End Radio 'Blackout', Unit Asks

By JOHNNY HINES
Editor-in-Chief

The radio "blackout" of Marshall University home sports events was taken under consideration recently at a meeting of the Public Relation and Publications Committee.

Professor W. Page Pitt, chairman of the committee led off the discussion by saying that he had heard complaints from many sources and that one said that "shut-ins" in the area could not hear Marshall University.

Professor Pitt also said that the athletic board approved this on an experimental basis and John Sayre director of development and alumni affairs said that he had heard no comments pro or con about the "blackout."

Walter Felty, assistant professor and director of audio-visual aids made the following statement concerning the matter: "Suppose we make an extra $1,000 per year with the use of the 'blackout.' Is it worth it? Public relations are more important." It (the blackout) makes it appear that the purpose of athletics is to make money and not to promote teamwork and sportsmanship."

Paul Collins, administrative assistant and director of adult education said that he could not see how a "blackout" has helped gate receipts.

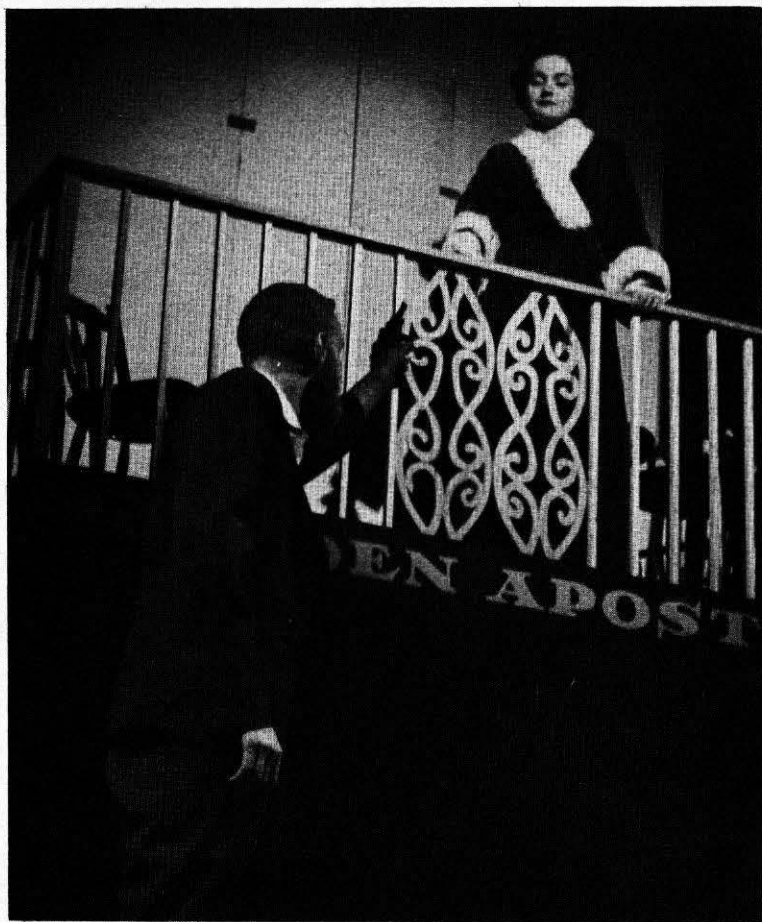

As a result of the discussion, four points were made known in the minutes of the meeting.

1. The blackout was not popular either among the faculty or the general public.

2. Many adverse comments have been made about the blackout both on and off campus.

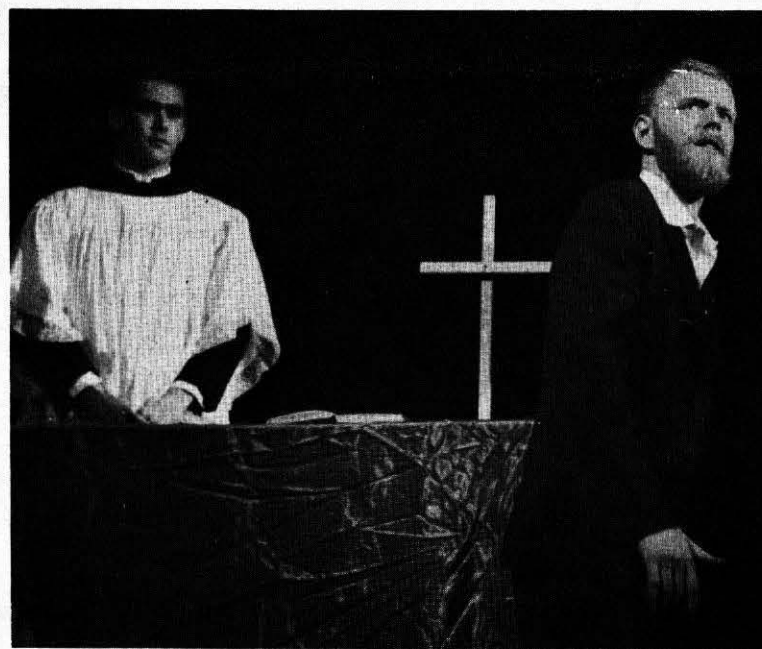

3. The only merit of the blackout would appear to be the ability to increase gate receipts, which it does not appear to have done, from even casual observation.

4. But the committee lacked concrete knowledge concerning all the good and bad points of the blackout, and certainly did not wish to appear to be suggesting (Continued on Page Two)

'U' Play Starts Tomorrow

DAVE WAYLAND and Betsy Rucker appear in this scene from "The Visit," which will be presented by the University Theater starting at 8:15 tomorrow night. The play, the second to be presented this year, will run through Saturday. (See story and pictures, page 2.)

Money Big Problem, But Faculty, Student Government Back Band

The Big Green Marching Band now has backing by the faculty and student government, but the problem of money still exists.

Many have agreed to help the band and give it support. There is a committee within the Music Department which is working on the possibility of scholarships, one of the big problems of the band.

Dr. C. L. Kingsbury, chairman of the Music Department, said he has done work with the Senate and various faculty groups in past years. He said these groups have worked hard, but little has been accomplished for the band.

He also said that the band is a campus-wide organization, and should be supported by the entire campus.

Mr. Neal B. 'Whitey' Wilson, director of athletics, also is working on the possibilities of scholarships for the band, and he said that the athletic department will help the band to its fullest capacity.

President Stewart H. Smith said he gives the band his full support, and that the band members should be praised for their work. He said something needs to be done to help the band and that if the Student Senate or any other organization can give the band support that requires administrative approval, he will give it full consideration.

Nancy Wood, Moundsville senior and student body president, has been working in the Senate for the band and has set up a committee to help solve the problems of the band. This committee met yesterday with the committee set up in the band, and they will report their findings to the Senate tonight.

There is one large money-making project for the band that could take place second semester. Since there are very few social activities for the second semester for the entire campus, it has been suggested by President Wood that the band hold a large spring formal for the entire campus. This dance would be somewhat like the Homecoming dance, but would feature local music, and would be used for new band uniforms.

Library Will Open Sunday Afternoon

Librarian Tells Of Many Difficulties In Maintaining Such 'Extra' Service

By GARY KEARNS
Staff Reporter

The University Library will be open from 1:30 to 5 p.m. Sun. Jan. 14. This will enable students to borrow books and use the reading rooms in preparation for the final examination period which begins Mon., Jan. 15. The Library will be staffed on the same basis as it is on Saturday afternoons. All service points will be open but no reference librarians will be available.

Mr. H. W. Apel, librarian, issued this statement:

"We are very much aware of the fact that it would be highly desirable to have the Library open on Sundays throughout the academic year. This has not been, and is not now, possible on a regular basis because of the limited number of staff available to us. We already have difficulty in arranging schedules which will cover the present 72 hours per week that the Library is open. To do this we have found it necessary to eliminate reference service at the lunch and dinner hours and on Saturday afternoons. To extend service to an additional day each week with the present staff on a regular basis would not be possible.

"We have been able to arrange to have the Library open on the Sunday prior to examination week this month and we expect to be able to be open on the Sunday prior to examination week next May. We are able to do this by adjusting staff schedules because of an early closing on the following Saturday, the last day of the semester.

"We hope to be able to have enough student assistants on duty on Sun., Jan. 14, to give normal service. We realize, though, that some of our student assistants will not be able to work because they are studying for examinations, also."

Semester Break

Today's Parthenon is the last issue of the campus newspaper for the current semester. There will not be a paper on Friday because of advance registration or during the week of final examinations. The next regular issue of The Parthenon will appear on campus on Jan. 31.

Good luck on exams!

Barron Names Faculty Head To New Council

Dr. John B. Minick, chairman of the economics department, has been named by Gov. Barron to the new Council of Economic Advisors. This council will submit periodic reports on the state's economy and proposals for improving economic conditions.

The council will consult with the governor and state department heads to improve the forecasting of business trends upon which the state's budget depends.

Barron stated that the council was needed to help meet the "ever-increasing problem of estimating state revenues." Business and industry also would profit from reports covering the state's potential growth, he added.

Dr. Minick came to Marshall in 1960 from the University of Nebraska where he had taught six years. He completed his graduate work at the University of Southern California, where he received his A.M. and Ph.D. degrees. He received his Bachelor's degree at Temple University in Philadelphia.

Dr. Minick, a native of New Jersey, served in the Navy during World War Two. He is married and has one daughter and three sons.

Four other educators have been named to the new council. The four are: Dr. James Thompson, Dr. Leo Fisher, and Dr. Irvin Stewart of the West Virginia University faculty, and Dr. James F. Tucker, of West Virginia State College.

The council will hold its first meeting Jan. 16 in Barron's office.

thsi year because I've never kept them in the past and I felt sure that I wouldn't be able to in 1962.

Carolyn Ladd, Huntington freshman:

My New Year's resolution is to get up on time in the morning for my 8 a.m. class. I really don't have much hope in fulfilling this resolution.

Harold Dodd, Fayetteville sophomore:

My New Year's resolution is to adamantly support the psoposed Liquor-by-the-Drink Bill.

Board Discusses Sports 'Blackout'

to the Athletic Department as to proper methods for conducting its departmental activities.

A motion was presented that the committee write a letter of suggestion to the Chairman of the Athletic Board.

The letter was to state that the committee is aware of the many problems related to a decision of this nature, but that it is the Committee's feeling that our new University status this is not the time to promote adverse publicity but a time to encourage increased desirable publicity in every manner possible. The letter was to indicate that the Committee's feelings that good publicity is priceless, and that the blackout is not good public relations.

The committee then urged the Athletic Board to consider this current practice with the thought in mind of terminating it at the earliest possible moment. The motion was approved unanimously.

University Theater To Present 'The Visit,' Starting Tomorrow

The Magic Ages Are

25 - 28 - 31 - 34 - 37 - 40

They are magic because anybody who has our Insurability Protection Agreement may buy additional life insurance as he reaches each of these ages regardless of his state of health. And it can bind us to issue as much as $60,000 of new insurance to a person after he has become uninsurable. The cost is fantastically small. May we show you how this Agreement can work for you?

Permit Major In Journalism, Council Urged

A plea for a major in journalism for high school teachers was made to the state Advisory Council on Teacher Education last Monday by Prof. W. Page Pitt, chairman of the Journalism Department.

He was joined in Charleston by Dean Quintus Wilson of West Virginia University's Journalism School.

William Francois, assistant professor of journalism, also outlined some of the problems faced by high school journalism teachers.

At present only a journalism minor can be taken by those attending Teachers College.

The council announced it would take the matter under study.

Dr. D. Banks Wilburn, dean of Teachers College, is a member of the council and is supporting the proposal.

Honorary, SNEA Set Joint Meeting In North Parlor

Kappa Delta Pi, education honorary, has invited the Student National Education Association for a joint meeting at 7:30 p.m. today in North Parlor of Old Main.

Robert Alexander, director, Office of Placement, Mahlon Brown, assistant professor of social studies and Dr. Harold Willey, associate professor of education, will speak. Alexander will speak on "job opportunities for college graduates" and Brown and Willey will speak on "beyond the bachelor's degree."

A brief Kappa Delta Pi meeting will follow the joint meeting.

Everyone on campus is invited to the joint meeting.

Program In Use Again

The student-faculty sponsorship program is in use for the third semester by the College of Arts and Science.

Under this program students who had become ineligible and have been out of school for one semester are readmitted by the Scholarship Committee are assigned individually to a faculty member. They meet with their faculty sponsor at frequent and regular intervals to discuss their progress and any academic problems that they may have.

According to J. F. Bartlett, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, the sponsor has a dual role: his is counselor for the student and an individual to whom the student is responsible with respect to academic progress.

A more intimate and direct relationship exists between the student and faculty sponsor than that of student and faculty advisor.

There are 29 students under this program for the current semester.

The results of the program for second semester 1961 were of the 34 ineligible students readmitted three made the dean's list, three returned to good standing, 17 showed definite improvement but were still on probation, and 11 became ineligible again. Two-thirds or 67.64 per cent of the group showed improvement.

The results of the program for the second semester of last year 1960 (the semester initiating the program) were of the 13 students who were under the program four made the deans list, one averaged better than 3.00 on a seven hour load, four averaged between 2.00 and 3.00 and four became ineligible again.

Kappa Omicron Phi Conducts Initiation

Kappa Omicron Phi, Home Economics Honorary, conducted initiation ceremonies Wednesday, January 3.

Those initiated were: Linda Alleman, Parkersburg junior; Shirley Crum, Huntington sophomore; and Lelia Moore, Dunmore junior.

Miss Louise Burnette, chairman of the Home Economics Department, was pledged and initiated at this meeting.

Refreshments were served at the home of Miss C. M. Gray, associate professor of Home Economics.

Girl watchers are honorable men

LESSON 6- Who may watch

Any male is eligible to become a girl watcher. There is no age limit, although most girl watchers are over ten and under one hundred and four. There are no height or weight requirements, although taller men enjoy an obvious advantage at crowded parties. The only strict requirement is one of character. The girl watcher is a man of honor. Since he can't possibly take notes, as the bird watcher does, we must rely on his word. Therefore, when an experienced girl watcher tells you he saw nine beautiful girls while on his way to class, he saw nine beautiful girls. And when he tells you his Pall Mall is the cigarette of the century, believe him. It is.

Big Green Will Face Clemson

After a disappointing 85-83 loss to the University of Virginia cagers, "Big Green" fans are hoping for revenge against Clemson this Saturday. Marshall was scheduled to meet St. Francis of Pennsylvania last Saturday, but the game was postponed because of the weather for the third year in a row.

The weeks rest that the team has received could mean a great deal if team Captain Bob Burgess returns to the lineup against the "Tigers." Burgess has been sidelined with infectious boils, but with the doctors permission will be ready for Saturday's game.

Clemson coach Press Maravich lost five lettermen, including two starters off of last years's 12-16 squad, but nevertheless are expected to furnish strong competition.

Back for this year's Clemson squad is guard Choppy Patterson a 19 point per game scorer last year who hit at an .844 clip from the foul line.

Saturday's starting five will probably be the same as against Virginia with the exception of Burgess starting at the center position instead of Dick Wildt. Wildt turned in a fine performance in his first starting role and should see considerable action on the front line against Clemson. Starters along with Burgess will be Charley Moore and Larry Williams at forwards, and Mickey Sydenstricker along with Joedy Sword at the guards.

SAE Pledges Trounce KAY

The SAE pledges took KAY's pledge class 53-47 for the championship of the Fraternity Pledge Tournament Jan. 4.

The results of the preliminaries were LXA over SPE, 54-52; KA was trounced by KAY, 78-37; SAE took TKE, 9-0; PKA downed ASP, 25-7.

In the semi-finals: LXA succumbed to KAY, 63-47; and SAE walked away from PKA 69-32.

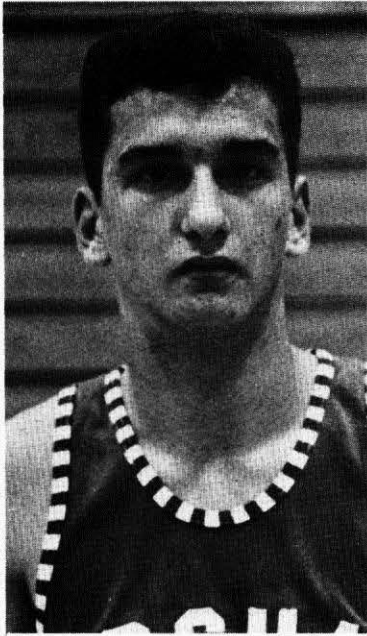

Other intramural basketball action took place Dec. 13. The Beavers defeated Frosh No. 2, 22-62; Jokers No. 1 took ROTC No. 1, 74-39; Frosh No. 1 topped Jokers No. 2, 69-52; the Mingoes upset PKA No. 4, 67-35; the Jokers No. 4 took SAE No. 5, 145-38; SAE No. 4 took SPE No. 5, 31-28; VM No. 1 took the Collegians, 73-54; Mia's Boys took SPE No. 4, 49-48; SPE No. 2 took SAE No. 2, 65-56.

On Dec. 14: Faculty over VM No. 1, 62-47; SPE No. 1 over KAY No. 1, 60-59; PKA No. 1 over LXA No. 1, 67-59; SAE No. 1 over KA No. 1, 57-36; ASP over TKE No. 1, 43-38; TKE No. 2 over the Cavaliers, 45-38.

In last Thursdays action: PKA No. 2 beat LXA No. 2, 73-31; Faculty beat the Collegians, 67-54; SPE No. 2 beat KAY No. 2, 55 to 41; KA No. 2 beat SAE No. 2, 38-33; the Beavers beat PKA No. 3, 66-37; and SPE No. 3 beat the ROTC No. 2, 38-36.

In the Jokers No. 4 vs. SAE No. 5 game Dec. 13, Stan Smith, of the Jokers broke a long standing intramural scoring record by sinking 42 field goals and one free throw, slating a new record of 85 points. All but 19 of these points were scored in the last half.

Profiles Of The Week

Joe Mucheck

Joe Mucheck, scoring four points in three games, has attained an average of 1.3 points per game.

Mucheck is six feet, two inches tall and weighs 165 pounds. He is a graduate of Linsly High School, Wheeling, and is one of the taller members of the freshman squad.

Joe Hines

Joe Hines, six feet, 160 pound graduate of Fairland High School, Proctorville, Ohio, is not one of the starting squad, but has contributed a solid share to the success of the team.

In six games he has scored 31 points, giving him an average of 5.2 points per game.

Matmen Upset By Toledo U.

The University wrestling squad lost a match to the University of Toledo last Saturday by a score of 26-6. The only bright side of the match were outstanding performances by Bill Cyrus, Ralph May, and Roger Jefferson. Cyrus and May both won their matches, and Jefferson turned in a gallant effort in a losing cause.

Cyrus has now won four matches without a loss this year, to run his record to 12 and 2 for the last two years.

The matmen now have a record of one win against a defeat at the hands of Toledo and a third place in a quadrangular meet at Athens.

Tech Stops Frosh 98-76

Marshall University's Freshman Basketball team suffered its third loss of the season at the hands of the Junior Varsity from West Virginia Tech, 98-76, last Saturday night in Montgomery.

The Golden Bears from Tech started the game in a semi-stall, then when Marshall changed their defense Tech began to run.

The first half ended with Tech leading 37-20.

The second half saw both teams playing a tremendous offensive game. The Little Green scored a total of 56 points in the second period, but the Golden Bears bettered the Marshall total, scoring 61 points.

At one time the Frosh cut the Tech lead to 10 points, but the Freshman cagers ran out of steam and the final margin was 22 points.

The Little Greens fine 6-6 center Bruce Belcher had to sit out most of the second half, and that didn't help the Marshall cause.

Sonny Allen, Freshman coach, said, "They got the lead early and we had to play their game, but I'm not using that as an excuse, we were just outplayed".

He also added, "Because of the bad weather, we arrived there late and only got to warm up for two to three minutes".

The injury to Belcher, a badly sprained ankle, will keep him out of Monday night's contest with West Virginia State but he is expected to see action in the next contest.

Belcher, although playing slightly more than half of the game, was the leading scorer for the Little Green with 16 points. Others in double figures were Bill Francis with 12, Bill Treacy 11, and Larry Tincer 11. Game scoring honors went to Patton of Tech with 22 markers.

The Little Green record is now 4-3.

Missionaries Will Be Guests At Open House On Saturday

All students are invited to meet missionaries from Taiwan, Korea, Brazil, Mexico and The Congo at an open house beginning at 6:30 p.m. Saturday at the Campus Christian Center.

This meeting is part of a World Mission Conference of the First Presbyterian Church. Each missionary will give a five-minute talk. Then students may talk informally with any of the missionaries for as long as they wish.

Students are also invited to a discussion of political problems at noon Monday at the Campus

Christian Center. Members of the panel will be Mr. Benjamin Ngunlunge, stated clerk of the Presbyterian Church in The Congo; the Rev. Stephen J. Sloop, who has served in western Brazil for 24 years and is now the first Presbyterian pastor in the new capital of Brasilia, and the Rev. Kenneth Kepler of Taiwan, who was forced by communism to leave China after 17 years there.

Mr. George N. Cooley, director of student relations at the Presbyterian Board of World Missions and who guides missionary candidates in their training, will speak to college students at the meeting of the Westminster Fellowship at 6:15 p.m. Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church. All students are invited.

Forum's Speaker Vance Packard

Vance Packard, noted author, will speak of "The Changing Character of the American People" at the Forum Jan. 18 at 8:30 p.m. in Old Main Auditorium.

Mr. Packard is the author of such best sellers as "The Status Seekers", "The Hidden Persuaders", and "The Waste Makers."

In a continuing study of American society, Mr. Packard has become aware of a deeper malaise of our times, over-commercialization. He calls it "consumerism."

Admission to the Forum will be by activity card.

Home From Tourney

The Debate Team won five and lost seven debates at the Bluegrass Debate Tournament at Georgetown, Ky., on the Georgetown College campus last week end.

The affirmative team, consisting of Tom Dunfee, Huntington junior, and Stuart Thomas, Hurricane senior, won three debates and lost three. The negative team, Walt Cosby, White Sulphur Springs junior, and Aubrey King, Jaeger junior, won two and lost four. Cosby substituted for Pat Loredon, Huntington senior, who was unable to attend because of an illness in his family.

Fourteen colleges and universities from five states competed in the tournament.

The team will compete at Marietta College Feb. 3.
