Music Hall Heating Problems Solved

Danger Of Poisonous Fumes Ends For Students, Faculty-Bolyard

By Bonnie Jean Nelson
Staff Reporter

"Poisonous fumes will no longer endanger the health of students and faculty who daily use the Music Hall," according to Thomas A. Bolyard, superintendent of buildings and grounds. He said that non-vented gas-fired radiators have rendered the most crowded building on campus almost completely unsafe.

The Huntington Piping and Equipment Co. began connecting pipes to an existing boiler in the Science Hall Dec. 21. Installation, including running pipes under the parking lot to the Music Hall, was completed Dec. 24 at the cost of $14,832 and much overtime labor.

Arts, Sciences Faculty Urging FIW Revision

A proposal concerning a change in the college policy of FIW grades was made at a recent meeting of the College of Arts and Sciences' faculty.

It was proposed that if a student is absent from classes the last two weeks prior to final examinations, he will not be permitted to take the examination and will receive an FIW (failure because of irregular withdrawal) grade.

At the present time, a student may miss the two weeks of class and take the examination. If his grade is poor, the lowest mark he will receive is F. However, if he is not permitted to take the examination, he will receive an FIW, putting him on automatic probation.

The proposal was passed by the Arts and Sciences' faculty and then placed in the hands of the College Academic Planning and Standards Committee, headed by Dr. Paul Stewart, professor of political science. Dr. Stewart says that a definite decision cannot be made before the end of the first semester, but something will be decided soon.

Every building on campus was given a thorough cleaning over the holidays and many major repairs were made. All flues and boilers were cleaned and repaired and athletic offices and men's physical education offices were completely stripped and refinished.

The Laboratory School Cafeteria was painted and the painting of all offices on the third floor of Old Main has been completed. Also in Old Main, the basement corridor floors were painted and a partition was removed in the Registrar's basement office to make room for new equipment.

Several office floors and the floors of all rooms and corridors on the second and third floors of Old Main were stripped and re-waxed. The entire first floor of the Student Union received the same treatment.

New lead drains were installed in several laboratory desks in the Science Hall, and ventilation ducts were begun for the president's secretary's office and that of the secretary of the dean of women. All in all, it was a busy vacation for the buildings and grounds personnel.

A Coach's Life Not Always A Happy One

THE MARSHALL-ST. FRANCIS basketball game last Saturday evoked some emotions of gloom from Coach Jule Rivlin as the team lost 86-78. While the team has come along fast, a coach would like to win each one and Saturday's

"LITTLE STORIES WITH BIG MORALS"

First Little Story

Once upon a time a German exchange student from old Heidelberg came to an American university. He lived in the men's dormitory of the great American university. He was a fine, decent young man and all the other young men in the dormitory of the great American university tried very hard to make friends with him, but, unfortunately, he was so shy that he refused all their invitations to join their bull sessions. After a while his dormitory mates got tired of asking him and so the poor German exchange student, alas, spent every evening alone in his room.

One night while sitting all alone in his room, he smelled the most delicious aroma coming from the room next door. Conquering his shyness, he walked to the room next door and there he saw a bunch of his dormitory mates sitting around and discussing literature, art, culture, and like that. They were all smoking Marlboro cigarettes, which accounts for the delicious aroma smelled by the German exchange student.

Timidly, he entered the room. "Excuse me," he said, "but what is that marvelous smell I smell?"

"It's our good Marlboro cigarettes," cried the men, who were named Fun-loving Ned, Happy Harry, Jolly Jim, and Tol'able David.

So the German exchange student took a Marlboro and enjoyed those better makin's, that finer filter, that smooth, hearty flavor, and soon he was comfortable and easy and lost his shyness.

From that night forward, whenever he smelled the good smell of Marlboro cigarettes, he always went next door and joined the bull session.

MORAL: WHERE THERE'S SMOKE, THERE'S MEYER

Second Little Story

Once upon a time there was an Indian brave named Walter T. Muskrat who had a squaw named Margaret Giggling Water. Margaret was sort of a mess but she sure could make beaded moccasins. Every day she whipped up a brand-new pair of beaded moccasins for Walter, which were so gorgeous that all the Indian maids on the reservation grew giddy with admiration.

Well, sir, Margaret got pretty tense about all the girls making eyes at Walter and one night they had a terrible quarrel. Walter flew into a rage and slapped her on the wrist, whereupon she started crying like all get-out and went home to her mother and never came back.

"Good riddance!" said Walter, but alas, he soon found out how wrong he was, for the Indian maids were not really interested in him, only in his moccasins, and when he stopped showing up with a new pair every day they quickly gave him the yo-heave-ho. Today he is a broken man, sitting all alone in his tepee and muttering ancient Ute curses.

MORAL: DON'T FIGHT THE HAND THAT BEADS YOU

Third Little Story

Once there was a lion which was a very quiet lion. In fact, the only time it ever made a sound was when it had a toothache.

MORAL: WHEN IT PAINS, IT ROARS

© 1960 Max Shulman

The makers of Marlboro would like to point a moral too: Nothing ventured, nothing gained. Try a pack of Marlboros or Marlboro's sister cigarettes—Philip Morris and Alpine—and gain yourself a heap of pleasure.

Big Green, Kent State Tangle Here Saturday

By RON HUTCHISON
Sports Editor

Resuming action this week, Marshall's cage team will carry a 5-3 record into Saturday's clash with Kent State.

During the Christmas vacation Coach Jule Rivlin's cagers split two games. The Big Green topped Western Michigan 90-81 and dropped a 86-78 overtime decision to St. Francis of Pennsylvania.

In the Western Michigan contest the Big Green jumped out to an early lead and was never in serious trouble. Leading 48-42 at the half, Marshall's fast break began clicking from the opening moments. Lou Mott, fast break middleman, bombed in several long set shots in the opening period and collected 16 points at halftime. Mott finished with 24 points for high point honors.

Team captain John Milhoan netting his speciality, the long jump shot, tallied 23 markers. This moved his per game average over 21 points.

Big Bob Burgess, dominating the backboards, added 19 points to the Marshall cause.

The next game for the Big Green was against the St. Francis Frankies. A smooth ball handling team, the Frankies held a four point lead at the halftime.

Using a tight zone defense and a 48% shooting average, St. Francis duelled on even terms with the Big Green in the second period. In the first half the score was tied nine times and the lead changed hands ten times.

The big story for Marshall in the St. Francis game was Herm Conner. The big blonde shooter tallied 23 markers to top the Big Green's scoring column. In the first half he hit on eight of ten shots and added two fouls for a total of 18 points.

Milhoan, took up the scoring slack after St. Francis switched its defense to stop Conner. Milhoan netted 21 points.

Burgess fared well in his battle with the Frankies big pivot man Wilbur Trosch. The Sharples sophomore scored 14 points and gathered in 16 rebounds. Burgess is now averaging approximately 15 rebound snags per game. In the game, St. Francis collected 61 rebounds to 43 for Marshall. This was a big factor in the overtime loss to the Pennsylvanians.

In the overtime period the Frankies showed their skill at controlling the ball by holding for 1:30 of the extra period. Marshall's fouling came back to haunt them in the overtime because Mott was lost via the foul route and Tex Williams played with four fouls in the latter stages of the game.

Marshall will be seeking revenge for the eight point loss when they meet the Frankies again in February. The Big Green travels to St. Francis to try to even their series record with the Frankies.

Next on the agenda for the Big Green will be a weekend battle with the Kent State Flashes at Memorial Field House. The Flashes are sporting an overall 2-4 record. It will be the third MAC game for Marshall with the Big Green holding a 2-0 conference mark. Marshall is now tied with Toledo for first place in the MAC.

Grapplers Drop Opening Match

Winning only two matches, the Marshall College wrestling team suffered a 28-8 defeat in its first outing at the hands of Western Michigan last month.

Jim Mattern and Ralph May were the only Big Green grapplers to win in the MAC contest. Mattern, wrestling in the 123-pound class, won by forfeit, while May decisioned Larry Linderman in the 147-pound class.

The WM Broncos won six matches. Jerry Light pinned Earl Rine in 2:07 of the second period in the 130 class, while Ted Beckner pinned Tony Russell in 2:22 of the second period in the 137-pound class.

In the 157 class, Bill Forester pinned Dick Thomas in 2:03 of the first period, and in the 167 division, Dennis Keelan pinned Harper Hill in 1:13 of the second period.

Richard Olmstead pinned Lonnie Bowden in 2:02 of the second period of the 177-pound division, and in the unlimited class, William Shaw decisioned Alpha Mayfield.

Little Green Takes Two From Bliss, Portsmouth

The high-scoring freshman basketball team, coached by William "Sonny" Allen, romped to a 96-88 victory Saturday evening when it downed Bliss College of Columbus.

The win marked the frosh's sixth win in seven starts as five players hit in the double figure column. Steve Feola was high man for the Little Green with 17 points, while Fred Burns and Phil Carter had 16 each. Corky Layman tallied 14 points and Larry Williams 10. Marshall's only loss came to Cincinnati.

Bliss' Bookkeepers came within six points of the Little Green late in the game, making up for a 17 point deficit they suffered earlier in the tussle. The Bookkeepers have scored wins over such teams as the freshman squads of Ohio University and Kent State.

In a game played on Dec. 19, the Little Green, paced by Billy Ray Daniels, rolled to a comparatively easy 94-80 victory over Portsmouth Business School. Daniels poured 19 points through the nets.

Paced by Corky Layman and Daniels, the frosh cage squad rolled to a 90-54 triumph over Greenbrier Military School in a game played at Lewisburg.

Layman, Huntington all-stater, poured 20 points through the hoop, while Daniels, of Compton, Calif., scored 17 points. Layman was outstanding at the free throw line where he tossed in 10 of 10 foul shots.

Students Can Take Bus To VPI Game

The bus would leave campus at 6 p.m. Monday and leave the Charleston Civic Center immediately after the game, returning to the campus here.
