Raeburn Will Play At Homecoming

Ticket Sales To Begin Monday

(A feature story on Boyd Raeburn's background will be upcoming in The Parthenon soon.)

Boyd Raeburn and his orchestra will play for this year's Homecoming Dance, according to Homecoming Committee Chairman Charlie Kesmodel.

Kesmodel says he received the signed contract for the October 26 date last Friday from General Artists Corporation in New York. General Artists is the booking agent for Raeburn's band.

Tickets for the dance will go on advance sale for students beginning next Monday, October 14, in the Student Government office, from 1-4 P.M. each day. The advance sale ends Friday, October 18, and tickets will be put on sale in downtown Huntington for the general public beginning Monday, October 21. The downtown sale will last until the day before the dance.

The tickets will still be available for students during the week of October 21-25, however.

Only 1,000 tickets will be sold this year, with the price being $3.75 per couple. A ticket will admit a couple only. The dance will last from 9 P.M. until 1 A.M.

Raeburn's Disks To Be On P. A.

Selections from Boyd Raeburn's latest recordings will be played over a loudspeaker from the Student Government office daily starting Monday, October 14, from 12-1 P.M., according to Charlie Kesmodel, Homecoming Committee Chairman.

Kesmodel says the project is aimed at further acquainting the student body with Raeburn's music. He said members of the Commission found, through an impromptu poll, that Raeburn's music was appealing to the students and the Commission would now like to play the music for all students.

Seating arrangements will be made for the ticket holders. Raeburn's band costs $1,750 for the Homecoming appearance.

Raeburn has a 14-piece orchestra and features two vocalists. He is currently playing in Bridgeport, Connecticut, and will fly here for the dance date only and then return to Bridgeport.

Originally, the Homecoming Committee had planned to have Art Mooney here for the dance, but that contract was cancelled by the booking company when the Royal Nevada Hotel in Las Vegas decided to hold Mooney over until December 15. The contract had an option clause in it which gave the hotel the right to do this. Raeburn's contract has no such clause.

Kesmodel said Raeburn was then chosen over some other big-name bands because members of the committee felt Raeburn's new style would be most ideal for a dance. The bands of Charley Spivak, Tommy Tucker, Ray Eberle, Maynard Ferguson, Chuck Cabot and George Williams were considered. Such factors as present inactivity of these bands, "high" prices they asked for appearances, and undesirable style of playing were given as reasons for eliminating them from consideration.

President To Look At 'Future'

Convocation Tomorrow

President Smith's convocation address tomorrow will be "Marshall and Her Future" and will begin at 11 A.M. in Old Main auditorium. This is the first convocation of the year.

His talk will be divided into two categories, the college's future and its present. The president will discuss, with the aid of charts which show the yearly figures, anticipated increases in the college's enrollment, the number of college-age students in West Virginia, and the size of faculty and facilities needed to accommodate the increases.

Dr. Smith will then discuss the college in the present by answering three questions: (1) What is the primary function of college? (2) Why are you (the student) here? and (3) What do you (the student) owe to the state of West Virginia?

After this part of the talk, the floor will be open for a question-answer period in which the audience will participate.

Symphonic Choir will sing at the convocation.

Jones Frosh President; Solon Seats Disputed

A freshman president, four senators and one alternate senator were elected last Friday, but it is still uncertain whether two of these will maintain their positions.

The Freshman Election Commission headed by chairman Ruth Ann McCabe and John Glover notified the two candidates, Ronald "Tags" Meredith and Charlotte Dudderar, in addition to two defeated freshmen, John Bishop and Richard Nedrow, to appear at a hearing Monday afternoon at 3:00 P.M. It was decided after this meeting by the commission not to take action on the situation until 9 P.M. Monday, which is after The Parthenon deadline.

The two candidates were charged with leaving up campaign signs after the deadline for taking them down.

The president of the freshman class is Forrest "Beanie" Jones, by a vote of 105 to 103 over John "Toad" Bishop. The senators who received the most votes are: Susan Daugherty, with 252; Jack Wortman, with 201; Meredith, with 190; and Dudderar, 189 votes. Jennie Windsor qualified for the alternate senator position by receiving 182 votes.

Rounding out the slate of unsuccessful candidates are: Mary Carol Bailey, Tom Atkins, Bill Kahler, Russell Currey, and Bobbie Jean Spry. Atkins received the greatest number of votes of this five with a total of 123.

The next two in number of votes to Jones were Bishop and Nedrow, who were both within six votes of the successful candidate.

Last 'Sergeant' Performance Tonight At K-A

Tonight marks the last performance of the stage comedy hit, "No Time For Sergeants," which will be presented at the Keith-Albee Theatre at 8:30 P.M.

Written by by Mac Hyman and produced by Maurice Evans, "No Time For Sergeants" is the uproarious story of an amiable Georgia plowboy whose good nature nearly wrecks the peacetime Air Force. The Evans production in association with Emmet Rogers, has been adapted by Ira Levin from Hyman's novel.

Charles Hohman plays Will Stockdale, a role he acted for more than a year in New York. Rex Everhart is his beleaguered sergeant, a career man who has the misfortune of having Will and his scrawny buddy, played by Tucker Ashworth, assigned to his classification order.

Howard Freeman and Royal Real are also featured as Air Force and Infantry generals respectively and James Millhillin portrays a bewildered Air Force psychiatrist, roles they created in New York.

Christian Flanders plays a bullying inductee.

Morton Da Costa, who has staged such Broadway hits as "Auntie Mame," "Plain and Fancy," and "The Music Man," directed the present New York troupe as well as its west coast duplicate. Peter Larking's many ingenious and colorful settings have been adapted by Gerald L. Ritholz. Noel Taylor provided costumes, Peggy Clark the lighting.

Also in the mammoth sized company are Donald Hylan, Ray Johnson, William Mullaney, Mary Dell Roberts, Harriet Shephard.

OPEN REHEARSAL IN UNION
Men's Concert Choir will hold an open rehearsal at 12 noon Friday in the Student Union.

According to R. Wayne Hugo-boom, associate professor of music and choral director, routine rehearsal procedure will be followed so that students may observe concert preparation.

Candidates For Miss Marshall Must File Before 4 P.M. Today

By DICK McHENRY

The Freshman Class Queen candidates were nominated Wednesday, October 2, and various campus organizations will submit their candidates' names for the title of Miss Marshall today before 4 P.M. in the Student Government office.

The freshman candidates whose names were listed in the student government office at press time were: Jennie Windsor, Bobbie Jean Spry, Jayne Warek, Linda Lee Gardner, Shirley Church, and Suzanne Walls.

Miss Marshall and her attendants will be elected Wednesday, October 23, and the announcement of the queens will be in The Parthenon Friday, October 25.

Certain qualifications have been published by the homecoming queens committee. Those that apply directly to the candidate are:

1. She must have a "C" average and must not be on social probation.
2. She must be a member of the class she represents.
3. She must be a member of the organization she represents.
4. All organizations must submit the names of their candidates along with the following information in the Student Government office by tomorrow.

- 1) Class
- 2) Hometown
- 3) Organization
- 4) Hometown Newspaper

The rules set down for the candidates are:

1. Candidates must have pictures taken against a background of black drapes. She must have seven 8x10-inch pictures.

2. Each candidate will be responsible for her own posters.

3. Candidates must register their names in the Student Government office today before 4 P.M.

4. Each candidate must turn in one glossy print to the Student Government office of Betty Bick by Tuesday, October 15, before 4 P.M.

5. Each candidate must bring in person all six of her posters at one time to be checked.

6. A limit of $25 is proposed. All candidates are expected to turn in an expense total.

7. All candidates must attend an election-rules meeting Friday at 4 P.M. Those not able to attend must send a representative or be disqualified.

The Homecoming Queen's Committee consists of Chairman Betty Bick, Becky Jackson, Mary Drugan and Linda McGhee.

4-H CLUB MEETS TOMORROW

The newly organized 4-H Club will have a meeting tomorrow at 5 P.M. in Main 116, according to John Murphy, Clarksburg junior, and president. Plans for the year including a forthcoming dance and the publication of a book will be discussed.

If You Have Flu---Skidoo

Students experiencing symptoms of influenza are asked to have their parents come here and take them (the students) home, President Smith told the Parthenon Monday.

The President says this administrative request is part of a program planned to keep down the possibility of an Asian flu epidemic here. The college does not have access to adequate facilities for the segregation of afflicted students.

For those students who cannot arrange trips home, the dormitories have increased supplies of bed linens and towels, aspirin and fruit juices.

The college's regular absence policy will govern cases of students who miss classes because of any illness.

Sixteen Students Employed At WSAZ

By DARLENE HARBOUR

Sixteen students are supplementing their college careers by working at the WSAZ Radio and Television studios.

Phyllis Stewart, an Indiana University graduate from Cincinnati, Ohio, and Donna Miller, Huntington freshman, work in the television continuity department. Phyllis is a philosophy maior. Lewis Glick and Betty Perry work in the accounting department. Lewis, a Ravenswood junior is assistant auditor and is majoring in accounting. Betty, a Wayne sophomore, majoring in business administration, is a bookkeeper. Jane Walker, a Huntington junior, is majoring in advertising. She handles publicity in the promotion department. Upon being interviewed, Jane said she feels the work she does at WSAZ ties in well with her college major. Ray Creamer, Huntington junior majoring in advertising is a television account executive. Keith Fitzpatrick, Ron Lester, Howard Mays, Tom Kyle, Frank Matthews, and Jon McGlone all work in the production end of television. Fitzpatrick, a Huntington senior majoring in speech, is a television director. Lester, a Kenova senior majoring in speech, is a television technical director. Mays, a Huntington junior majoring in social studies, is a studio technician.

sophomore journalism major, is the music librarian. Calvin Ryan, Spencer sophomore, is majoring in speech. At WSAZ Calvin is commercial properties manager. Annette Walker, Ann Curtis, and Leonard Welch are switchboard operators and receptionists. Miss Walker, a Huntington freshman, is majoring in secretarial science. Ann Curtis, a Huntington junior, is a speech major. Leonard, a Charleston senior, is a pre-ministerial student majoring in psychology.

Kyle, an engineering major from Huntington, is a television engineer. Matthews, a Huntington freshman majoring in speech, works in the film department. McGlone a Boursville freshman engineering major, is a studio technician.

All these students say they enjoy combining the two careers, college and radio-television work. They seem to find the medium of radio-television a fascinating and ever-eventful occupation.

Each one of these young men on the production staff of WSAZ agreed that the experience he is receiving at WSAZ should be extremely valuable in the future. Darlene Harbour, a Huntington

Ex-Parthenon Editor Recalls

'Smith Decade' Has Been Full Of Changes

(The following article is by a former Parthenon editor-in-chief. He requested that his name be left off the story. The ex-editor is currently enrolled here as a graduate student.)

Entering his 11th year as president here, Dr. Stewart H. Smith will keynote the 1957-58 Convocation Series tomorrow at 11 A.M. in the auditorium in Old Main.

When Dr. Smith took the presidency about a decade ago, the college was one that had over-crowded classrooms, a record enrollment, and a shortage of facilities.

Today, the college has the same situation. But had it not been for a dynamic decade of constant growth and progress which saw the college rise from a much smaller institution to its present university - in - everything - but-name status, the problems would have been more aggravated.

What was the college like in 1947 when Dr. Smith first became its president?

Physically the college was about the same size but that was back in the days when there was no science building, no freshman dormitory, and no paved tennis courts.

There were few recreational facilities on the campus, the only thing being the main floor of a then much smaller Student Union.

So, on the fact, the college has shown tremendous growth in the past decade. It has matured not only physically but socially, spiritually, and culturally as well.

Physically in 1947, the campus consisted of Northcott Science Hall, Old Main, James E. Morrow Library, the Music Hall, Laidley Hall, Cafeteria, Hodges Hall, Laboratory school, clinic, gym, Student Union, and Everett Hall.

The engineering building (a temporary structure) was erected just after the war and a veterans' housing unit, Green Village, was on the campus.

Green Village is now gone. In its glory just after the war, it was nothing more than a trailer camp located where the freshman dormitory now stands. It was a housing unit for veterans and their families and had a community bathhouse and washroom for the entire village. The village was removed from the campus after about two years.

Plans for the new science building were being formed about then and a service station was removed from the site on which the building was to be built. Since the completion of the science building, the freshman dormitory has been acquired and plans have been effected for a new gymnasium. The older buildings have been renovated.

The social life at the college has tried to keep pace with the physical growth.

Names familiar to the campus now—Teke, Sig Ep, Pike, Alpha Xi, Alpha Chi, Cavaliers—were absent on the campus about 10 years ago.

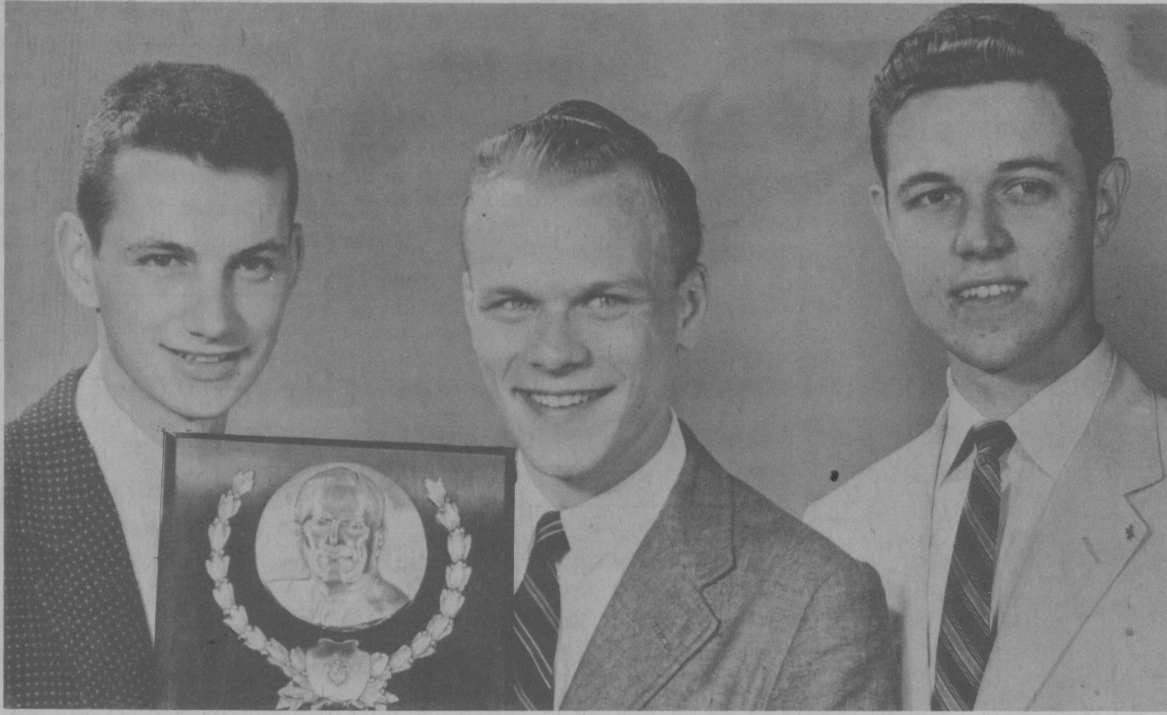

Lambda Chi Alpha, Kappa Alpha Order and Alpha Sigma Phi became the first national fraternities on the campus which then consisted mostly of the local organizations.

A Tau Kappa Epsilon colony was organized, Alpha Theta Chi went Sigma Phi Epsilon, Phi Kappa Nu became Pi Kappa Alpha, and Tau Epsilon Phi was organized but soon faded from the campus. Phi Tau Alpha remained the only local fraternity on the campus for several years until they became Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Student Christian Association Plans Retreat

By PAUL THOMAS

The Annual Student Christian Association Fall Retreat will be at Asbury Woods Camp Center. Saturday, October 12, according to an announcement by Carol Hunt, Huntington senior, retreat chairman for the SCA.

Ruth Ross, Huntington senior, will be in charge of registration. Students may register in N-126 or call Miss Ross at Jackson 3-0274. Registration fee will be $2.50 a person and will close Thursday at 6:30 P.M.

The theme to be discussed will be "The Campus Christian Community." The group will hear tape recordings by Robert L. James, Jr., who is now minister to Protestant students at Temple University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Rev. James spoke at the Fall Retreat last year and was on the staff of the Student Christian Movement

The Retreat at Asbury Woods Center, located near Salt Rock, will open at noon Saturday, and will close at 2:30 P.M. Sunday.

The purpose of the retreat is to provide students with an opportunity to participate in group discussions about the theme. provide for a worship period, and provide recreation for the group.

Transportation will be provided by the group. Persons desiring transportation will meet on the Science Building driveway, Saturday at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Corrie and Rev. Lander Beal will be the chaperones.

Chairmen of the committees

SENATE SPEAKS

The senate approved the following at their meeting on Wednesday, October 2:

Bill No. 166, the purpose being to clarify the procedures of all petitions and requests pertaining to selling on campus. Bill will take effect on October 9 and a minimum fine of $10 will be imposed upon those persons selling without approval of the Senate.

Melville Gill, associate professor of business administration, will succeed Lillian Buskirk, dean of women, as advisor to the senate.

Bob Nixon was named as graduate senator.

Vice President Norman Haddad appointed a committee composed of Senators Mayberry, Lowe, Varney and Chapman to investigate the basketball team's selling shakers and the SCA's selling parking lot tickets.

Tutor Program To Begin Monday

Freshmen tutoring service under the joint direction of Phi Eta Sigma, freshman men's scholastic honorary, and Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's scholastic honorary is scheduled to begin Monday.

A list of classes to be tutored, the name of the tutor, and where the tutoring will take place is to be placed in the Dean of Men's and the Dean of Women's offices, as well as in the Student Union. Freshmen interested in the service may pick up applications blanks in either of the Deans' offices.

By charging a fee of $1.00 per hour, the honorary groups hope to insure that only those who are serious about wanting help will apply. Twenty-five cents will go to Phi Eta Sigma and Alpha Lambda Delta, while the remaining seventy-five cents will go to the tutor.

Thundering Herd Is Still Undefeated

Broncos Latest To Fall, 12-7

The Thundering Herd, improving with every game, pushed the Western Michigan Broncos all over the field at Kalamazoo, Mich., Saturday and came home with a hard to get 12-7 victory.

Five different times the Herd knocked on the scoring door, but on three of these times they were halted by a fired up Western Michigan eleven.

Coach Herb Royer's team, unbeaten in three games, did pass their first test against good competition and the Green and White really hits the meat of their schedule in the next three tilts. Toledo, Kent State and Ohio U., all Mid-American Conference foes, will furnish the opposition in that order.

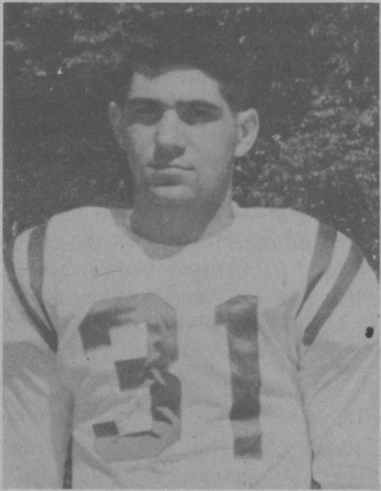

The win over the Broncos was a "big" one for the team. The Broncos are supposed to have one of its best teams in years. They upset favored Central Michigan, 33-4, in their first outing and held perennial power Miami down by taking only a 20-0 defeat from the Redskins.

The Big Green completely dominated the play in the first half, and yet they were behind 7-6 at intermission. Once each in the first and second periods the Herd got inside the Broncos' 15 yard line and couldn't score.

Tackle John Beiletti set up and quarterback Bob Wagner sparked the Herd to their first score. With a minute left in the half Beiletti recovered a fumble on Western Michigan's 38 yard line. Wagner then completed two straight 10 yard passes and ripped off 16 yards on a keeper play, putting the ball on the two. Cagle Curtis then took a handoff from Wagner to give the Green a 6-0 lead. Beiletti's boot was wide.

With only 46 seconds left, the Herd's kickoff went two yards into the Broncos' end zone. Halfback Lowell Coleman gathered the ball in and scampered all the way—102 yards—for Western's first score. The extra point was good and the home town fans were happy as the northerners left the field at halftime with a 7-6 lead.

Incidentally this was the first time in four games that Western had ever been ahead of the Big Green. In fact this was only the third touchdown the Broncos have been able to score in its series with the Herd.

BOB WAGNER
Still Throwing Strikes

The Broncos only enjoyed the leading atmosphere for a little more than a quarter, as early in the fourth period another Western bobble set up the the Big Green's second score.

Michigan quarterback Bob Mason bobbled a bad pass from center and when he finally did get possession of the ball, linebacker Sonny Sirianni blocker his punting try. Marshall Co-Captain Hess fell on the ball on Western's 10 yard line.

On the next play the Herd's leading scorer, Ray Dunlap, slashed into paydirt from his halfback position. Dunlap, one of the leading scorers in the MAC, now has scored 24 points this early in the season. He has scored at least once in every game.

Wagner again ignited the team with his deadly passing game. The Logan junior passed twelve times and completed six for 80 yards. Since the opening game with West Virginia State, when Wagner failed to complete an aerial, he has hit on 10 of 19 tries for 186 yards and one touchdown.

Statistics show that the Big Green were more than five points better than the Broncos. The Herd led in first downs, 18-7; in rushing, 259 yards to 99; in passing, 83 yards to 47 yards. The Green completed seven of 15 passes and Western connected on six of sixteen.

On the punting side the Herd's three punts averages 33 yards per boot while Western was averaging 22 yards in four tries.

MAC Roundup

Big Green, Kent State Pick Up Initial Conference Victories

Kent State and the Big Green came up with Mid-American Conference wins this past week in the only loop games scheduled.

Of the three MAC teams playing non-conference foes, only one, Bowling Green, was victorious.

Although Kent blew a 7-0 half-time lead, it came back to take the lead and stayed off a last minute O. U. rally to defeat the Bobcats, 14-9, at Athens Saturday.

An O.U. fumble set up the Flashes' winning touchdown as Gerald King, Kent guard, recovered on the Bobcats' 34. From there the Flashes moved to the winning touchdown.

Ohio U. got its formation rolling in the third quarter and moved 69 yards to tighten the game at 7-6. The Bobcats added a 31-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to make it 9-7, Bobcats.

Bowling Green was the only MAC team to notch a non-conference win over the weekend as it scored a 7-0 win over Delaware U. at Newark.

The heavily favored Falcons were held scoreless for three quarters but tallied in the final period on a 67-yard pass from Don Nehlen to Bob Ramlow.

In the other games, Xavier scored four times in the final period to wallop Miami, 39-19, at Cincinnati, and Louisville took a crushing 48-20 victory from Toledo.

The week's action left only two undefeated team in the loop, from an overall standpoint. They are the Big Green and Bowling Green. Both own 3-0 marks.

In the loop, the Big Green, Miami, Kent State and Toledo own 1-0 marks. Bowling Green has yet to meet a league foe while Western Michigan and Ohio U. have lost in both league tries.

Plenty of action is slated for this week. The Big Green travels to Toledo, Miami visits Kent State and Bowling Green hosts Western Michigan.

Herd Harriers Fall To Ohio U.

The Big Green cross country team suffered defeat in its first outing of the season Saturday at Athens, Ohio, as the Ohio University harriers won. 15-49.

John Mayberry saved the Green from being shutout as he finished seventh in the four mile event.

The Bobcats took all the first six places as William Gunther did the course in 21.49.

Placing ninth and tenth for the Green were Al Ferguson and Carl Hickey, respectively.

In a freshman meet that covered a three mile course, Ohio U.'s John Hamm paced his team to 23-32 win over the Big Green frosh with a record of 16:49.8 time. The time was a new three mile record at Ohio U.

Rich Parrit made the best showing for the Little Green, placing second, and Bill Wilson placed fourth.

The Green and White runners will meet the harriers from Fairmont State College here this Sat-

Teke, Sig Eps Easy Victors In Intramural Football Contests

The Teke gridders scored the most lopsided victory of the intramural football season by downing the ASP 48 to 0.

The TKE squad scored in every quarter with Jim Harrick leading the victors and Dick Mayberry, John Unrue and Barry pitching in considerably. The winners scored on seven TD's and six conversions.

The Sig Ep's also looked strong in beating the KA's 47 to 0. Bunny Naun and Ken Jones were the big men in the Sig Ep attack.

Carl Hickey passed the Pikes to a 22-19 win over the Sig Ep number 2's in Thursday's action. Tom Adkins and Bill Stroud were Hickey's TD targets with Adkins scoring twice.

Mike Jame was the important factor for the losers, passing for all three Sig Ep touchdowns.

The final contest of the week saw the unbeaten TKE No. 2 team defeat the Punks 24 to 21. Behind 14 to 6 at the half, the Tekes came back to score three

TD's in the second half.

Gene Deitz sparked the winners with his sensational pass receiving from Strat Douthat. The game's most sparkling run came when Jack Wallace intercepted a Lambert aerial and returned it the length of the field to paydirt.

Coach Ed Lambert again fired up the Punks but failed to come out victorious.

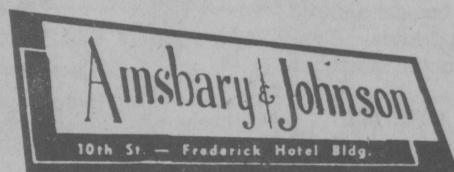

This week's schedule will be as follows:

ROTC meets the Rasans and the SAE No. 2 takes on the Vet No. 2 today. Tomorrow's action pits the VM No. 2 against the Fumblers and the KA's against the Teke's.

ROTC Lists Outstanding Men

Eight men have been named as "Distinguished Military Students" for the 1957-1958 school year by Lt. Col. T. E. Carter of the department of military science and tactics.

In order to receive this honor, a cadet must be of outstanding character and must demonstrate leadership and ability on the campus. He also must be in the upper one-half of his class or in the upper ten per cent of those in military science courses. Upon attainment of the title of "Distinguished Military Student," a cadet is eligible to apply for a regular army commission.

Sticklers are back!

Send yours in and

MAKE

MOST POPULAR GAME that ever went to college—that's Sticklers! Just write a simple riddle and a two-word rhyming answer. For example: What's a big cat shot full of holes? (Answer: peppered leopard.) Both words must have the same number of syllables—bleak freak, fluent truant, vinery finery. Send Sticklers, with your name, address, college and class to Happy-Joe-Lucky, Box 67A, Mt. Vernon, N. Y. Don't do drawings! We'll pay $25 for every Stickler we use in our ads—and for hundreds that never see print. While you're Stickling, light up a light smoke—light up a Lucky. You'll say it's the best-tasting cigarette you ever smoked!

CAMPUS BRIEFS

BY STAFF

FACULTY BULLETIN NOTICE

The Information Service office has assumed publication of the weekly Faculty Bulletin.

Faculty and student notices for the Bulletin must be given to Mrs. Jeanne Bias, secretary in the Information Office, before Friday noon for publication that week.

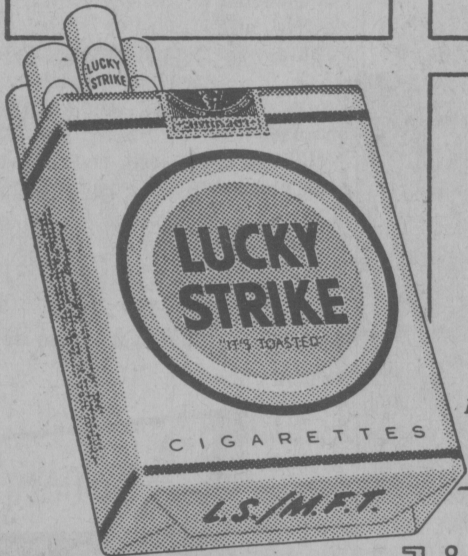

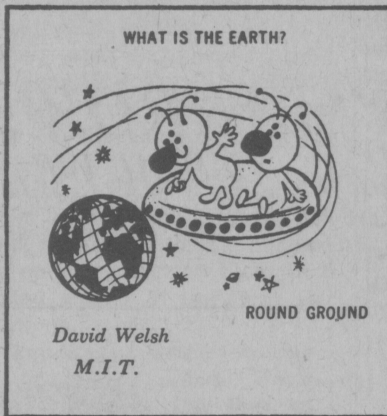

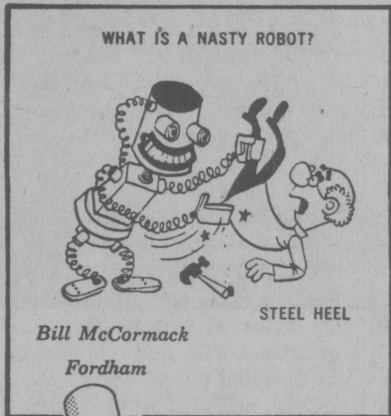

The Information Service Office is located in Room 107-A of Old Main.

DEBATE TRYOUTS

Students interested in trying out for the convocation debate against Morris Harvey, sponsored by Pi Kappa Delta, national debate honorary, on November 14, should contact Ben W. Hope, associate professor of speech, before October 24. Those students trying out are to prepare an eight minute talk for or against the "right to work" laws. Tryouts will be conducted October 24.

DEAN BARTLETT ILL

Arts and Sciences College Dean J. F. Bartlett is in the Cleveland Clinic recuperating from an illness. He will be there an indefinite time.
