FACULTY ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES RECOMMENDATION

SR-19-20-28 FACSD

Recommends that a faculty-wide electronic survey be disseminated during the Fall 2020 semester to ascertain faculty members' familiarity with and confidence using resources at Marshall related to students with disabilities as well as their understanding of relevant rules, laws and requirements pertaining thereto.

RATIONALE:

The mission of Marshall University's Faculty Advisory Committee for Students with Disabilities is to provide professional development, university-wide education, and student advocacy that promotes academic growth, social integration, and community engagement for all students. The committee plans to use the information provided by survey respondents to assist in the development of educational initiatives that will support faculty who serve postsecondary students with disabilities. Information from the survey will be used internally and will not be disseminated outside of Marshall University.

A draft of the survey may be found here:
