Senator Blasts Senate, Urges Social Activities

By BRUCE GRUBER
Staff Reporter

Senior Senator Bobby Nelson from Whitesville has sharply criticized the Student Senate's failure to provide for more social activities for the Student Body.

His criticism followed the senate's refusal to pass a budget revision measure supporting an all-campus social event.

The measure would have taken a surplus $150 from the Honor System and transferred it to either the West Virginia Awareness Commission or for the promotion of a campus-wide social event.

Nelson declared that since the Student Government has sponsored only one all-campus social project this year, it is neglecting its primary duty of representing the entire Student Body. He emphasized the fact that money was an immediate and desperate need for a campus-wide social function.

Commenting on the West Virginia Awareness Commission, Nelson remarked while its long range purpose is fine, it does not actually represent Student Body social needs.

The expressed purpose of the Awareness Commission is to inform high school students, especially sophomores, and various organizations in West Virginia, of the educational conditions and opportunities in the state.

"This work is already accomplished by the yearly visits of Marshall's social deans and other administrative officials to various high schools in the state," Nelson said.

Nelson said that he did not feel that the Awareness Commission is of as immediate importance to the Student Body as a program for social activities.

In order to insure the possibility that he will have an opportunity to develop plans for a campus-wide social event, Nelson, who heads the Student Government Affairs Committee, said he asked the senate to refer this subject to his committee. The senate approved his request.

Nelson said he has a plan for a campus "Tag Day" that would include games, an outside barbecue and a dance. The affair would be held on a Saturday this spring.

"It will be up to the senate," said Nelson, "to allocate necessary funds from a budget surplus in order for such a program to be realized."

WORK RESUMED

Foundation work on the Student Christian Center is being continued in preparation for the addition of steel piling for support.

According to Rev. Lander Beal, Religious Student Counselor, it is uncertain whether the steel piling will be installed this week as was previously expected.

Jones Quits As Junior President, Says 'Some Senators Just Doodle'

By RALPH TURNER
Staff Reporter

Forrest "Beanie" Jones, who recently resigned as Junior Class president, closed out his three years in Student Government with a blast at colleagues charging that "some senators just sit and doodle."

"Many in the senate lack enthusiasm and vote a certain way

FORREST JONES
... Quits Senate Post

just because another person nearby votes that way," Jones said.

He expressed the belief that "several students are in the senate for the sole purpose of gaining points for such organizations as the Robe, ODK and Fagus."

One of Jones' criticisms concerned the excessive absences by senators at committee meetings.

Jones said, "There has been an excessive amount of absences in the committee meetings and that is the most important part of Student Government. This causes the other members to work harder to take up the slack. I don't believe those who are absent so often are lazy, maybe they just don't know the importance of Student Government."

Jones said that a lack of Student Body expression is partly to blame for the situation. "Students should let their views come forth, attend senate and committee meetings and let the members know their opinions. There are 20 or so people in there who represent the whole Student Body and the students should express their views to them. The senators are suppose to seek out opinion, but it can't all be done by them. The students themselves have to give forth with their views."

Jones gave recognition to the senate and Student Government for work that had been done on the Honor System, student monitoring program and the work planned by the State Awareness Committee.

"I have no quarrel with anybody. Resigning from the senate is about the hardest thing I have ever done. I resigned because I feel that I cannot do a just job to my studies and the senate position. It wouldn't be fair to the students if I had to divide my time. It was truly an honor for me to be in there."

Fee Up $1 On Sept. 1

Effective Sept. 1, the fee for activity cards for full-time students will be $16 per semester. The one dollar increase has been approved by the State Board of Education.

The increase was made necessary by the rising costs of presenting Artist Series, Convocations and Forums, according to president Stewart H. Smith.

The state board also has approved a proposal that married students attending college full-time be allowed to purchase separate activity cards for their spouse. The separate activity card would allow the spouse to attend all College Theatre programs, Forums, athletic events and the four student programs on the Artist Series, plus any two of the remaining series programs.

The fee for the spouse's activity card will be $15. The fee does not include charges for the yearbook, Parthenon, Student Union, or Student Council. It does include a $4.50 charge for the Artist Series, a $9.50 charge for athletic events, and a one dollar charge for a special identification card for the spouse.

Paul Collins, director of adult education, explained that the higher fees for the Artist Series and athletic events were necessary since the sale of the new activity cards will eliminate a number of seats at Artist Series and athletic events normally included in the sale of season tickets to local residents.

CLUB TO MEET

German Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the upstairs clubroom at the Student Union.

Richard Steele, assistant professor of political science, will introduce the topic, Germany Today and Tomorrow, and will direct the discussion.

An Editorial Student Government Should Consider Sponsoring Needed Social Activities

In an interview for today's Parthenon, Bobby Nelson, Whitesville senior senator blasts the Student Government for failing to provide social activities for the Student Body.

Nelson maintains that the largest group of students on campus, the unaffiliates, are being grossly neglected by the Student Government, since the government has provided only one all-campus social function for the students this year—Homecoming.

In Nelson's opinion, the main objective of the Student Government should be the well-being of the students. "On this campus, says Nelson, the unaffiliated student has little or no social outlet. Consequently, many students become unhappy with college life. This may lead to poor grades, or perhaps influence the student to seek diversion in local beer halls."

Nelson says that the Student Government would come much nearer fulfilling its obligation to the Student Body if it first provided a program of activities for students, THEN turned its attention to other matters.

For this reason, Nelson had earlier protested the Student

Government's budget plan for the second semester. Nelson's specific objections to the budget concerned allocations to the W. Va. Awareness Commission and the Honor System Commission. He felt that, although the objectives of the two commissions are worthwhile, the more immediate concern of the Student Government lay in providing a program of social activities for the Student Body during this semester. Nelson proposed that $150 of the sum earmarked for the Honor Commission be set aside for some sort of social function. The senate rejected his proposal.

As a result, the Student Government has no social function scheduled. However, Nelson, who is chairman of the Student Government Affairs Committee, is hoping to get Senate approval of funds for a Marshall Tag Day this spring.

Nelson points out that the fraternities and sororities take care of the social needs of their members, but no one provides for the social needs of the unaffiliate students who constitute the bulk of the Student Body.

We agree with Nelson. The social life of the majority of the Student Body is severely limited. A stagnation of social life breeds unhappiness among the students that can seriously affect their well-being and the well-being of the entire college.

Also, we agree that the Student Government, which should exist to serve the student, is neglecting its responsibility when it fails to provide a program of social activities for the entire Student Body throughout the school year.

Social events allow students to become better acquainted, provide an on-campus interest and generally serve to improve the total school spirit.

We hope that the Student Government will not fail to seize the opportunity to provide some sort of social activities for the Student Body during this semester.

Editor's Note

Life Planning Week begins Sunday. During the affair, we will have on our campus outstanding personalities who are specialists in giving counseling and guidance in life planning.

If you have any doubts about yourself, and the course your life should take, next week will present an opportunity to seek expert advice.

Undoubtedly, we all could stand to erase some of the "camouflage" in our lives. Life Planning Week may provide the necessary incentive to a rewarding personal re-evaluation.

COMMITTEES: AN AGONIZING REAPPRAISAL

To those of you who stay out of your student government because you believe the committee system is just an excuse for inaction, let me cite an example to prove that a committee, properly led and directed, can be a great force for good.

Last week the Student Council met at the Duluth College of Veterinary Medicine and Belles-Lettres to discuss purchasing a new doormat for the students union. It was, I assure you, a desperate problem because Sherwin K. Sigafoos, janitor of the students union, threatened flatly to quit unless a new doormat was installed immediately. "I'm sick and tired of mopping that dirty old floor," said Mr. Sigafoos, sobbing convulsively. (Mr. Sigafoos, once a jolly outgoing sort, has been crying almost steadily since the recent death of his pet wart hog who had been his constant companion for 22 years. Actually, Mr. Sigafoos is much better off without the wart hog, who tusked him viciously at least once a day, but a companionship of 22 years is, I suppose, not lightly relinquished. The college tried to give Mr. Sigafoos a new wart hog—a frisky little fellow with floppy ears and a waggly tail—but Mr. Sigafoos only turned his back and cried the harder.)

But I digress. The Student Council met, discussed the doormat for eight or ten hours, and then referred it to a committee. There were some who scoffed then and said nothing would ever be heard of the doormat again, but they reckoned without Invictus Millstone.

Invictus Millstone, chairman of the doormat committee, was a man of action—lithe and lean and keen and, naturally, a smoker of Marlboro Cigarettes. Why do I say "naturally"? Because, dear friends, active men and active women don't have time to fuss and fumble and experiment with cigarettes. They need to be sure their cigarettes will never fail them—that the flavor will always be mild and mellow—that the filter will always filter—that the pack will always be soft or flip-top. In short, they need to be sure it's Marlboro—dependable, constant, tried and true Marlboro. Smoke one. You'll see.

Well sir, Invictus Millstone chaired his doormat committee with such vigor and dispatch that, when the Student Council met only one week later, he was able to rise and deliver the following recommendations:

1. That the college build new schools of botany, hydraulic engineering, tropical medicine, Indo-Germanic languages, and millinery.
2. That the college drop football, put a roof on the stadium, and turn it into a low-cost housing project for married students.
3. That the college raise faculty salaries by $5000 per year across the board.
4. That the college secede from the United States.
5. That the question of a doormat for the students union be referred to a subcommittee.

So let us hear no more defeatist talk about the committee system. It can be made to work!

© 1960 Max Shulman

You don't need a committee to tell you how good Marlboros are. You just need yourself, a Marlboro, and a match... Or if you like mildness but you don't like filters, try Marlboro's sister cigarette—Philip Morris.

Red-Hot Redskins Scalp Big Green

By RON HUTCHISON
Sports Editor

The victim of a tremendous opening period flurry by Miami, Marshall's Big Green dropped a heartbreaker Tuesday to the Redskins, 86-78.

Miami kept its home court win skein against Marshall intact with the victory. The Big Green has not beaten the Redskins at Oxford since the days when Coach Jule Rivlin played.

Behind by 21 points early in the contest, the Big Green came back to narrow the gap to two points with eight minutes left to play, but just couldn't get the big equalizer.

Redskins Hot

Hitting on 12 of their first 14 shots, the Redskins held off two second half surges by the Big Green. Marshall outscored Miami 45-38 in the second half. Miami capitalized on numerous Marshall turnovers at crucial points in the game to thwart any possible comeback. Holding a commanding 10-point lead with four minutes to go, Miami froze the ball to run out the clock.

For Marshall, John Milhoan was again the big gun with 31 markers and was followed by Bob Burgess with 20. This was the fourth game in which the Marshall captain has scored over 30 points. He has scored a total of 471 points for a 23.5 average.

Burgess' points give him second place in the race for Marshall scoring honors. Tex Williams, the scrappy guard from Clear Fork High, accounted for 15 points and played one of his best games of the season.

Along with Burgess, Bruce Moody and Jim Gallion worked well under the backboards and helped the Big Green in its second half scoring rampage. Burgess pulled down 18 rebounds. One factor in the loss was that fast break leader Lou Mott was held to only 2 points.

Toledo Next Foe

Tomorrow night, the Big Green returns home for the first of its two remaining home games. This weekend brings the second-place Toledo Rockets to town for an important MAC game. Marshall could conceivably knock the Rockets out of the race for the league championship. With a 14-2 record, Toledo has lost only to Bowling Green in conference competition.

Advocates of the slow, deliberate brand of basketball, Toledo defeated Marshall in an earlier game, 61-53. Toledo, although averaging only about 67 points on offense, has limited the opposition to only 57 points per game.

A strong rebounding team, Toledo has better than a ten rebound bulge per game over opponents. The Rockets are averaging 46 rebounds a game. Toledo will be hurting from the loss of senior guard Willie Newson due to graduation. Newson was averaging almost 11 points per game.

The other home game for the Big Green will be Monday, Feb. 22, against Eastern Kentucky. Marshall lost to the Blue Grass team 90-82 in December. The Big Green's overall record now stands at 9-11 and 4-6 in the Mid-American Conference.

Big Green Loses Match To Ohio U.

By KEITH WALTERS
Sports Writer

Marshall's varsity wrestling squad suffered its fifth defeat of the season Wednesday night at the hands of Ohio University as the visiting Bobcats ended a Big Green three-match winning streak with a 23-7 victory.

ning ways with a decision over Bernie Chayhowski in the 123-pound class. Two Big Green grapplers fought to draws with their opponents. Captain Bill Gillespie drew with Dave Gottdeiner in the 167 pound class, while Bob Wilson drew with Ken Ricks in the 177 pound division.

Earl Rine was pinned by Ohio's

Bob Topolovac in 1:22 of the second period, while sophomore Clyde Cyrus dropped his first match in three starts, being decided by Keith Sonner.

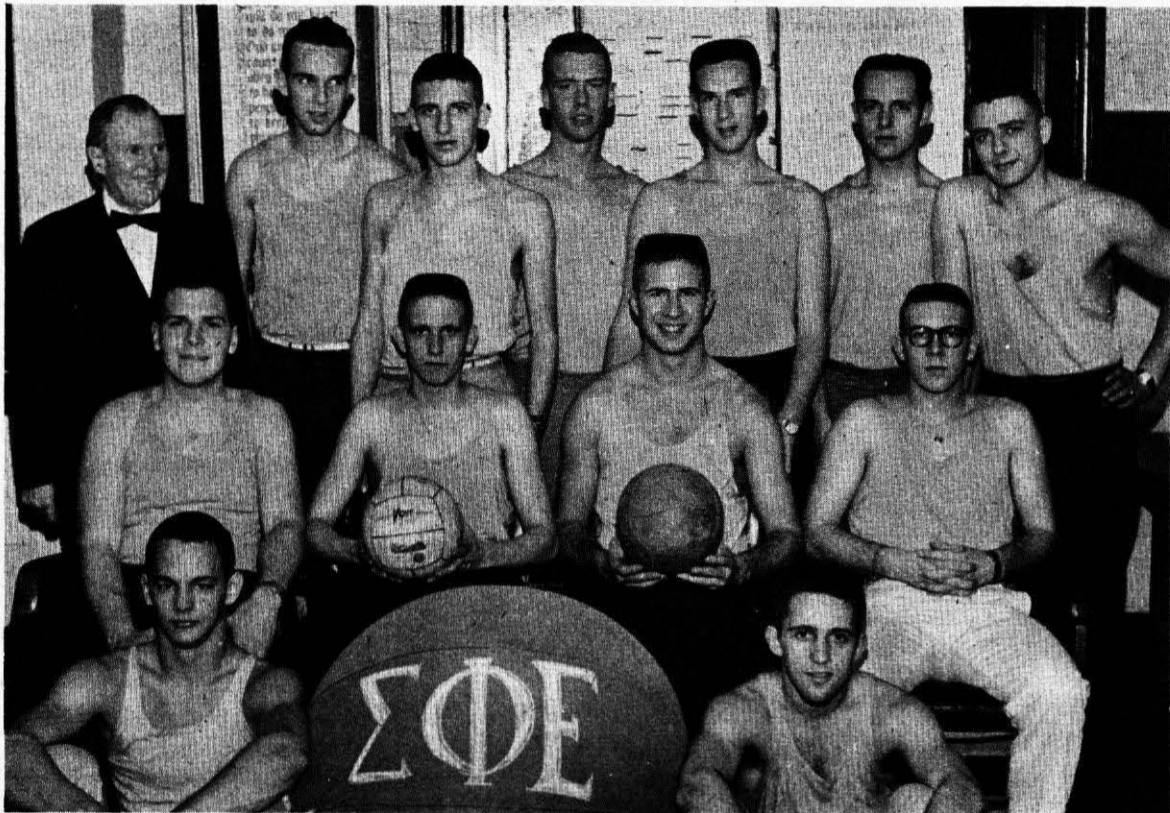

Ohio's Doug Ryan decisioned Ralph May in the 147 pound class, while Marshall's Harper Hill was pinned by Tom Evans in 1:07 of the second period. In the final match, Ohio's Tiny Graf decisioned Alpha Mayfield in the heavy-weight division.

The Big Green grapplers handed Fairmont State College a 20-13 defeat on Jan. 30 as three Marshall wrestlers scored pins.

Jim Mattern, wrestling in the 123 pound class, pinned Ron Winters in 2:30 of the first period, while Clyde Cyrus, a sophomore in his first start as a varsity grappler, pinned Ronnie Wolfe in the second period. Harper Hill pinned Bryan Cole in 1:25 of the third period in the 167 pound class.

The University of Cincinnati was the first opponent to taste defeat at the hands of the Big Green. The Bearcats lost, 21-11, as the Big Green rolled to its first victory after losing to Western Michigan, Ohio Wesleyan, Toledo, and Kent State.

The Big Green have three regular season matches remaining. Tomorrow night, Miami University will play host to the Big Green, while on Feb. 20, Marshall will visit Baldwin-Wallace.

17 Women's Organizations Active During Semester

By SUSAN ATKINSON
Society Editor

The women on campus enjoyed 17 women's organizations last semester. Two of these are interest groups, five are honorary groups, and nine are social groups.

The first organizations were founded on campus in 1922. They are the Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority and the Delta Sigma sorority, now the Delta Zeta sorority. The newest organization on campus was founded about four years ago and is the Jr. Pan-Hellenic Council.

The largest women's organization is the Alpha Xi Delta sorority, with 62 members and the smallest organization is Fourth Estate with six members.

The two interest groups are the Home Economics Club and the Women's Athletic Association. The year that the Home Economics Club was founded on campus is not definitely known but it was sometime before 1943. This club has 45 members and membership is open to all home economics majors and minors. The Women's Athletic Association was founded on campus in 1927-28 and has about 40 members. Membership is open to all women who are interested in an active participation in sports.

The honorary groups are:

Freshmen women who attain a 3.5 academic average the first semester of the freshman year or a 3.5 over all average at the end of the second semester of the freshman year may become members of Alpha Lambda Delta, honorary academic fraternity for freshmen women. It was founded on campus in 1953 and has 26 members.

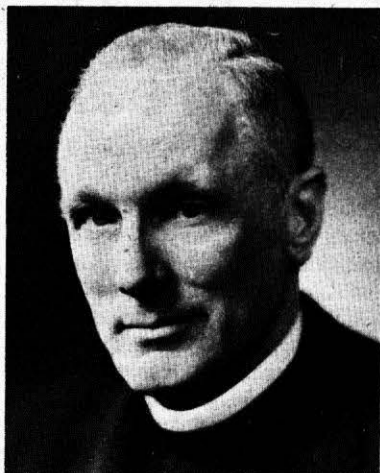

Women are selected for membership in Fagus, senior women's leadership honorary fraternity, the second semester of their junior year on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. It was founded in 1950-51 on campus by local members of Mortar Board, national senior women's honorary. It has 12 members at the present time.

The other three honorary groups are Delta Omicron, national music honorary fraternity; Fourth Estate, honorary journalism fraternity, and Kappa Omicron Phi, national home economics honorary fraternity. Delta Omicron was founded about 1945 and has eight members. Fourth Estate was founded in 1930 and has six members. Kappa Omicron Phi was founded in 1926 and has 15 members.

Societas is the independent social organization on the campus. It was founded as the Sportettes in 1948 and the name was changed to Societas in 1958. It has 28 members.

The Greek social organizations are the Pan-Hellenic, the Jr. Pan-Hellenic Council, and six sororities. The sororities are Alpha Chi Omega, which was founded in 1952 and has 54 members; Alpha Sigma Alpha, which was founded in 1927 and has 24 members; Alpha Xi Delta, which was founded in 1949 and has 62 members; Delta Zeta, which was founded in 1922 and has 61 members; Sigma Kappa, formerly Pi Kappa Sigma sorority, which was founded in 1923 and has 58 members; and Sigma Sigma Sigma, which was founded in 1922 and has 61 members.

The Pan-Hellenic Council is the governing body for the Greek sororities. It was founded in 1923 and has 18 members. The Jr. Pan-Hellenic Council is the coordinating body of the pledge classes of the sororities. It was founded about four years ago and has 12 members.

Pat Joyce, Parkersburg junior, placed second in the radio announcing contest out of seven contestants.

Ohio University won the tournament, in which 11 colleges participated.

The next tournament will be the North-South Tournament at Morgantown Feb. 26-27.

Plans are being made to send teams to novice tournaments at the University of Pittsburgh in March, and to Ohio University in April.

Positions on the debate team are open to any student without previous debating experience. Interested students should see Agnes Porter, instructor in speech or Ben Hope, associate professor of speech.

Court Convicts Line-Breakers

The nine-member student court convicted two students as line-breakers at a recent court session.

Jim Gallion, Flatwoods, Ky., sophomore, and Tim Mahoney, South Charleston sophomore, offered no defense prior to their conviction.

Stern warnings (first offense policy) were handed down by Court Chief Justice George Knox, Huntington senior.

Bonnie Whitte, Huntington freshman, and Fred Growe, Pineville freshman, failed to appear before the court for trial on charge of line-breaking. Knox said these students would be tried at the next court session on a charge of contempt of court.

Two convictions and one acquittal have been handed out by the court in previous line-breaking cases.
