Flu Serum Now Available

By JIM GILREATH

A shipment of influenza vaccine has arrived at the college clinic and is being given to all students as long as the supply lasts, according to Mrs. Mary Summers, clinic nurse.

KITTY CRINER
Senior

Nurse Summers explained that since there is not enough vaccine to supply the entire student body, the shots are being given on a "first come first-served" basis. An additional shipment of the serum is expected, but the exact time at which it will arrive is indefinite.

The clinic reported Monday that the number of flu and cold cases were remaining about the same as last week but not increasing to any great extent.

Three of the dormitories reported a high number of flu cases Monday. According to Miss Ida Osgood, acting housemother, over twenty cases of influenza were reported in Laidley Hall during the first two days of this week.

Hodges Hall, the hardest hit by the epidemic last week, showed 13 cases of flu as of press time Monday. Bob Cooper, St. Mary's junior and Hodges Hall councilman, said that although the number of cases dropped over the weekend, they seem to be on the upswing since four new cases were reported Monday. Freshman Dorm has six flu victims and College Hall reported only two cases this week.

The offices of the academic deans showed a high increase in the number of absentees over last week. Teacher's College office received approximately sixty-five excuses from flu victims Monday while fifty students were reported absent from the College of Arts and Sciences.

Shaw Talks On Convo Tomorrow

By JOHN MURPHY

Robert Shaw, one of the youngest and most successful writers in television and radio, will address tomorrow's convocation at 11 A. M. in Old Main auditorium, on the subject "The Monster in Your Living Room."

Now in his early thirties, Shaw has been regarded since his mid-twenties as one of the most formidable writing talents of the airwaves. Author of two of television's highest rated dramatic shows, "Robert Montgomery Presents" and "The Schlitz Playhouse of Stars," he continued to write "Mr. District Attorney," which for more than ten years has been at the top of the hooper list of radio programs.

Choosing themes that are contemporary, he keeps pace not only with the demands of his audiences but also with the growing responsibilities of the two leading media of mass entertainment.

Noted for his broad-minded and critical approach to radio and television writing, Shaw consistently maintains that there is no substitute for good entertainment. When he appears here he will give frank and highly critical analysis of modern television, its vast influence on adults and youngsters alike, and what its audiences can do to obtain finer programs.

Born in Milwaukee, Bob Shaw studied law at the University of Wisconsin. During the war he enlisted in the psychiatric section of the Army Medical Corps. After serving his radio apprenticeship in Wisconsin, he came to New York, first working in the publicity department of the National Broadcasting System.

His meteoric rise in radio began when he created the daytime serial, "Front Page Farrell," an instantaneous hit. He followed son after with others—"Philo Vance," "The Shadow," and "Mr. Keene, Tracer of Lost Persons." All were carried by national networks and were continuous successes.

A highly versatile talent, Shaw made an easy switch to video with the advent of television. Knowing his way around the networks, he was quickly called in to write for the new medium. Today two of the shows he writes, Robert Montgomery Presents and "Schlitz Playhouse" are among the top ten television productions with the largest audiences, each featuring well known stars of television and Hollywood.

ODK Tapping Set For B. G. Contest

Omicron Delta Kappa, men's national honorary leadership fraternity, will hold tapping ceremonies to pledge its new members at half-time ceremonies at the Bowling Green game, November 16, according to John Mayberry, Huntington senior and organization president.

Persons eligible for membership in Omicron Delta Kappa must be of junior, senior, or graduate status and must have attained an academic average of 2.5, either for the entire college period or for the immediate past two semesters.

Homecoming Dance Tickets Available

Tickets for the Homecoming Dance are still available, it was reported by the Student Government office.

The ducats are now available to the general public at Walgreen's Drug Store. They may also be obtained at the Student Government office from 1 to 4 weekdays. As of Monday afternoon, an estimated 200 of the original supply of 1,000 tickets had been sold.

Newsman Basso To Address UHSP Congress At Banquet

Nick Basso, director of news and public relations for WSAZ-TV and radio, will be the banquet speaker for the 23rd Congress of the United High School Press of West Virginia, November 15-16 at Marshall College.

News editor Basso will show the ins and outs of full color television while professional camera crews demonstrate how television covers the news.

Approximately 300 high school journalism students and their advisers are expected to attend. The United High School Press of West Virginia is one of the oldest student journalist organizations in the United States. It was founded in 1927 by Prof. W. Page Pitt, head of the Marshall journalism department.

In conjunction with the UHSP meeting will be the 19th Journalism Teachers Association of West Virginia and the sixth United High School Year Book Association gatherings.

Basso began his career of broadcasting in Welch, W. Va., where he subsequently became chief announcer and program director. He was later employed at WBLK in Clarksburg, W. Va.

After World War II and a tour of duty with the U. S. Navy, Basso returned to broadcasting with WPEN, Philadelphia, and later at WNAR, Norristown, Penn. In 1951 Basso worked with WJAH in Morgantown, W. Va., while completing his education at West Virginia University.

He joined the staff of WSAZ in 1951 as a newsman and shortly thereafter, he was appointed news director. Basso initiated the first film coverage of the West Virginia House of Delegates during

Annual Robe Pep Rally Friday

The annual Robe pep rally will be held Friday at 7:00 P.M. This year's rally will include a bonfire in the intramural field, a snake dance through the downtown section, and a dance afterwards in the intramural field, according to Norman Haddad, Huntington senior and chairman for the program.

The snake dance will be the first in several years. Permission has been obtained to continue the snake dance from the college to Fourteenth Street and back.

Jim Johnson, St. Marys senior, who will direct a combo which will ride through town on a truck with the snake dance to furnish music for it, will also play for the dance, which is the first dance of its kind to be held at the college, according to Norman Haddad.

Al Wheeler, Huntington senior, and Norman Haddad are masters of ceremony for the program at the bonfire. The program will feature President Stewart H. Smith; Herb Royer, head football coach; Otto "Swede" Gullickson, professor of physical education; the football squad; Andy D'Antoni, alumni football player; David Kirk, student body president; and the Homecoming queen

Five Chase Title; Polls Close 4:30

By MARJORIE CAPPELLARI

One of five senior girls will be elected "Miss Marshall" to reign over Homecoming festivities in voting conducted today until 4:30 P.M. in the Student Government office.

Candidates are Charlotte Browning, Sigma Sigma Sigma; Kitty Criner, Alpha Chi Omega; Betty Frame, Alpha Xi Delta; Jodie Kearns, Pi Kappa Sigma; and Shirley Mitchell, Delta Zeta.

Results of the election will be announced in Friday Homecoming edition of The Parthenon.

Students voting will present their ID and activity cards. Freshmen, sophomores, and juniors will vote for one senior candidate for queen and in addition will vote for one member of their class as her attendant. Freshman, sophomore and junior candidates with the highest number of votes will serve as attendants for "Miss Marshall."

They will be chosen from the following:

Freshmen: Linda Gardner, Jennie Windsor, Shirley Church, Diane Wright, Kay Coleman, Phyllis Young, Suzanne Walls, Jane War-ek, Pinky Level, and Bobbie Jean Spry.

Sophomores: Nancy Sigman, Katharine Pierce, Jane Gessel, Marietta Meadows, Lucy Stevens, Ardella McClellan, Letitia Chamberlain, and Betty Lee Marshall.

Juniors: Kay Coach, Barbara Nell Varney, Martha Loudermilk, Gladys Frazier, Beverly Cummings, and Sally Ross.

"Miss Marshall" will be crowned by David Kirk, student body president, at the intermission of the Homecoming Dance from 9 P.M. to 1 A.M. at the field house. She will ride during the parade on the first official queen's float designed this year by Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. The Pershing Rifles of the college ROTC will serve as escorts to the queen's float.

As a departure from the previous custom of having the queen and her attendants ride in convertibles and wear suits, hats, and furs, this year's queen and her attendants will be attired in formal evening dresses, with the queen in white and the attendants in pastel gowns.

The music of Boyd Raeburn and his orchestra, which will play for the Homecoming dance, is presented each evening over radio stations WSAZ and WHTN. The title of the album is "Fraternity Rush," and the stations are honoring requests for the numbers.

Tickets for the dance are on sale in the student government office from 1 to 4 P.M.

Symphonic Choir Plans State Tour Itinerary

The Symphonic Choir, under the direction of Prof. R. Wayne Hugoboom, sings Tuesday night, October 29, at the United Fuel Gas Co. in Charleston for the spring meet of the Kanawha County Marshall Alumni Association.

The principal speakers at this occasion will be President Stewart H. Smith and either basketball and track coach Jules Rivlin or football coach Herb Royer. William R. Seidel, of South Charleston, will be talking in behalf of the alumni association.

In this year's state tour, which begins Sunday, November 3, the choir will be singing in several of the state colleges as well as for high school audiences.

The choir has a religious program which is prepared for use in concerts in churches throughout the state and includes several groups of secular numbers for school programs and concerts.

The itinerary for this year's performances will include the following concerts:

Nov. 3, Sunday—Afternoon performance at Ravenswood, and an evening performance at the St. Andrews Methodist Church at Parkersburg.

Big Boyd

Raeburn Has Rare Reputation

By BETTY HARBERT

Boyd Raeburn, popular New York band leader and winner of nation-wide awards, and his fourteen-piece orchestra will be featured at the annual Homecoming dance, Saturday, October 26, in the Memorial Field House, from 9 P.M. to 1 A.M.

Raeburn is currently playing in Bridgeport, Connecticut, and will fly here for the dance date only and then return to Bridgeport.

Boyd formed his orchestra while a student at the University of Chicago and went through every phase of music from Ellington to Stravinsky to finally arrive at the conclusion that the best band is the band that creates music for dancing pleasure. Although he is one of the originators of progressive jazz, Boyd has created his 1957 dance orchestra with an individual and danceable "sweet" style.

After college, Boyd played in and around Chicago and left for New York in 1944. He opened in February at the Lincoln Hotel billed as a follower of the new progressive jazz school. During the next two years Raeburn's band became, along with Woody Herman's band, the top big band gathering place for young talent of the bop school.

Back in New York, with Buddy De Franco in the line-up, Raeburn broke up his band in August of 1947 and reorganized in 1948, but gave up traveling dates and limited work to occasional dates around New York with a pickup band.

Raeburn won awards during the years 1944 to 1947 as top dance band in the nation from Look magazine, Downbeat, Metronome award, and, with his 1947 band, won the coveted Esquire New Star Award.

He has held leading engagements in the Hotel New Yorker; Hotel Sherman, Chicago; Million Dollar Theatre, Los Angeles; Commodore Hotel, New York; Palace Hotel, San Francisco; Oriental Theatre, Chicago; Golden Gate Theatre, San Francisco; Capitol Theatre, Washington, D. C.; and played ten leading engagements in the Paramount Theatre, New York.

Raeburn has played for college proms at Yale, Penn State, Michigan State, Dartmouth, Queens College, Fordham, VMI, VPI, and Amherst College.

He has been featured on the Treasury Bandstand program on the CBS network and records on Columbia label.

Boyd's vocalist, Ginnie Powell, has been his wife since 1946. Prior to meeting Boyd, she had sung with Gene Krupa, Charlie Barnet and Harry James, among others. She has appeared in such places as the Latin Quarter and the Paramount Theatre in New York.

Her radio and television appearances number among "This Is Show Business," "Toast of the Town," "The Eddie Cantor Show," and the "Arthur Godfrey Show."

Teachers' Aid Is Announced

By LADONNA CROCKETT

Nominations for Woodrow Wilson Fellowships to prospective college educators are now open, Dr. J. Frank Bartlett, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, has announced.

The one-year fellowships are awarded primarily to students who, at the time of examination, have not yet begun formal graduate work. Only members of the academic profession may make nominations.

Fields of graduate study covered by the program are the humanities and social science, and the natural sciences and mathematics when the candidate is mainly interested in college teaching.

Each fellow is granted a sum of money sufficient to guarantee him an adequate living for the year of his incumbency, the amount to depend on individual circumstances.

Marshall nominations are to be made as early as possible with Dean Bartlett. All nominations must be sent to the regional chairman no later than November 9.

After that time the fellowships were underwritten jointly by the 37 universities comprising the Association of American Universities and by grants from the Carnegie Corporation and the General Education Board.

The symphonic choir has appeared for the past several years at regional and national meetings of the Music Educators National Conference as well as a radio performance last winter on a national hook-up.

Miami, Bowling Green Regain Form With Decisive Victories

By LOWELL CADE

While the Big Green warriors were proving that they should be considered a threat to the Mid-American Conference crown, perennial powers Miami and Bowling Green looked like the teams of past years.

Miami broke loose for two touchdowns in each of the last two periods to trounce Ohio U., 26-0, and Bowling Green wasted no time in proving its offensive strength by rolling over Toledo, 29-0.

In a non-conference game, Western Michigan presented its homecoming fans with a 25-14 victory over substitute opponent Youngstown.

The win for Miami was its third in conference action and left it in a tie with the Big Green for the loop leadership. For the BG's the win was its first of the season in MAC play after being surprised by W-M's Broncos last week, 14-14.

After both teams went scoreless in the first half, the Redskins used two sustained drives in the third quarter with fullback Dave Thelen leading the way and getting both TD's to set the stage for the riot of the Bobcats.

In the fourth period it was again Thelen who climaxed the Miami scoring as he galloped 75 yards to paydirt. Quarterback Ernie Jarvis tossed to end Mack Yoho for the third Redskin TD.

Chuck Perry of Logan, W. Va., and known to many students on this campus (he attended summer school here) opened the third period for Bowling Green with a 13 yard field goal in the first period.

From then on it was all B. G. The Falcons struck twice on the ground and twice in the air to prove their strength both by running and by passing.

Youngstown replaced Washington U. as the homecoming foe for the Broncos and fell before the surprise team of the MAC.

Lowell Coleman was again the big man for the Broncos as he raced a Youngstown punt back 72 yards for one TD and sprinted 21 yards from scrimmage for another. Both came in the first half.

Cagers Switch To Field House

The scene changes.

Basketball practice switched from the school gym to Memorial Field House yesterday.

There is where the work really gets rough. There also the famed Big Green fast break will begin to take form.

According to Coach Jules Rivlin, the first scrimmage session is set for tomorrow. It is a 10 minute session and is designed to gauge the team's stamina.

last week's final game on 67 yard touchdown jaunt by Weekly and a 30 yard TD toss from Al Stinson to David Huffman. Buddy Isaac scored the lone Eket touchdown on a 20 aerial from Bill McNiesh.

Today's games on the Gym Field pit the Fumblers against the VM No. 2 team and the Teke No. 2 goes against the SAE No. 2 team. On the Front Field the ROTC vs. the South Side Sissys and the Rascals vs the Vet No. 1 team.

Tomorrow the Rascals take on the Fill Ins and the SAE squad will attempt to get back into the winning column against the ASP. On the Front Field the undefeated Tekes play the KA's with the VM No. 2 going up against the Fumblers.

All those participating in any one of Swede's Intramural tournaments should play off their matches as soon as possible.

INTRAMURAL RESULTS . . .

By STRAT DOUTHAT

John Bolt, representing the KA's, won out over 184 hopefuls in the placekicking for distance contest. Bolt won with a boot of 59 yards.

Marsh Wick, Teke's, and John Beiletti, VM, tied for second place, kicking 58 yards each. Max Lewis and Calvin Baumgardner were third and fourth respectively.

Jim Freeman is leading with a perfect score in the placekicking for accuracy match. He placed every kick squarely between the uprights for a perfect score of 45 points.

In the Ping Pong tourney, Norman Thabet, Dick Dudding, Jules Rivlin and Joe Krulich have advanced to the third round to lead the field.

Last week in touch football the ROTC downed the VM No. 1's 18-6. Bill Hill engineered the ROTC attack with his passing and running. Hill threw to Sgt. Alvarez for a two yard TD play in the first quarter and hit Dick Brown with a 40 yard aerial to paydirt in the second. A Hill to Brown pass lateral play covering 60 yards ended with Hill going over for the final ROTC score.

The South Side Sissys squeezed by the Ekets 13-6 in BIG GREEN and West Virginia Wesleyan cross-country runners start their mile jaunt at Fairfield Stadium. The Green harriers won this match, 25-30.

Kent Harriers Top Green, 20-36

The Big Green cross country team suffered its second setback in three outings Saturday at Kent State, 20-36.

Despite a rainy afternoon and the absence of Carl Hickey, the team's No. 2 man because of flu, the showing was the Green's best against Kent in five years.

Each team started seven men and the Green and White finished all seven while Kent only finished six. But by capturing the fourth and fifth places, Kent took the winning edge.

CLOTHES MAKE THE BMOG

Last week we passed along some fashion hints for coeds. Today we will do the same for college men.

The most important thing to remember, gentlemen, is to dress with verve, with dash, with inventiveness. Don't be imprisoned by the traditional conservatism of men's clothing. Brighten up your appearance with a single earring, or a cavalry saber, or a gold derby.

However, guard against gaudiness. If, for instance, you are wearing a gold derby, do not also wear a cavalry saber. This is too much. Wear a dagger instead, or, for formal occasions, a bowie knife.

Let us turn now to a persistent rumor that a garment called the "suit" is on the verge of making a comeback. Some of you older students may remember this "suit." It was an ensemble consisting of a jacket and trousers, both of which—this'll kill you—both of which were made out of the same material!

The last "suit" ever seen on an American campus was in 1941—and I ought to know because I was wearing it. I was an undergraduate then, and in love—hopelessly in love with a beautiful statistics major named Harry Sigafos. (She is one of the two girls I have ever known named Harry. The other one is her sister.)

I loved Harry madly, though her expensive tastes were the ruin of me. Bit by bit I sold off my belongings to pursue this costly courtship—first my books, then my clothes, until finally I was left with nothing to wear but a "suit". One night I came calling for her in this garment and she, of course, slashed me across the face with a riding crop and sent me from her door.

I slunk home and lit a Marlboro and sat down to think. I always light a Marlboro when I sit down to think, for their good mild flavor is a great aid to cerebration. I always light a Marlboro when I don't sit down to think, too, because Marlboro is my favorite cigarette, and I know it will be yours, too, once you make the acquaintance of that filter, that flavor, that floptop box. As the man says, you get a lot to like with a Marlboro.

Well, sirs, smoking and thinking thus, my eye happened to fall on an ad in a campus newspaper which said: "WIN A COMPLETE WARDROBE! Touhy's Toggery, the campus's leading men's store, announces a contest to pick the best-dressed man on campus. The winner will receive absolutely free a complete new wardrobe!"

Struck by a sudden inspiration, I took pen in hand and wrote a letter to Mr. Touhy of Touhy's Toggery: "Sir—I see by the paper that you are giving a complete new wardrobe to the best-dressed man on campus. What a ridiculous idea!

"Obviously, to be the best-dressed man on campus, you must first have a lot of clothes, and if you have a lot of clothes, what do you need with another wardrobe?"

"Touhy's Toggery should give a new wardrobe to the worst-dressed man on campus. Me, for instance. I am an eyesore. There isn't a crow in town that will come near me. Three times this month the Salvation Army salvage truck has picked me up. Esquire has canceled my subscription.

"I submit that a vote for me is a vote for reason, a vote for equity, a vote for the American way!"

With a flourish I signed the letter and sent it off, somehow feeling certain that very soon I would be wearing a complete new wardrobe.

And I was right—because two weeks later I was drafted.

Undefeated Herd Is Threat In MAC

Five Game Win Streak Is Longest Since 1941

By SAM STANLEY

The Thundering Herd "asked" to be recognized as a Mid-American Conference grid threat as they surprised Kent State, 7-6, Saturday night at Fairfield Stadium.

The inspired Green and White in nipping Kent, gave Royer his first winning season, defeated the Flashes for the first time in six tries and ran its unbeaten string to five straight.

The last time a Marshall football team won five straight was 16 years ago when the 1941 team compiled a 7-1 mark.

When Royer was asked how he felt about having a winning season, he replied laughingly, "I just don't know how to act. It's been so long."

Although the score was close, all who saw knew the Big Green was the better team Saturday night. Four other times after the first score the Herd drove inside the Kent 20-yard line and each time stopped by a different reason—once by a fumble, once by loss of ball on downs, once by lack of time, and once by a dropped pass.

If at any one of these instances the Herd had been successful, the whirlwind finish by Kent would not have been so bothersome.

The Green scored the first time they got the ball with a sustained 47-yard drive. Sonny Sirianni went the final one yard for the score.

Jim O'Conner's blast through the uprights gave the Herd its seventh and what was to be the deciding point.

The next three quarters consisted of the Herd driving into Kent territory, Kent holding and kicking out again and again.

With three minutes remaining in the game, the desperate Flashes finally started moving and with the help of a 45-yard pass from Ken Horton to end Ron Neel to the nine yard line. On Kent's last down Martin Testa scored from one-half yard out.

As both teams lined up for the extra-point try, the anxious Big Green forward wall rushed off-side and the ball was moved up to the one-yard line. This penalty might be termed as the biggest break the Herd got all night for instead of trying for a placement, the Flashes decided to run for the point, but the whole left side of the Herd line hurled back the attempt by Testa.

The final minutes of play consisted of clock watching by Big Green players and fans who were waiting for the final gun that would sound off Marshall's greatest victory since the 19 Iron Men of 1953 defeated the MAC champions Ohio U., 9 to 6.

The halted extra-point try of Kent's was a final tribute to the Herd's forward wall. These front line men finally received the glory which they have more than earned in each of the previous games.

They easily outdid the Kent line which was supposed to be one of the most feared in the MAC.

Statistics clearly tell the story at the Big Green had 15 first downs to Kent's 10, and out-gained the Flashes on the ground, 201 to 135.

The only place where the Flashes had an edge was in the passing department and this was just an edge. Kent quarterback Horton completed five of 13 tosses for 75 yards while our Bob Wagner completed five of 15 for 73 yards.

Wagner's passing game was off compared to the previous tilts, but the Logan junior's signal calling was again tops. His passing was just sharp enough to keep the Kent defense spread out. Thus Wagner sent his fast backs like Cagle Curtis, Sirianni, Ray Dunlap, and Dick Jackson skirting and driving for consistent yardage.

Curtis probably played his best game to date. He had the fans on their feet several times with his feinting and spinning runs.

All in all the little 158-pound halfback picked up 85 yards in 12 carries.

Wagner's seven yard keeper to the Kent 19 on a fourth and three situation was the key play in the Herd's only touchdown march. The team had been directed by Jim Maddox when the drive started and when Wagner and the first unit entered the game the first play was the keeper and it caught Kent flatfooted.

The Herd got through the game unscathed in the injury department. Besides the usual bumps and bruises, only Co-Captain and guard Herb Hess had a noticeable injury. Herb, who left the contest for keeps early in the third period, sprained his ankle

SONNY SIRIANNI, somewhere in middle of pile-up, drives through mass of Kent and Thundering Herd players for Herd's first and only touchdown in first quarter of game Saturday night.

Red Cross Bloodmobile Here November 14 For Fall Drive

The annual fall Red Cross Blood Drive has been set for Thursday, November 14, from 10-4 P.M. in the Student Union, according to chairmen Gloria Brothers and and John Karickhoff.

The chairmen will make their committee report at tonight's senate meeting.

Last spring's drive ended with a total donation of 145 pints, 60 pints short of the drive one year ago, which totaled 205 pints.

Don Coyne, last spring's drive chairman, made it known shortly after his organized campaign that the drive would have been a complete failure if it had not been for the Reserve Officer's Training Corps.

Coyne placed the blame for less donations on the fact that no trophy is being given to the organization donating the most blood. He stated that only a small percentage of women participated in the drive.

From all indications a trophy or trophies is being contemplated for this semester's campaign.

Two recommendations made by Chairman Coyne in an edition of last spring's Parthenon were:

1. To add to the incentive of women donating blood by asking Lillian Buskirk, Dean of Women to allow those women permission who have given blood one late
2. To award trophies to the organizations donating the most blood.

The Cavaliers, men's independent social fraternity, and Alpha Sigma Tau won the last blood drive for the third consecutive time, thus retiring the trophies for men's and women's campus organizations.

Alpha Chi Omega Initiates Pledges

Alpha Chi Omega sorority conducted initiation for four last semester pledges Sunday, October 6, at the Hotel Frederick.

Initiation was followed by a banquet in the Garden Room of the Hotel Frederick. Awards presented to the new actives were: model pledge, Audrey Thomason; most merits, Betsy Engle; scholarship, Jane Frame; and most congenial, Jo Ann Wilburn.

Rhodes Scholarship Aspirants Advised

Rhodes Scholarships to Oxford University, Oxford, England, are available to men students who are single, of junior standing, and between the ages of 19 and 25. If granted, such a scholarship gives the recipient an opportunity to study at Oxford University for two years. The scholarship is the equivalent of about $2,000 a year.

Any student fulfilling the above qualifications should apply to Dr. Sechler in room 317A for the necessary application form. This form should be obtained immediately as the last day for filing the form in Charleston is November 6.

Applicants in West Virginia will be called to Charleston for interviews with a committee if their qualifications indicate that they are eligible for the award.

Hodges Hall Elects Six Men

Noel Holt, South Charleston senior; Neil Koch, New Castle, Pa., junior; Robert Cooper, St. Marys junior; Ray Brown, Welch sophomore; Dave Childs, Parkersburg junior, and Dennis Click, Mt. Alto sophomore, were elected to the Hodges Hall Council by the residents of the dorm Thursday, October 10. These men will hold office on the council October of next year, according to Lloyd Calvert, Diamond senior, president. Other candidates were Ronald McGlothlin, New Haven sophomore, Bernard Stallard, Williamson sophomore, John Murphy, Clarksburg junior, and Phil Caldabaugh, McMechen sophomore.

Upon passing the interview, they will meet a committee of former Rhodes Scholar in an eastern city sometime in December and January.

Cafeteria Open Over Weekend

Usual hours will be observed at the college cafeteria Homecoming Day, according to Mrs. Marie H. Smock, manager of the cafeteria.

Approximately eight hundred people will be served the evening meal. This number is no larger than usual, said Mrs. Smock, but there will be several visitors to replace the students who dine at their fraternity or sorority homes.

The evening meal will start at 4:45 P.M. and continue until 6:30. The football team will have their pre-game meal at 10 A.M.

Box lunches will be prepared for President Stewart H. Smith and other dignitaries attending.

APEL ELECTED

Harold W. Apel, head librarian, became president of the West Virginia State Library Association on October 19, at Beckley. As last year's first vice president he automatically took over the office from Mrs. Margaret Bobbitt, assistant librarian.

Sticklers!

ANY SALT worth his salt will gripe when told to paint a dull hull, varnish a vast mast, or swab a dank plank. How to make him break out in smiles? Just break out the Luckies! He'll be a Beamin' Seaman in no time—and no wonder! A Lucky's a light smoke—it's one cigarette that's packed end to end with superbly light, golden rich, wonderfully good-tasting tobacco. And Luckies' fine tobacco's toasted to taste even better! Now hear this: Want to go light? Just go Lucky!

STUCK FOR DOUGH?

START STICKLING! MAKE $25

We'll pay $25 for every Stickler we print—and for hundreds more that never get used! So start Stickling—they're so easy you can think of dozens in seconds! Sticklers are simple riddles with two-word rhyming answers. Both words must have the same number of syllables. (Don't do drawings.) Send 'em all with your name, address, college and class to Happy-Joe-Lucky, Box 67A, Mount Vernon, N. Y.
