Recommendation from Faculty Personnel

May 17, 1988

(Received May 24, 1988)

Recommendation #1

Moved, seconded and passed to seek a 3 to 4 hour release time for the Faculty Personnel Committee chair, based on the fact it is an exceeding difficult, time-consuming task.

Faculty Senate President:

Approved Rainey Duke Date 9/8/88

Disapproved _____ Date _____

University President:

Approved Dan Tackett Date 9/9/88

Disapproved _____ Date _____

Background: After the election of officers, Dr. Sawrey noted that the FPC Chair was an exceedingly difficult, time-consuming job. He spoke from many years' experience on the FPC, two of which he served as chair. He also cited the inordinate amount of time spent on committee work by Dr. Plumley and Prof. Chezik. There is certainly little question that the FPC is an extraordinarily active committee.

Dr. Sawrey moved that we seek release time for the FPC Chair. The motion was seconded by Prof. Tackett and passed unanimously.
