MARSHALL COLLEGE STUDENT NEWSPAPER

VOL 56

HUNTINGTON, W. VA.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 27, 1957

NO. 11

Cole's Corner

Hark!

It's a novelty to have the governor here to speak (it's been 30 years since this last happened) — even with our being one of the most rapidly growing institutions in the state.

We are happy to welcome Governor Underwood. We hope he will remember us when he returns to Charleston.

Governor Underwood's Monday night Forum address presents a wonderful opportunity for the students to turn out and see the personality behind the name who is our state's Chief Executive—and to learn his view on the state's future.

Better than that, though, it will give Governor Underwood a chance to see that the students are interested in the state's future, too. Not only from the point of how it will affect the college, but also how it will affect them as individuals.

At present, the college and its welfare are paramount in our minds. But graduation isn't over five years away for the majority of the student body, so most of us should be concerned about what's going to be in store for West Virginia — as most of us will probably live here after graduation.

We hope the governor can give us some insight on that. But, back to college.

Until recently, the college has been somewhat overlooked on the state scene, possibly because Marshall's growth hasn't impressed the right people in Charleston.

Now that the governor has accepted the Forum Board's invitation to speak, it appears that the evolution toward recognizing the college is not slackening.

We hope the students will recognize their part in the whole show: an audience is necessary.

Be there. The Gomflits will. —RCC—

GOVERNOR CECIL H. UNDERWOOD

State Head To Appear On Forum

By TOM MILLER

President Smith has proclaimed Monday, September 30, as Governor's Day on campus in connection with Governor Cecil H. Underwood's appearance on the first presentation of the 1957-58 Community Forum.

Several activities are scheduled during the day honoring the governor including a public dinner at 6:15 in the college cafeteria, a panel discussion following the speech, and special ROTC activities honoring the governor during the day.

The Forum will be at 7:45 P.M. in Old Main auditorium.

Governor Underwood will speak on the topic, "West Virginia and Its Future." This will mark the first time in thirty years that a governor of West Virginia has appeared as a speaker at Marshall, according to President Smith.

Members of the non-partisan panel who will take part in the discussion immediately following the speech will include Mrs. Ray Sullivan, past president of the Federated Women's Clubs of West Virginia; Hugh D. Stillman, division manager, Appalachian Electric Power Company; Professor Conley H. Dillon, political science department head; and Tom E. Carter, Huntington junior.

President Smith will serve as moderator and the chairman will be Raymond Brewster, editor of the Huntington Herald-Dispatch.

Admission to the program will be by forum membership cards, or student activity cards only, according to Curtis Baxter, Forum director.

The public dinner, honoring Governor and Mrs. Underwood, will be prior to the governor's appearance on the Forum. Only 150 dinner reservations can be accepted. Persons desiring reservations will be served on a first-come basis.

Tickets, which will cost $2.25, may be purchased by contacting William D. Birke, vice-president, Huntington Publishing Company, or Kenneth Stetson. (Continued on Page Three)

Enrollment All Time High With 3,666

The college's enrollment is at an all-time high this semester, according to Registrar Luther E. Bledsoe.

A total of 3,666 students (not including those taking extension courses) has enrolled for the first semester term, according to figures released Wednesday afternoon.

This marks the sixth straight year that first semester enrollment has increased, with the college remaining over the 3,000 mark since 1955-56. Last year's total was 3,573. Before 1956-57, the highest enrollment was 3,437 in 1948, caused by an overflow of returning World War II veterans.

Here is how the enrollment has grown in the last six years:

First Semester Figures

1952-53	2,594
1953-54	2,632
1954-55	2,926
1955-56	3,341
1956-57	3,573
1957-58	3,666

(In 1947-48, influx of veterans raised it to 3,437.)

Class Photos For 1958 CJ Will Not Cost Student Body

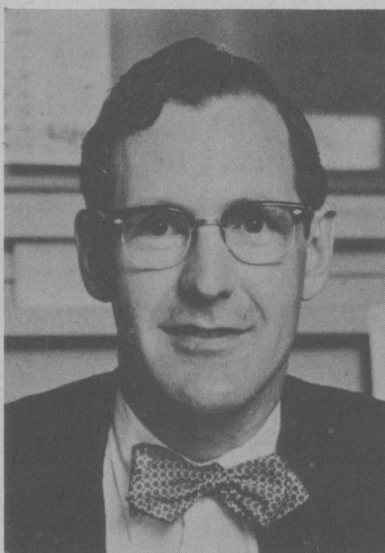

Class pictures for the 1957-'58 publication of the Chief Justice will be made this year free of charge to the student body, according to Durward Brewer, Huntington senior and editor of the yearbook.

Photographers from Rappoport Studios of New York will be on campus October 21, and for 7 weeks thereafter, to photograph students individually, and by appointment, in the Student Union.

Four poses will be permitted to freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. Seniors will be permitted four poses also, and may have an additional two poses in cap and gown if desired.

After the pictures are taken, re-touched proofs will be mailed to the student so that he may select the poses he wishes to have published in the Chief Justice. The pose selected is then mailed back to the Studio.

"Last year," said Brewer, sixty per cent of the student body failed to have their pictures in the Chief Justice due to the fee involved and the time spent in having the picture taken. This year we have eliminated any excuse a student might have for not having his picture in the Chief Justice."

Commenting on the features in store for the 1958 edition of the Chief Justice, he said, "A maximum amount of pictures and a possible excess of 300 pages will be in the 1958 edition."

Because of the lack of interest displayed by the previous Chief Justice staffs, plans have been made for staff members to be suitably recognized at the end of the year with a banquet and key awards for top staff members.

More emphasis will be placed upon the underclassmen on the staff in order that they may be groomed for higher positions later.

Qualifications for staff members and further information concerning the Chief Justice will be announced soon.

Schedule Change Deadline Nearing

October 15 will be the last day for dropping a class and receiving a grade of W, according to the College Bulletin. This will mark the first complete month of school. Withdrawals after the fifteenth will be accompanied by a P or F, to indicate passing or failing the particular course.

Courses which are dropped after the twelfth week of school will result in an automatic WF, unless the student's academic dean declares the withdrawal was due to reasons beyond control. In such a case, the grade will be accompanied by a P, if the student is passing the course.

Warning against an irregular withdrawal from a class was expressed by Mrs. Katharine Tuggle, secretary to J. Frank Bartlett, college of arts and sciences dean. Such withdrawals will result in a grade of FIW (failure for irregular withdrawal).

Freshman Court Tries Offenders

By DICK McHENRY

A total of 36 freshman-rule offenders have come before the freshman court.

Philip Barnhart, Moundsville junior and judge of the court, announced that this legal body is, "Attempting to give a more constructive atmosphere to freshman indoctrination than in the past."

Tickets are handed out to offenders who break such rules as not wearing beanies and name tags, not carrying handbooks and not being able to recite various passages concerning the tradition of the college.

The eight members composing the freshman judiciary have acquitted but one of the 36 who have come before them.

The ratio of female to male offenders has been running approximately five to one. Judge Barnhart asserted that he believed this to be due to the fact that the male members of the enforcing body who hand out most of the tickets, seem to be likely to hand out more tickets to females than to their own sex.

The procedure used in confronting the offenders before the court is to have the accused carry a candle before his face into the courtroom. The judge also has his face illuminated in candle-light. The defendant has an opportunity to state his defense.

Questions are then asked of them concerning the tradition of the college and whether or not they can uphold it.

All penalties handed out have a constructive nature. These range from picking up paper on campus to cleaning up the Student Union. Others have wrapped goal posts before games and some wear signs in support of the football team.

Some amusing incidents have resulted during the appearance of defendants in court.

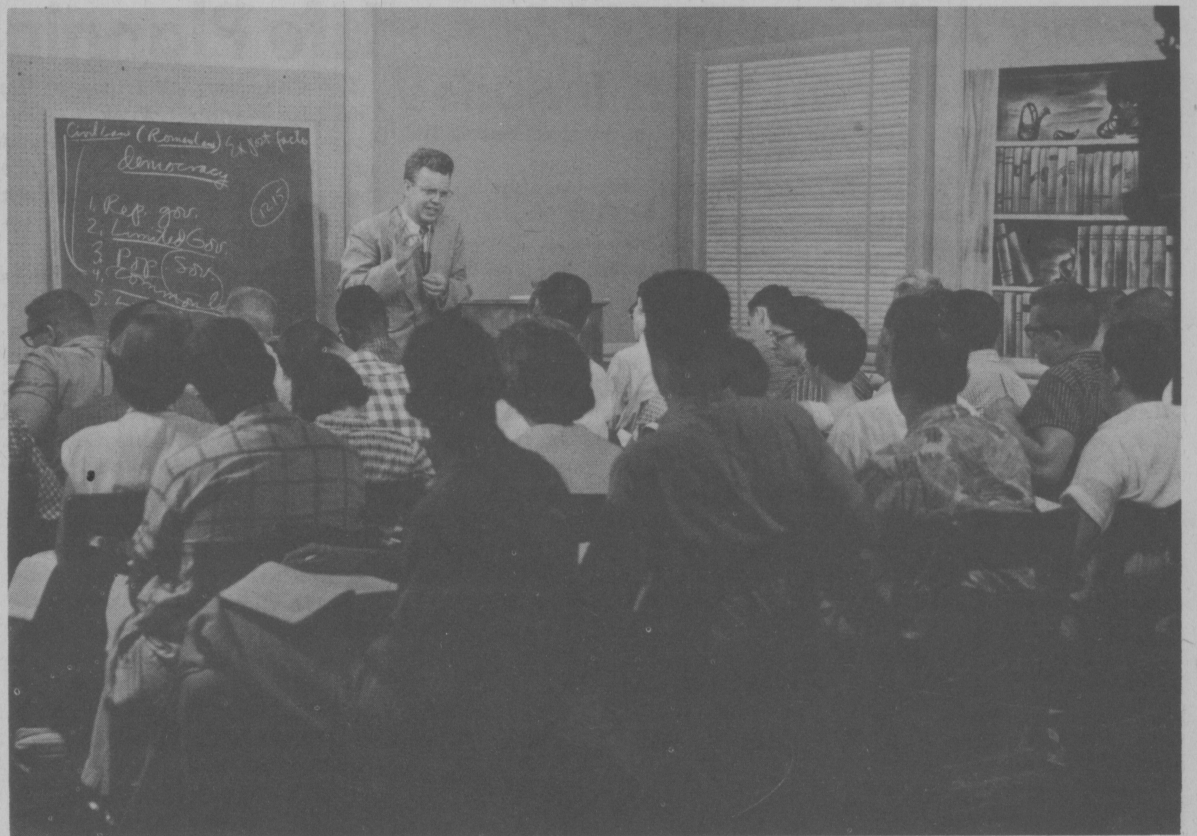

One girl hadn't been wearing her name tag or beanie. Her defense was she had been suffering from amnesia at the time of her committing the offense. This explanation was accepted by the court but to help her "remember" what she had done wrong the young lady was permitted to carry a sign relating her period of lapse of memory.

Most of the offenders seem to have been helped by their experience in court, according to Judge Barnhart. One young lady felt she was helped because, upon entering the courtroom, she showed an indifferent attitude toward the situation. But, upon leaving the legal chamber, she apologized to everyone for her actions and appeared to be enthused in trying to uphold the school's tradition.

This year, as in past years, the first offender was supposed to scrub the bust of John Marshall, which is displayed before the administration building of the college. Since vandals had broken the bust in an episode last spring, the freshmen circulated a petition that Student Body President David Kirk be substituted. President Kirk was greeted with a bucket of soapy water and a wet rag at a recent pep rally.

Herd, Eagles Renew Gridiron Rivalry

By SAM STANLEY

A determined Thundering Herd, out to show the local fans what they really have, will renew old grid rivalry tomorrow night when the Morehead Eagles visit Fairfield Stadium.

The annual "Tug of War" between the freshmen and upper-classmen will take place at half time. If the freshmen win, they can throw away their beanies, but if they lose they will be subject to all freshman rules until Homecoming, October 26.

Game time is 8 P.M.

The Herd, fresh from an unimpressive 14-7 victory over West Virginia State, will again be a favorite. The Eagles, 12-0 victor over little Maryville College in their opener last Saturday, won't be taken as a pushover, as the Big Green learned its lesson last week.

Two changes have been made in the Herd's first eleven. Roy Goines earned a first team halfback slot with the sparkling performance he made against State, and either Tod Fugate or Olen Jones will start in place of injured Donzil Hall.

Jones was scheduled for a first team assignment last week but an injury kept him out. If Jones is ready tomorrow night he will definitely be a starter.

The rest of the lineup will probably remain intact with Co-Captain Jim Simpson at center, Co-Captain Herb Hess and Dick Allen at guards, John Belletti and Vernon Howell at tackles, and Bill Ray at end.

Bob Wagner, with Jim Maddox on the ready-reserve list, will open at quarterback, Goines and Ramon Dunlap will be at the halfback slots and Sonny Sirianni will be at fullback.

The Eagles will be bringing a 36 man squad to town and going by the looks of their roster, they appear a bit inexperienced. Of the 36 men, only four are seniors and seven are juniors. Thirteen sophomores and twelve freshmen make up more than two-thirds of the squad.

This will mark the 14th time the Herd has met the Eagles on the gridiron and the locals have the edge with 11 victories against two defeats and one tie.

The last time the two teams met was in 1954 with the Herd winning 19-7. The last time Morehead defeated the Big Green was in 1950 by the whopping score of 51-6. The only other time the Eagles finished on top was in 1946 by the tune of 29-20.

Harriers Open Against Ohio U.

Cross country coach Jules Rivlin released a five meet schedule for the coming 1957 harrier season, Wednesday.

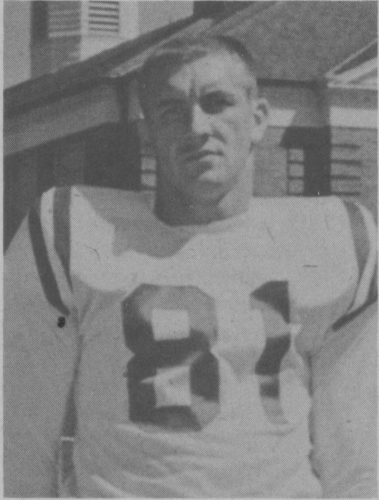

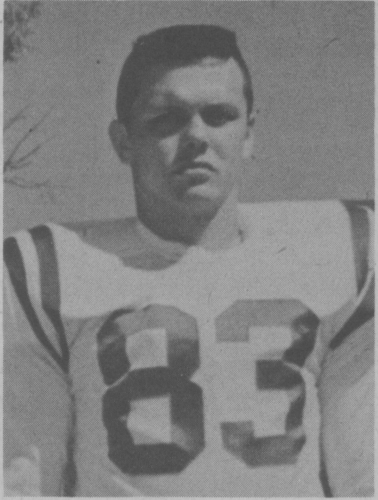

The Big Green harriers open October 5 against Ohio University at Athens, Ohio, with a varsity and freshman meet.

The following week the Green and White will run a home course, which starts at Fairfield Stadium, against the cross country squad from West Virginia Wesleyan College.

Rounding out the schedule are meets with Kent State, October 19, there; Morehead, October 25, here; Fairmont, November 2, here, and the Mid-American Conference meet at Miami University, November 9.

Seven men reported to coach Rivlin's call for cross country runners, Monday.

This season's candidates are using both Fairfield Stadium and

Punks Top VM, 19-12, In Mural Grid Opener

By STRAT DOUTHAT

Ed Lambert led the Punks to a 19 to 12 victory over the VM No. 2 team in the opener of the intramural football league Monday afternoon.

It was on the strength of Lambert's passing and fine running that the Punks were able to defeat the more experienced VM squad. A 15 yards run by Earl Browning and a 45 yard pass made up the scoring for the VM.

In the second tilt of the afternoon the PKA No. 1 squad scored in every quarter to defeat the KA's 25 to 9. All four PKA touchdowns were scored via the air, with Hensley and Fulton connecting to various receivers. Dave Daugherty was the big gun in the KA attack, running for 15 yards and catching Fulton in the end zone for a safety.

Tuesday the Sig Eps and the TKE No. 1 teams held weaker opponents scoreless.

The Sig Ep gridders scored in every period as they were sparked by the sharp passing of Bunny Naum. Alex Lawrence passed for one TD and ran 50 yards for another. The final outcome was Sig Eps 33, ASP 0.

In the latter contest the Tekes looked strong while defeating LXA 30 to 0. Jim Herrick led the Tekes by passing for one touchdown and running for another. The rest of the scoring was divided up by various teammates.

The second week of intramural football finds Monday a very busy day. The Rascals vs. the VM No. 3 and the VM No. 1 takes the Ekets. Tuesday, ROTC vs. the Cavaliers while the SAE No. 1 meets the LXA. The KA's, who are once beaten, will take on the unbeaten Sig Eps, and the unbeaten Tekes will go up against the ASP.

Thursday the PKA second team vs. the Sig Ep second squad in the first tilt while the yet-to-be-defeated Punks tackle the Teke No. 2 team.

Ritter Park for their conditioning running. Practice sessions have been set every day between 3:15 and 4:30 P.M.

Rivlin pointed out that it was not too late for any interested men, either freshman or upper-classman, to report to him for the team.

Back from last season's squad are captain John Mayberry, Bill Reese, and Al Ferguson.

Out for their first season as Big Green Varsity cross country candidates are Carl Hickey, Tom Adkins, Muth and Bolden.

Last season under "Swede" Gullickson the Green posted a 2-3 record against the same five teams it meets this year.

THE STANLEY STEAMER

By SAM STANLEY

The Ol' 'Steamer' made that stop at Fairfield Stadium last Saturday night but it had a hard time getting started again. The same trip comes up again tomorrow and here's hoping the engine will be running somewhat smoother.

The same trouble that has bothered Royer in his previous years seemed to pop up last week, this being no goal-line punch or as the head coach put it, "We're a good team between the 20's but after that we bog down."

With break-away runners like Roy Goines, Ray Dunlap, Cagle Curtis, plus the hard charging fullback in Sonny Sirianni there should be no reason at all for the Herd's not scoring at least half the time it comes within the shadows of the goal posts.

Even the line is big enough and deep enough this season to stay with most any team on the schedule. Maybe it was an uninspired State line that always stopped us when we seemed to get close. And maybe this won't be a preview of coming attractions. Anyway, I hope.

The Morehead game should have some special interest for Barboursville students on campus. Both the Eagles and the Big Green have front line performers who played on the Barboursville team which was one of the state's best around three years ago.

John Plybon, a 190 pound guard, and Wayne Chapman, a 200 pound tackle, will probably see plenty of action for the Eagles, and may meet head-on with their ex-high school team-mates—Bill Ray and Jim Maddox—who figure heavily in the Green and White's plans.

Three former Big Green line-men, who were expected to figure prominently in this year's grid fortunes as players but had injuries forcing them to quit the grid game, are still giving more than a helping hand to this year's squad. These three—George Nesbit, Phil Fisher and Jim Conard—are aiding as head manager, assistant trainer and assistant freshman coach respectively. Nesbit is doing a top-notch job taking care of the equipment and driving the teams to and from practice in the athletic bus. Fisher is just what the doctor ordered for head trainer Ed Prelaz. And Conard is a big help to the yearlings.

All three should be commended for their faithful support of their school and their team.

Possession Golf Rounds Set By Wilson

Despite the fact that this season's first golf match is more than six months off the Big Green golf team is going to take advantage of the fair weather and get in some fall practice.

These practices are known as challenge matches for the six positions on the squad.

Neal "Whitey" Wilson, athletic department business manager and golf coach, pointed out that the position to be decided upon is the sixth spot.

The matches will be played at the Guyan Golf and Country Club, the team's home course. Wilson said that he hoped to get the men on the course around October 1. He expects the team to get in about three months of golf before the weather gets too bad.

The vacated sixth spot came as a result of Drexel Meade's enlistment into the armed forces.

Drexel was the team's No. 4 man last season.

The Big Green golfers enjoyed one of the best seasons in the history of the school last year and, according to Coach Wilson, "The best Marshall team I have seen."

The Green and White compiled a 19-3 record a year ago and ran up a string of 11 straight victories before losing to Miami, 8-10.

Back from last season's team are captain Jack Freeman, who placed second in the Mid-American Conference meet at Kent State, and Linden Meade, the team's No. 1 man and a qualifier in the NCAA tourney at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Reynolds Recovering From Surgery

Hugh Reynolds, East Bank sophomore, who was struck by an automobile Saturday evening, is recovering from surgery performed Tuesday and is up on crutches as reported by Reynolds' landlady, Mrs. Delmer Romine.

Mrs. Romine said that a large mass of infection resulting from a blood clot was removed from Reynolds' left leg.

Mrs. Romine added that Reynolds' physician, Dr. Kirk J. David, reported Hugh was improving and would be released had not a simple fracture of the left leg been detected.

Reynolds received the injury when he was struck by an automobile driven by Richard Gregg when he was crossing Fifth Avenue near his college residence. The time of the accident was 7:20 P.M. Friday of last week.

Reynolds is one of Coach Bill Chambers' top pitching prospects and is expected to report to the baseball team when practice begins in the spring.

Reynolds spent the last summer toiling on the mound for On-Ized, champs of the Huntington Industrial Baseball League. It was through the pitching of Reynolds and Lefty Mahjer, another Chambers hopeful, that On-Ized advanced to the semi-finals of the National Amateur Baseball Congress World Series.

The meeting, called by Miss Pauline Scott, will include discussions of college curriculum problems.

Two Senators Resign Seats

Two men resigned Student Senate seats at the Senate's Wednesday night meeting, according to Student Body President David Kirk.

Both men's reasons for resigning involved other activities which prohibited them from attending Senate meetings. South Charleston senior John Corns, senior class president, dropped Senate because he had to take a Wednesday night class.

Bob Cole, Beaver junior, resigned his senator's seat because his duties as editor-in-chief of The Parthenon conflicted with Senate meetings.

On Campus with

(By the Author of "Rally Round the Flag, Boys!" etc.)

WHAT EVERY YOUNG COED SHOULD WEAR

Gather round, girls. Flip open a pack of Marlboros, light up, enjoy that fine flavor, that good filter, relax and listen while Old Dad tells you about the latest campus fashions.

The key word this year is casual. Be casual. Be slapdash. Be rakish. Improvise. Invent your own ensembles—like ski pants with a peek-a-boo blouse, like pajama bottoms with an ermine stole, like a hockey sweater with a dirndl.

(Dirndl, incidentally, is one of the truly fascinating words in the English language. The word originated on June 27, 1846, when Dusty Sigafos, the famous scout and Indian fighter, went into the Golden Nugget Saloon in Cheyenne, Wyoming, to see Lily Langtry. Miss Langtry did her dance in pink tights. Dusty had never seen anything like that in his life and he was much impressed. He thought about her all the way home. When he got

When he got home his wife Feldspar was waiting home his wife Feldspar was waiting to show him a new skirt she had made for herself. "How do you like my new skirt, Dusty?" asked Feldspar. He looked at the large, voluminous garment, then thought of the pink tights on Lily Langtry. "Your skirt is darn dull," said Dusty. "Darn dull" was later shortened to dirndl, which is how dirndls got their name.)

But I digress. We were smoking a Marlboro and talking about the latest campus styles. Casual, we agree, is the key word. But casual need not mean drab. Liven up your outfits with a touch of glamor. Even the lowly dungaree and man-shirt combination can be made exciting if you'll adorn it with a simple necklace of 120 matched diamonds. With Bermuda shorts, wear knee-cymbals. Be guided by the famous poet, Cosmo Sigafos (whose cousin Dusty invented the dirndl), who wrote:

Sparkle, my beauty,
Shimmer and shine,
The night is young,
The air's like wine,
Cling to a leaf,
Hang on a vine,
Crawl on your belly,
It's time to dine.

(Mr. Sigafos, it should be explained, was writing about a glowworm. Insects, as everyone knows, are among Mr. Sigafos' favorite subjects for poetry. Who can ever forget his immortal Ode To a Boll Weevil? Or his Tumbling Along with the Tumbling Tumblebug? Or his Fly Gently, Sweet Aphid? Mr. Sigafos has been inactive since the invention of DDT.)

But I digress. We were smoking a Marlboro and discussing fashion. Let us turn now to headwear. The motif in hats this year will be familiar American scenes. There will be models to fit every head—for example, the "Empire State Building" for tall, thin heads; the "Jefferson Memorial" for squatty heads; "Niagara Falls" for dry scalps. Feature of the collection is the "Statue of Liberty," complete with a torch that actually burns. This is very handy for lighting your Marlboros, which is terribly important because no matter how good Marlboros are, they're nowhere unless you light them.
