

Marshall University

Marshall Digital Scholar

The Parthenon

University Archives

11-19-1920

The Parthenon, November 19, 1920

Marshall University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://mds.marshall.edu/parthenon>

Recommended Citation

Marshall University, "The Parthenon, November 19, 1920" (1920). The Parthenon. 4141.
<https://mds.marshall.edu/parthenon/4141>

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the University Archives at Marshall Digital Scholar. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Parthenon by an authorized administrator of Marshall Digital Scholar. For more information, please contact zhangj@marshall.edu, beachgr@marshall.edu.

THE PARTHENON

Your School Life is What YOU Make It. Don't Blame The School for YOUR own Shortcomings. GET IN THE GAME!

If Things Are Not Going To Suit You, Help Us Make Them Go By Giving Your Whole-hearted Support. DON'T KICK, BUT PUSH!

"ALL FOR MARSHALL ALL THE TIME"

VIII

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1920.

No. 7

EROSOPHIAN PROGRAM

Have You Ever Attended Literary? Now's A Good Time To Begin.

A new committee has been appointed to help the vice-president of the Ero-sophian Literary Society prepare the program. The first one prepared under this system of co-operation is published on page three of this issue. Go to it now and see what you think. Then come out this evening and see whether it comes up to your expectations.

— M. C. —

MARSHALL 0, RIO GRANDE 28

Hagee, As Quarterback and Dobbs Put Good Game for Green and White.

Playing straight football almost entirely, the heavy Rio Grande team defeated Marshall College by a score of 28-0. It made the seventh consecutive victory for the Ohio boys this season.

The Marshall team, playing under the generalship of Hagee, the diminutive halfback who has been recently moved to quarter, played an unceremonious game. Time and time again they kicked the ball to within scoring distance of the Buckeye goal line, but they lacked the punch to put it over. On the other hand their line was not strong enough to stop the Rio Grande backs.

Dobbs, Marshall's fullback, won himself a niche in the hall of fame by his spectacular playing yesterday. He made several good gains. Hagee, although this was his second appearance at quarter, handled his team well. Benberger, the big guard from last year's team continued to pull 'em in in their tracks.

The victory was about evenly divided among the Rio Grande players. All (Continued on Page 2)

GREEN AND WHITE CLUB NOW HAS SISTER

Girls Organize Club of Similar Aims To Help Boost Marshall.

Last Friday evening after the Ero-sophian meeting a special committee from the Green and White Club started a similar organization among the girls. Twenty-five charter members were chosen, and temporary officers elected until a permanent organization can be effected. The girls showed great enthusiasm about the affair, and the two clubs working in concert can accomplish a great deal in the up-building of Marshall, the establishment of ideals and traditions, and incidentally have a lot of good, wholesome fun doing it.

As now planned, these two clubs will be sponsors for the social affairs to be held in the new gym when completed. Other plans for social and general school affairs are being formulated, and a new era in organized boosting is looked for.

Here are the charter members of the girls' club: Dora Atkinson, Martha Bonar, Pauline Milam, Carrie Coffman, Marjorie McLaughlin, Helen Coffman.

(Continued on page four)

M. C. R. C.

Recruiting Club Starts Second Season; Six Groups Already Formed.

The Marshall College Recruiting Club has been well started upon its second year of existence. After demonstrating its ability last year by getting Marshall the largest Freshman class in the history of the school, it is now working toward the goal of 250 Freshmen next fall.

The recruiters have organized groups of six to eight each, and a contest is on to determine which group will find the best name for itself. The group presenting the best name within a week will have its individual photograph taken.

After President Hamilton had explained the working of the club and the groups had been organized, the crowd retired to the west entrance of Science Hall and several pictures were taken. Well begun is half done, and Marshall had better prepare to receive an overflow of eager searchers for wisdom next fall.

A FRESHMAN CLASS OF 250 NEXT FALL! CAN WE DO IT? WELL, WATCH US!

Y. W. ISSUES CHALLENGE

If Y. M. Sends Three Delegates To Silver Bay, They Will Send Six To Eagles' Mere.

At the joint meeting of the two Christian Associations of the school Wednesday, a spirited contest was started. Garry Eckard, in his report of the conference at Silver Bay, New York last summer, so showed the desirability of sending delegates that the Y. M. determined to try to send three delegates there next spring. Thereupon the Y. W. said they would send six to Eagles' Mere if the Y. M. carried out their plans. Let us hope both ideals are more than realized.

The following program was given at the meeting:

Song	Audience
Scripture	Gladys Johnson
The Four-fold Life	Mildred McDaniel
Piano Solo	Mabel Thomasson
Silver Bay Report	Garry Eckard

Social functions are to begin as soon as the joint committees can bring them about. Both Associations have a favorable outlook if YOU lend your time and help!

— M. C. —

FACULTY RECITAL

This Evening In Auditorium At 8:30.

A musical event which is always looked forward to with much interest and pleasurable anticipation will take place Friday evening when the faculty of the Department of Music give their annual recital in the Auditorium.

The performers for this occasion are Mrs. C. E. Haworth, soprano; Miss Mildred MacGeorge, head of the department; Misses Claire Ethel Davis, and St. Elmo Fox. Of the pianists, Miss MacGeorge needs no introduction

(Continued on page four)

IT WILL TAKE THE SUPPORT OF THE ENTIRE MARSHALL STUDENT BODY TO

Beat Morris Harvey

Here Thanksgiving Day

ARE YOU PLANNING TO STAY FOR THE GAME?

THE PARTHENON

Published every Friday by Students of Marshall College, Huntington, W. Va.

EDITORIAL STAFF

Editor in Chief.....Russell W. Morris
Ass't Editor.....Erville E. Sowards
Ass't Editor.....Louis A. Gilmore
Associate Editor.....Dora Atkinson
Associate Editor.....Pauline Milam
Athletic Editor.....Garry Eckard
College Hall.....Mary Poague Osborne
Humor and Jokes.....Virginia Hoff
Business Mgr.....Alonzo Huffman
Adv. Mgr.....Harold McKnight
Circulation Mgr.....Doris Harpold
Faculty Adviser.....C. E. Hedrick

Entered as second class mail matter at the Postoffice at Huntington, W. Va.
December 8, 1919.

Subscription Price $1.00 per Year.

Owing to the Thanksgiving recess,
there will be no issue of "The Parthenon" next week.

M. C.

This week a new column, "The Forum," makes its appearance. This column is for the general discussion of any question that may arise, and is of interest to the student body. Everyone is urged to contribute to this column, so that it may be representative of the sentiment of the school as a whole. If you have any complaint to make of the customs or practices of Marshall, or any suggestions that you think will be of benefit to the students, you are invited to make them known through this column. If requested, the name will not be published, though this is not the best way to sponsor an idea.

Student government is discussed this week, and students and faculty are requested to comment upon this question. All comments worthy will be published as soon as possible. You have this opportunity of reaching the student body, now avail yourselves of it.

Other questions that will be discussed later are as follows:

Should non-athletes receive letters? This will be discussed in relation to debaters, the editor and manager of the annual and the school paper.

What organizations are needed in Marshall in addition to the ones we have already?

How should the "Parthenon" staff be selected?

How can greater interest in athletics be aroused?

This gives an idea of the kind of propositions to be discussed, and if you have others in mind, let us know of them. Plenty of space is available, so get your fountain pen and air your grievances.

M. C.

That's All

Sporty One: "What makes that red spot on your nose?"

Grind: "Glasses."

Sporty One: "Glasses of what?"

THE FORUM

Student Government at M. C.

The students at Marshall College today have no organization to take the initiative in starting the activities of the school and to direct them after they are started. To be sure, we have an Athletic Board, which attends to the matters relating to athletics. But this board is not the representative of the whole student body, and the student body as a whole can not express its ideas through this board, because the members of the board are not elected by the student body.

The Green and White Club is another organization which does a great deal for the athletics of the school, and this club goes a long way toward bringing about unison among the men of Marshall. But again the students are not directly represented, for they do not elect the members of the Green and White Club.

The students have no direct control of their school paper. The staff of the paper is not elected by the student body as a whole, and the student body has no direct representative on the staff of the paper. There is no organization to take the initiative in regard to the Mirabilia. The Junior class has thus far not seen fit to take any action, and the students have no way in which to start the wheels moving.

In all of these cases, as in many others in school, each activity is isolated, each one goes its own way, with no control by student body. There is no body which has the power to act for the student body at Marshall. There is no centralized authority to keep things moving, and when some organization fails to function, or some phase of school life to develop, that much is lost to Marshall, because there is no one to see to it that the activities of the school are kept going. As long as the activities of the school keep going, the need for the action of some board representing the student body is not felt, but when there is a hitch, then we feel the need of a board which can take definite action on behalf of the student body. What we need is a Student Board of Control, elected by the students, and given power to act for them in all matters pertaining to the interest of the student body. The board may be given very limited power, or it may be given large powers, as the student body sees fit, but the students need a board to represent them in the activities of the school which interest them, and are of benefit to them.

FOODS AND THEIR PRESERVATION

For Domestic Science Students Especially, But of General Interest
To All Who Use Foods.

By Prof. H. P. Hron, B.S., A.M., Ph. C.

(Editor's Note—This is the first of a series of articles by Prof. Hron dealing with foods and methods used in preserving them. Others will follow in order. All are the result of much research, and are well worth reading and preserving for reference.)

The practice of preserving foods is an old one, and various processes such as pickling with vinegar, drying, smoking, salting, preserving with sugar, the application of heat, and the employment of low temperatures in cold storage, have been used from ancient times. These processes are all unobjectionable, and the preserving substances used—salt, sugar, and vinegar—are themselves foods. However, in addition to these old and well-known methods of food preservation is the comparatively modern practice of arresting growth of micro-organisms and subsequent fermentation and putrefaction by the use of such antiseptic chemical compounds as formaldehyde, beta-naphthol, boric, salicylic, benzoid, and sulfurous acids or salts of these acids, etc. in regard to the wholesomeness of which there is considerable difference, even among experts of unquestioned ability. Nearly all of these substances exert a powerful antiseptic influence, so that small quantities only need be used in food.

The advocates of the use of chemical antiseptics claim that there are no authentic instances on record of injury from the use of such small quantities of these substances as are necessary to arrest decay; while there are many cases of injury arising from the use of foods which, while apparently wholesome, have undergone such fermentation as to develop ptomaines or other toxins, and that because antiseptics prevent such spoiling of the food, their use is decidedly beneficial; that there is besides, no more reason why a prejudice should exist against the employment of these newer chemicals than against saltpeter, which has long been used in the curing of meat, or against the cresols and phenols left as a product of smoking.

The opponents of their use assert that the addition to food of antiseptic substances which will prevent its decay, also serves to retard the digestive process when the food is eaten; that many of these substances are drugs and, as such, cannot fail, even in small quantities to produce some kind of a toxic effect on the system; that finally their use is objectionable by allowing the employment in certain foods, of materials that may have already undergone incipient decomposition before the addition of the antiseptic, and thus unwholesome.

(The next article will contain a discussion of these various preservatives each one being taken in detail.)

M. C.

CHOKES

"Bill, why do you scratch your head so?"

Bill: "Because I'm the one who knows where it itches."

M. C.

Mr. C.: "What is density?"

M. S.: "I can't define it, I can give an illustration."

Mr. C.: "The illustration good, sit down."

M. C.

He: "You say you are open proposal?"

She: (eagerly) "Yes."

He: "Suppose we talk a while."

M. C.

To the Ouija

We don't believe you're truth Ouija,

Besides, we haven't time to rig. And if we could we wouldn't h. So run along for we don't nija.

M. C.

S. T.: "Don't you like to pick horseshoes, Mr. S.?"

Mr. S.: "No, it's too slow."

S. T.: "Gee, I do. Horseshoes and checkers are my favorite for of athletics."

M. C.

He: "Girls are prettier than men."

She: "Why, naturally."

He: "No, artificially."

"Heavens, no, Horace. All flies that fly around the dairy not butterflies."

M. C.

Freshman: "Which end of street car are you supposed to off?"

Senior: "It really makes difference. Both ends stop."

M. C.

Marshall 0; Rio Grande 28

(Continued from page one)

of the forwards fought hard and timely, while the back field men the line like shock troops. Bost fullback stood out slightly over mates in that department.

The lineup was as follows:

Rio Grande (28) Pos.	Marshall
McDaniel	le.
Dillon	lt.
Evans	lg.
Ewing	c.
Wickline	rg.
Saunders	rt.
C. Davis	re.
Allen	qb.
Elias	lh.
O. Davis	rh.
Boster	fb.

Substitutions; LeSage for Boster
Bonar for Morgan, Sowards for Blangee.

LEAP YEAR PARTY

Unusual Affair Last Friday Evening.

The Dorm girls entertained school boys at a Leap Year last Friday evening. The boys had a fine sporting spirit by bravely responding to the invitation and appearing in the Dorm parlors at the appointed hour. We say they showed up because, it being a Leap Year, one of them knew but what he was going to receive a proposal from the wrong girl.

The "gang" had assembled and enjoyed a few strains of old popular songs like "Juanita," the girls gave them the surprise of their lives by telling them they were going to the dance. Some of the boys looked blank, blushed, and some made some incoherent gesture. However, the girls were relieved by an announcement from one of the girls that the boys had pretended they were the girls at the dance—which they did very cleverly.

The show, which was enjoyed by the "girls", even though Tomlinson did lose his powder puff and Frank LeSage complained of the merry bunch came back to the room, where they were further entertained in Mrs. Lyon's cozy little parlor by games, music, and "eats". Hagee gave a delightful little solo, while Bill Sayre rendered selections on the Victrola. Pittsenberger was the most studious, he could not say "Boots and shoes", though he must be credited for trying very hard. Dan Berry proved to the whole that he certainly knows how to dance, for even Mrs. Bristowe with Mrs. Fisher, had come in and had fallen into the spirit of the evening) exclaimed, "Berry, wonderful!" Wesley Archer and Sowards proved they can be "ladies" when they want to be, also Canterbury and the others. Brewer presided at the punch with much grace and charm. All exceedingly sorry when the fate-sounded the summons that this unusual party to an end.

M. C. ———
 Chairman: "Say, what's amusing?"

Mr. "Huh, don't you know? When a guy can use one hand as the other. If he lost his hand he could cut his finger with his left."

M. C. ———

Missie: "What runs across the street without legs?"

Mr. "I don't know, what?"

Missie: "Water."

M. C. ———

Mr. Boy: "How do you get your girls?"

Mr. Boy: "Oh, I just add a little gasoline on my motorcycle."

ARMISTICE DAY PROGRAM

Rev. Jenkins and President Hamilton Speak.

As a celebration of the signing of the armistice two years ago, student assembly was held a day earlier last week, and appropriate exercises given. After songs by the chorus, and a solo by Louis Gilmore, Rev. Jenkins delivered a commemorative address. Then the audience sang the popular war choruses of "There's a Long, Long Trail" and "Smiles". President Hamilton then delivered an address "After a Hundred Years of Peace."

Mr. Stewart sang "Keep the Home Fires Burning" and the assembly joined in on the chorus of each stanza. Marshall has quite a number of ex-service men, many of whom saw hard service on the various fronts of the war.

CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

November Meeting Tomorrow Evening At 7:15.

The third of the series of "Third Saturdays" has rolled around, and the November meeting of the Classical Association will be held tomorrow evening in the Classical room on the third floor.

It goes without saying that the committee has prepared an interesting program, and that the evening will be an enjoyable one to those who like a change from the ordinary social function. If you have a year of Latin, call on us and see what a nice bunch we really are.

MYERS IS ASKED TO ENTER EXHIBIT

Art Department Head to Contribute at Pittsburgh.

Request for an exhibit of his paintings in Pittsburgh has been made by the Wonderly Art Studios of the Steel City, it has been made known by E. E. Myers, head of the art department, and a well-known artist. The Pittsburgh exhibition will be held in February.

Recognition of the ability of Mr. Myers as a painter is extending beyond the limits of his state. Six of his recent landscapes were purchased by a Pittsburgh art connoisseur recently. Mr. Myers has reproduced many familiar scenes along the Ohio river in this vicinity in his landscape paintings.

Mr. Myers' Pittsburgh exhibit will be preceded by an exhibition of his paintings here, it is planned.

EROSOPHIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

Friday, November 19, 7:00 P. M.

Song No. 16..... Society
 Chapel..... Lilly Hoffman
 Piano Solo..... Miriam Johnson
 Extemporaneous Speech..... Clyde Bonar
 Song No. 69..... Society
 Reading..... Mrs. Fisher
 Vocal Solo..... Margaret Ballard
 Jokes..... Leva Ridenour
 Song 75..... Society

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

Interesting Meeting Held Last Friday Evening; Mrs. Campbell Talks.

The November meeting of the Cercle Francais took place last Friday afternoon in Society Hall. After the usual French songs and preliminary business an episode "Chez la Modiste" was given by Pauline Milam, Daisy Collis and Maye Houchins. This was very well acted, and was very interesting, as would readily be expected by anyone knowing the characters.

Then Mrs. Carl G. Campbell gave some anecdotes of her trip to La Belle France, last summer. These were very interestingly told, and the appreciative audience was pleased with Mrs. Campbell's command of French.

The next meeting will be held the second Friday in December. All who have had one year of French are invited to attend.

CHORAL SOCIETY PRACTICING

More Boys Needed For Chorus Of "Hawatha's Wedding".

Who says we can't sing? Just be within a block of Society Hall any Monday evening, and you'll hear for yourself. You may not be able to make out any definite words, except possibly "Hiawatha," but others are there. We're proud of ourselves and much so of Miss Cundiff. If there's any music in us, you may be sure she'll coax it out! More boys are needed for the chorus, and even those who have had no previous musical training will soon be made into acceptable singers under her capable management. Come out and give her a chance to find you out.

The sun and moon may vary—but we, never! Every Monday evening at 7:00 sharp, meets and gives forth harmonious sounds which will later develop into real music—The Choral Society.

M. C. ———
 No Jokio!
 A little Jap, by some mishap,
 Once wandered far from Tokio.
 He shot some crap, and then this chap,
 Went wandering home, quite brokio!

CLOTHES-LINE FOR COLLEGE FELLOWS!

Snappy Clothes, Nifty Overcoats, Good Sweaters, Silk Shirts, Underwear, Hosiery, Collars, Neckwear, Belts and everything else a good college boy needs in the clothes line. We invite your patronage.

Broh Clothing Co.
 Huntington, W. Va.

GOOD MERCHANDISE

at prices that will give you real value is our constant effort. Your satisfaction is our motto.

Northcott-Tate-Hagy Company

TAKE PICTURES

and join the throng of satisfied Kodakers that bring their work to the—

THE HOME STUDIO
 1226 Seventh Avenue
 M. E. DODD, Mgr.

Agnew Hats

FOR YOUNG MEN
 SUPERIOR QUALITY
 POPULAR PRICES

$5.00 AND UP

923 Fourth Avenue

MISS A. MARTIN FLORIST

Flowers are a hundred years ahead of words—Send some!
 Phone 74 314 Tenth St.
 HUNTINGTON, W. VA.

S. P. I. D.
ARE YOU WITH US?

Pageant to Represent Entire School History

Committees Collecting Data on Story of College.

Graduates of Marshall will stage a pageant next June representing the entire history of the school, according to plans made known Friday in a letter to all alumni from the pageant committee, headed by Dr. C. E. Haworth.

The plans revealed in the letter place the entire arrangement for the pageant in the hands of a committee composed of Dr. C. E. Haworth, Anna Belle Chaffin, Hannah M. Cundiff, Lillian Hackley, Lucy E. Prichard, Vera Andrew, Frances C. Burgess, Charles Derbyshire and Lillian Isbell.

It is stated in the letter that the pageant is to commemorate the first degree ever given by Marshall college, which will take place when graduation of the 1921 class is held, in June of next year.

"Since this year marks a decided advance in the growth of our Alma Mater, it has been decided that this fact should be recognized in a fitting celebration which will be a pageant representing the whole history of the institution. The committee of faculty members are now busy collecting every bit of Marshall history that may prove valuable in depicting the development of the college, alumni can help us in collecting these facts and making them known to the committee. If you have any such information please advise the committee and do everything possible to make the celebration in June the greatest celebration Marshall ever had. Let us have the greatest homecoming in the history of the college," the letter to the alumni reads.

— M. C. — FACULTY RECITAL

(Continued from page one)

to the musical public, to whom she is already well known. Miss Davis, a graduate of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, made a very successful debut before the Huntington public a year ago. Miss Fox, a graduate under Miss MacGeorge, will on this occasion make her first appearance as one of the faculty, though it is by no means the first time she has played in public.

A very interesting program has been arranged, and those attending may be assured a delightful evening. As usual, this recital will be open to the public, to whom a cordial invitation is extended.

Here is the program of the evening:

1. (a) Fantaisie—Impromptu..... Chopin
(b) Sposalizio..... List
St. Elmo Fox
2. Ballade in A flat (major..... Chopin
Claire Ethel Davis
3. Depuis Le Jour (Louise)..... Carpentier
Mrs. C. E. Haworth
4. Fantasie Brillante..... Chopin
Miss MacGeorge
5. (a) Murmuring Zephyrs..... Jensen

- (b) Whither Schubert
- (c) My Sweet Repose..... Schubert
Mrs. Haworth

6. (a) Nocturne in F sharp major..... Chopin
(b) Mozurka Brillante in A..... Liszt
Miss Davis
7. (a) Chapel of William Tell (From Annees de Pelerinage)..... Liszt
(b) Lotus Land..... Cyril Scott
(c) Seguidilla—Castilian Dance..... Albeniz
8. (a) The Wind..... Spross
(b) Lullaby (Jocelyn)..... Godard
(c) Yesterday and today..... Spross
Mrs. Haworth

— M. C. —

GREEN AND WHITE CLUB NOW HAS SISTER

(Continued from page one)

Mary Poague Osborne, Kathleen Cutler, Gretis Roles, Elsie Falwell, Leva Ridenour, Gladys Hastings, Virginia Talbot, Virginia Hoff, Catherine Williams, Lilly Hoffman, Ruth Woodson, Ruby Honaker, Mae Yoho, Amy Jones, Bettie Young, Winnie Kincaid, Kate Young, Zorah Kessel and Virginia Lynch.

Dora Atkinson was chosen temporary chairman, and Ruth Woodson, secretary until the permanent officers are elected.

— M. C. — COLLEGE HALL

Mrs. W. H. Ballard, Peterstown, Monroe county, who was in Huntington visiting her daughter, Margaret Ballard, was painfully though not seriously injured at 5 p. m. Thursday when she dodged an automobile and stepped in front of a west-bound Third avenue car. She was knocked to the pavement and her scalp badly cut. Physicians at the Huntington General Hospital where she was taken, stated however, that her injuries were not serious.

Jennie Brewer was the guest of Dorothy Dickinson Saturday and Sunday.

Thelma Ward spent the week end at her home in Barboursville.

Elva Pritt and Catherine Williams were entertained for lunch Saturday by Mrs. Bryant in the city.

Elizabeth Campbell was called out in town on account of the illness of her sister.

Gladys and Irene Osborne spent Saturday and Sunday at their home in Fort Gay.

Elizabeth Green spent the week end at her home in Milton.

Minnie Sue Barger was entertained Saturday and Sunday by guests in town.

Vashti Scruggs was the guest of Ruby Honaker over the week end.

Mildred Bibb was a visitor in the city Sunday.

Mabel Thomasson's brother, who has been in Huntington visiting her for a few days, has returned to Ansted.

Anderson-Newcomb Co.

ON THIRD AVENUE

"Huntington's Oldest and Largest Department Store"

UP-TO-DATE IN EVERY RESPECT

Delicious Chocolates

All Kinds of Stationery

Bryn Mawr

Fancy and Plain

OUR DRUG DEPARTMENT IS COMPLETE

Try Our Sodas

Cameras and Supplies

COLLEGE PHARMACY

Phone 395 and 9691

"Better be Safe than Sorry"

ZENNER-BRADSHAW CO.

"Quality Beyond Question"

CHRISTMAS RIBBONS OFFER COUNTLESS SUGGESTIONS

All those little ribbon fancies a woman likes to busy herself with at Christmas time cannot be started too soon. Our holiday Ribbon stocks invite you to begin. Wide Ribbons, narrow ones, flowered Ribbons, striped ones, picot Ribbons or plain ones, satin Ribbons, taffeta ones, they are here to tie up your gifts, for hair bows, sashes, bags, lamps or lingerie, confections, in the colors, widths, weights and quality you most desire.

FOR ECONOMY—BUY THE BEST

THE best is none too good for your money. Between the best—and mediocrity—there may be a few dollars difference. In buying shoes, the best is worth that difference. Those and durability, to effect a saving of far more few dollars buy sufficient added style, service than you would expect.

You cannot hope to get a two-penny loaf for a penny. Occasionally you may be able to buy a pair of shoes at a "mediocrity" price that may wear fairly—look fairly good—serve passably. BUT—if you want to practice real economy—get style, beauty and additional service beyond your expectations of what the slight additional increase would buy—then—BUY THE BEST.

When we say "BUY THE BEST"—that doesn't mean the most expensive shoe you can find. It means to buy reliable shoes, at a reliable store—and expect to pay a price that will buy reliable merchandise.

Bon Ton Boot Shop

"Fitters of Feet"

Hotel Frederick

Phone 1927

948 Fourth Avenue