Calderwood, McMillan In Race For Presidency

By JIM CASTO
Staff Reporter

Forty-four candidates are in the race for the various Student Government Offices at stake in next Wednesday's general elections. Bill Calderwood of Charleston and Gary McMillan of Vienna will vie for student body president. This office is now held by Nancy Wood of Moundsville.

Aubrey King of Iaeger and Walt Cosby of White Sulphur Springs are competing for vice president. This position is presently held by John Andrews of Clendenin.

Larry Gravely, Scarbo, and Tom Chapman, Huntington, will vie for senior class president.

SENIORS ENTER

Three senior senate seats will be at stake in the election. Candidates for these seats are Nancy Bonar, Charleston; Ivan Ash, Barboursville; Barbara Charles, Huntington; Mary Greenlee, Charleston; Georgann Hanna, Charleston; Karen Meves, Parkersburg; Barbara Shinn, Mt. Lake, N. J.; Clark Todd, Huntington, and Tom Dunfee, Huntington.

Claren Brooks, Pittsburgh, Pa., and Gary Starcher, Charleston, have filed for junior class president.

10 JUNIORS VIE

Ten candidates are running for the three vacant junior seats. These candidates are Ken Gainer, Charleston; Attie Sowers, Weirton; Marna Paulovicks, Wheeling; Ted Booth, Huntington; Frank Veracalli, Logan; Kaye Mullen, Charleston; Sara Lipscomb, Barboursville; Bertie Ann Humphreys, Huntington; Edie Alexander, Nitro, and Lily Wray Naylor, Clendenin.

SOPHOMORES FILE

CAMPAIGN BEGINS

Campaign posters will go up both on and off campus Sunday. Absentee voting will be held Monday in the Student Government Office from 8 to 10 a.m. and 1 to 4 p.m. and again on Tuesday from 8 to 11 a.m. and 1:30 to 4 p.m.

Only those students with a legitimate excuse for not being on campus during voting hours may cast absentee ballots.

The polls, in the basement of the Student Union, will be open Wednesday from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m.

BIOGRAPHIES DUE

All candidates must turn in a 30-word biography and a glossy picture (preferable 8" x 10") to The Parthenon. In addition, presidential candidates should turn in a short resume of their platform. These must be received in The Parthenon office by 4 p.m. today. This information will be used in Friday's edition.

Soviet Aide May Visit University

The Student Government has moved to sponsor a visit to the Marshall campus by an official of the Soviet Union's embassy in Washington, D. C.

The Senate voted unanimously at last week's session to instruct Student Body President Nancy Wood to write President Stewart H. Smith requesting approval of such a visit.

Senator Bill Harmon introduced the bill to the Senate.

He was a member of the Washington Seminar group that toured the capital city recently. This group toured the Soviet embassy as part of its program and talked with Soviet officials.

According to President Wood, this group learned that a Soviet official will visit one or more nearby campuses sometime in early May.

It was suggested that it might be possible for this representative to visit Marshall during this trip.

Senator Harmon spoke with President Smith last week. President Smith indicated that he would consider approving such a visit if some campus group, such as Student Government, would act as sponsor.

No Sport Curtailment Planned

The Athletic Board decided, after a two-hour meeting last Monday, to recommend to President Stewart H. Smith that spring sports not be curtailed in order to meet a financial problem.

This was announced by Prof. F. A. Fitch, chairman of the board and of the Physical Education Department.

What the board decided, however, was not released to The Parthenon or to the downtown newspaper. Professor Fitch said the facts would be turned over to President Smith and he would have to decide whether to release them.

Parthenon Sports Writer Jerry Reed, on hand to cover the session, was not admitted to the meeting. The chairman told him that members of the press would not be admitted, since this had not been done in the past.

Another board meeting is set for tomorrow.

Dr. Keenan Due To Leave Here For New Post

By KAREN AMEND
Staff Reporter

Dr. Boyd R. Keenan, assistant professor of political science, has accepted the position of associate director of the Committee on Institutional Cooperation of the Council of Ten and the University of Chicago.

The appointment will become effective during the summer. Professor Keenan will be leaving the Marshall faculty permanently since this is a full-time job. He will be teaching part-time at Purdue University.

The purpose of the committee is to study broad problems of university administration and to aid the 11 universities involved in establishing co-operative arrangements.

Prior to becoming a member of the Marshall faculty in September of 1960, Dr. Keenan served the committee as "assistant to the director." He holds the Ph. D. degree from the University of Illinois and both A. B. and M. A. degrees from the University of Kentucky. From 1953-57 he was director of news bureau and public relations at the University of Kentucky, and in 1957-58 he was an instructor of political science at the University of Illinois. In 1958-59 he was a Charles E. Merriam Fellow in political science at the University of Illinois.

He was assistant to the director of the Big Ten Council in 1959-60. In 1960 he became an assistant professor of political science at Marshall.

Seminar Is Set Friday

Some 50 high school students will be on campus this weekend, participating in a leadership seminar sponsored by Fagus, senior womens' leadership honorary, and Omicron Delta Kappa, national mens' leadership honorary.

Approximately 25 high schools in the surrounding area were contacted and the principal was requested to recommend one girl and one boy whom he considered leaders among the student body and who would benefit from such a program.

Activities begin Friday afternoon with registration in the Chapel, and dinner at the cafeteria. Saturday's schedule includes discussion groups, tours of the campus, and combined conference meeting and luncheon.

The aim of this project is to assist high school leaders in their tasks, and to aid both the high schools represented, as well as the individual students.

The discussions will be among the students under the direction of a member of Fagus and ODK. Topics for the discussions include: Student leaders—do they function or merely exist?; Students' responsibility—to social, political and economic problems; Importance of leadership—is it emphasized enough in schools; and Are enough opportunities provided for development?

AN EDITORIAL

Letters Received, But Issue Closed

Letters to the editor have been received from Ernie Salvatore, sports editor of "The Advertiser"; Prof. A. Mervin Tyson, chairman of the English Department, and Daniel A. Tweel, Huntington senior.

Both Mr. Salvatore and Mr. Tweel defended the use of the student opinion poll in the March 16 issue of The Parthenon. Dr. Tyson criticized it.

The staff of The Parthenon feels that the matter is now closed. The newspaper has declared its support of Coach Jule Rivlin in the year ahead and has urged Marshall students to do the same.

These signed letters are on file should anyone desire to read them.

Corps Eyes National Competition

THE 27-MEMBER Drum and Bugle Corps, which recently joined the National ROTC Band Association, will compete in national competition on May 19. The corps hopes to set up an auditions board sometime next year for prospective new members.

Drum, Bugle Corps Now In Step With National Band Association

By FRANK CHILDERS
Feature Writer

The Drum and Bugle Corps of Marshall University was recently accepted into the National ROTC Band Association.

To be accepted into the Association, a band must be a member of an active ROTC Battle Group. This enables the Drum and Bugle Corps to present an appreciation plaque to an advisor who has contributed the most to the corp during the past year. It also gives them the privilege of presenting a Distinguished Military Musician Award to the outstanding bandsman of the year. These two awards will be presented later in the semester.

The Drum and Bugle Corps is made up of 27 men of which Jeff Cowden, Williamson sophomore, is the platoon sergeant. According to Sergeant Cowden, the band is made up of four sophomores and the remaining members are freshmen.

Sergeant Cowden said that "most of the members have been members of the high school band or have been in a band of some type."

There is but one requirement to be a member of the Drum and Bugle Corps and that is to be in ROTC. Cowden went on to say that an audition committee may be set up next year.

The corps has been active the past year. They played for the Pete Stinger Parade last fall when Stinger of WSAZ rode a raft down the Ohio River to Cincinnati to the World Series. They played for the Homecoming Parade and went to Ohio University to play during the half-time ceremonies at the football game. The band marched in the Veteran's Day Parade and went to Ashland, Ky., to play for the Shriners Football game between Marshall and Eastern Kentucky. They performed at the intermission of the Military Ball and marched in the recent Greek Week parade.

The Corps has been invited to the National Competition Meet to be held at Camp Kilmer, N. J., May 19. They will enter competition with all other member units of the National Band Association. Definite plans have not been made for the trip.

The drum major or platoon sergeant for next year will be appointed on the recommendation of the previous drum major.

Last year the corps consisted of 16 members and marched in President Kennedy's Inaugural Parade in Washington, D. C.

According to Sergeant Cowden, all ROTC men interested in the Drum and Bugle Corps are urged to join.

Prichard Hall Open To Upperclassmen

Prichard Hall will be open to upperclassmen, and freshmen women will be permitted to live in either of the three campus dormitories next fall, according to Mrs. Lillian Buskirk, dean of women.

A total of 128 freshmen women have already been assigned to Prichard Hall, and there will be space available for 72 upperclassmen. These upperclassmen will act as counselors for the freshmen.

University Hall and Prichard Hall will be open to women students for the summer sessions.

English Teacher Institute Slated

The English Department is sponsoring the second annual Institute for Teachers of English on the junior high level. The meetings will take place March 29, April 5 and April 12 in Room 207. Refreshments will be served following the meetings.

Presiding on March 29, will be Mrs. Edith W. Milam, instructor of English. The topic will be "Let's Push Poetry". "Teaching the Poem" will be discussed by Miss Norma Roach, Wahama High School, Mason County. "Writing Poems" will be discussed by Mrs. Roberta B. Bailey, Dunbar Junior High School.

There will be a demonstration by Mrs. Milam of visual aids for teaching poetry.

On April 5, the meeting will be presided over by Dr. A. Mervin Tyson, chairman of the department. Topic to be discussed is "Explanation and Demonstration". Prof. Walter C. Felty, director of the Audio-Visual Center, will speak on "Programmed Learning".

Mrs. Beulah B. Virgallo, instructor in English, will preside over the April 12 meeting. The discussion will be on "Now We'll Write". "Writing Exposition" will be by Mrs. Madge L. Matthews, Vinson High School, Wayne County. "Writing Narration and Description" will be discussed by Mrs. Edna L. Sterling, Hurricane Junior High School, Putnam County. Mrs. Genevieve McDaniel, Beverly Hills Junior High School, Cabell County, will discuss "Recent Trends in Teaching Grammar".

ELECTION MIX TONIGHT

There will be an Election Mix tonight at the Student Union. All candidates for student government will be introduced. This will be a free mix, but I. D. cards will be checked.

Sophomores Are Big 'If' In Spring Grid Practice

By LARRY MULLINS
Sports Writer

The university football team, "a Little Green at this point" according to Coach Charlie Snyder, is well into spring drills. With fourteen practice sessions remaining Coach Snyder has 64 boys out for the team with 39 sophomores making up the largest part of the squad.

"These sophomores make us an extremely green and inexperienced team but we do have good spirit and good experience in our interior line." Making up this interior line are seven upperclassmen who saw plenty of action last year. They are tackles Everett Vance, Bill Maxwell and Mike Hicks and guards Roger Jefferson, Bill Pierce, Bob Dennison and Richard Turner.

FOUR QUARTERBACKS

There are four boys working hard for the open quarterback slot vacated by senior Ralph May. They are Bob Hamlin, Dick Fletcher and two sophomores, Bob Lutz and John Bentley.

SMALL PROBLEM

Coach Snyder reports that the end positions are a small problem but may be filled by either Jim Benters or Ron Majeska at left end and Denny Skeens, Jim Caldwell and Brent Ford working at right end.

Snyder expresses a lot of confidence in his sophomore crop and says that "they look as good as can be expected but they're still awfully green. These sophomores will have to come through," the Big Green mentor says, because "the success of the team will depend on them."

THREE GOALS

Snyder states that spring drills have three main goals: To develop the younger men; to develop the older men and experiment with them at different positions; and to develop an alternate unit.

How about the MAC competition for next fall?

"I see four top teams," Snyder said, "Bowling Green, Ohio U., Miami and possibly Toledo."

Alpha Sigs Thump Visiting Cage Team

Alpha Sigma Phi of Marshall played the Morris Harvey College chapter of Alpha Sigma Phi in basketball March 16 with Marshall winning by a decisive margin, 66-45.

Leading the way for the Marshall cagers was Harry Roberts with 17 points. The top scorer for both teams was Morris Harvey's Chris Murphy with 20 points. This was scheduled to be a regular tournament conducted by the Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity but due to the other schools having final exams the only team that could attend was Morris Harvey's.

MU Golf Team Tops All-Stars For 2nd Time

Sub par rounds by co-captain Pete Byer and Chip Woodring boosted the Big Green golf team to a slim 9½-8½ triumph over the Riviera All-Stars at the Riviera Country Club course last Sunday. The victory was Marshall's second in as many outings.

Byer swept three points from Paul Baker of the All-Stars with a four-under-par 35-31-66. Baker carded a 37-37-74. Woodring shot 37-32-69, bettering par by one to take all three points from his foe, Monte Huffman, who had a 38-33-71.

WARD CARDS 69

Marshall had one other golfer who slipped under the 18-hole par of 36-34-70. Co-captain Jim Ward wound up with a 69 but gained only one point in the match as the All-Stars' Jess McComas recorded a fine total of 68.

In the other matches Marshall's Dave Whipkey (39-37-76) took two points to one for Jack Gibson (43-35-78); Jack Dennis of the All-Stars (44-33-77) captured three from Bill Spensky (45-35-80); and Wally Havens (37-32-69) edged Harry Hoffer of Marshall (38-32-70) for a 2½-½ win.

LOOKS 'PRETTY GOOD'

Coach Neal B. (Whitey) Wilson said Monday that the team looked "pretty good" in its two early matches and believes Marshall "will be in the running" in the Mid-American Conference race.

The Big Green opens its MAC schedule Friday afternoon against Kent State at the Guyan Golf and Country Club course at 2 p.m. Sunday the team will meet Spring Valley's All-Stars at the Spring Valley Country Club course at 2 p.m.

COLLEGE STUDENTS IN THE VACATION RIOTS

What touches off the vicious vacation riots in resort towns from coast to coast? What madness causes the drunkenness, open immorality, violent battles with police? What sudden mob impulse can motivate a crowd of 30,000 educated young men and women into a rampage of destruction? Perhaps it's a new way to "let off steam" . . . a savage kind of self-expression. But why are so many college students—presumably the nation's most "adult" and sophisticated young people—involved? Why do they knowingly risk their futures, even their lives for a few hours of wild abandon? In the new April McCall's, don't miss the unbelievable, yet true, report on the spread of this insane activity . . . the terrible price you may have to pay if you're involved . . . and how you can help stop the insanity.

Science Fair Winners Will See World's Fair

By JIM KISER
Staff Reporter

Florence Valentine of Huntington High School and Robert Bailes of Gallia Academy at Gallipolis took top places in the Marshall Regional Science Fair. Both won a trip to the National Science Fair, May 2 to 5 in Seattle, Washington, and also a chance to visit the World's Fair being held there at the same time.

Miss Valentine's exhibit, a photo-synthetic gas exchanger, placed third in the biology division. Bailes exhibit, entitled "Continuous Flow Paper Electrophoresis for Separation of Proteins," placed first in the chemistry division.

In the junior division the grand awards went to Karen Plymale of Vinson High and Dennis Avner of Gallia Academy. Miss Plymale's exhibit was entitled, "Too Much, To Little vs. Just Right." Avner's exhibit was "Hypoxia: Treatment to Pregnant Mice Effects Skeleton of Offspring."

Daniel Johnson of Point Pleasant won a Navy science cruise. His exhibit was entitled "Space Mouse." The cruise was offered by the Navy for the exhibit of most interest to the service.

The senior division winners are the following: Physics, Mathematics and Engineering division: Gerald Taylor, Vinson High School, first; Danny Schomburg, Huntington High, second; James Taylor, Raceland, third; Gary Adler, Pt. Pleasant, fourth; Charles Tweel, Huntington High, fifth; Gary Moehling, Boyd County, sixth.

Chemistry division: Robert Bailes, Gallia Academy, first; Bill Courtney, Barboursville, second; Larry Keith Brumfield, Huntington East, third; John White, Vinson, fourth; Teresa Miller, Wheelersburg, fifth; Larry Owen, Duval, sixth.

Earth Science division: Emerson Walker, Milton, first; George Muncaster, Ashland Holy Family, second; Barbara Diane Arnold, Fairland, third; Robert Fletcher, Meade, fourth; Carol Wells, Meade, fifth. No sixth.

Biology division: William Lloyd Grimes, Marshall High, first; Daniel Johnson, Pt. Pleasant, second; Florence Valentine, Huntington High, third; Dean Gamp, Minford, fourth; Sherri Altizer, Huntington East, fifth, and Dean Martin, Vinson, sixth.

The "Handbook of Chemistry" award went to Gerald Taylor of Vinson.

The following are winners in the junior division. Physical Science: Zane Johnson, Minford High, first; Bill Perrshel, Barboursville, second, and Karen Plymale, Vinson, third.

Biological Science: Dennis Lee Avner, Gallia Academy, first; Wilburn Hoskins, Omar Junior High School, second, and Charles Lula, Omar Junior, third.

The Mentor book award of 50 paperbound books went to Zane Johnson. Dennis Avner won the Grolier Society award of a 10-volume set of "The Book of Popular Science."

Masters Degree Is Approved For Fields In Communications

A Master of Arts degree in Communications Arts has been approved by the graduate council in co-operation with the department of speech, library science, education and English.

The inter-departmental program is planned to provide training in several related communication fields and is adaptable to the needs of persons in such areas as public relations, journalism, advertising, broadcasting, school library services, school supervision and administration, and others.

Walter C. Felty, director of the Audio-Visual Center and chairman of a special inter-departmental committee set up to study this problem said, "The Communication Arts program is an inter-departmental one, flexible in nature, geared to the needs and desires of the students, planned to provide relatively broad training in the over-all communications area, and designed to complement and cooperate with existing programs in the regular departmentalized areas of communications."

The proposed program has been approved by the department of education; Professor Stephen Buell, Director of Radio-TV; Dr. Eugene Hoak, chairman of the speech department; Professor Page Pitt, chairman of the journalism department, and Professor Locke of Library Science.
