Poll Seeks Presidential Nominees

By DICK MOORE
(Feature Editor)

Next month the national conventions for the nomination of presidential candidates will be in Chicago and San Francisco. If you were given the opportunity, who would be your choice of candidates in each party?

In the next issue of The Parthenon, a blank ballot will be presented to the student body on which you may express your views, regardless of your age, as to who should be the candidates for president and vice president of the United States.

Results of this survey will be published in the August 3 edition of The Parthenon.

While most leading Republicans seem satisfied with the Eisenhower-Nixon team, some have expressed doubt as to Nixon for the presidents running mate again.

The Democrats have come forth with no less than 10 aspirants for the nominations for president. Among the leading contenders are Adlai E. Stevenson, former governor of Illinois and the 1952 Democratic candidate. Estes Kefauver, U. S. senator from Tennessee, who was defeated in '52 by Stevenson, has his hat in the ring again. Considered as strong contenders are Governor Averell Harriman of New York, and senator Stuart Symington of Missouri.

Also in the race for the nomination are Senator Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, Gov. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio, Governor G. Mennen Williams of Mich., Gov. Albert B. Chandler of Ky., Senator Warren G. Magnuson of Washington, and Gov. George Bell Timmerman Jr. of South Carolina.

Ballot boxes will be placed in the Student Union and other convenient places about the campus next week. This is your opportunity to show 'em how you would have it done.

James Norvel Hudgins, Jack Jervis, Jr., Betty Lynne Johnson, Rita Richey Keaton, Mary Lou Law, Mary Alice Lawson, Albert Owen Lilly, Robert Nelson McCollins, Jacqueline Meade, and Milburn Nolan.

Tamara Orr, Ruth Eleanor Oshel, Patricia Joan Postalwait, James Edward Putnam, Donald Ray, Joey Lee Scott, Walter Sharp, Jerry Carroll Snow, Alvin Sowards, Marlene Spradling, Virginia Eleanor Stephens, Jewell Dingess Street, Maxine Elizabeth Trimble, Anna Vickers, Shirley Kathleen Whitt, Garnet Cecilia Wilson, Davis Woolum, and Barbara Helen Walden.

Juniors making a 3.5 average or better are: Carolyn Jean Evans 4.00, James Dow Wilson 3.79, Della Olive Hager 3.78, Charles William Moran 3.71, Kloris Ann Dressler 3.65, Nancy Savage Marples 3.65, Ned Russell DeJournett 3.63, Mary Margaret Lindsay 3.62, Sally Purchas Clay 3.60, Robert Alexander Johnson 3.59, Maria Keszler 3.53, Patricia Lou Frame 3.50, and Robert Shelton Nichols 3.50.

Other juniors making the dean's list are: Mary Elizabeth Adkins, Mary Catherine Adkinson Joseph C. Barrett, Patricia Janel Britton, Robert Tanel Cantees, Joan Nadine Carr, Barbara Wamsley Chafin, Orien Chafin and Iris Chambers.

James Edgar Chambers, Helen Sue Collins, Mary Little Collins, Harry Cook, Phyllis Jean Cremeans, Martha Gail Crickenberger, Donna May Fisher, Nora Ann Flack, Ruth Riffe Fleshman, Ruth Jean Ford, Connie Layne Frye, Jack Donald Garrett, Jane Ann Garrette, Judith Mae Grass, Janet Norine Hager, and Sandra Sotot Hatfield.

Religious Center Planned By Christian Sponsors Group

The Marshall College Student Christian Sponsors, Inc., recently received a certificate of incorporation by Secretary of State D. Pitt O'Brien.

The corporation is a non-profit association organized for the purpose of promoting and advising student religious activities here, including the erection of an interdenominational religious center for the college.

Members of the corporation will be the minister, the minister of education or the youth direction and a lay member from each contributing church.

Board officers are Dr. Andrew R. Bird, Jr., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, president; Dr. James T. Browning, pastor of Johnson Memorial Church, vice-president; W. C. Petty, treasurer; John C. Hennen, assistant treasurer, and Rev. J. A. Garshaw, pastor of the Central Christian Church, secretary.

The Board of directors is comprised of Dr. Stewart H. Smith, president, with the provision that the college administrative head is always to be a member; three members each from the denominations most numerous among the student body (Baptist, Methodist, and Presbyterian) and three members representing other contributing denominations. Since Dr. Smith is a Lutheran Church layman, a total of seven denominations are represented on the present board, which will elect its own successors.

The three chief contributing denominations have pledged $4,000 each annually toward the support of the religious program until it is well established.

Arrangements for the purchase of two lots adjacent to the college, fronting 95 feet on Fifth Avenue and running 190 feet on Seventeenth Street, have been made by the group. They are now seeking approximately $100,-

A.A.U.W. Pleased With Frosh Dorm.

By HELEN YUILL
(Staff Reporter)

Inmates of the Freshman Dormitory showed their good old southern hospitality this week to the American Association of University Women who were here for the South Atlantic Regional Conference which ended last Wednesday, according to Mrs. B. L. Marple, dormitory hostess. The girls vacated the first floor and the north end of the second floor to make room for the visitors.

The visiting women who hail from all over the South and South-East region, seemed well pleased with their stay here and expressed gratitude toward the dormitory staff.

Mrs. John Holden, one of the guests from Petersburg, Va., said she had visited many colleges in the East, but had not seen a better equipped modern dormitory.

Mrs. J. G. Scott, also of Petersburg, breathed a sigh of delight when she was given a room on the west side of the dormitory under the big sycamore tree. Said she, "It keeps my room surprisingly cool."

Mrs. William Dalton, who graduated from Marshall in 1951, said of the new dormitory, "Its all very beautiful."

Among the guests were Dr. 000 for the final purchase of the lots and for the erection of the first unit of the religious center.

Collins Contributes Article To Paper

ROTC Cadet David Collins recently contributed a 500 word feature to the Fort Meade newspaper "Sound Off".

Collins is a senior in the Military Science program here and is attending the annual Summer Camp at Fort Meade.

The article was illustrated with several pictures of a typical cadet in training and gave Collin's views as a cadet first experiencing army life.

A member of Pershing Rifles and Scabbard and Blade military honorary societies, Collins was awarded the designation of Distinguished Military Student

Music Dept. Plans Book, Record Sale

The Music department will have a book and record rummage sale according to R. Wayne Hugoboom, associate professor of music.

The sale will take place in room 109 of the music building during approximately the 2nd week of the 2nd semester of summer school.

All proceeds are to go to the three college choirs. Anyone wishing to donate books or records should bring them to Professor Hugoboom in room 201 in the music building

Rosamonde R. Boyd, vice president from the South Atlantic Region, presided over the Monday afternoon and Tuesday business sessions. Dr. Flemmie Kittrell from Howard University in Washington, was one of the speakers at the Monday afternoon meetings. Both expressed pleasure over their comfortable surroundings.

Although the regular summer inhabitants of the dormitory were pleased, temporarily, to give up their rooms, its now a mad scramble to recapture the best rooms, including the one under the old sycamore.

Teacher's Education Delayed By Flood

By BILL MORAN

Back in school after an absence of 19 years is Mrs. Edith Sammons Price, Logan junior, whose last attendance here in 1937 was terminated by a fast rowboat ride from Old Main during the '37 flood.

Here also with Mrs. Price is her son, Bob—age 9, who is attending classes this summer in the lab school, while staying with his mother in Laidly Hall.

Since her unusual departure from Marshall 19 years ago, Mrs. Price has been teaching elementary school intermittently in Logan, Raleigh, and Fayette counties.

She is taking Math, Music, and Art courses this summer which she says will help her in teaching the eighth grade at Oak Hill this fall. She is now working toward a Higher Elementary Teachers Certificate.

Commenting on the changes which have taken place here in the past 19 years, Mrs. Price said, "It's remarkable how the College has expanded, but what is most remarkable is how it has retained its friendly atmosphere."

Mason Woman Enrolled In 1926

A Mason county woman has resumed her studies in the Teacher's College after a generation delay and will begin teaching for the first time this fall.

Mrs. Thelma Watterson of Apple Grove was graduated from Ceredo-Kenova high school in 1925. She attended college one year, then put aside her studies to become a homemaker.

Since then she has raised a family of two children and three step children. Mrs. Watterson now has seven grandchildren.

With her husband and three hired men Mrs. Watterson operates a large dairy farm at Apple Grove. The Watterson farm has 32 producing cows. It ships about 100 gallons of milk into the Charleston area each day.

Mrs. Watterson commutes daily from Apple Grove, a distance of about 55 miles. Traveling with her is her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Watterson.

Upon being questioned about her impression of the college after her long absence, Mrs. Watterson indicated that she was amazed at the way the campus had grown. When she was attending in 1926 there were only three buildings.

A picture of Lincoln County students will be taken Monday, July 23, at 1 P. M. on the steps of the library, according to Mrs. Delilah Foster.

dean's list are: Nancy Ann Barbour, Mary Annes Bartram, Maudie Elizabeth Booth, Patsy Kay Brewer, Jean Browning, Donald Clifford Chapman, Janet Lee Cotton, Carol Sue Cox, John Lindsay Davis, Rebecca Lynn Dickey, Mary Clark Donahoe, Henry Lawton France, Paul Nelson Fulks, Lenore Joanne Greenlee, Nancy Welch Hanger, and Mary Alice Keyser.

Elizabeth Lambert Kinder, Barbara Ann Kingsbury, Wilma Mae Lockhart, Mary McKenney, Norma Lee Markley, Betty Marie Meadows, Nina Jeanne Mee, Nancy Joe Morgan, Patricia Ann Napier, Janet Ruppe, Elsie Adams Sharp, Geraldine Hope Shelton, Shirley Sue Soto, Patti Laverne Stanley, Olga Thabet, and Warren Whitaker.

"GOSH MOM—it's 'way above my head," exclaims 9-year-old Bob Price, as his mother, Mrs. Edith Sammons Price, shows him the high water mark of the flood of '37, which terminated her last

DON "ROCKY" Layne and his wife Jama pause for a rest between classes and their job. Mr. and Mrs. Layne are both working on A.B. Degrees. In addition they are the managers of a local motel.

MRS. THELMA WATTERSON stops with her daughter-in-law to admire some of the changes that have been made in the campus since her first enrollment in 1926. Then the entire college was housed in three buildings, Northcott Hall, Old Main, and the Gymnasium.

Engineering Class Surveying Campus

Those engineers are at it again! Mapping the campus in a surveying course there are two teams of four and one of three students, finding out just where the campus is astronomically and geographically speaking, as they pursue their studies from 7:30 to 3 daily, under the direction of A. E. McCaskey, Jr., head of the engineering department.

The team of 3, pictured, are Pat Cantley, Huntington sophomore, Jeff McCallister, Huntington junior, and David Myles, Barboursville sophomore. Both Cantley and McCallister have spent 2 years with the army.

The 3 instruments being used are the level, the chain, and the transit. These instruments are so sensitive that, according to Professor McCaskey, students walking near them will jar these instruments completely out of focus.

The class, Engineering 320, is a five hour course. The enrollment for the course is usually about 30 students. George C. Urain, instructor in engineering, is assisting Professor McCaskey in the survey course.

Laynes Operate Motel After Class

By OTTIE MAE PERDUE
(Staff Reporter)

Going to summer school while working on their A.B. degree during the morning and running a motel in the afternoon and night is the Don Laynes.

Don "Rocky" Layne, a physical education major, will graduate in 1958. His wife, Jama, an English major and student assistant in that department, will get her degree next May.

Jama, from Galax, Virginia and Don from Williamson met while they were attending Kentucky Christian College in Grayson, Kentucky.

They have been attending here and holding part-time positions since 1953.

At the present time they are employed as clerks at the Stone Lodge Motel, a 31 unit facility on Route 60, seven miles from Huntington.

Teacher Flies To Honolulu For Visit

Off to Honolulu is Celia Hornbuckle, a teacher in Cattlettsburg Grade School and an Ashland sophomore. She is going to visit her Army sergeant son who is stationed there.

It will be a surprise visit from her son, Clarence, Jr., who is stationed in Hawaii, and has his wife and an year old daughter with him. "Grandma" Celia plans to visit with them a month.

Mrs. Hornbuckle will fly both ways and plans to stop off in the west to visit friends on her return trip.

Swede Outlines 26 Events For Second Term Murals

All Winners To Receive Mural Medals

By LOWELL CADE
(Sports Editor)

"Swede" Gullickson, head of the intramural program, and back after a six weeks vacation has outlined a twenty-six event program for this semester.

Twelve of the events will get underway next week. They are as follows: basketball, volley ball, cageball, aerial darts, water polo, carom and pocket billiards, ping pong singles, pinochle, cribbage, handball singles, and hearts.

Any person who wishes to compete in any of the above mentioned events must have their name on the lists posted on the bulletin board in the Student Union by this afternoon.

The following events are scheduled to get underway in the weeks to come: ping pong doubles, ping pong mixed doubles, badminton singles and doubles, tennis singles and doubles, horseshoe doubles, croquet singles and doubles, handball doubles, bridge, and rod and reel plug casting.

A schedule of next weeks events will be posted on the union bulletin board and they will start at 1 and 2 o'clock. Medals will be awarded to all winners.

If there are any groups who wish any sport not listed on the program they are to see "Swede" in his office in the Athletic Building.

Bill Christie was the horseshoe singles medal winner this week when he defeated Chapman two straight games 11-8 and 11-8 in a best two out of three play-off. Ten contestants were entered.

Carl McMellon will be the new student intramural director, replacing Bob Hart.

Family Combines Fun With Work

By DELILAH FOSTER
(Staff Reporter)

The Eads family of Page in Fayette County moved to Huntington for the summer while Mother completes work on her A.B. degree.

Maced Kincaid Eads enrolled at Marshall in 1934 and received a Standard Normal Certificate in 1936. Since that time she has attended summer terms and taken extension classes while teaching and rearing a family.

Baby-sitter for the three Ead's children — Beverly 8, Rodney 5, and Gregory 3, is Pauline Surratt,

Former Big Green Gridder Killed In Airplane Crash

MRS. MACED KINCAID EADS stops in the shade of a tree on campus to study before going to her summer home in Huntington where her sister keeps her three children while she attends class.

Mrs. Ead's sister, Mrs. Surratt, a Fayette County teacher, has her masters degree from Marshall.

Mrs. Eads always completes preparation for the following day's classes before leaving the campus so she can be free to assume the role of homemaker and mother for the remainder of the day.

Marine Second Lieutenant George "Scotty" Van Gordon, former varsity football player and Marshall graduate, was killed July 7 in an airplane crash on the island of Oahu.

"Scotty" entered Marshall in the fall of 1951 and reported to head football coach Willard "Pete" Peterson.

At that time a freshman could play varsity football, providing he was good enough and rough enough, and that certainly applied to Scotty. He saw plenty of action during his freshman year and was the starting linebacker on the Big Green's defensive platoon in 1952.

He started the 1953 season but had to give up football due to a leg injury he suffered during the 1952 season and because it was necessary for him to take a full-time job to finish his schooling.

After graduating with an AB degree in January of 1955 "Scotty", who had been in an active Marine Reserve platoon leaders unit, was called to active duty for two years. He and three other Marine officers had rented the airplane for a pleasure ride when the accident occurred.

Big Green Linksmen Make Good Showing At Ol' White

Pine Grove All-Star Cager Coming Here

Lewis Mott, a graduate of Pine Grove High School and a selection on the West Virginia All-Star team, has indicated that he will enroll here next September.

Mott stands only five foot ten inches tall and weighs 148 pounds, but what he likes in size he makes up in determination and will to win.

He made a very fine showing in the West Virginia-Kentucky All-Star game and was voted the games most valuable player.

He was also selected to the Class B all-state and all-section teams. He scored 693 points for the Tornados last year for an average of 33.4 points a game.

Aside from being a top notch basketball player he is a fine baseball pitcher which will be good news for baseball coach, Bill Chambers.

Mott was approached by several of the other colleges in the area before he finally decided to attend Marshall.

Pine Grove is also the home town of Norm and Dean Harold Willey who also made a name for themselves in Big Green athletics.

Jack Freeman, Linden Meade, and Buddy Graham, three Big Green golfers, made an outstanding showing in the West Virginia Amateur Golf Championship matches at White Sulphur Springs two weeks ago.

All three boys qualified for championship play which required a score of 79 or better. Linden Meade had the best score of the three as he shot the third highest score of 71. He was preceded only by former champions Bill Campbell and Ed Tutwiller who each had a score of 69.

Jack Freeman had the next best qualifying score of the three with a 75, followed by Graham who shot a 79.

In championship play Freeman went all the way to the semi-finals before he was eliminated by Bill Campbell 4 and 3. Included in Freeman's three previous victories was a win over Jack Peck of Logan by the score of 3 and 2. Peck is one of the states top ranked amateur golfers.

Meade won one match before being eliminated and Graham was defeated in the first round.

After the championship was over Ed Tutwiller, the 1956 champion indicated that the young golfers entered in the tournament had impressed him greatly and he specifically mentioned Freeman and Meade.

Whitey Wilson, Big Green golf coach, indicated that he was pleased with the showing the boys made.

RESTING AFTER a day of meetings and discussion at the AAUW convention are: Mrs. Douglas Tomkies, President of the Cabell County Board of Education; one of the guest speakers, Mrs. Marvin W. # Flowers, Jewelry Adorn Women's Summer Attire

By LINDA McGHEE
(Staff Reporter)

Jewelry and flowers are the chief means of adornment for women on campus this summer. Miss Ann Moss, secretary to the dean of men, wears a style of jewelry which is heavy in appearance and is composed of large single stones.

MRS. PAULINE NUTTER wears a huge gold bracelet as her favorite piece of summer-time jewelry. The massiveness of the bracelet leaves little need for supplementary jewelry.

MRS. SADIE BROWNING accents her summertime costume with a long strand of pearls and earrings to match. Mrs. Browning uses pearls to express her feeling that small stones lend daintiness.

Miss Moss says, "I prefer larger jewelry to the smaller type because I think it is more colorful. The set which Miss Moss is wearing includes matching ring, bracelet and earrings.

Mrs. Sadie Browning chose an earring and necklace set. The strand of pearls and dangling earrings are in direct contrast to the heavier jewelry.

Miss Anne Jones expressed an opinion similar to Miss Brownings when she said, "To me pearls and tiny sets are dainty. I would choose them over the large sets."

Large bracelets are quite the rage. The massive gold bracelet that Mrs. Pauline Nutter wears is a lovely example of a bracelet which needs no counterpart.

Flowers, too are playing an important part in decoration. Joan Ingram wears red flowers at the neck of a white blouse. This gives a look of crispness to a costume even in the hottest weather.

Louise Miller says, "I wear flowers in my hair. In the summer time I wear more flowers than jewelry."

'Pop' pearls are also being used for decoration in the hair. Jewelry or flowers when chosen to compliment a costume are really effective in lending color to any woman's appearance.

MISS ANN MOSS, secretary to the Dean of Men, sports one of her favorite jewelry ensembles. A set of matching earrings, bracelet and ring. The set Ann is wearing is made of turquoise stones set in sterling silver.

JOAN INGRAM wears bright red imitation flowers at the neck of her sleeveless white blouse to add crisp fresh look to a hot weather costume.

Library Rules

The library hours will be the same this semester as the last according to Mrs. Margaret S. Bobbitt, assistant librarian.

They are: Monday through Thursday 7:30 A. M. to 4 P. M. Friday 7:30 A. M. to 5 P. M. Saturday 8 A. M. to 5 P. M.

Mrs. Bobbitt also said, the reserved books must not leave the library until 4 P. M. A student who wishes to take a book out after 4 P. M. may do so but the book must be returned by 8:30 A. M. the next morning.

In order to check any book from the library you must have your treasurer receipt.

There is a reference desk in the library to assist you in finding the book of your choice.

Slow Learners Workshop Set For August 6 To 23

A workshop, "Teaching the Slow Learner", will begin Monday, August 6 and will continue through Thursday, August 23.

Dr. D. Banks Wilburn, dean of Teacher's College, will preside over the first general session, according to a tentative program.

W.W. Trent, state superintendent of schools and Olin C. Nutter, superintendent of Cabell County schools will give the opening welcoming.

Guest speakers will include Mr. H. Cliff Hamilton, State Supervisor of Instruction, speaking on "History and Philosophy of West Virginia's Program, of Special Education", and Miss Frances Scott, state supervisor of special education, will discuss the present status of the West Virginia program of education.

The first after-noon session will include Miss Amy A. Allen, Director of the Workshop, who will
