Term Finals Put Forward One Week

College Council Moves Finals To Avoid Conflict With Centennial

Examinations were moved up five days on the college calendar yesterday afternoon by the College Council, leaving the Centennial week free of any academic work.

Previously scheduled to begin on Friday, May 28, and to continue through the Centennial week, final exams will now begin on Monday, May 24, and will be completed by all classes on Saturday, May 29, according to Miss Attarah Blackwood, secretary of the council.

Seniors will find their examination schedule divided between regularly scheduled exams and finals given by special arrangement with instructors. They will follow the examination schedule up to and including Wednesday, May 26. Exams which are scheduled after that date must be taken at some earlier date by arrangement. Grades for seniors must be reported to the offices of the deans by Friday noon, May 28.

The original schedule will be followed throughout except that different dates have been substituted for those originally announced, i. e. exams scheduled for Friday, May 28, will be taken on Monday, May 24, those scheduled for Monday, May 31, will be taken on Tuesday, May 25, etc. Saturday classes will take their tests as announced on Saturday, May 29.

While the Council made no explanation of its action it was generally understood that the change was considered advisable due to the press of activity during the Centennial week.

Council Plans Queen Election

Candidates For Centennial Queen May Be Entered By Payment Of Fees

Prompted by the amount of interest and discussion on the campus regarding the manner in which the election of a queen for the Centennial Ball will be carried out the Student Council again took up the question in an attempt to iron out the difficulties.

After much discussion the members of the council agreed unanimously to let the election continue as planned with the exception of one additional phase. The new addition to the original motion was that there be an entrance fee of $1.00 to discourage practical jokers.

The plan for the election as it stands now is that beginning May 17th and continuing through May 28th a polling place will be set up in the Student Union where students may buy votes for their choice provided they pay an entrance fee of one dollar. After payment of the fee the students may buy votes at a minimum of fifty for five cents. The polling place will be in charge of Cecil Ferguson, manager of the Student Union.

500 Are Cast In Centennial Week Pageant

All but two of the fourteen scenes of the college Centennial pageant have been cast and approximately 200 students are yet needed to cheer the football squad depicted in scene seven it was announced yesterday by Prof. Buell Whitehill, director of the pageant.

Eph Jacobs, College Theatre president and veteran in college theatrical productions was chosen to be the reader between the scenes by Prof. Whitehill. The director plans to pick the players for scenes thirteen and fourteen from those already cast in the first twelve scenes after he discovers the best talent. He has called a meeting today at noon in the auditorium for the five hundred already cast.

The pageant, depicting the hundred years existence of Marshall College and written by Professors Ranson and Whitehill, of the speech department, will be presented in the Ritter park amphitheatre the nights of Monday and Tuesday, May 31 and June 1.

Madrigal Club Appears Twice

Chorus Presents Program At City Auditorium Wednesday And Thursday

The Madrigal Club, a mixed chorus of 45 selected voices appeared on two programs at the City Auditorium Wednesday and Thursday nights.

The chorus sang on a WPA music program Wednesday night at 8:00 o'clock, presenting two numbers written by Prof. Hannah Cundiff, of the music department. The numbers, "Marshall March" and "The Birch Tree" were illustrative of Prof. Cundiff's contributions to music development in Cabell county.

Thursday night, the club appeared with the WPA orchestra and the Owens-Illinois band, giving a program honoring the delegates to the state high school band festival.

Peace League Poll Uncovers Mild Pacifist Sentiment

Will Youth Fight?

That was the question put before 350 students through the poll conducted by the Marshall Peace League last week. The majority said "Yes," but only in case of invasion. Fifty-five, however, said that they would fight under any circumstances. Twelve conscientious objectors came out with a flat and unconditional "No," and eighty-five students said they would fight for democracy against fascism. Several qualified this statement by writing in the margin—"only in the United States."

Students were almost unanimous in agreeing that the United States should prohibit trade with any country engaged in war. Thirty-six embryo profiteers were in favor of selling munitions impartially to all belligerent nations.

Opinion was almost evenly di-

Platforms Announced By Presidential Nominees

Jacobs And Aldridge Announce Tentative Platforms; Royerites Silent

Two of the three parties represented in the current campus election, the Independent Progressives supporting Jacobs, and the E. A. F. P. party backing Aldridge, have presented tentative platforms of their principles, intentions, and promises. The third, a coalition party backing Herbert Royer, has not released a platform as yet.

The nominees will elaborate on and develop these platforms in assembly next week immediately prior to the opening of the polls.

A major plank in the platform of the Independent Progressive party supporting Jacobs, according to Clinton Karr who issued a statement on behalf of that party, is the careful consideration of problems as confronted with action according to the wishes of the majority of students. Their basic ideal, Karr said, was the placing of government in the hands of officials who proportionately represent the whole student body. Although to be guided by principles rather than promises, according to the statement, the party makes one promise: immediate, progressive action in all instances, and exertion of the full power assigned to student government.

Seek Traffic Light

The party is at present campaigning for a traffic light at the intersection of Sixteenth street and Fourth avenue, and a reopening of the men's locker room in Main which was closed by authorities last semester. This party presented the registration amendment to the student constitution which the council passed recently.

Aldridge Announced

Edward Aldridge announced tentative points of his platform. Some of his planks are: more fun for the student body, bigger dances oftener, special train, boat, or bus trips for every out-of-

Mary Hart Wins Alma Mater Post

Mary Hart, teachers college junior, has been chosen to symbolize Alma Mater in the annual torch ceremony. The selection of the Alma Mater involves the submission of the names of ten junior women high in scholarship, five by the dean of each college. These ten read a portion of the ceremony in the presence of Prof. Lucy Prichard, Prof. Hannah Cundiff, and Prof. Buell Whitehill who select two names. The junior class elects the Alma Mater from these two. Magdalene Smith was the other candidate selected by the committee.

This year three of the ten were unable to read for the committee; Annalee Gillespie and Kathleen O'Farrell were under quarantine in Everett Hall, and Kitty Scott Darlington had previous affiliations with the Madrigal club. In the ceremony the Alma Mater holds the Torch of Learning from which the seniors light their ceremonial candles. This year the torch ceremony will not be held as a separate feature of commencement, but has been written in as a part of the Centennial pageant.

Seniors Plan Dance May 28

Prof. Loemker Warns Of Cap And Gown Shortage At Class Meeting

Contributing one more social event to the ever-swelling social calendar during the Centennial the senior class Wednesday decided to give a tea dance on May 28 at the Hotel Governor Cabell and authorized its dance committee to proceed immediately to sell tickets to members of the class.

Only seniors or their companions will be admitted. The price will be determined within a few days.

Louise Humphreys, was elected by the class to prepare a class history to be read at a Senior Day exercise. It was announced that several members of the class will be appointed on the committee to make plans for the celebration.

Prof. K. K. Loemker, class adviser, made the announcement for the book store that an insufficient supply of caps and gowns is now on hand and that these will be rented, while they last, for $1.25 plus a deposit of $3, which will be refunded when the garment is returned.

An additional supply will be ordered to completely outfit the class but these gowns will rent for $1.75 plus a deposit of $5, which will be refunded. Seniors were urged to place the orders for their caps and gowns immediately if they wished to get the first price.

Royer, Jacobs, And Aldridge Nominated For Student Presidency

The annual student election campaign was officially opened Wednesday in assembly when three juniors were nominated to run for the presidency of the student body. After a short devotional program Student President Larry Tippet took the chair and asked for nomination.

Herbert Royer's name was presented by Tom Aldridge, Kemmel Dibbs nominated Eph Jacobs, and Phil Bee named Edward Aldridge. William Hall, seconding the nomination of Jacobs, discoursed on the merits, grades and accomplishments of his candidate. Seconding of the nominations was neither necessary nor customary, Tippet said but was not improper. There were no other seconds. Bob Jones made a motion to close the nominations. It was seconded.

19 Submit Petitions

The election board received petitions Wednesday from 19 candidates for council and class presidency positions. Those submitting petitions were Jack Leckie and Joe Schmedding, senior class president; Max Simmons, John Stephens, Sam Stout and Dan Churton, senior councilmen; Julius Rivlin and Richard Voce, junior class president; Rebecca Blizzard, Raymond Hage, and Willis Stinson, junior councilmen; Rae Poteet and Ben Hermann, sophomore class president; and Jack Morelock, Ralph Cline, Robert Coakley, Joe Gorman, Nora Vee Thacker, and Dallas Higbee, sophomore councilmen.

This list includes the entire slates of candidates running with Royer and Jacobs.

Since the election board has not passed on the eligibility of all, this group of candidates is only tentative.

While there had been announced previously the formation of a Greek Alliance party with a slate of candidates to run with Aldridge, no other candidates for class presidencies or council positions were nominated except those aligned with Royer and Jacobs.

Churchmen In Chapel

Preceding the nominations for student president, the chapel program was in charge of a group of young men who are conducting a program "Eight Great Days For Young People" at the Fifth Avenue Baptist church. Byron Wilkinson, former Marshall student, presided. Three others, Luther Holcomb, of Nashville, Tenn.; Gaye McGlothen, Marshall alumnus of Louisville, Ky.; and Ray Tindall, of Spartanburg, S. C.; spoke briefly. Felix Arnold, of Sharron, Miss., sang a number set to music from Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah."

The N. Y. A. payroll was made up and sent to Charleston Tuesday afternoon, and checks are expected to arrive the latter part of next week, according to an announcement made yesterday by Dr. John T. Krumpelmann, dean of men.

Do Your Part

Yesterday afternoon the College Council proved itself more than considerate when it advanced the examination schedule one week to relieve the pressure which would have been felt during the Centennial week if the examinations had gone through as scheduled.

The Parthenon has been campaigning for exemption for examinations as a solution for the problem with the thought in mind that it would be the best possible solution without losing further time this semester.

The solution of the Council is a welcome one and quite as acceptable as any other plan which might have been contemplated. One thing only must be assured and that assurance rests with the student body.

The scheduling of examinations during the week preceding the Centennial now frees the entire student body of any academic activities during the actual celebration. The Council has exhibited a great deal of faith in the student body to cooperate to the fullest in this new arrangement. The Council has now made it possible for us to get our exams out of the way first and then to buckle down to the job of putting on the Centennial pageant and participating in the other events on the program.

We must not assume that it will be necessary to ask a pledge of every student to do his part. The Council has asked for no such pledge and does not expect the students to make them. The pledge must be to yourself as an honest, understanding student of the college, that you will return the favor that has been done for you by cooperating in the Centennial to the fullest.

W. A. A. PLANS DINNER

The Women's Athletic Association has invited its alumnae to attend a banquet to be held Monday evening May 31, from 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock in the cafeteria. At the dinner awards will be made to all winners in the sports competition sponsored this year by the W. A. A.

BEE LINES By Phil Bee

Special to Parthenon-- (Tia Juana, Mexico)

Nominations are over, the election will be run off next Wednesday. Meanwhile we will content ourselves with hot tamales, dark senioritas, and toquila. Also we will repeat to ourselves with ritual-like regularity the faith we have in the watchfulness of the border police.

Bird's eye view--

From the safety of our retreat none too safe--we wish to take stock of the situation. Political stock, we might continue, is definitely on the uptrend--will continue to rise slowly, but steadily during the next few days. At approximately the middle of the next week there will be a sudden and pronounced show of strength which will continue to show dazzling new highs. Late in the day the commodity will wear itself out and fall to unplumbed depths, leaving a few of the stockholders with enough certificates to paper their rooms. Sad but true is the prediction. But Babson would report wild-cat business methods in the same manner.

Just Like the Poor--

Always with us. The question of the Mirabilia. Not always the Mirabilia but certainly the question. There is a rumor about that the fine old Mirabilia is still kicking and that when next year rolls around she will have jolted herself back into existence. That is, if there can be found among the student body an editor who is a master mind and a business manager who is a veritable Rothschild.

Queens and Queens--

In the last issue the Collegian writing his Diary alluded to the Centennial queen election as unsavory, farcical, blight, hollow and added other uncomplimentary remarks.

The queen he infers, if and when elected, would not be the meritorious victor that a queen should be but a money grubbing dame with a very copious purse. But such is not necessarily the case. There is every possibility that there are enough boys on the campus with enough nickels in their jeans to place upon a nickel-lined throne a fair, fresh, young thing, every inch of her a queen and able to lord it over the revelers in a regal manner. But concede the Diary a point and tack off in another direction. There is too, the possibility that the election without the stigma of a monetary tinge might not be all that it should. That has happened. Ohio State once elected a cow. There is chance to everything and times are trying, so let the nickels slide across the counters and chalk up the fifty votes.

Buzzings--

The UHSP delegates did their meet up brown this year. They all had a very large time. Or are appearances deceiving. The Parthenon comes out last Saturday night all done up as an extra for the press representatives. After its perusal Miss Lee accuses some of the staff unjustly. When the wrecking crew gets after one of these old frame houses on the campus it really goes to pieces in a few hours. Cristeen Duncan, Delta Sig, will mingle with the uniforms at V. P. I. this week-end at Blacksburg, Va. She will take part in the ring ceremonies. Ruth Seely is anticipating the Centennial pageant by measuring up people for their costumes. Famous last words--Jack Steelman, "I've been double-crossed". Only about three more weeks of school. With that enough.

Latin Club To Have Banquet

Classical Association Will Hold Annual Dinner, Wednesday May 12, In Cafeteria

The Classical Association will hold its annual banquet Wednesday, May 12, at 6:30 o'clock in the college cafeteria, according to Omah Mae White, president. Fifty alumni, of graduating classes as early as 1907 will be guests of the Association at the banquet.

Immediately following the program, the Association will present Plautus "Braggart Soldier" translated by Violet Maynard in 1934.

The cast of the play is as follows: Pyrgopolinices, the braggart soldier, Mary Woodworth; Artotrogus, a parasite, Lillian Sumner; Paestrio, the soldier's clever slave, Omah Mae White; Sceledrus, a slave, Lillian Sumner; Philocomatium, an Athenian dancing girl, Shirley Young; Peryplecominus, an old man of Ephesus, Mary Hart; Acrotelutium, a young girl of Ephesus, Betty Woods; Melphidippa, her maid, Frances Bachtel; Pleusicles, a young man in love with Philocomatium, Marguerite Grady.

Contest Entries Are Due Monday

Entries and applicants for the two gold keys awarded annually by Fourth Estate must be turned in to the department of journalism not later than Monday, May 24, at 1:00 o'clock, Marian Snyder, president, announced last night.

The keys are awarded for the best published work of any woman registered in the college and for the most consistently good work in journalism of any woman in college. The keys will be awarded at the annual banquet of the organization on Thursday evening, May 26. Judges will be H. R. Pinckard, editor of the Herald-Advertiser; Prof. W. Page Pitt, head of the journalism department; and Henry G. King, editor of The Parthenon.

FEVER PATIENT RECOVERING

Mary Frances Burgess, teachers college senior who contracted scarlet fever last Sunday in Everett Hall has been removed to her home in St. Albans, where she is convalescing very rapidly. Dr. Leland Brown, college physician stated yesterday. The other seventeen women who were quarantined in the dormitory with Miss Burgess will be permitted to leave the house tomorrow.

Kappa Alpha Downs 'Pack' For Water Polo Crown

Watson Leads 7-3 Win For Water Champs

Sidebottom Paces Losers By Marking Up Two Goals; Champs Heavy

Kappa Alpha literally swamped the Wolfpack last night in the men's pool to swim away with the intramural water polo championship. Chub Watson led the 7 to 3 rout of the Pack by tallying 4 goals for the fraternity men.

The champions opened with a strong offensive attack, making up two goals in quick succession. As the second period got under way they marked up one and then eased up and allowed the independent combine a score.

After the Pack had squeezed through for a goal the Kappa Alpha aggregation retaliated with a brace of quick scoring thrusts.

As the third period opened the Fraternity team gained immediate possession of the ball and converted their superior weight and strength into a duo of goals. The ball changed hands numerous times before the period ended, with Wolfpack showing attempts at desperate comeback.

In the final period the Pack gained some of their lost power and swept through the tiring Kappa Alpha to tally the last goal of the game. Both combines made brilliant attempts at further scoring, but tight defenses prevented it.

Chub Watson led the Kappa Alpha scoring column with four goals. Graney, Altizer and Burgess each scored once.

The losers were paced by Dick Sidebottom who marked up two goals. Waller accounted for the other point.

Prof. Fitch was the referee, Prof. Gullickson the timer, and Jim Provance the scorer for the title clash.

Intramural Track Recarded

The intramural track and field meet, originally scheduled for May 5 has been re-scheduled for May 12. A misunderstanding in the schedule for Fairfield Stadium resulted in the postponement. The starting time of 4:00 o'clock remains as initially carded.

Women's Intramurals

Ten teams have been entered in the tennis doubles tournament sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association, with the first game scheduled for this afternoon at 1:00 o'clock. The contestants are Virginia Daniel and Balmaine Hunter versus Catherine Brooks and Mattie McCorkle.

Three baseball teams, composed of twelve women each, have been formed by the W. A. A. They are captained by Helen Collier, Audrey Auten and Helen Friel.

The captains, selected by Miss McDonough on the basis of number of practices attended, picked their own teams.

Meanwhile horseshoe doubles tournament is progressing in spite of bad weather. Tuesday at 3:30 Dorothy Auten and Rowena Fisher are scheduled to meet Lucille Lane and Mary Galzerano for the quarter finals.

Auten and Fisher qualified by defeating Lottie Ray and Eloise Cofer while Lane and Galzerano won from Fredia Mae Bowen and Pauline Bond.

Phi Kappa Nu Trails By Half Game In Frat League

By PAUL LILLY

Alpha Kappa Pi rose to the top of the Fraternity softball league with four victories and no defeats to their credit by downing the Kappa Alphas last Tuesday afternoon 8-4. Phi Kappa Nu, prime favorites to take the loop title, trail the leaders by a half game.

Wolfpack is setting the pace in the Independent league with three straight victories, followed by the College Corners with a record of three wins in four starts.

Scores of last Tuesday's games: Black Knights No. 1 lost to Flying Squadron 2-8; Grizzlies defeated Black No. 2, 8-3; Faculty won from Phi Tau Alpha 7-6; Alpha Kappa Pi downed Kappa Alpha 8-4.

SOFTBALL POSTPONED

Wet grounds forced the postponement yesterday of all regularly scheduled intramural softball games. Prof. Otto A. Gullickson who made the postponement, expects to recard them for next week, pending condition of the athletic field. Four games per day will be played until the card is brought up to date.

Because other people give her a hand, Roslyn Alcalay, arts college sophomore at the University of Minnesota, has few financial difficulties. She earns her living by reading palms in one of the local hotels.

Work has progressed to such an extent that workmen expect to complete the new floor in the gymnasium within a week. Sanding will be completed, possibly today with painting of lines and finishing on the docket for next week.

Three Spring Formals Are Scheduled For This Week-end

Kappa Tau Phi, honorary scholastic sorority, Pi Kappa Sigma, national educational sorority, and Sigma Tau Phi, local mock sorority, will hold spring formals this week-end. This week is the second for formal dances, the season having opened last week.

Kappa Tau Phi

Kappa Tau Phi will have its annual spring hop tomorrow night at St. Clouds Commons. Mary Frances Carter and her orchestra will play from 9:00 until 1:00 o'clock.

Chaperons for the affair will be Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Gilbert, Dr. and Mrs. E. V. Powers, and Miss Virginia Foulk.

The sorority colors of orchid and silver will be combined with a may-pole idea to complete decorative effects. The pole will be placed in the center of the floor and will have the streamers in colors. Spring flowers will also be used. Programs will be white with orchid cords, and will have the sorority seal in gold on the front.

Miss Jean Merritt is general chairman in charge, with Miss Margaret Gillespie in charge of the programs, Miss Alice Butts, decorations, and Miss Betty Winans, entertainment.

Pi Kappa Sigma

Ships will be the things at the Pi Kappa Sigma spring formal tonight which begins at 9:00 o'clock at the Guyan Valley country club.

The center of attention will be a side of a yacht against which the orchestra will be placed. Made of turquoise blue and gold, the vessel will be brightened by touches of red and white. Along the walls will be strung white ropes, and at the windows silver anchors will be hung. The four double doors will have white life-savers over them, and in one door a canopied gang plank will be placed.

At the end of the room opposite the orchestra will be the bridge of the ship at which there will be a pilot's wheel. The ceiling of the room will be veiled with dark blue cheese-cloth sprinkled with stars, and a silver ball will represent the moon. At intermission the "moon" will be opened and confetti will fall over the participants in the grand march. A male quartet has been engaged to sing Pi Kappa songs.

Programs will be turquoise blue in an opalescent effect with the sorority seal on front.

Chaperons will be Miss Lee Fairchild Bacon, Dean and Mrs. J. T. Krumpelmann, Dr. and Mrs. Paul K. Walp, Prof. and Mrs. J. C. Fors, and Prof. Walter Dove.

Miss Georgia Nenni is the chairman in charge of decorations, and Miss Pauline Kincaid is in charge of programs.

Theta Rho

Theta Rho will fete their mothers at an informal tea tomorrow afternoon at the chapter house between the hours of 3:30 and 5:30 o'clock.

Decorations and refreshments will be in purple and gold, sorority colors. The decorations will consist of spring flowers arranged throughout the house.

Receiving the guests will be Mrs. W. L. Lane, president of the mothers, Miss Mary Jo Grass, president of the sorority, Mrs. Josephine Hooper, house chaperon, and Miss Charlotte Berryman, faculty adviser.

Guests will be the mothers of actives and pledges, Miss Lee Fairchild Bacon, dean of women, Miss Charlotte Berryman, and the sorority patronesses.

The committee in charge is composed of Misses Lucille Lane, Julia Ann Ellison, and Mildred Tschop.

On Sunday, the mothers will attend church with their daughters and will have dinner at the Frederick hotel.

Delta Sigma Epsilon

The Delta Sigma Epsilon Mother's Day tea will follow an initiation of several mothers into the sorority Mother's club.

Beginning at 3:00 o'clock, Mrs. M. E. Hammon, house chaperon, will pour tea for the mothers

The decorations will be carried out in the traditional red rose. Refreshments will be in cream and green, sorority colors.

Miss Virginia Lee Honnald is in charge of the tea, and Miss Audrey Burgess will arrange the floral decorations.
