Ann Garrity Succeeds Keesee As Parthenon Editor-In-Chief

ANN GARRITY
New Parthenon Chief

Ann Garrity, Charleston junior, has been elected editor-in-chief of The Parthenon for next year, according to an announcement made today by Bill Keesee, War senior and present editor-in-chief.

Miss Garrity is a 1953 graduate of Charleston High School and attended West Virginia University for one year. She is a member of Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority, the Student Court, and Fourth Estate, local women's journalism honorary of which she is pledgemistress. Miss Garrity is presently managing editor of The Parthenon.

Edward Hagan, Huntington junior and picture editor, was named to the post of managing editor. Marjorie Cappellari, Point Pleasant sophomore, was elected news editor to replace co-news editors Robert Adams, Huntington senior, and Nancy Williams, Hurricane senior, both of whom graduate next month.

Pat Cooper, Huntington sophomore, was appointed assistant news editor.

Lowell Cade, Wayne sophomore, was appointed sports editor. He replaces Steve Posti, Weirton senior. Also elected to the sports staff was George Bennett, South Charleston junior, who will be assistant sports editor.

Betty Frame, Birch River sophomore, will replace Hagan as picture editor. LaVerne Logan, Huntington sophomore, was elected society editor, replacing Patricia Talbert, Clarksburg senior. Miss Talbert has served as society editor for two years.

Patsy Friend, Ivydale junior, replaces Barbara Barbour, Huntington junior, as feature editor.

Named as staff reporters are: Geneva Scott, Huntington sophomore; Suzanne Hensley, Bluefield junior; and Eugenia Damron, Huntington sophomore.

All appointments are subject to the approval of the Student Publications Board and the Student Senate. They are effective in September.

Music Department Presents Concert

A string scholarship benefit concert will be presented by the music department tomorrow evening at 8:30 P. M. in the Old Main Auditorium.

Featured on the all Mozart program will be Mrs. Robert Shepherd, mezzo soprano; Mary Shep Mann, pianist; Alfred Lanegger, assistant professor of music and violinist; and Ruth Northup Tibbs, pianist.

Mrs. Shepherd is professionally known as Jane Hobson. She attended the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, the Julliard School of Music, and the American Conservatory at Fontainebleau, France. The wide scope of Mrs. Shepherd's performances include Concert Artist Series and appearances with leading symphonies under such eminent conductors as Toscani, Steinberg, and Szell.

Alfred Lanegger has performed in concerts throughout this area. He is a graduate of the State Academy of Music at Munich, and played in theatre and opera orchestra while studying there. During this time he was also an apprentice to Gustav Keller, violin maker, where he learned the art of violin making. At tomorrow evening's concert, Lanegger will play one of the violins he made in 1933.

In this country he played with the New York Symphony, N.B.C. Recording Symphony, and taught at Syracuse University and the Adirondack Music Center at Saranac Lake, New York.

During the war, Lanegger was director of the Yankee Division Band, an overseas interpreter and toured Europe with the G.I. Symphony Orchestra.

Ruth Northup Tibbs is a graduate of the Eastern School of Music at Rochester, New York, where she was a theory teacher. A student of both piano and organ, she has appeared in chamber music recitals at the Huntington Galleries and in the Woman's Club programs.

The proceeds from the concert will be used to establish a campus "String Scholarship Fund." The scholarship will be used to encourage string students to attend Marshall.

Tickets for the concert are one dollar for adults and fifty cents for students. They may be purchased at Becker's Music Store, at the office of the music department, and from music students and faculty.

Committees Prepare Program For First Parents Weekend

Justices Agree With Election Commission

PR Men Take Part In Regiments Drill Meet Tomorrow

The Pershing Rifles will leave tomorrow at 9 A. M. for Lexington, Kentucky, to participate in the Annual Regimental Drill Meet.

The meet will be composed of Reserve Officer Training Corps divisions in West Virginia, Ohio, and Kentucky. A total of sixteen companies will compete in the two day meet.

The squad, under the command of First Lieutenant Joe Griffith, will perform in an exhibitional squad drill Friday afternoon. The Marshall team will participate in the platoon and individual drills Saturday.

Trophies will be awarded to the winners at the close of the two day meet, and the group will return to Huntington Sunday.

Cavaliers Select Glover President

John Glover, Charleston sophomore, was recently elected president of the Cavaliers, men's independent organization, for 1956-57.

Other officers are: Bob Cole, Beaver freshman, vice-president; Charlie Groves, Covington, Virginia, freshman, treasurer; Bob Cooper, St. Mary's freshman, recording secretary; Les Beavers, Havaco freshman, corresponding secretary.

Hunnicuttt Taken From Senate Race

The Student Court has upheld the Election Commission's decision concerning the disqualification of Joe Hunnicutt as a candidate for Senior Class President.

The court found the decision of the Election Commission legal and valid, according to the following provisions of the Constitution of the Marshall College Student Government.

Article IV, Elections:

Section 14, e.: "Three senators, each to serve a one-year term, elected by and from the outgoing junior class to serve during their senior year. Two holdover junior senators, plus the senior class president, and the runner-up for president of the student body shall make the total membership from this class seven senators."

Section 8: "The class presidents shall be automatically considered senators from their respective class but they shall not serve a two-year term in such capacity. They shall have the same qualifications as senators from their respective classes."

Section 9: "The senators shall be academic members of the class in which they are to represent according to the requirements as set forth in the College Bulletin."

Hunnicuttt has completed 91 hours and is classified as a senior and according to Article IV, Section 9, he is not an academic member of the class which he is to represent, therefore, not qualified to run for senior class president.

AWARDS ASSEMBLY

Application forms for Omicron Delta Kappa Awards Assembly may be obtained in the Dean of Men's Office. Completed forms must be placed in the ODK box no later than Friday.

Three-Day Affair To Begin May 11

A weekend of teas, luncheon, departmental displays, military drills, concerts, and other activities will be available to parents of Marshall College students during the 1956 Marshall Parents Weekend, May 11, 12, and 13.

Designed to acquaint the parents of Marshall students with the college and its overall academic and social scene the program will include varied educational, musical and social events to interest the parent. It is sponsored by the college and the Student Senate.

President Stewart H. Smith has extended an invitation to all parents to attend the program. "A schedule of activities has been planned to give parents of our students the opportunity to see as much of college life as possible," said Dr. Smith.

One of the featured events of the three-day affair will be the annual Mother's Day Sing at which campus sororities and fraternities will compete for top group singing honors.

The college cafeteria will be opened to parents throughout the weekend. Guests will make their own arrangements for housing.

According to Maywood Ellifritt, Greenwood senior and program chairman, efforts will be made to conduct the program annually if this year's event is successful.

Petition Candidates Must File Friday

Petitions for placement of names upon the general election ballot must be in to the Student Government Office by 4 P. M. Friday, according to a motion passed in the last meeting of the Student Senate.

Lack of the correct number of valid signatures, which will be decided by Eddie Bird, Election Commissioner, will cause the candidate to be declared ineligible.

David McLane, Clay junior, was appointed to the Student Court by Maywood Ellifritt, student body president, and passed on by members of the Senate.

McLane replaces Larry Hite, Huntington senior, who was dismissed because of excessive absences.

The proposed system for cheerleader selection was accepted by the Senate.

In other action, $50 was appropriated and passed in a bill for the high school visitation program of the Senate.

Five delegates will attend the United States National Students Association Convention at State College, Pennsylvania, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

Delegates appointed and approved on are Gary Adams, Huntington freshman; Mary Jo Sullivan, Huntington junior; Bob Alexander, Huntington junior; and Frank Senise, Huntington graduate.

AWARDS GIVEN

Ann Curtis, Huntington sophomore, was chosen model pledge and Helen Mays, Alderson senior was chosen outstanding senior at the Sigma Sigma Founders Day banquet last week.

Petticoats Gain Control

With the election of Ann Garrity as editor-in-chief of next year's staff, and eight of the other positions being filled by women, one must not be surprised if next year's Parthenon reeks with Chanel No. 5.

Not since the war years of 1945 have the women been able to infiltrate into such a position of control. This movement, toward femininity, has been in the planning stage for years, and while we, the gullible males, worked unsuspectingly, revolution came and the petticoat regime moved into full control.

The last woman editor was Virginia Lee Braley, who became editor in the summer of 1945 and dictated policy until the men were able to overthrow her and send Walter Oppenheimer into power in the fall of 1946. Since then, the males have dominated the top staff positions.

But, credit must be given where credit is due. We must admit that there is little difference between the papers that were edited by the women and those by the men, and even though the ladies dominate and control next year's staff, bigger and better issues of The Parthenon should roll from the presses.

The men of freshman and sophomore standing who plan to major in journalism must unite and prepare to regain their lost power. They must be the ones to decide if the women are to buy or only rent the house.

Fifty-Six Hodges Hall Men Plan Careers In Teaching

By JOHN HEVENER

Increased enrollment in Teacher's College is reflected in the residence of 56 Teacher's College men in Hodges Hall this semester.

A survey of 45 future teachers in the men's dormitory representing 18 counties in West Virginia, two other states (Ohio and New Jersey), and one foreign country (Costa Rica), shows 38 men enrolled in secondary education, 5 in the single curriculum course, and only 2 enrollees in elementary education.

Six major fields are represented with 27 enrolled in physical education, 6 in biological science, 5 in social studies, 2 in English, and 1 in mathematics.

Of the 45 men interviewed, 28 plan to teach upon graduation... Eight men plan to enter the service, with two making the army a career, 2 plan to train for physical therapy, 1 will enter the ministry, 1 medical school, 1 guidance work in correctional institutions, 1 pro football, and 1 educational supervision.

Thirteen of the twenty-eight who will teach plan to teach in West Virginia, twelve out of state, and three are undecided. Of the twelve teachers leaving the state, six will go to Ohio, two to Florida, one to New Jersey (pro football coach), and three are undecided.

Twenty-two of the 45 men entered the teaching profession because they "love to work with children," eight because they "like the working conditions," eight because of interest in athletics, and seven for security.

Jan Caldwell, Mullens sophomore, summed up the opinions of all 45 men concerning the recent pay increase for West Virginia teachers. "The pay raise was badly needed and is a step in the right direction, but it still is not enough," said Caldwell. The men expect an average wage of $3,680 for their first year's instruction, naming figures from $3,000 to $6,000.

Charlotte Browning Selected 'Coal Queen' Of West Virginia

By GAIL TABOR

Charlotte Browning, Barboursville sophomore, was crowned "Coal Queen" of West Virginia at the first annual Coal Festival Ball in Washington, D. C., April 21. She was selected over four other entries who were princesses for the ball.

Miss Browning arrived in Washington Saturday morning and was met by the state's Senators and Congressmen, who were judges of the contest. Saturday afternoon she accompanied the princesses on a sight-seeing tour, conducted by the military honor guard.

Saturday night the princesses were escorted to the ball by military cadets of Greenbrier Military School, in Lewisburg, where the queen was announced. She was crowned by Joseph G. Weeda, president of the West Virginia Society of the District of Columbia, who sponsored the ball.

The highlight of Sunday's activities was an appointment with Senator Laird at the capital. They were conducted by a police escort through the capital. Sunday night Charlotte was guest of honor at a dinner at Bowling Green Air Force Base.

Miss Browning won a weekend at the Greenbrier Hotel in White Sulphur Springs, a set of Fostoria glassware, a necklace and bracelet set fashioned of coal, and an expense-paid trip to Washington to crown next year's queen. A plaque engraved with her name and title was presented to Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority.

Among the dignitaries present at the ball were Senator William Laird III, the Honorable M. G. Burnside, Honorable Elizabeth Kee, Governor Thomas Kennedy, Mrs. Robert Molloy, and Honorable Arthur Clarendon Smith and Mrs. Smith.

Miss Browning was interviewed Monday on "Current". She was sponsored in the contest by WSAZ-TV.

Life Was Unbearable For J. Paul Sheedy* Till Wildroot Cream-Oil Gave Him Confidence

Sheedy's honey kept giving him the cold shoulder. "This is more than I can bear! Why not be n-ice?" he moaned. "What fur?" she demanded, "It'll be a frosty Friday before I date you again. And just in glacier wondering why, take a look at your shaggy hair." This made Sheedy paws and think. So he got Wildroot Cream-Oil and now he's the picture of confidence. His hair is handsome and healthy looking, neat but not greasy. Wildroot contains the heart of Lanolin, Nature's finest hair and scalp conditioner. Take Sheedy's advice. Whether your hair is straight or curly, blonde, red, black or bruin, keep it neat with Wildroot Cream-Oil. In bottles or handy tubes. It's the bearies!

Big Green Netmen Spill OU For First 1956 Win

Brisbinmen Halt Winless Streak Score Victories Over Bobcats

Marshall's Big Green tennis team notched their first victory of the year Thursday afternoon at the campus courts when they dumped Ohio University 7-2.

Bill Bias, Larry Hite, Bill Seidel, and Cebe Price gained victories in the singles matches and the doubles teams swept all three matches as the Green netmen chalked up their first win in six matches to halt a 5 match losing streak.

The Big Green left for Cincinnati yesterday where they will meet the University of Xavier Musketeers. They are staying over and will meet the University of Cincinnati this afternoon. Following these two matches the Big Green will return home to play host to Miami Redskins, Friday.

Last year Marshall finished in a tie for third in the MAC. Coach Brisbin indicated that if the Green got by Miami he could look for a higher finish in the conference.

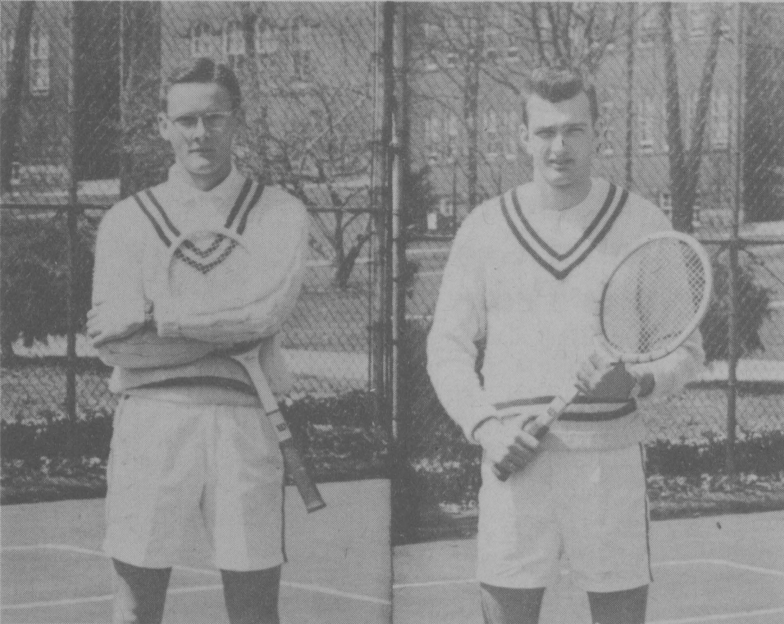

The results of the match

Bill Bias (M) topped Jim Hartman (O) 6-3, 6-3; Al Ludman (O) out lasted Charlie Bearden (M) 6-8, 6-1, 6-3; Larry Hite (M) dumped Joe Saggio (O) 6-3, 6-4; Bill Seidel downed Carl Hutchinson (O) 6-4, 6-3; Bob Bredenfuerber (O) out lasted Dubby Morris (M) 6-8, 6-3, 11-9 and Cebe Price defeated Dick Woolwine (M) 6-2, 6-0.

Doubles matches Bias-Morris (M) trimmed Hartman-Ludman (O) 6-4, 4-6, 6-3; Bearden-Seidel (M) edged Saggio-Bredenfuerber (O) 6-4, 5-7, 6-3 and Price-George Templin downed Dick Nellis-Roger Tenneman 6-2, 6-4.

Big Green Linksmen Cop One, Lose Two On Rough Junket

By LOWELL CADE

Coach "Whitey" Wilson and his Big Green golfers returned home Saturday from a three-day road trip that took them to Dayton, Covington, and Lexington.

At Dayton, the Green came out on the short end of the match as the Flyers downed them 18-9. However, the Green evened the road record Friday when they upended Villa Madonna College linksmen at Covington, Kentucky, 18-9.

From Covington, the Big Green moved to Lexington, Kentucky to meet the University of Kentucky Wildcats. Here again, the Marshall linksmen tasted defeat as the wildcats won 13-5.

In each of the three matches, Jack Freeman paced the Green with two 77's and a 79, but each time Freeman's efforts were surpassed by his opponents sizzling scores of 71, 73, and 75.

The Big Green's record now stands at two wins and three losses plus two losses to the frosh.

M-H Eagles Hand Diamondmen First Defeat

Green Loses Lone Catcher; Sam Smith Suffers Injury

By WALT LEONHART

Marshall's Big Green baseball team played two games over the weekend and managed to cop one to up its season record to four v as and one loss.

The only blot on the Green's record occurred Friday night when Morris Harvey went home with a 6-0 whitewash under its belt.

Marshall' win came Saturday afternoon when it took its second game in a row over the Eagles of Morehead by a 8-5 score.

The diamond squad played West Virginia Tech, scheduled for last week but rained out, on Monday but due to the deadline of the Parthenon the results were not known.

Marshall has two tilts remaining this week, meeting Bowling Green Friday and tangling with them again on Saturday. Both contests are at Inco Park.

Marshall's catching problem, was made even worse over the weekend as their first string catcher, Sam Smith, injured his shoulder in an attempted tag at home plate.

An x-ray later found Smith to have a shoulder separation. Coach Bill Chambers said later he didn't know when Smith could return to action. Smith's injury came in the Morris Harvey game and he was relieved by Randy Scott.

Coach Chambers said that Morris Harvey was by far the best team the Green has played thus far.

"We had eight errors that night" Chambers said, "and believe me you can't win many games playing that kind of ball".

Chambers had nothing but praise for the hurling of Morris Harvey's Jim Melmige. Melmige struck out ten and limited the Green to only four hits. Pitcher Paul Underwood collected two of the four hits.

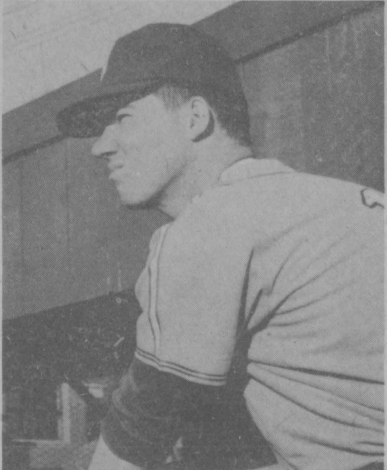

Underwood himself pitched a fine ball game, striking out eight. His main trouble was wildness as he walked ten batsmen.

The Green jumped on Morehead's starting piterer Dick Spencer for seven runs in the first three innings and held off the Eagles the rest of the way for its victory.

Jim Lane gained his second decision of the year as he held Morehead's sluggers down and whiffed nine batsmen.

Bill Harris made his first start behind the plate for Marshall and did a commendable job.

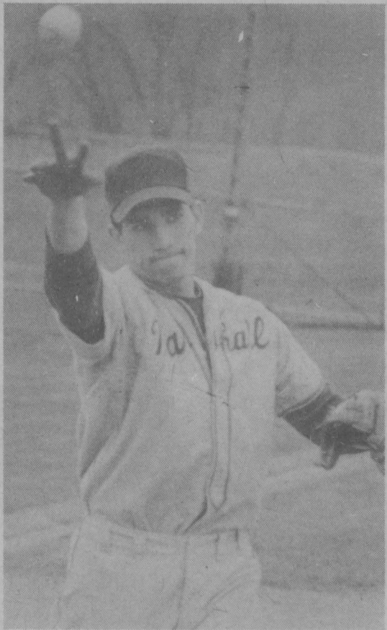

Stan Malecki was the big thorn in Morehead's side as he banged out three hits in three appearances. Two of his hits went for two bases. Saturday's perfect day at the plate gave Malecki four hits in his last five trips to the plate.

Marshall's Berridge Long took a rather optimistic view last week when she asked Coach Whitey Wilson to drop her from the freshman golf squad. It seems that Berridge decided to give it up due to feelings of some conference coaches as to whether members of the "fairer sex" should be permitted to participate in Mid-American sports. Although no definite action has been taken by the MAC, Berridge's case will be brought up in the very near future when the conference holds its annual spring meeting at Bowling Green University.

The soft-spoken Miss Long was approved last year by the Southeastern Conference to play this coming year for Tulane's Green Wave but transferred following the first semester to enroll on the Big Green campus.

Berridge, four times the winner of the West Virginia Women's golf title stated that since the other members of the MAC were opposed to her playing in conference competition, she thought it would be better off for her to just quit and forget the matter and create no ill feelings among those involved. No one has yet openly stated that they are opposed to her playing but there was enough certainty in the air that said she would not be permitted to do so. It is our opinion that Berri could bring some credit to Marshall and the Mid-Am and its a shame to see it go to waste by disapproving her playing. MAC Commissioner Dave Reese is highly in favor of her playing but it remains to the members of the conference to set forth the rule.

Intramural Director Otto "Swede" Gullickson has run into considerable amount of trouble this spring with the weather. It seems the adverse weather conditions has put "Swede's" softball league some 34 games behind schedule with several squads still beckoning for their first contest to be played. Speaking of the softball loop, have you seen Dr. Mike Joseph's Faculty squad in action yet? The Faculty are bolstered by such performers as Sam "Klu" Clagg at first, Reverend Lander "Scooter" Beal at short, Jim "Piersall" Stais in right field, Jim "Yogi" McCubbin behind the plate, Woodrow "Ray Jablonski" Holbein at the "hot corner" and many others.

Wonder how many persons noticed that last semester all three of the winter sports captains were listed on the first semester's Dean's List? Football co-captains Bill Harris and Bob McCollins made a B average or better in their class work as did cage captain Charlie Slack who has maintained nearly a B average in his class work during his four years at Marshall. Who said athletes weren't bright?

One of the classic jokes we have heard during our stay on campus comes via Dr. Charles Moffat of the history department. It seems that football was one of the major businesses at a southern institution and this particular university was slated to appear in the Rose Bowl on New Years Day minus the services of their star performers who was failing one of his subjects. The instructor of the class told the star gridder that he would give him a one question test, either orally or written, and if he passed the test, he would be permitted to play in the post-season classic. The gridder consented to take the test orally so the professor proceeded.

"Tell me, said the prof, what is the capitol of Alabama "

The gridder thought for a moment and then suddenly replied, "Tuscaloosa!"

"Well", replied the prof, "that's not quite right but Tuscaloosa is only 18 miles from the capitol and 18 from 100 gives you an 82 so you pass. ,

JOSEPH ARCURI DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR United States SENATOR

Why does our Governor have to go from state to state begging with a fancy tin cup? The pity of it, Iago! We are sitting on a fabulous treasure of Nature's wealth — black diamonds and rubies — and yet we are too poor to feed the hungry, properly educate the children, give employment to the industrious and aid the aged and sick in a humane manner. The pity of it, Iago. Who is the Iago of West Virginia?

If I am nominated and elected, I shall serve all the minorities except the selfish minority. This minority of the greedy is well represented now.

Band Director Given Grant To Prepare Music Textbook

Thomas S. O'Connell, associate professor of music has received a grant from the Southern Fellowships Fund to be used in writing a book for college students of music literature.

Professor O'Connell will devote much of the summer to collecting data and writing the book. It will be titled, "A Guide to the Roman Catholic Liturgy For Students of Music Literature."

Devoting the first half of the summer to travel and research, O'Connell will visit Catholic University in Washington, D. C. and monasteries and Catholic libraries in Kentucky, Ohio, Illinois and Michigan.

Plans for publication will be made after the book is completed. When published, the book will be available for nation-wide use in colleges and universities. It will be about 150 pages long.

Professor O'Connell is director of the college marching band.

Geology Department Receives Specimens

Rock and mineral materials from various parts of the world were received by the geology department last week according to Dr. Raymond E. Janssen, head of the geology department.

Approximately 200 pounds of specimens will be used in the laboratory work, and displayed in the geology museum.

Several gemstones including garnet, ruby, and pink sapphires will be placed in the museum, Dr. Janssen said. Various rocks and minerals have been received from Madagascar, Rome, Italy, Chile, Canada, Spain, and several states.

Majorette Tryouts Scheduled In May

Practice sessions are now underway for next year's majorette corps.

Tryouts for the majorette positions will be Friday, May 4, at 3 P. M. in the Lab School Gym.

In the past, majorettes were chosen by the faculty students committee. This year they will be chosen by William J. Brophy, director of the marching band at Ohio University.

Trackmen Ready

Big Green track coach Jule Rivlin has been sending his squad through heavy workouts during the week to prepare them for this Saturday's running of the Charleston Gazette Relays in the Capital City.

In the Green's opening meet, the Ohio University Bobcats dropped the Green by a 105-36 margin.
