Recommends approval of the listed UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM ADDITIONS in the following college and/or schools/programs:

COLLEGE of INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY and ENGINEERING

Name of program: Computer and Information Security

Rationale:

As cybersecurity continues to be a primary challenge, the needs for trained experts are growing at an astonishing rate. The B.S. in Computer and Information Security program focuses on educating and training students to better understand, prevent, mitigate and respond to cybersecurity threats. The program will also raise awareness and interest in the closely-related programs at Marshall University and graduates of this program will contribute to West Virginia's economic development and advance its competitive edge regionally, nationally and globally.
