MARSHALL COLLEGE

Takes Two From H. H. S.

April 8, Huntington High 1; M. C. 5.
H. H. S. 2, Tells the Tale of First
Two Games of Season.

On Thursday Marshall defeated the representing Huntington High
to the tune of 8 to 1, in a practice played on Marshall Field. Sat-afternoon the massacre was repeated, the score being only 5 to 2 this time. The pitcher pitched the first five innings and the rah! rah! boys completely merciful. Then Quinlan and Tallman were allowed a short workout and ended the game, both working in fine style. "Bully" caught a good game. Echols played an air-tight game at short beating one over the fence for a bagger. Crist distinguished himself first. "Si" McCullough got the safe hit in the game.

- Pitcher—First game:
- Outfield—Hollandsworth, Pitsenberger.
- Infield—Evans, Quinlan, Tallman.
- Baseball—Echols, Holton.
- Baseball—Crist, Macdonald.
- Baseball—Eckard, LeSage.
- Baseball—Morris.
- Baseball—Davisson.
- Baseball—Winters.
- Baseball—McCullough, Sayre.

SECOND GAME.

The game again started the contest and H. H. S. scoreless while he was in the box. Quinlan and Tallman finished the game. Five to two was the result of the battle, with Marshall on the big winners. "Bully," Morris, and Sayre were the stars for M. C. Morris got a bagger and a two-bagger out of the box at bat. Echols walked three

Choral Society

Progressing Nicely; Parts Assigned In Operetta.

The Choral Society of Marshall College will present the operetta "Sylvia"
sometime during the week of April 26th, probably on Friday evening. Rehearsals are very promising, and the director is enthusiastic over the prospect of a fine performance.

The soloists have been definitely decided upon, and are as follows: Sylvia,
Mary Hammond; De Lacey, Mervin
Durea; William, Stanley Johnson;
Prince Tobbytum, Relford Cheadel;
Janet, Simrall Fisher; Nancy, Ruth Cofer; Kitty Wilda Jones. There are interesting feature dances and choruses
done by special groups, and everybody
has a chance to shine and promises to do so very brilliantly.

Miss Chaffin has worked out some charming dances, and Miss Cundiff is much pleased with everything so far.

M. H. Accepts Challenge

Of First Year College Class To Debate and Oration.

A week or two ago it was announced that the First Year College Class had challenged Morris Harvey to a literary contest, consisting of an oration and a debate. The First Year College at Barboursville promptly accepted the challenge, and arrangements have been almost completely made for the fray.
The big event will probably take place
in the Marshall Auditorium, May 7.

The oration for the Marshall class will be given by Mae Yoho, who is eminently qualified to represent her class in this way. Those who heard her report on the Des Moines Convention, or at the joint meetings of the Y. M. and Y. W. have no fears for the outcome of the oration.

The question for debate is "Resolved,
That the United States should adopt a system of universal military training."
The three debaters for Marshall will be Alonzo Huffman, Carl Hereford, and Russell Morris.

The baseball season opens this afternoon, wind and weather permitting, as the old proverb says. It is not as convenient for the student body, especially the Dorm girls, to go to League Park as it would be to see the game played on Marshall Field. It is indeed unfortunate that all home games could not be played nearer the school, but since that is not possible until arrangements for seating the people can be made, we must make the best of the situation and go to League Park. Let not a single Marshall student who can possibly be there miss the game this afternoon and tomorrow. Back up your team.

times out of four. "Fat" Macdonald had oodles of pep while he was behind the bat.

Line-up:

Catcher—Hollandsworth, Macdonald.
Pitcher—Evans, Quinlan, Tallman.
Shortstop—Echols.
First B.—Crist.
Second B.—Eckard.
Third B.—Morris.
Right field—Davisson, LeSage.
Center field—Winters.
Left field—McCullough, Sayre.

Today and tomorrow the opening games of the season will be played with the Ohio University team at League Park. Practically this same team won the championship of the Ohio Conference, so Marshall will have to fight hard to win, and will need the support of the entire student body. Come prepared to yell and back the team to a finish.

Banquet

Young Men's Bible Class of Johnson Memorial Church Enjoy Feast.

Several representatives from Marshall were present at a banquet given by the Young Men's Bible Class of the Johnson Memorial Church recently, and are very enthusiastic over the excellent menu offered, and the exceptional ability along culinary lines of one "Carter," a colored cook, who has been unanimously elected "official chef" by the members of the class.

The class is taught by B. W. Partidge, Jr., whose love for and interest in young men has meant much to Marshall students for several years.

The following students were present: Perce Epling, "Trusty" Tallman, Frank Tallman, "Si" McCullough, "Red" Crist, Harry Chambers, Wance Chambers, Harold Sayre, Joe Justice, Denver Smith, Mann Fleming, Britt Thomas, Joseph Brown, I. I. Pitsenberger, and Everett Walker. Quite a number of young business men of the city who are members of the class were present also.

Foolish Questions

then, most every morning is someone 'round the place sees you take a shaving brush, lather up your face. as you give the razor a preliminary ave, nut will always ask you, you going to take a shave?"

sh Question! your answer is, I hope; I'm really not at all prepared for having, I like the taste of soap! t like to take the shaving brush, paint myself this way!" there's a question, That you'll hear, every day.

then you all have met the man stops you on the way, asks you where you're going, then listens while you say

You are going to the funeral Of poor old Brother Ned. Then, as son as you have told him He will say, "Why, is he dead?"

Foolish Question! And you might as well reply: "No! he always thought that first he'd have the funeral, Then after while he'd die! Brother Ned was so original; He wanted it that way!" Now there's a question That you'll hear, most every day.

Or, if you should have a caller Say some afternoon at five; And, as you sit conversing, If the doctor should arrive, Would your visitor be silent, Do you think that she'd be still? Or, when she saw the doctor, Would she say, "Is someone ill?"

Foolish Question! And you answered, with a shrug, "No! there's no one ill, we simply have the doctor come, To beat the parlor rug! Sometimes, too, he tunes the grand piano When we want to play!" Now there's a question That you'll hear, most every day.
