ODK Pledges To Be Tapped At O. U. Game

Omicron Delta Kappa Society, men's national honorary leadership fraternity, will hold the tapping ceremonies of its initiation at the Homecoming game, Saturday, October 26, John Mayberry, Huntington senior, and president, announced. The organization is now considering nominations for membership from the faculty and presidents of all campus organizations.

Persons eligible for membership in Omicron Delta Kappa are: Men of junior, senior, or graduate status who have maintained an academic average of 2.5 (C plus); either for the entire college period or for the immediate past two semesters.

Nominees must also show definite standards of leadership in at least two unrelated fields which may include publications, athletics, music, dramatics, and fine arts; social achievement, religious and other campus activities, and off-campus leadership.

Nominations must be turned in to the Dean of Men's office later than today to be considered. Faculty members and organizational presidents may submit nominations. A member of ODK will personally interview each person whose name is submitted.

Faculty Parking Permits Issued

Permits for parking in the area adjacent to the Science Hall will be issued on a first come first served basis by the Office of the Comptroller to faculty and administration staff members, announced President Stewart H. Smith. These permits should be displayed on the rear window of each car.

A car "pool" system on busy days (such as Monday, Wednesday and Friday) has also been suggested as a possible solution to the critical parking space problem.

Convo Tomorrow, Forum On Friday

Nutting's Talk: 'Middle East Muddle'

A distinguished diplomat, recently turned journalist, will visit the campus Friday when the Right Honorable Anthony Nutting, former minister of state for foreign affairs in Great Britain, addresses the Community Forum at 7:45 P.M. in Old Main auditorium.

Mr. Nutting has chosen as a topic, "The Muddle of the Middle East," a most timely subject, according to Curtis Baxter, forum director.

A question and answer period will follow his address and a $10 prize will be given for the best question asked. After the program there will be a reception in the North Parlor of Old Main.

Admission to the lecture will be by student activity card or season membership forum cards.

Mr. Nutting's rise to leadership in Britain had been meteoric before his dramatic resignation of his position in the government and his seat in Parliament in 1956 at the height of the Suez crisis.

He is now employed as a special writer for the New York Herald syndicate. Last spring he concluded a comprehensive tour of the Middle East, North Africa, India and Pakistan. He talked to rulers, politicians, diplomats, oil men, students, peasants and workers in Iran, Iraq, Jordan, Lebanon, Egypt, Israel, Saudi Arabia, Turkey and other countries.

Cranford Heads Baptist Convention

Dr. Clarence W. Cranford, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, Washington, D. C., and president of the American Baptist Convention, will speak on the second convocation program in Old Main tomorrow at 11 A. M.

The public is invited to attend.

Dr. Cranford, a native of Sharpesville, Pa., received his A. B. degree from Bucknell University and his Bachelor of Divinity degree from Crozer Seminary. He received the honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Bucknell in 1942.

He directed youth work at the Baptist Temple in Philadelphia from 1930 to 1932 and held pastorates in that city and Richmond, Va., before taking his present post in Washington in 1942.

Dr. Cranford is chairman of the board of trustees of Storer College and a past president of the Washington Federation of Churches. He is the author of "Speakers of Life" and "The Devotional Life of Young People" and has written articles for various publications.

The church of which he is pastor has a membership of approximately 3,100 persons. It has the largest Sunday School in the District of Columbia.

Although the church sanctuary holds 1,150 people, two services are required on Sundays to accommodate the crowds.

Election Setup Slightly Changed 'Miss Marshall' Rules Revised

A revision of the election rules for this year's "Miss Marshall" contest, which is scheduled for Wednesday, October 23, from 9:00 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. has been announced by the Student Government office.

The members of the Homecoming Queen's Committee which is responsible for the operation of this election are Chairman Betty Bick, Becky Jackson, Mary Druggan, and Linda McGhee.

All candidates must have one glossy picture taken before a black drape background and in the Student Government office or to Betty Bick by 4:00 P.M. today. Posters then can go up any time starting at 4:00 P.M. tomorrow.

An official announcement of "Miss Marshall" and her three attendants will not be made until Friday, October 25, in The Parthenon.

Those revised election rules which pertain to candidates are:

1. Each student must be a member of the class and organization she represents and must not be on social or academic probation. She must also be classified as a full time student.
2. A candidate shall not be permitted to spend more than $25 for her campaign.
3. Each candidate is required to submit to the Executive Secretary an account of her campaign expenses by 5 P.M. the day of the election.

4. There shall be no defacing of state property such as: pasting, marking with paint or chalk, tacking or nailing of campaign materials on trees or buildings.

5. The posting of campaign material of any kind shall not be permitted inside campus buildings except the Student Union, Dining Hall, and dormitories. This does not apply to bulletin boards or places specified for posters. Posters or campaign material can be placed on the partition in the Student Union, and must not be placed in any other location in or on the outside of the Student Union building.

6. Any malicious destruction of properly posted posters is unlawful; any persons found guilty of violating this act will be duly punish according to the consideration of the Student Court.

7. The election will be held in the Student Government office. No campaigning or electioneering can be done within the roped area set up by the Election Commission.

8. In case of ties resulting from the election, the Student Senate has the final decision as to who is elected.

9. Each candidate can have no more than six (6) posters of any size, all of which must be checked at one time either on October 14 or October 15 between 2 and 4 P.M. in the Student Government office.

10. Each candidate will be held responsible for complete disposal of all campaign materials bearing her name by 10 A.M., the morning following the election.

House Mothers Organize Club

Campus house mothers and hostesses have formed an organization, where by all campus rules will be correlated into one standardized system, among the dorms, fraternities and sorority houses. This organization was formed upon the request of Dr. Smith.

Elected to the various offices were: Mrs. Henrietta D. Spence, hostess of Hodges Hall, president; Mrs. Margaret Warth, hostess of Laidley Hall, vice-president; Mrs. Beatrice Terry, house mother of Sigma Phi Epsilon, secretary; and Mrs. Nell Howes, house mother of PKA, treasurer.

FELLOWSHIP DANCE

The Westminster Fellowship of the First Presbyterian Church will sponsor a square dance Friday at the church. All students may attend.

The organization will sponsor a retreat at the 4-H Camp November 2 and 3, according to Julia Larew, publicity chairman.

Orchestra On Series Monday

The regular Artist Series session will begin its 22nd year Monday evening, October 21, with a concert by the Symphony Orchestra of the Florence Festival. The program will be 8:30 P.M. at the Keith-Albee Theatre.

This program is one of the six from which students must select the two that they want to attend, according to Curtis Baxter, director of the Artist Series.

Students may secure tickets by presenting their activity card to Mrs. Mount in the corridor of Old Main tomorrow and Friday.

Baxter announced that students must pick up tickets by Friday evening because the previous policy of holding tickets has been disregarded.

One of the world's leading symphonic ensembles, the Florence orchestra has long been identified with the famous May Festival in the Italian city. It is for this reason that it is best known under the name of the Symphony of the Florence Festival.

For its first American tour the orchestra is presenting for the first time a new symphony, "Sinfonia Americana," written by the dynamic young pianist and composer, Franco Mannino.

Senatorial Scoreboard

The Gomflits present their new campus project completed: the Senatorial Scoreboard. This brand new convenience may be hung in students' rooms (or adjoining rooms) for facility of corrections, additions, and surprises at such times as factors on the Scoreboard come into existence—or are quietly killed.

Here's how the Scoreboard works: Below you will find listed the tentative program of improvements, etc., that student body president Dave Kirk ambitiously wishes to see filled during his term of office. Each time that you, Joe pleted, mark an "X" on your Scorecard under "Done." If points are not completed, mark an "X" under "Not Done."

Parthenon To Follow Yearbook's Progress

(Ed. Note. This is the first in a series of stories by Reporter Keith Ray that will appear in The Parthenon throughout the year in which he will follow the progress of the 1958 Chief Justice.

Ray, who was on the editorial staff of the yearbook last year, will work with editor-in-chief Durward Brewer in bringing you these reports. In this story, he will explain some of the procedure of handling copy for the yearbook. —RCC—)

By KEITH RAY
The Chief Justice is scheduled to be issued on May 20, according to Durward Brewer, Chief Justice editor.
"If we meet our deadlines," he added.
"Deadlines," says Brewer, "are of the utmost importance to the Chief Justice. By far the most important of five mandatory deadlines is the printer's deadline."
"The printer has given us a schedule which, if we meet, will guarantee the issuing of the Chief Justice on May 20."
"But before submitting material to the printer it must first be checked by me and be approved by the editorial adviser. This procedure naturally warrants a sooner reportorial deadline than that of the printer.

"Furthermore, we cannot submit any material to the printer unless it is equal to at least 16 consecutive pages.
"Our first deadline is December 16 when the first 32 pages of the book must be ready for printing. Our last deadline is March 15.
"Too often groups don't meet at the scheduled time for group photos. This slows up the Chief Justice and the photographer must be paid for his time. In the future, non-productive appointments will be charged to the group if the C-J is not notified beforehand. This measure is designed to meet our deadlines with greater promptness.

"The deadline for sports copy is another important deadline. This year the CJ will cover all major sports and several of the minor ones. It will include almost all sports between football and baseball.
"Baseball, except for pictures of the team in spring training, will naturally have to be omitted because of our March 15 deadline.
"So far, everything is going according to schedule and we think we will meet the December deadlines, which will consist of the introduction to the book and the religious groups and their functions."

Class Pics Set To Start Monday

Photographers from Rappoport studios of New York will be on campus Monday, October 21, to photograph the entire student body for publication in the 1958 Chief Justice, according to Chief Justice Editor Durward Brewer.

Students will be photographed by individual appointment and there will be no charge. Four poses will be taken of each individual student, and in addition, seniors are permitted two extra poses in cap and gown.

Scheduling of appointments will begin today in the Chief Justice office from 3 P.M. until 5 P.M.; Thursday, the hours will be from 1 P.M. to 3 P.M. and Friday the hours will be from 3 P.M. until 5 P.M.

THE FAMED SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA of the Florence Festival pictured here will be on the Artist program Monday, October 21, at 8:30 P.M., at the Keith-Albee Theatre. (See story on Page One.)

Yusuf A. Yoler joined General Electric's Missile and Ordnance Systems Department in 1955, after receiving his B. S. in E. E. from Roberts College, Istanbul, Turkey (1949), and his Ph. D. from the California Institute of Technology (1954).

"In a big company, a young man can get to tackle big jobs"

"The thing that has impressed me most in my two years at General Electric," says 28-year-old Yusuf A. Yoler, manager of Aerodynamics Laboratory Investigations, "is the challenging opportunity open to young people here. My field is guided-missile research — the nation's top-priority defense job. Because of the scope of the company's research and development program, I've had the opportunity to work with technical experts in many related fields. And I've seen at first hand the responsibility which General Electric has given to younger men — proof to me that in a big company a young man can get to tackle big jobs."

The research being done by Dr. Yusuf A. Yoler is significant not only to himself, but to General Electric and the security of the nation as well. At present, the company is participating as a prime contractor on three of the four long-range ballistic missiles pro-gramed by the U. S. government. Yoler, who is playing an important role in this work, directed the design and development of the world's largest hypersonic shock tunnel — a device which will "test-fly" missile nose cones at speeds over 15,000 mph.

Progress in research and development — as well as in every other field of endeavor — depends on how well young minds meet the challenge of self-development. At General Electric there are more than 29,000 college graduates, each of whom is given the opportunity to develop to his fullest abilities. In this way, we believe, everybody benefits — the individual, the company, and the country.

Freshman Cagers Drilling

With varsity basketball practice getting off to a flying start yesterday, freshman basketball cannot be far behind.

The first session of the Little Green cagers is set for Tuesday, October 22, in the school gym at 4:30 P. M.

At least 11 candidates will report to frosh coach Mike Josephs, but he and coach Jules Rivlin expect others to make a bid for the team.

All positions are open and those freshmen, other than the ones who have expressed their intentions of reporting for practice, who are interested in trying out for the team should contact Dr. Josephs in his office any time between now and the first practice. His office is in the physical education building.

The crop of freshmen who are expected to report are a rangy group. Leading the pack are six-fivers Ron Short and Ray Todd. Short is a former Vinson high cager and a veteran who played service basketball. Todd, too, is a returning service man from Big Creek of War.

Rounding out the present incomplete roster are: Dick Parrett, 6-0, from Portsmouth, Ohio; Bruce Moody, 6-2½, from New York; Charles Gordon, 5-11, from Wheeling; Mel Leiner, 6-2, from New York; Jim Spencer, 6-2, from Huntington high; Sheldon Goldstein, from Pittsburgh; Ron Wine-man, 5-11, from Patterson, New Jersey; Kenneth Insani, from Clarksburg, and Charles Griffin, 6-3, a returning serviceman from Douglass high.

Most of the frosh practice sessions will be in the school gym until the season starts, when they will work out in the Memorial Field House.

The Little Green's 1957-58 schedule is not ready for release, but it will open with the varsity on December 4 against West Virginia Tech as a preliminary to the Morehead game. Starting time for frosh games will be 6:15 P.M.

Vets Knock SAE's From Unbeatens

By STRAT DOUTHAT

The Vet No. 2 team handed the SAE No. 2 squad its first loss of the season, 21-7. The loss knocked the SAE's into a three-way tie for first place in the Class B Intramural Football League. Leading the Vets was Manno, scoring once and passing to Watson for another. Nelson took Mason's pass for the final T.D.

The Rascals overwhelmed the ROTC, 40 to 7, with Hal Greer sparking the victors. Greer passed for four touchdowns with Griff Griffin catching three of them. Griffin also ran 65 yards to paydirt and passed for one more, to account for five TD's.

Bud Newbrough hit Hilton Duckworth on a 65-yard pass play for the ROTC score.

Thursday's games were rained out.

Today on the Intramural Field the ROTC takes on the VMI No. 1. and the Ekets vs. the South Side Sissies in the second game.

Tomorrow's action pits the Rascals against the Fill-Ins and the SAE No. 1 against the ASP.

HOUSE MOTHERS

They will meet the first Wednesday in each month in order to iron out any problems that might come up on campus. At the first meeting they hope to have Dr. Charles Hagan as guest speaker. They would like for Dr. Hagan to instruct them as to what to do in case a flu epidemic would break out in one of the dorms or houses.

The main reason for this new organization is that in the past there has been a number of conflicting rules in regard to privilege hours honored by the different organizations.

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA

Alpha Sigma Alpha initiated four actives Sunday at 4 P.M. in the chapter house. Those initiated included: Tish Chamberlain, Kenova sophomore; Sally Ross, Wayne junior; Delores McDonald, Huntington junior; and Janet Savage, Huntington junior.

Cozette Zorio, Huntington senior, became engaged to Jim Brown. at the beginning of the summer.

Guest Speaker Set For IRC Meeting

Mr. William M. Johnson, Jr., a representative of the United States State Department, will address a meeting of the International Relations Club at 2 P.M. Thursday in M203 on "United States Foreign Service Opportunities." All interested students may attend.

Mr. Johnson, who has served in Germany and South Africa and is now International Relations Officer in the office of South African affairs, will talk to students individually immediately following the meeting. He will also be in M316 Thursday morning for individual consultation.

WILBURN WILL SPEAK

D. Banks Wilburn, dean of Teachers College, will speak to the Chesapeake Woman's Club in Chesapeake, Ohio, Saturday.

His topic of discussion will be "Atomic Power."

CHEMISTRY MAJORS

Big Green's Winning Skein Is Longest In Ten Seasons

By SAM STANLEY

The undefeated Thundering Herd not only came home from Toledo with a 14-7 win over the Rockets and a first place tie in the Mid-American Conference, but it has something no other Herd team has done in the last ten years—win four straight games.

Not since the 1947 team knocked off Evansville, Indiana, State, St. Vincent and Murray in succession has this been accomplished.

The last time a Big Green team won five in a row was in 1941. In 1947 the Herd had a 9-3 mark including a 7-0 loss in the Tangerine Bowl, and in 1941 they compiled a 7-1 record.

For the third straight time the Big Green was sparked by the brilliant quarterbacking of Bob Wagner. "Andy," as his teammates call him, was everything a quarterback should be in his role against the Rockets.

Wagner brought his team from a 7-0 deficit to a 7-7 tie in less than a minute's time. With 45 seconds left in the first half, he intercepted a Rockets pass on the opponents' 39 and ran it out of bounds to the 25. He hit Ramon Dunlap with a 11 yarder, threw one incomplete, and then hit Cagle Curtis in the end zone.

It marked the third game in a row that Wagner's passes have sparked the Herd to last minute touchdowns in the first half. This started with Morehead when "Wag" hit Richard Jackson with a 37-yard scoring heave with the clock showing eight seconds before intermission.

In the next tilt, against Western Michigan, the Logan County field general moved his team half the distance of the field with his passing, before handing off to Dunlap, who went the last few yards to score.

And then came his trick against Toledo.

Wagner also directed his team 41 yards for the final touchdown and this time he scored himself from three yards out. It was Wagner's first points as a college football player.

The Big Green came out of the game without injuries of a serious nature. Wagner himself had his foot stepped on and was hobbling along on crutches Sunday, but he'll be ready to go Saturday night against Kent State. Co-Captain Jim Simpson had three teeth knocked out and two more chipped in the first half, but the determined center played the entire second half.

The only Herd streak broken was an individual streak of Dunlap. The senior halfback had scored single touchdowns in each of the first three games, but he couldn't come up with one against the Rockets.

The victory boosted the Big Green to a first place tie with Miami in the Mid-American Conference. Both have 2-0 loop marks. Toledo was knocked down to a 2-2 mark and a 1-1 loop mark.

In their own series, Toledo has now won six times, Marshall four and one game ended in a tie.

The win also assured Coach Herb Royer of tying his best previous here—a 4-5 mark in 1954. Just one more victory in the next five games and Herb will have his much sought after "winning" football season.

MEGAPHONES AVAILABLE

Students may secure megaphones in time for Saturday's game with Kent State. Five hundred fifty 'phones will be available today through Friday from 1-4 P.M. at the Student Government office.

Greenbackers' megaphones will be distributed through the card section at the stadium.

More men than women eat vegetables each meal, according to Marie H. Smock, dietitian and manager of the cafeteria.

MAC ROUNDUP

Surprises and upsets were a dime a dozen in the past week's Mid-American Conference games.

Other than the Big Green's defiance of some experts by downing Toledo, 14-7, Western Michigan was the week's big spoiler.

The Broncos spoiled Bowling Green's homecoming festivities by holding the highly rated Falcons to a 14-14 draw and some eyebrows lifted when the final 27-14 verdict came in on the Miami-Kent State contest with the Redskins being pushed to win.

In the one non-conference game, Harvard won over Ohio U. at Cambridge, Mass.

The win for the Big Green kept it in pace with ex-champs Miami.

It was a battle of fumbles in Kent, Ohio, and after the Redskins cured themselves of the ailment it drove to the victory.

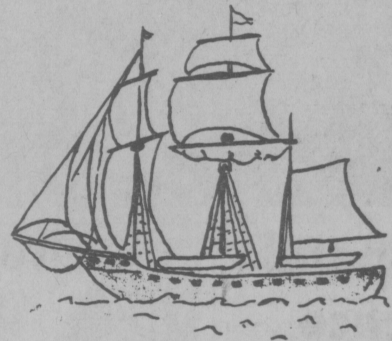

The Flashes held the fumbling Miami 11 to seven points in the first half but the winners broke loose in the second half and built up a 27-0 lead before Kent managed to tally twice.

A determined Western Michigan team launched a fourth quarter onslaught to gain its tie with Bowling Green.

The tide began to turn when the Broncos blocked a Falcon punt with four minutes remaining in the final period. Quarterback Jim Kolk was the big cog in the offensive machine.

He passed his team into scoring position on a 21-yard heave to Joe Grigg on the B-G 5. Jesse Madden went to remaining yardage around end.

Cagers Spend First Practice Off 'n' Running

Varsity basketball practice got off to a running start yesterday. And run it was for the 19 candidates that reported to Coach Jules Rivlin in the school gym.

Also on the day's agenda were ball handling drills, passing and shooting layups.

The big question, or at least one of the big questions that faces Riv is finding a middleman to replace Cebe Price.

"I wish I knew," said the amiable coach with a grin.

"The four boys I expect to give a shot at the spot are Leo Byrd, Sonny Allen, Jack Freeman and Tim Hollandsworth," he said, "and any one of the four has an equal chance."

The sophomores reporting to the squad may well be the key to either success or failure of this season's campaign.

Two of them—Herb Jacobsen and Herm Conner—along with Dick Hall, will be the strong favorites to take over the pivot spot.

Hal Greer filled in the big shoes left by Charlie Slack last year and did a fine job but Rivlin would like to have Greer at either forward or guard.

Greer and Freeman are the only seniors on the club and look like the best forward candidates.

Leo Byrd, who did a sensational job as a sophomore with his shooting eye, is a sure bet to be in the lineup at either guard or forward.

Other sophomores that are expected to see extensive action are John Milhoan, Brooks Adkins, Kelly Griffith, Valmore Samuels, and Starling Miller, along with junior John Derrow.

With the coming of the second semester more height will be added to the club when Ivan Mielke becomes eligible.

Miller is a transfer student from West Virginia University. He came here last year and is now eligible to play varsity ball.

Mielke came here at the beginning of the second semester last year and according to NCAA rules a transfer student must be in school one year before he is eligible to compete in varsity sports.
