An Editorial

Cast Votes Intelligently

The franchise has long been hailed as a valuable privilege in the free world. The right was won with blood and tears. Therefore some surmise, vote no matter how you vote—just vote to protect your privilege.

However, an uninformed electorate can do as much harm as good. An irresponsible vote cast in the dark may be a vote for that which the individual does not advocate. Would it not be better to fall to use the franchise than to cast an unintelligent vote?

Elections for student government offices are being held until 5 p.m. today in the basement of the Student Union. Any full-time student with an I.D. and activity card is eligible to vote. The Parthenon staff urges those with a franchise to use it—BUT it urges them to use it intelligently. Cast an informed vote!

Qualifications and pictures of the senatorial candidates and student body president and vice president were published in last Friday's Parthenon. Platforms of the two teams for the top offices were also printed. The information is there. Now it's up to the voter to seek it and cast his vote—an intelligent vote.

Cookery Class Serves Lunch

The quantity cookery class, started by the Home Economics Department to facilitate serving of the noon meal to large groups, began services yesterday.

The class consists of 11 girls who serve meals from 11:30 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. every week day except Monday. The laboratory duties are purchasing food, preparing food, serving the meal, cleaning the lab, and preparing for the next day.

Each girl is assigned a particular duty which is rotated every two days. The jobs consist of manager, buyer, first cook, second cook, salad maker, hot bread maker, dessert maker, cashier, bookkeeper, and hostess.

The class operates for one-half semester, and the students receive three hours credit.

The group will not serve meals during the Easter vacation.

MAY GET CJ EARLY

The Chief Justice should be available May 18, if there are no delays. In the past years it has always been distributed during the summer months, but if everything continues on schedule it will be distributed during the week of finals, according to Ernestine Monday, Ripley junior and Editor of the Chief Justice.

Campus Bursts Into Political Bloom

STRANGE SIGNS OF Spring began appearing on campus Sunday afternoon. As the clock struck 1 p.m., candidates and friends rushed to place campaign posters in choice spots. All of these "lovely blossoms" will be gone by 8 a.m. tomorrow, and nature will again have a free hand.

Polls Open Until Five; Amendments On Ballot

The polls in today's student elections are located in the basement of the Student Union and will be open until 5 p.m.

Students will be voting for student body president; vice-president; sophomore, junior, and senior class presidents; four sophomore senators; three junior senators, and three senior senators.

In addition students will vote for Spring Carnival Queen.

Two constitutional amendments are on today's ballot.

The first of these amendments would provide for a revision in the make-up of the Student Court. This amendment would set up a Student Court and a Student Court of Appeal. This division of the present court into two courts would provide for faculty representation on the Student Court of Appeal.

The second amendment would change the procedure for amendments to the Constitution.

At present only 15 per cent of the students voting need to favor an amendment in order to approve it. The new amendment would change this figure to a two-thirds majority of the students voting.

In both cases, the amendment is subject to approval by President Stewart H. Smith.

Parking Rules Recently Issued

New parking regulations for faculty and administrative staff members recently were announced by Dr. David Kingsbury, chairman of the Music department. He said that faculty and administration have been issued stickers for the areas closest to their offices.

Residents of the New Men's dormitory have been assigned to park their car outside the dorm in Lot E.

Lot F, beside the old Kroger Building, will be used by the faculty from the Lab School. It also will be used as an overflow for faculty and for student parking as space is available. Commuting students have been issued stickers for Lot F. This privilege will be extended to local students when space is available. Applications may be made at the Buildings and Grounds office.

Dr. Kingsbury also added that more space is needed and there is hope that more space will be provided in the future. To date 256 cars can be parked on campus. A total of 275 parking permits have been issued.

Tickets Available For Artist Series

Full-time students may pick up tickets for the musical review, "From Paris With Love," starring Genevieve, tomorrow and Friday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The show will appear on the Artists Series next Tuesday as part of its trans-continental pre-Broadway tour.

Genevieve has appeared in America's top supper clubs and was a frequent guest on the Jack Paar show.

Security Curb Bans Visit Of Russian Official Here

By JOHNNY HINES
Editor-in-Chief

President Stewart H. Smith has announced that $70,000 in additional revenue is not available for the proposed fallout shelter. He also said that a Soviet Embassy official cannot come to the campus due to security restrictions.

President Smith said the Department of Defense rejected the request for an additional allocation. He said that all bids made by contractors will have to be rejected by the West Virginia Board of Education.

Mr. Walter Milliner, fallout shelter program director for the Department of Defense, will be in Huntington Friday. He will discuss possible future planning with President Smith and Architect Robert L. Brown.

BIDS TOO HIGH

Bids on the fallout shelter were opened on March 13. Some $250,000 had been allocated for the shelter and the nearest bid to that figure was almost $40,000 beyond.

It is scheduled to be built between Lucy Prichard Hall and the University Dining Hall. Its roof will be two feet underground and will be connected to the dining hall with an underground walkway.

The structure will contain facilities for classrooms, dining area, storage, and floor space for cots in the event of a disaster.

HUNTINGTON OFF LIMITS

After making the necessary inquiries in Washington, D. C., President Smith said that a Soviet Embassy official will not be able to come to Marshall University because the Huntington area is closed to persons from the USSR.

He said that after further investigation it was found that about one-fourth of the United States is "off limits" to persons from the Soviet Union.

The Department of State informed President Smith that since 1955 the United States has restricted the travel of Soviet citizens in certain areas of the country.

U. S. RECIPROCATES

This was done in reciprocity for Soviet restrictions, already long in effect, on travel by United States citizens in the USSR.

It has been pointed out that since establishing these regulations the United States government has, on repeated occasions, indicated to the Soviet government its desire for a mutual abolition of the travel restrictions. To date the Soviet government has not shown a willingness to move in this direction and the United States regulations remain in effect.

STUDENTS SOUGHT VISIT

The Student Senate voted unanimously several weeks ago to seek President Smith's approval of such a visit by a Soviet Embassy official.

The proposal was made to the Senate by Bill Harmon, Huntington junior, who was a member of the Washington Seminar group that toured the capital city recently.

This group toured the Soviet Embassy and talked with Soviet officials as part of its program.

SPEAKEASY TO MEET

Mr. Jack Smith, instructor of art, will be guest speaker at the Speakeasy supper discussion at 5 p.m. tomorrow in the small dining room of the cafeteria.

Psychology Professor Gets Grant

The second National Science Foundation grant to be awarded at Marshall this semester has been received by Dr. Bruce E. Dunn, assistant professor of psychology. Dr. Dunn, who applied for the grant in December, received notification of the $4,602 award Friday morning.

Robert Digman, assistant professor of chemistry, recently received a $9,250 NSF grant which he will use to complete the requirements for his Ph. D. Carolyn Davies, Huntington senior, turned down a Woodrow Wilson fellowship last month to accept a National Science Foundation fellowship. She also will be working toward her Ph. D.

Dr. Dunn's grant will be used in a two-year research program of monocular cues in depth perception. The program will begin July 15. According to Dr. Dunn, he will "try to specify the relationship between non-depth perception and strictly physically defined variables."

After one year Dr. Dunn has the option to submit a written report to the foundation or have an article about his research published in a journal or periodical. After the two years he must submit a complete written report to the foundation.

Dr. Dunn came to Marshall last fall from the University of Wisconsin where he was a teaching assistant. He received his M. S. there in 1957 and his Ph. D. in 1960.

A member of the W. Va. Psychological association and the Huntington Psychological Association, Dr. Dunn has had articles published in the Journal of the Optical Society of America, the Journal of Experimental Psychology and Dissertation Abstracts.

He is married and said that recently he and his wife became interested in spelunking.

President Signs Sons' Diplomas

President Stewart H. Smith recently did something few fathers do in the course of a lifetime. Two of his sons recently graduated from Marshall and he signed their diplomas.

One son, Robert, graduated last January with a BES in engineering, and is now employed by the O-AMES Manufacturing Company at Parkersburg. He is married to the former Linda McCoy of Huntington. They have three children.

Conrad graduated last August with an A.B. degree in history. He is now an ensign in the U. S. Navy stationed at Athens, Ga.

National Defense Loans Total $66,130; 121 Students Aided

The Student Aid Executive Board reports that 121 students borrowed $66,130 under the National Defense Student Loan Program to help finance their college education during the 1961-62 academic year. These figures do not include loans which will be granted for the summer sessions. Approximately one-third of the loans were granted to women students and the remainder to men. A loan recipient must be a full-time student, be in need of the amount of his loan, and be, in the opinion of his institution, capable of maintaining good standing in his chosen courses of study. A student may borrow a maximum of $5,000 during his college career, but not more than $1,000 in any one year. The repayment period of the loan begins one year after he completes his full-time course work and extends over a ten-year period. If a borrower becomes a full-time teacher in a public, elementary or secondary school, a maximum of 50 percent of the loan may be cancelled at the rate of 10 percent for each year of teaching. Since the program was started in 1959, Marshall has granted loans to 350 students.

Lodgings In Dorm

Several unidentified students carried two sports cars into the lobby of the New Men's Residence Hall Monday morning. Mrs. Henrietta Spence, hostess at the dormitory, said the "wheeler intruders" were not present when she made her 2 a.m. check.

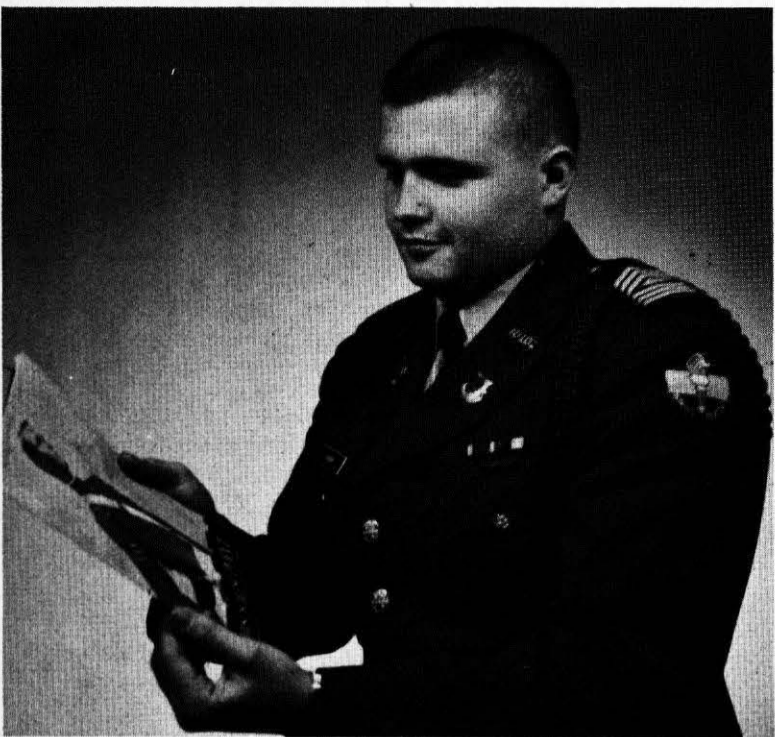

At 6:30 a.m. a maid awoke her and told of the existing situation. Mrs. Spence then promptly found to whom the vehicles belonged and had them removed.

West Point Visit Set For Cadet April 5-8

By BILL CALDERWOOD
Feature Writer

John S. Cash, Huntington junior, will attend an orientation visit to the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., according to Lt. Col. Thomas M. Ariail, professor of military science.

This visit is for selected cadets from the XX U. S. Army Corps area, and will be conducted from April 5-8. After consideration of all Military Science III and IV students at Marshall, Cash was selected for his academic and military science excellence.

The purpose of the visit is to offer ROTC students an orientation and to enhance their appreciation of the military academy. It also provides USMA cadets an opportunity to establish close personal contact with members of the ROTC program, and to promote better understanding and co-operation among future officers.

The ROTC students will live, eat, and attend classes with their cadet escorts. In addition, there will be tours and orientation classes.

Cash, the son of Mr. S. W. Cash, is first sergeant of Company B and is a member of Scabbard and Blade, national military honorary. An engineering major, Cash has received freshman and sophomore awards for outstanding engineering student. He is presently a pledge of Delta-Rho Delta-Theta, engineering honorary.

The nineteen colleges and universities in the XX Corps area will be represented by 30 cadets. These cadets will meet at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, Ohio, and will then proceed to New York by plane.

The XX Corps area includes West Virginia, Ohio, and Kentucky. Maj. Gen. Andrew Lolli, corps commander, recently visited Marshall to attend the military ball.

Dormitories Have Positions Available

Applications are now available for positions as counselors and office men for the 1962-63 school year in Hodges Hall and the new Men's Residence Hall.

Male students who wish to apply may obtain information and application forms from Dean of Men David Kirk at his office.

University Hall and Prichard Hall will be open to women students for the summer session, but Laidley Hall will be closed for repairs.

Military Honorary Taps Four Cadets

Four men were tapped last week as pledges of Company K-12 of the Marshall University chapter of Scabbard and Blade military honorary at the regular drill. Cadet Lt. Col. Robert Helvey, Charleston senior, tapped the following cadets: Clinton W. Chapman II, and John L. Kubis, both Huntington juniors; Jack L. Selby, Point Pleasant freshman, and James Johnson III, Mason sophomore.

To be chosen for this honorary, cadets must demonstrate high academic and military proficiency, and have outstanding moral character.

Astronomer To Present 2 Lectures

Harlow Shapley, distinguished American astronomer, will present two lectures on campus this week. The first will be at 11 a.m. tomorrow in Old Main Auditorium. The topic for this lecture will be "Science Ponders Religion."

"Galaxies and Man's Place in the Universe" will be the topic of a public lecture at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Science Hall Auditorium.

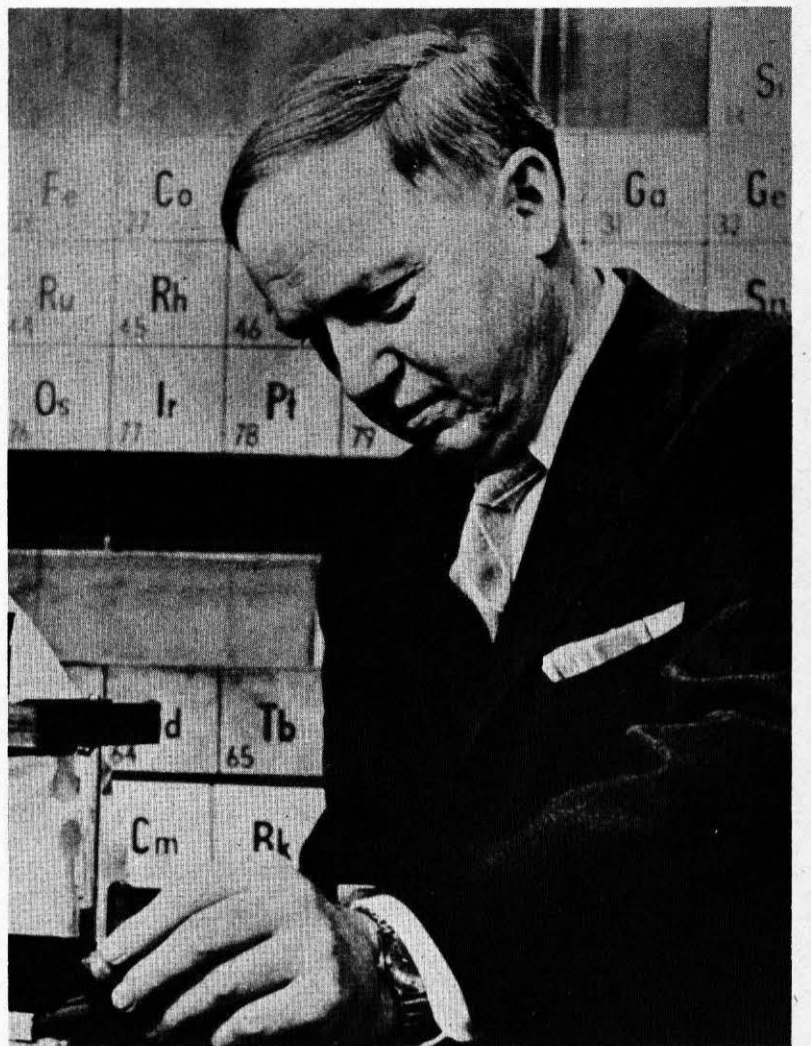

Dr. Shapley's visit is made possible by joint sponsorship of the Association of American Colleges and the Danforth Foundation.

Following completion of his formal education at Carthage Academy, the University of Missouri and Princeton University, Dr. Shapley was on the staff of the Mount Wilson Observatory at Pasadena, Calif., for seven years. For the following 31 years he was director of the Harvard College Observatory at Cambridge.

Honorary degrees have been awarded to Dr. Shapley by 16 universities, including those of Delhi, Honolulu, Ireland, Mexico, Toronto, Copenhagen, Princeton and Harvard. He has been made honorary foreign member of the national academies of ten countries, and has been awarded medals and prizes by the Vatican, India, England, France and other countries. He is a trustee of several institutions, including the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Worcester Foundation for Experimental Biology, and Science Service, Inc.

Among the publications of Dr. Shapley are half a dozen books and more than 200 technical scientific articles, chiefly in the field of astronomy. One of his latest books is "Of Stars and Men," which provides a resounding "yes" to the question "Is there life on other planets?" Dr. Shapley feels that some form of life may far surpass Homo sapiens in intellectual capacity.

"Of Stars and Men" has been published in Swedish, Japanese, Italian and Hindi; it is also in a paper back edition and is being made into a full-length motion picture.

Busy Weekend Ahead For Unbeaten MU Golfers; 3 Matches In 3 Days

The undefeated Big Green golf team, winner of five straight matches, will attempt to annex three more victories this coming weekend when it crowds in three matches in three days.

Coach Whitey Wilson's charges will host Bowling Green in a Mid-American Conference match Friday at 2 p.m. at the Guyan Golf and Country Club course, and the two teams meet again Saturday morning at 8:30 a.m.

Sunday afternoon Marshall meets the Guyan All-Stars.

The team added its fourth and fifth triumphs last Sunday by beating two fine Spring Valley Country Club All-Star teams in a triangular contest at the Spring Valley course.

Both matches were won in impressive fashion despite chilly, damp weather and a rain-drenched course. Marshall topped the No. 1 Spring Valley team 11½-6½ and overwhelmed the No. 2s, 16-2.

Pete Byer, Marshall co-captain, and Ralph Pennington of the No. 1 Spring Valley team turned in the best cards for the day, touring the 18-hole Spring Valley course in one-over-par 71s. Byer had a 36-35-71, and Pennington recorded a 35-36-71. Par for the course is 35-35-70.

had a 41-37-78, and defeated both Ed Gibson (45-41-86) of the No. 1s and Lee Wright (38-41-79) of the second Spring Valley team.

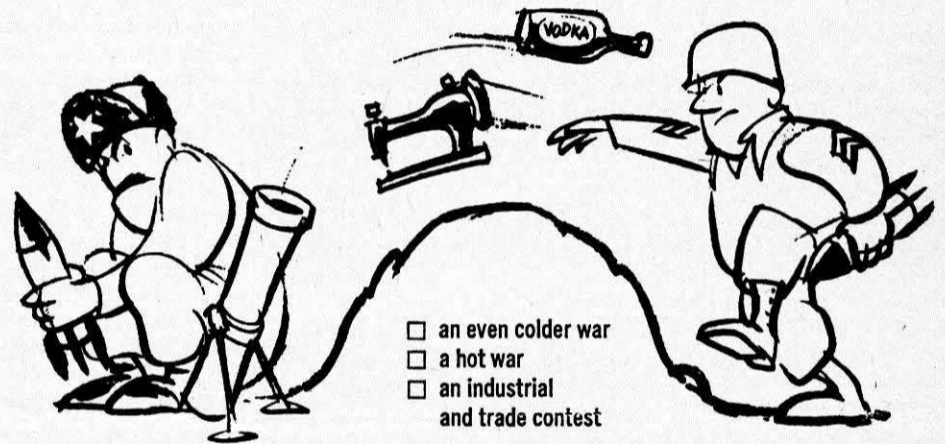

Harry Hoffer turned in a two-over-par 72 round, co-captain Jim Ward had a 76, Chip Woodring shot a 75 and Bill Spensky an 82 to round out the Marshall scores.
