Collins Brightens Color In Old Main Classrooms

By PAUL DAVIS

If there seems to be a new look in classrooms this fall, Charlie Collins, superintendent of buildings and grounds, is the man to blame or praise.

"For years," Mr. Collins says, "I have been going into classroom after classroom with the same monotonous color. Now your home wouldn't have every room decorated in exactly the same way, so why have it that way in classrooms. After all the classroom is your home for quite a period of your life."

Accordingly, the past summer, he launched his custodial stac on a program calling for repainted classrooms in Old Main, each of which will have a different color scheme. At this time, 14 classrooms have been completed.

In addition to this project, the custodial staff found time during the summer to administer badly needed paint and repair jobs to practically every building on the campus.

Several buildings had badly rusted roof gutters and downspouts. These are being replaced as rapidly as possible and the demonstration building roof drainage has already been installed.

Outside paint was added to the president's home, the clinic, and to first floor windows and entrances to Old Main. The demonstration building was completely re-decorated from a new roof down to window shades.

Mr. Collins announced the purchase of a new floor cleaning machine which cleans and polishes in the same operation, thereby cutting in half the manpower needed for the same job using the mop and pail system.

Most obvious effects of the machine can be seen on the hardwood floors in the third story of Old Main. With the removal of many coats of old wax and dirt, it is now possible to see the grain of the wood itself and to see the effects of hundreds of cigarette butts being stamped out over a period of years.

Among other improvements, the ancient lighting fixtures in Old Main corridors were replaced with more efficient globe type lighting. Mr. Collins plans to install fluorescent lighting in several rooms, but due to a delay in shipment, the work has not yet begun.

Pre-Med Students Must Take Exams

Dr. R. M. Edeburn premedical advisor, announced today that all pre-medical students must take a medical college admission test in order to be accepted by any medical school. Even though some students took the test last year they must still take the new test.

The applications for the test which will be given on October 30, 1948, may be obtained from Dr. Edeburn and must be filled out and turned in before October 16, 1948. He emphasized the fact that if any students wait to take the test in February they will not be accepted by medical schools until next year.

VETERANS ARE URGED TO SUBMIT SCHEDULES

Veterans who have not filled out copies of their class schedules for the Vets Administration should report to M 212 immediately. Subsistence checks are in danger of being discontinued if this is not done promptly.

FROSH RULES UNNOTICED BY BOTH FRESHMEN AND UPPER CLASSMEN AS WELL

Freshman rules went into effect September 20 but after being in effect over a week they were still hardly noticeable.

Although all freshmen are supposed to attend pep rallies, less than a third of them attended the rally last Saturday. A check of the Student Union at 3 P. M. Monday revealed only one freshman beanie, although the rules stipulate they must be worn. Almost everyone still cuts campus occasionally, contrary to regulations.

The lack of abundant school spirit in upperclassmen and the fact that so many of the freshmen live at home were named by Earl Kirker, president of the student body, as two reasons for the poor attendance at the pep rally. Many of those who live at home go directly to the stadium rather than to come to a pep rally first, he explained.

As to the other rules, Kirker said, he thought most freshmen

FACULTY MEETING

President Stewart H. Smith has announced that there will be a general faculty meeting in the auditorium Monday October 4 at 4 P. M.

Both fathers and mothers of all Marshall players will be guests of the athletic department at the game. Lester G. Brailey, dean of men, and Mrs. Lillian H. Buskirk, dean of women, will greet the parents and usher them to a special reserved section on the Marshall side. They will be introduced to the assemblage at halftime. Intermission ceremonies will also feature a brief address by Dr. Stewart H. Smith, president.

Light workouts on passing and punting early this week preceded hard contact work in preparation for the Kentuckians who bowed to the Big Green, 7-6, last year at Richmond, Ky. According to scouting reports, Eastern's 1948 eleven is bigger, tougher and has what is considered a more formidable offense than that of the Morehead College Eagles over whom the Herd holds a 19-7 verdict.

Throughout the week Coach Cam Henderson has been faced with the problem of finding a capable replacement for Co-Captain Charley Fieldson, who suffered a broken arm in the opening minutes of the Morehead fracas. Fieldson is definitely out for the remainder of the season.

Heading the list of prospects for the wingback spot vacated by the injured Fieldson are Marvin Wetzel, bruising 189-pound fullback who led last Saturday's assault on the Morehead goal line, Dave "Red" Evans, Athens, O., sophomore, who gave a good account of himself in the Morehead game, and Chuck Barton, sophomore from Mason City, W. Va., whose rapid improvement in recent days has helped make him an outstanding candidate for the starting assignment.

Wetzel, whose regular fullback post could be taken over by Casey Wilson, would undoubtedly add power to the Green ground attack if he could hold down the wingback spot. Great determination on the part of the big Mannington junior makes him a scoring threat any time he carries the ball.

Aside from the change at the halfback post, the starting lineup is expected to be the same as that of last week. Norman Willey and Bob Koontz, both of whom performed creditably against the Eagles, are expected to start at

INDEPENDENTS NOW NISA; COMMITTEES CHOSEN FOR YEAR

By CELIA SMITH

Independents, all students not affiliated with any Greek social group, last May became members of the National Independent Student Association. The NISA has active chapters at Colorado A & M, Michigan, Michigan State, Perdue, the University of Illinois, Ohio University, Ohio State, Iowa University, Texas A & M, and many other campuses. The chapter here is the 50th in the organization.

The requirements of membership in this group are that the college must be an accredited four year school; the organization must be approved or recognized on campus; membership is open to any unaffiliated student who wishes to join and there must be a faculty sponsor to assist in the planning of the program.

A unique feature of the NISA is that it offers opportunities to students for participation and leadership in campus activities, and gives group support to individuals who would otherwise be lost on the campus.

Present officers of the organization are: Dr. Leo Oxley, faculty advisor; Tom Farley, Huntington senior, president; Bill Orders, Huntington Junior, vice president; Gloria Pack, St. Albans sophomore, secretary.

Membership in this organization is obtainable by payment of $5.00 for a membership card, and plans are now under way to obtain pins for the members for a nominal fee, according to Tom Farley, president.

The following committees for the year were appointed last Monday by Tom Farley: Membership Committee, Oscar Damron, chairman, Austale Bennett, Bob Nunnely and Anne Plants; Publicity Committee, Marion Payne, chairman, Frances Curnes, Sarah Hankla, Mary Graff, Barbara Griffith, Jerry Norman and Andy Anderson Social Committee, Frances Curnes, chairman, Rita Sheppard, Bob Schoewe, Nohad Sharr, Jerry Norman, Johnny Norman and Andy Anderson. More committees are to be Monday evening.

FIRE PREVENTION PROGRAM RENEWED

Monthly drills will begin in October, Rene F. Pino, chairman of the Fire Hazards Committee, announced today. Mr. Pino added that plans are under way to rejuvenate the fire prevention program on campus as well as eliminate numerous fire hazards.

Fire Prevention

Repeated violations of the fire rules are reported to be taking place daily in many of the buildings. This is especially true in the older buildings which are used more extensively by the students.

Next week is fire prevention week, so let's all cooperate and watch our smoking. Although fire hazards on the campus are practically nil, there is the possibility that some careless smoker could endanger the lives of many persons, as well as cause severe damage to property.

A good example of breaking the fire rules is in Old Main. Numerous scars are on the third floor where students and faculty alike have stamped out cigarettes. Just one cigarette, not extinguished, could cause considerable damage.

Although some faculty members are guilty, the biggest fire hazard is the student who continually violates the state law by smoking cigarettes in buildings. This has been generally agreed by the members of the fire hazards committee and the maintenance force.

The cooperation of the students and faculty is all that is needed to cut out the few remaining fire hazards on the campus.

'Hodges Haul'

"Hodges Haul," the publication of the men's dormitory, Hodges Hall, came out last Wednesday with its first printed issue. Formerly a mimeographed sheet, the first experimental issue is deemed a success.

Advancement from the mimeograph machine to the press in two years is quite an accomplishment. Especially, when it is dependent entirely on cooperation and student desire. There is a small fee for printing costs. Heik Davitian, editor, was elected last spring, and succeeds Earl Kirker.

It is a four-page, well written, news paper. Its motto is "Published for the betterment of Marshall College and Hodges Hall". The spirit, enthusiasm and courage portrayed by the backers of the paper is an advancement and itself a betterment of Marshall.

Ralph Mann, Beckley senior, has been appointed manager of veterans housing unit at Green Village, Lester G. Brailey, dean of men announced. Mann succeeds Francis McPherson who was graduated during the summer.

hot toddy

by elmer todd

After the Morehead game it is a wonder that any member of the Big Green eleven would even want to take the field again. Many of them are wondering if their efforts are wasted, if their fellow students appreciate the extra time and hard work spent to bring them a winning team—one that they can root for and be proud of.

If the past game is to be a sample of things to come then the gridders will be followed by the possibility of a cheer-less cheering section. First of all there was to be a thuse Saturday evening with all freshmen attending and marching out to the stadium en masse, yelling their lungs out for their alma mater. The thuse fell through. The only ones who marched to the game were the band members.

Everyone wants to know what has happened to the school spirit. Why don't the students give vent in loud voice and show the athletes that they are behind them? Everywhere on the campus students are suggesting ways to correct this lack of spirit, but the ones who holler the most for school spirit are the ones who are the most lacking when the actual call is sounded.

We thought that the freshmen rules compelled freshmen to attend thuse meetings, and to sit in a body to root at ball games. If they don't what measures will be taken? The freshmen called the student council's bluff Saturday by making a thuse that was at most a complete flop. If corrective measures are to be taken, let's don't fall down when they are needed.

The big difficulty lies in the upper classmen who think that all they must do is sit back and let the freshmen do the rah-rah work. They still hide behind the mask that they are veterans and have no time for cheering. If they have time to go to the games, why don't they cheer? This is no excuse.

Let's rope off a section on the 50-yard line and let all those who want to yell sit there and all those who don't sit elsewhere. Then we can see who the ones are that really have a penchant for cheering. Also, as a tip to the cheerleaders, no rooting section can have any more spirit than the leaders. Tomorrow night let's see if we can't show the team that we are behind them. Rah. Rah.

Hospitalization Is Included In Tuition Charge

Mrs. Margaret Lambert, head nurse of the college clinic, reminded students today that included in their tuition fees is complete medical coverage under the Blue Cross hospitalization plan.

Mrs. Lambert in lamenting the fact that few students know the location of the clinic has directed them to "the little white building trimmed in green on the corner of Seventeenth and Fifth behind the high school."

"The clinic is well equipped to handle any minor ailments students might have," she explained, "with a staff of two physicians, Dr. C. A. Hoffman and Dr. T. B. Baer, a nurse, and a student assistant, John Harbo."

Shots, vaccines, and serum, are administered during clinic hours from 9 to 12 A. M. and 1 to 4 P. M. weekdays and from 9 to 12 P. M. on Saturday.

"We handle only minor ailments," Mrs. Lambert continued, "but Dr. Baer is on call at any hour of day or night when contacted by dormitory nurses."

In explaining the Blue Cross

Union Gets New Look In Fixtures

Seventeen indirect lighting units of the chandelier type have been purchased and now await installation in the main lounge of the Shawkey Student Union, according to Don Morris, manager.

Mr. Morris announced that a new Philco console model radio has been secured for the Student Union, and is now in use in the lounge. During World Series week, the radio is to be mounted on a raised platform in the main lounge for the benefit of those wishing to hear the games.

A new sink has been installed behind the serving counter to speed up service during the rush hours. The grill received a rating of "A" by the city health officials, Mr. Morris added.

hospitalization plan, Mrs. Lambert pointed out that students requiring hospitalization are covered to the extent of $3.50 a day on the hospital room.

UNLIKE THEIR FELLOWS at similar institutions, the men shown above are not content to sit on the sideline and watch the exploits of varsity athletes. Instead they are depicted at an intramural board meeting mapping plans for the touch football season. Included among the faculty members who attended the meeting were Dr. Stewart H. Smith, president; Professor Otto A. "Swede" Gullickson, director of intramural athletics; Professors Frederick "Doc" Fitch and Tom Dandeleit of the physical education department, and Dr. J. Frank Bartlett, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.

IF THERE'S ANYTHING to the saying that "a team is no stronger than its line," then the seven husky Big Green forwards shown above are entitled to a great deal of credit for the instrumental roles they have played in the team's success thus far in the current campaign. They are, left to right, Bob Koontz, Norman Willey, Joe McCoy, Bill Whitehead, Dan Wickline, Danny Clark and Co-Captain Claude Miller.

Pi Kappa Alpha, Tau Epsilon Win

By ED PIERCE
The Pi Kappa Alpha and Tau Epsilon Phi touch football teams got off to a head start in the intramural league by turning in respective victories on Wednesday. The PiKA's turned back Alpha Sigma Phi, 31-0, by virtue of aerial work on the part of Mike Veres and Jim Van Zant and the canny running of John Frecka. Meanwhile, Goldman led his TEP teammates to a 6-2 win over Tau Kappa Epsilon. Nevertheless, the winners were forced to stage a late rally in order to salvage a victory.

IN THE FIRST game on the afternoon's card, the PiKA's set the Phi's back for great losses time and time again. In addition, numerous bad passes from center helped add to the ASP downfall. Touchdown tosses for the winners were thrown by Veres, Frecka and Zeph Stultz. Scores via the aerial route were made in each of the first, second and third periods. Frecka ran the fourth tally over in the final quarter. Veres passed to Van Zant for two extra points and to Bill Brown for another.

Rules for touch football games are vusted on the intramural bulletin board in the Student Union Building. Officials for all games are being furnished by the advanced officiating class. Entry lists for horseshoe and tennis singles tournaments will be taken down from the board today

OU Is Harriers First Foe

Athens To Be Site Of Meet

A relatively inexperienced but determined band of Marshall harriers will depart tomorrow for Athens, O., where they will take part in a cross country track meet with representatives from the University of Ohio. The dual meet will be the first on a seven-meet schedule for the varsity runners.

The lone home meet has been arranged for November 6 with John Carroll University and will be run off between halves of the Big Green-Blue Streaks football game in connection with homecoming festivities.

OTTO A "SWEDE" Gullickson, associate professor of physical education and director of intramural athletics, has replaced Athletic Director Luther F. Poling as coach of this year's squad.

Members of the team who qualified for places on the Ohio trip are Dudley, Tomblin, Jim Byrd, Jim "Fuzzy" Artrip, Jim Casto, Oras Hancock and Charles Lanhan.

OTHER MEMBERS of the squad who have been working faithfully but who did not succeed in qualifying for meet competition include Jim Cain, Don Bates, Jack Wells, Fred Moire, George Brunch, Jim Bell, Gene Stewart, Jim Clark, Dave Daugerty, R. C. Adkins, Ralph Fisher, Jim Detwiler and Glen Allman.

WAA PLANS MEETING MONDAY IN GYMNASIUM

A meeting of the women's Athletic Association will take place Wednesday at 4 P. M. the women's gymnasium. Subsequent WAA meetings will follow on the first Wednesday of each month throughout the remainder of the school year.

In the meantime, women's intramural tournaments in tennis and horseshoe singles got under way yesterday with large fields of entries slated for participation.

RESERVED TICKETS TO GO ON SALE MONDAY

Reserved seat tickets for the Marshall-Dayton University football game that will be played Saturday, October 9, at Dayton, O., will go on sale Monday at the athletic department, according to an announcement by Luther F. Poling, athletic director.

Plans for the sale of tickets as revealed by Mr. Poling call for the ducats to go on sale in downtown Huntington shortly thereafter. Only 300 such tickets will be available and the policy of first-come, first-served will be followed, the athletic director added.

Numerous applications for jobs at the college cafeteria were received by dietitian Miss Florence M. Leach last week after her announcement that several positions were open. She said today that her staff is complete but that any student who wishes to work part-time may put his application in for a future job.

Miss Leach again requested that students read the menu in advance so that lines will not become stalled while someone makes a choice.
