asia.

When asked about his co-authors, Dr. Stewart said, "Dr. Conley H. Dillon is now at the University of Maryland and Dr. Carl Leiden is at the University of Texas although all three of the authors were at Marshall when the book was written." He went on to say that they were given the contract for the book by Van Nostrand Co. Inc. in 1955. They completed the writing in 1957 and the book was published in 1958.

"Introduction to Political Science," which sells for $4.85 in the United States, will sell for $1.70 in Asia. It will be used as a textbook, as it has been at Marshall since its publication in 1958.

Frosh Honoraries To Hold Banquet

Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Eta Sigma, freshmen scholastic honoraries, will have their annual banquet Sunday at 6 p.m. at the Holiday Inn.

Phi Eta Sigma will have initiation ceremonies before the dinner. Dr. John R. Warren, dean of graduate school, and Dr. N. Bayard Green, professor of zoology, will be initiated as honorary members.

Alpha Lambda Delta members are requested to meet in the Science Hall parking lot at 5:15 p.m.

Sophomore, junior, senior, and alumnae Alpha Lambda Delta members who want to attend the banquet should contact Nancy Stevens in West Hall 218.

Educators Attend Conference

Eleven representatives from the Special Education Department attended a five-day conference of the Council for Exceptional Children in Toronto, Canada.

History Faculty Plans To Attend Annual Convention

Members of the History Department will be traveling to Cincinnati, Ohio, this weekend to attend the annual meeting of the Organization of American Historians.

The members of the department will leave tomorrow and will attend meetings with college and university history instructors and historians from all over the United States until Saturday.

Dr. Herschel Heath, chairman of the History Department, said that the meeting will emphasize American History. He said that the organization was formerly known as the Mississippi Valley Historical Association.

Last year the meeting was held in Oklahoma City, Okla., with over 1000 attending. Dr. Heath commented that graduate students should attend to take advantage of the opportunity to meet historians from all over the country.

COMMITTEE MEETING

The Physical Science Study Committee will hold its semi-annual meeting tomorrow for all physics teachers of the tri-state area in the Science Hall Auditorium.

Officers Elected By Newman Club

The new officers of the Newman Club were elected recently.

The officers are: Dianna Muth, Huntington sophomore, president; Larry Lapelle, Huntington sophomore, vice-president; Mary Jane Ney, Huntington freshman, treasurer; Mary J. Kaib, Huntington sophomore, recording secretary, and Miss Marie Bicknell, Huntington junior, corresponding secretary.

The new officers will be installed during a ceremony at Saint Joseph's Catholic Church on May 4 at 2:15 p.m.

THE VON TRAPP FAMILY as they looked in 1942 when they appeared on an Artists Series program. Holding the baby is Maria; the Baron Georg sits on the steps just below her. Shown in their homeland Austria, the Von Trapps and their lives are portrayed in "The Sound Of Music."

Von Trapps Here - 1942

"The Sound of Music" arrived in Huntington for the first time on Dec. 7, 1942, when the Von Trapp Family Singers sang for a Marshall Artists Series.

Now "The Sound of Music," which was given the Academy Award for the best picture of the year, is currently playing at a local theater.

Christian Center Receives $1,000

Deciding how to spend $1,000 will not be a difficult task for the Campus Christian Center.

The $1,000 which Mr. Arbury Ford willed to the Center will be used at the discretion of the District Board of Directors. However, Rev. William R. Villers, chairman of the staff, said he expects the money will be applied to the $90,000 building fund or to the $16-18,000 air-conditioning bill.

According to Rev. Mr. Villers, the building was originally constructed for air-conditioning but upon completion quick sand was discovered which meant that the money set aside for the air-conditioning had to be applied toward support for the building.

Rev. Villers stated that it is hoped the air-cooling unit will be installed before this summer or next summer at the latest.

Marshall Library Closed Tomorrow

The library will be closed all day tomorrow due to the installation of a new electrical power source.

This source will be used temporarily until the new system in the enlarged library is ready.

Although the library will be closed, students will be able to return their books through the wooden slot at the left side of the front entrance.

Mr. Harold Apel, head librarian, said that he regreted any inconvenience the installation may cause, but "in order to have progress, there are always some operating difficulties."

SUMMIT ACTIVITIES

Tomorrow night the Summit will present Peter Fryatt, Miami, Fla., graduate student, reading the poetry of e.e. cummings, Laurence Ferlinghetti, and a few of his own works. Tonight Caroline Daniels, former Marshall student, will sing popular and semi-classical music.

Spring Drive Brings $4,000

Over $4,000 was raised by the Alumni Association's Spring Telephone Drive conducted last week at the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co.

The Alumni Association had 40 persons making telephone calls to local alumni. Prizes were given to the persons raising the greatest amount of money and making the most calls resulting in donations. Dr. Herbert Proctor and Dr. Ray Hagley won prizes for raising the most money ($550.00). Basil Brangham of the Holswade chapter won a prize for making the most calls resulting in donations (21). John Porterfield, Barboursville chapter, won a prize for raising $225. Other prizes went to Mrs. Pat Thacker of the South Side chapter, and Olen Jones, assistant director of admissions.

HONORS' PROGRAM FILM

Films from the Korean Embassy in Washington, D.C., will be shown at the Honors House at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday. Interested students and faculty are invited to all the films, which depict the life and culture of Korea.

Allen Devises Method To Better Utilize Classroom Space

By VICTORIA HENSLEY
Teachers College Journalist

Visitors to the Registrar's Office may be somewhat perplexed by a huge board that covers most of one wall. It is composed of round tags attached to little squares. This diagram board serves an important purpose in the scheduling of classes for next fall.

According to Dr. J. Stewart Allen, vice president of academic affairs, "The board is a graphic representation of all the classes at Marshall University that meet in general purpose classrooms or laboratories."

Each classroom is represented by one square for each hour of every day. The tags represent the classes which will meet in these classrooms. "The board was constructed so that an overall view of available classroom space could be taken," Dr. Allen explained.

Due to increased enrollment, it will be necessary to make use of every available classroom. The board will provide the most convenient means of eliminating errors in scheduling.

School Administration Trainees To Meet State, County Officials

Eighteen graduate students participating in a field experience in school administration will meet tomorrow from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. for a seminar with state and county school officials.

Dr. Charles S. Runyon, professor of education, explained that the field experience course, education 617-618, is an elective for graduate students seeking school administrative positions.

According to Dr. Runyon, the advantages of participating in such a program include gaining experience while under the supervision of a principal, better relations with public school officials and increased opportunity for early administrative positions.

Participants in the field experiment are Garland Barnhard, Gerald Reynolds, Jane Rollins, Eleanor Sankowski, Thelma Sippe and Virginia Wylie, Charleston; Kay Lee, Kenneth Rucker and Norma Taylor, Nitro, and Maudine Carney and Arnold Chapman, St. Albans.

Also Wilhemina Ashworth, Gaulty Bridge; Dallas Kelley, Branchland; Robert Kittle, Belle; Macel Miller, Logan; Robert Powell, Bidwell; Paul Ramsey, Anstead, and James Thompson, Huntington.

Freshman Society Selects Officers

Ann Hagan, Huntington freshman, has been elected president of Alpha Lambda Delta, freshmen women's scholastic honorary.

Other new officers are: Linda Morris, vice president; Mary Creamer, recording secretary; Patti Arrowood, corresponding secretary; Judy Tweel, editor, and Esta Fraley, historian, all Huntington freshmen. Karen Adkins, Wayne freshman, is treasurer.

Margaret Chambers, Huntington sophomore and former president of the club, will serve as junior adviser.

Dr. Louise Price Hoy, assistant professor of classical languages, was re-elected club adviser.

Dean Warns Of Fire Possibility

By NANCY SMITHSON
Staff Reporter

Stricter observance of fire regulations in Greek houses has been urged by John E. Shay Jr., dean of student affairs.

In a letter sent to each fraternity and sorority house last Thursday, Dean Shay enclosed a newspaper clipping concerning a recent fire at the University of Cincinnati which destroyed the third floor of the Sigma Chi fraternity house there. The fire was apparently caused by an overloaded extension cord.

A note was sent to each organization which read, "This is being sent to all fraternity and sorority houses to show that the possibility of fire is not remote. Fire safety regulations have a purpose. For your safety and our peace of mind, please observe them."

Dean Shay said that the problem of Greek houses falling short of safety regulations has existed at Marshall for several years. "The first problem I confronted as dean of men was a complaint from the fire marshall concerning safety regulations in fraternity houses," he commented.

The administration does recognize that fraternities and sororities are doing their best to comply with the regulations, he added.

"The homes presently occupied by most Greek organizations were simply not designed to fit safety regulations for mass living and the cost of additions to meet these specifications is too great. Kappa Alpha and Tau Kappa Epsilon, two fraternities who recently renovated their houses, spent substantial amounts," he explained.

According to Dean Shay, the problem of fire regulations for housing does not belong exclusively to fraternities and sororities.

Due to proposed construction on Laidley, Hodges and South Halls this year, there will be fewer dormitory rooms available. Dean Shay said the administration had hoped to solve this housing problem by renting University owned houses on Fifth Avenue.

"None of the houses on Fifth Avenue presently owned by the University could pass safety standards without extensive renovation," he said. "Since the cost of this work would exceed the rent for the houses they can not be used."

Council Examines Rules On Drinking

Marshall University's drinking policy was reviewed last Monday by the Inter-Fraternity Council at the request of James R. Vander Lind, associate dean of students.

Charles Evans, Huntington senior and president of the IFC, read a letter to the organization from Dean Vander Lind requesting opinions and suggestions on the University's present drinking policy.

John E. Shay, dean of student affairs, was present at the meeting and clarified the present policy. Dean Shay said, "The present drinking policy is that liquor cannot be introduced into anywhere students reside."

Gregg Terry, Huntington freshman, said the rule was vague. He remarked that according to the present rule, parents of students living at home would not be permitted to have alcoholic beverages in the house.

The IFC voted unanimously against the present drinking policy. Previously they had voted to consider fraternity houses as off-campus housing to permit the use of alcoholic beverages at social functions held at the fraternity houses.

Several changes were suggested to submit to Dean Vander Lind, such as permitting drinking on weekends in the fraternity houses and permitting drinking anytime by petition to the administration.

Spring Weekend was also discussed. President Evans said, "Next year there will be a Spring Weekend. If the Student Government doesn't sponsor it, the Inter-Fraternity Council will."

Evans said that at present the idea is in the planning stage but definite plans will be made.

Old South Rises Today

Dr. and Mrs. Stewart H. Smith will feast on Southern fried chicken and apple cider today as honored guests of Kappa Alpha fraternity at its 39th annual celebration of Old South Weekend.

President Smith will give the opening address at the ceremony which begins at 3 p.m. on the intramural field and highlights the KA's social year.

Crowning of the KA Rose by Norby Ore, Huntington junior, will officially open the weekend.

This year's Rose is Marla Tout, Wellsburg junior, who succeeds Mrs. Patsy Michael Gainer, 1965 graduate of Marshall.

Presided over by the brothers of Beta Upsilon Chapter of KA's, the program consists of an opening ceremony, sorority games, and a buffet at the KA house, 1434 Fifth Ave., for fraternity brothers and their dates.

After the buffet, an informal dance will be held at the Hotel Prichard from 8-12 pm. Entertainment will be provided by "The Magnificent 7".

Scheduled for Saturday, and highlighting the weekend, is the Old South Ball featuring Larry Navy's Band at Riverside.

A Sunday afternoon picnic at Lake Vesuvius will conclude the celebration.

The sorority that wins the most points in the games will be awarded a trophy by Miss Tout recognizing the sorority women as true "Southern Belles."

The sorority winning the games will judge KA members for the best beard.

Construction Creates Problems

"Progress never comes easy," was the comment of Librarian Harold W. Apel when asked about problems created by the construction work on the James E. Morrow Library addition.

Progress always brings problems, he said, and adjustments must be made by the library staff and students until the work is completed.

The addition should be completed by September, 1967. "There will be no major service discontinued for any length of time, but operations may have to be modified from time to time," he added.

He said some inconvenience is necessary, however. For example, he cited use of only one entrance which can only be reached by one side walk from Third Avenue to the north porch.

Only one door will be available for at least six or eight months.

A book return slot for use when the library is closed has been placed at the north entrance and the shrubs surrounding the library have been relocated near other campus buildings.

Architects Dean and Dean have made special contract provisions for dust-proof barriers to be erected to protect the books when the contractors begin to penetrate the library walls, according to Mr. Apel.

It is hoped that construction noises can be held to a minimum since the library is air-conditioned and all windows will be closed.

When the addition is completed there will be space for 700-800 students and 350,000 volumes.

The addition will contain no classrooms since the Journalism Department will be moved to the new classroom building now under construction. In all probability, Apel said, the basement will be remodeled to provide additional book storage space.

A new feature in the library will be the "Collegiate Library." Mr. Apel explained that the entire second floor facility will consist of an open shelf collection of 50,000 volumes and will provide seating for about 400 readers.

Nothing can take the press out of Lee-Prēst slacks

Not that it's on his mind right now. And it needn't be. Those Lee-Prest Leesures can't help but stay crisp and neat. No matter what you put them through. They have a new permanent press. So the crease stays in. The wrinkles stay out. Permanently. And that's without ironing. No touch-ups, either. They're made from Lee's special blend of 50% polyester and 50% combed cotton. For wash and wear . . . with conviction.

Incidentally, that permanent press is the only change we've made in Leesures. They still have that lean, honest look . . . smart, tailored fit. New Lee-Prest Leesures. Test their permanent press yourself. It isn't necessary, but it's a great way to spend an evening. From $6.00 to $8.00.

22 Gridders Sign MU Grant-In-Aids

Twenty-two gridders have signed grant-in-aids to play freshman football for Marshall next fall. The players have been signing periodically since the end of football season.

These grants-in-aids will become final May 20. After that date a player cannot sign with another school.

Those who have signed are: Ronald Keith Adkins (6-2, 196), a tackle from Barboursville; Calvin Ball (6-0, 185), a fullback from Ripley; Larry Carter (6-2, 184), a right end from Dunbar; Roger Colebank (6-2, 190), a defensive end from Romney; Michael Crkvenac (5-11, 180), a quarterback from Tiltonsville, Ohio.

Richard Dardinger (6-0, 220), a fullback and tackle from Centerburg, Ohio; Robert Dardinger (6-0, 212), a halfback from Centerburg, Ohio; Tim Deeds (6-0, 175), a quarterback from Coal Grove, Ohio; David Ferguson (5-10, 215), a guard from Kenova; John Flowers (6-0, 200), a fullback from Pt. Pleasant.

Gregory Gikas (6-3, 225), a linebacker and center from Wheeling; Gary Groves (6-0, 185), a fullback from Summersville; Gilbert Koury (5-11, 170), a halfback from Wheeling; David Lucas (6-1, 230), a guard from Ceredo.

Terry Richards (6-2, 185), a halfback from Grantsville; George Riggs (6-1, 182), a halfback from Toronto, Ohio; John Shelleroff (5-11, 160), a tailback and safety from Louisa, Ky.

James Shook (6-0, 185), a halfback from Moundsville; Danny Slusher (5-10, 177), a halfback from Middletown, Ohio; James Torrence (6-0, 180), a transfer junior college quarterback from Virginia; Richard Weston (6-2, 195), an end from Weirton, and Phil Wilks (6-2, 170), a quarterback from Chesapeake, Ohio.

Snyder Takes Look At Prospects For Fall Opener

The 20-day spring football practice, which ended last week in an intra-squad game, was "the best ever from the standpoint of teaching our young players," Head Coach Charley Snyder said Monday.

One of the problems solved by spring drills was tackling. The entire team improved, Snyder said.

"Defensively, we feel we still have a depth problem in the interior line," the coach said. However, films of the practice sessions will help the coaching staff make adjustments prior to the opening football game this fall.

How does the Thundering Herd stack up in the Mid-American Conference race this fall? Coach Snyder said the conference will be much more evenly divided than ever before.

"Almost any team will be able to beat any other Mid-American Conference team on any given Saturday next fall," he said. "I think Ohio University will come back strong. Miami, Bowling Green and Kent are the three clubs that have to be beaten."

"Potentially, we have a real fine football team and we hope to be in the thick of things. A lot will depend on how our young players perform."

Between five and seven freshmen - turned - sophomores will probably play on a regular basis when the Thundering Herd meets Morehead's Eagles in the opening game at Morehead.

In the all-important quarterback position, the coach is breathing a little easier based on some performances during spring training. "We feel we've made a lot of progress. Jim Gilbert, New Martinsville sophomore, shows a lot of promise. He's a good scrambler and a good passer. His biggest problem is lack of experience. Lou Henry and Bob Hale looked real good at times. Who will we use? That will depend on pre-season drill next fall."

By that time Jim Torrence, a junior college transfer student from Virginia, who's highly regarded as a quarterback, will have a chance to show his mettle.

Who's going to replace Tommy

Good, all-conference linebacker lost via the graduation route? Tom McLaughlin, shifted to line-backer, shows a lot of potential. In addition, John Kinney will be back this fall. Kinney missed most of the spring drills because of a hand injury. Then there'll be Paul Dotson and veteran Dennis Parker, who played in this position last fall.

Parris Coleman, offensive end and pass receiver, was termed the most improved player on the team during spring practice. He ran his patterns much better and showed much more confidence. In addition, veteran pass-catchers Ken Simpson and John DeMarco will be ready for fall duty in this department.

Defensively, the problem remains one of lack of experience. However, the punting game should be much improved.

The offensive backfield will boast the speedy Mickey Jackson and the hard-running Andy Socha. Ready to give them breathers will be Charlie Jones, a sophomore, and Jim Mandeville, who looked good filling in for Socha. At wingback competition is keen with Jack Rowe and Jim Brandt, while Claude Smith, who missed spring drills, will be ready by fall.

"Our running backs look good," said Snyder.

In fact, most everything is looking good for the fall football season.
