"WE WANT THE 'FLYING CLEAT'" has been the cry of the Marshall student body this week as Coach Cam Henderson and his Big Green gridders continued to prep for tomorrow's clash with the University of Dayton Flyers at Dayton. The Herd is reported ready to make an all-out effort to gain possession of the coveted trophy that will be hanging in the balance when the two teams meet.

Marshall Invades Dayton In Quest Of Flying Cleat

By JOHN HENRY SHADBURN
Marshall's Big Green football team, seldom an underdog, will find itself in that role tomorrow afternoon when it invades the University of Dayton Stadium to meet the Dayton Flyers in an attempt to erase a 1946 defeat and at the same time gain possession of the "Flying Cleat," a new rotating trophy between the two schools. Starting time will be 2:15 P. M.

It was a well-balanced and hard-running Dayton team that hung a 29-7 defeat on the Herd in the last meeting of the clubs. This year, the Flyers will be on the rebound from a 7-6 loss at the hands of Coach Hugh Devore's St. Bonaventure eleven and should prove more formidable opposition than ever. Dayton opened the season by turning back John Carroll University of Cleveland, a future Big Green opponent.

SIMILARLY, the Herd has had only mild success this campaign. After bowing to Miami, 38-6, in the season's opener, Marshall bounced back to defeat Morehead, 19-7, but suffered defeat number two at the hands of Eastern Kentucky, 20-7, last Saturday night at Fairfield Stadium.

In addition to tomorrow's clash with the Flyers, Marshall faces one of the toughest schedules of any school its size in the country. Future Big Green foes include Xavier University, 13-7 winner over Cincinnati U. Saturday at Cincinnati, John Carroll University, 46-20 victor over the Toledo U. Rockets last week, and Vanderbilt Uni-

HODGES HALL MEN ORGANIZE ORCHESTRA

A group of Hodges Hall musicians formed their own orchestra at a meeting Monday night in the lounge.

Several rehearsals have already been scheduled. The group will elect a leader at its rehearsal 5:30 P. M. Monday in The Greenhouse.

The orchestra will include a sax and brass sections, a piano, drummer, and vocalist.

SPANISH CLUB PROMISES YEAR OF ACTIVITIES

The newly organized Spanish Club promises a wide variety of amusement activities in music, dancing, movies, plays, and contests for the student interested in joining the club. Medardo Gutierrez, instructor of Spanish said this week.

"The goals of the club," Mr. Gutierrez explained, "will be to have at least one Spanish movie, full length, each semester, plus the other activities of the club, which include music, dancing, preparation of short skits, plays, and contests in Spanish."

THE FIRST meeting will take place, October 14, at 7 P. M. in M 216, when officers will be elected. Mr. Gutierrez pointed out that the club is not limited to Spanish majors. Any student who is interested in learning something of the Spanish culture is eligible to join.

Artist Series To Open With Wagner's Production Of "Romeo And Juliet"

By KNOX DYE

The Artist Series enthusiasts will again have an opportunity to hear a famous operatic production next Tuesday, October 12 when Charles L. Wagner will present a company of 80 in the immortal Shakespeare-Gounod music-drama "Romeo and Juliet". The curtain will rise at 3 P. M. in the Kieth-Albee Theatre.

THE LEADING roles will be sung in French by Marguerite McClelland as Juliet and Jon Crain as Romeo, supported by a mixed chorus of 18 young American singers. The 30-piece orchestra will be directed by Walter Ducloux, a gifted composer who first attracted world-wide attention as assistant to Toscanini during the pre-war international Musical Festivals in Lucerne, Switzerland.

"Romeo and Juliet" will be Mr. Wagner's tenth operatic venture in the past nine seasons. Critics have repeatedly praised his shows for the outstanding quality of his singers, in both leading roles and chorus, for the musical and scenic cleanliness of his productions, and for the polished and thoroughly rehearsed quality of stage action.

Freshmen Elect Williamson Prexy; Shepherd, Bobbitt, Asbury, Reps.

By JAMES KIRKPATRICK

Thomes J. Williamson of Logan was elected president of the freshman class from a field of 12 candidates at an election held on Wednesday in the polls at the Student Union.

Other electees were Rita Shepherd of Charleston, Robert Bobbitt of Beckley and Charles Asbury of Huntington as student representatives, and Peggy Haddad of Whitesville and George White of Logan as typical freshman girl and boy respectively.

Williamson coasted in with an early majority in the counting but the representatives were not determined until the last ballots were counted.

"It looked as if each person voted for himself in the run for typical freshman" Earl Kirker, student council president said and added that "everyone was eager for the position".

"These new additions to the student council make informement of freshmen rules a freshman business too" Kirker said, "and they will now have to find some excuse other than faulty guidance from the upper classmen. These freshmen will meet with the student council Monday night," he said.

"The polls were open long enough for the entire freshman class to vote but only about half of them exercised this prerogative." Kirker concluded, "but I would not venture a guess as to a reason for the light turnout."

The Chamber of Commerce will meet Thursday at 7 P. M. October 14 in main 201, Ruth Ball, acting president, announced.

All potential members are invited.

MARSHALL SOCIETY: DANCES, SMOKERS HIGHLIGHT SOCIAL WEEKEND EVENTS

By MARY JENKINS

There seems to be little lull in the social events on campus with dances filling the weekend and fraternity smokers scheduled during the week.

Student Council will sponsor a dance tonight in The Greenhouse from 9 to 12 P. M. featuring the music of the Bionaires. Chaperones are Miss Margaret Lennox, Miss Alice Dorworth and Mrs. Frances Burdette. Price for admission is $.50 a couple.

Phi Tau Alpha fraternity will have a stag dinner honoring their new actives of last May at the Spring Valley Country Club tonight at 5:30 P. M. Following the dinner there will be an informal dance for fraternity members and guests from 9 P. M. to 1 P. M. with Barry Trew and his orchestra playing.

The first formal dance on campus every year is given by the Pan Hellenic CoCouncil. The dance will be in the Shawkey Student Union tomorrow night from 9 to 12 P. M. with Howard Jennings and his orchestra playing. The committee in charge of the arrangements consists of women from each sorority who are: Audrea Davis, Theta Rho; Lee Rorer, Phi Epsilon; Wilda Rogers, Alpha Sigma Alpha; Gene Fitzgerald, Sigma Sigma Sigma; Pat Morris, Delta Sigma Epsilon; Do-

HOME COMING PLANS SET; FLOAT ENTRY DEADLINE OCTOBER 13

Deadlines have been set, plans completed, and the biggest Homecoming ever will begin to take shape next Wednesday at 4:00 P. M. when all float entries must be in the hands of the Homecoming Committee.

EVERY ORGANIZATION on the campus has been asked to enter a candidate for queen of each class as well as a float. The entries for queen must be in before Friday, October 15. Queens for each class will be chosen on Wednesday, October 20, from 10 to 2, by the student body balloting in Student Union.

Two members of each class will be chosen by the student body. Student council will make a final choice of one queen for each class. From these four women a Victory Queen will be elected for the Thanksgiving Dance.

The activities will go into full swing at 11:30 A. M. November 6 when the Homecoming parade gets under way. At 2:00 P. M., the Big Green will take on John Carroll University's Blue Streaks in the Homecoming Game.

Topping the events for the day will be the Homecoming Dance from 9:00 to 1:00 Saturday night, November 6, at Biggs Armory. Johnny Long's orchestra will provide the music.

Parade routes and procedure will be sent each campus organization soon. There is a limit of $50

MR. WAGNER promises that "Romeo and Juliet" will be his finest production to date. "Our Juliets will be young, lithe and lovely," the veteran producer stated, "they won't need a reinforced concrete balcony. Our Romeos will be able to jump over the balcony while they thrill you with their singing."

Professor Curtis Baxter, manager of the Artist Series said, "Romeo and Juliet is the most elaborate operatic production on tour."

Mr. Baxter announced that Lauritz Melchior, singer, and Alexander Brailowsky pianist will give only one performance. This is customary for singers and pianists. Brailowsky and Melchior are scheduled for November 30 and February 22 respectively. The afternoon performances of November 30 will be replaced by the Eva Jessye choir. The dual piano team of Fitzdale and Gold will give an afternoon program on February 22.

"The Eva Jessye choir will present a program commemorating the 50th birthday of George Gershwin with an all-Gershwin show. This choir sang the Gershwin program in the Lewis stadium in New York this summer and was featured in the original production of Porgy and Bess by the New York Theater Guild."

"Fitzdale and Gold is one of the rising teams in the country. They have been playing in France all summer and will open their season in New York's Town Hall this month."

Nice Work!

The biggest single accomplishment on the campus was seen last Saturday night at intermission of the Dad's Day contest with the Eastern Kentucky Maroons. The Marshall College band, decked out in their new uniforms showed more snap and vigor than any Big Green band since the war.

Although the band was expected to lead the ceremonies of the evening, no one quite expected the efficiency and ease with which it was accomplished. Marshall bands in the past appeared to the spectators as being there in body and not in spirit.

Assistant Professor of Music Thomas O'Connell, serving as band director, has done commendable work in the short time that he has been on the campus. He has added life to what was once a lackadaisical outfit.

Artist Series

The Marshall College Artist Series opens its 13th anniversary season, Tuesday when Charles L. Wagner's touring production of Gounod's opera "Romeo and Juliet" comes to Huntington. This is the first of six programs which promise to surpass anything that has ever been attempted.

The over-all cost of these six attractions is also considerably more than that of any past season. Although the expense varies, the Fred Waring program, which presents the largest popular musical organization in radio, is undoubtedly the costliest of the six.

This, however, is overlooked since two of Waring's regular morning national broadcasting company programs will be broadcast here—the importance of this being that the college will receive invaluable publicity. Students will receive special passes for these two programs. Waring's Artists Series program is to be Tuesday Evening, November 2.

Other programs on the coming artist series programs, are Alexander Brailowsky, Lauritz Melchior, Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra and the Ballet Theatre.

The man who selects these programs is Prof. Curtis Baxter. He is the general manager of the Artists Series, which he organized in 1935 and has directed since. When the series was reorganized in 1941 as a business corporation devoted to non-profit community service, he was chosen as a member of the board of directors.

Freshmen and transfer students who entered for the first time in September 1948 are to see their faculty advisers during the week of October 11, Dr. J. F. Bartlett, dean of the college of Arts and Sciences, announced.

Students will make important entries of an academic nature in their record books at the meeting. These entries will pertain to high school work and work done in other colleges.

Also the student will be asked to enter in the record books the schedule of courses which he is taking during the present year. Should the student be unable to see his adviser at the hour indicated he should arrange by appointment to see his adviser at some other time. Basketball Practice Under Way At Gym

Marshall College's gymnasium became alive with basketball activity this week as Coach Cam Henderson began putting candidates for the Big Green's 1948-49 court combine through their passassin preparation for a tentative home opener on December 4.

In addition to routine pre-season drills, the Herd is prepping for the defense of its Los Angeles Invitational Tournament crown. According to an announcement by Luther F. Poling, director of athletics, the tournament will be run off December 28, 30 and 31 at the Pan Pacific Auditorium in Los Angeles. Information is expected to be forthcoming concerning the possibility of playing several tournament contests on December 29.

An eight-team field is scheduled to participate in the annual classic, Mr. Poling added. Besides Marshall, there will be Brigham Young University North Carolina State College, Hamline University, University of Wyoming, Montana State University, Loyola University and George Pepperdine College. The latter team in the aforementioned group will serve as host during the three-day affair.

Further tournament details are expected to be forwarded soon by Al O. Duer, director of athletics at George Pepperdine College.

Geraldine Bias, blind student, needs a reader. Salary 25 cents per hour. Miss Bias is free from 9 to 2 and 3 to 4 on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, and from 10 to 1 on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Applicants apply at the Dean of Women's office.

MURAL SCENE

By ED PIERCE

Hodges Hall is looking-up in several ways this year for it has a new student governing body, a remarkable newspaper and a generally more-coordinated and spirited body. Out of this bustle for building the intramurals came a new athletic director.

Johnny Sayre, Ashton, W. Va. sophomore, is a pretty busy man without this job what with his putting in above 20 hours weekly part-time, and seventeen hours class-work and advertising manager of the Hall newspaper but the improvement is already apparent. There is organization.

Johnny led a Hodges Hall Screwball team to the championship in the touch football tournament last year and was named on the all-star team. He also won the horse-shoe singles intramurals later in the year. Now, at Hodges, his two touch teams have started out with victories and Johnny says they'll be ready for every other sport that comes along—basketball to be hit with special emphasis.

Advanced field biology students will study flora peculiar to the New River Gorge tomorrow near Cotton Hill. The college bus, leaving at 7:30 A. M., will furnish transportation. Sixteen persons will make the trip, Dr. H. C. Darlington, head of the biology department estimated.

A lantern slide projector valued at $300 was received by the biology department.

Varsity 'M' Notice

There will be a meeting of the Varsity M Club Monday at 7:30 P. H. in the little gymnasium, it was announced by George Brackman, president. All varsity letter winners are requested to be in attendance since important organizational plans will be discussed.

Louetta Tucker, Hughston, W. Va., junior, was appointed chairman of the demerit committee at a meeting of the Laidley Hall council last week.

Green Set For Meet At Oxford

While Marshall's Big Green football team attempts to better its season record against the University of Dayton Flyers tomorrow at Dayton, O., varsity harriers will be attempting to register victory number one for this season in a duel meet with Miami University and Ball State College at Oxford, O.

Coach "Swede" Gullickson and his seven cross country representatives were scheduled to leave at noon today for Hamimilton, Ohio, where they will make their headquarters at the Hotel Wayne. The Marshallites will move into Oxford tomorrow morning for the meet and will return home shortly thereafter.

Heading the representative squad of Herd harriers will be the versatile pair of Bill Dudley and Jim Tomblin. Although Dudley did not take part in last week's meet at Ohio University, Tomblin was the first Marshall runner to the finish line.

Gullickson has repeatedly stressed the fact that the boys are showing rapid improvement

The Big Green was scheduled to leave for Dayton this morning via chartered bus. After establishing headquarters at the Hotel Gibbons, plans call for a brief limbering up drill late this afternoon at the UD Stadium.

FOLLOWING the team to Dayton in an effort to turn the game into a colorful spectacle will be the Marshall band and cheer leaders. Judging from advance ticket sales, several hundred townspeople as well as students are expected to make the trip.

DINING HALL GAINS 'A' RATING IN CHECK-UP

Miss Florence Leach, cafeteria dietician, said yesterday that the Huntington Public Health Association had given the dining hall an "A" rating in their monthly checkup of restaurants.

Although Marshall is a state institution and a checkup by the local health board is not required they were welcomed by the cafeteria staff.

The cafeteria, which is serving meals daily to more than 1,900 students and faculty members, also had a step-up in the line situation since students have been reading the menu.

Another addition to the cafeteria is the loud speaker system, which is used primarily for special dinners and banquets where there are speakers and not as a juke box.

New York Architect Will Inspect Library

Mr. Alfred M. Githen, library architect from New York City, will be on the campus Oct. 11 through 16 to observe library activities and make suggestions as to how the present library space may be best utilized. He is also expected to make recommendations concerning further expansion of the building, according to Miss Rosa V. Oliver, librarian.

Mr. Githen will make his studies in cooperation with the library committee headed by Dr. Conley H. Dillon. Other members are Dr. H. G. Toole, Dr. Robert P. Sechler, Dr. Edward L. Plymale, Miss Katherine Wehler and Miss Rosa V. Oliver.

MR. GITHEN'S visit comes as a result of a report on the library which was made in May, 1946, by Mr. Charles E. Rush, Director of Libraries at the University of North Carolina. This report contains an informal outline of certain deficiencies, with recommendations and suggestions as to what can and should be done to improve the library.

In his report, Mr. Rush found many faults in the library building. He said that the building was not planned for library service and that no good library can be organized in a building "inadequate for library purposes and also used for classroom purposes."

MR. RUSH also reported that the main reading room on the second floor is "poorly arranged, inadequately shelved and badly lighted." Also included in this report is the mention that although ventilators are present, but there is no ventilation system.

In the conclusion of this section of his report, Mr. Rush recommends consulting a library architect to gain suggestions for improvement of existing facilities.

for Each Day!

With a Clever Bit of Embroidery to Distinguish the Day

89c

Now you'll want a whole "wardrobe" of brief panties . . . one for each day in the week — to keep you immaculately fresh. There's a special embroidered motif in color on white . . . to indicate the day you are to wear them, 4 to 7.
