Semester Enrollment Sets New Record

3556 Students Enroll, Topping 1947 Record

Caught in a nationwide trend, the college's first semester enrollment this year has set an all time record for resident students enrolled, according to Luther E. Bledsoe, Registrar and Director of Admissions.

This semester's total climbed to 3,556, bettering the 1955 fall semester total by 215 students, and surpassing the previous high of 3,439 set in 1947, two years after the influx of World War II veterans to the college campus.

This year the number of full time students reached 2,753, also a record. In addition, 803 part time students have registered.

Although the 600 veterans enrolled constitutes 17 per cent of the total enrollment, the number does not compare with the 1,800 veterans who attended school between 1946 and 1950.

College enrollment all over the nation will continue to swell for the next several years, Bledsoe estimates. He reports that twice as many high school graduates enter college now than did 15 or 20 years ago.

Bledsoe feels the reason for this increase is probably due to the number of children born during World War II who are now of college age.

With the birth rate high now, as it was during the war, and with the emphasis on the shortage of scientists and engineers plus scholarships in these fields being offered by industry, the Registrar feels college enrollment will continue to grow.

Library hours were announced by H. W. Appel, head librarian, as follows: Monday through Thursday, 8 A.M. to 9 P.M.; Friday and Saturday, 8 A.M. to 5 P.M.

ID And Activity Cards Necessary For Games

Robert Morris, Marshall athletic director, has outlined the procedure to be used to admit students to all Marshall football games.

Upon presentation of their activity cards and identification cards at the gate of Fairfield Stadium students will be admitted to home games.

There will be no reserved seat tickets in the student sections which will include 34, 35, 36, and the north half of section 37. The south half of section 37 will be reserved for the faculty.

In the case of an overflow of students at the game filling student sections, or in case the freshmen are required to attend the games, freshmen will sit in a body in section 38.

Students wishing to purchase tickets for a date or for their parents may come to the athletic office any time before 12 noon, the day of the game, with their activity and identification cards. The activity card will be punched and an exchange ticket will be given in return, along with the ticket purchased. These tickets will be stamped "student exchange" and the identification card must be presented with them at the gate. These tickets will be for the south half of section 34.

urer's receipt to claim the identification card.

The cards do not replace any activity card, or existing student admission tickets. They will aid in positive identification at the library, local stores, banks, and theaters.

Law School Tests Begin In November

The Law School Admission Test required of applicants for admission to a number of leading American law schools will be given at more than 100 centers throughout the United States on the mornings of November 10, 1956, February 15, May 4, and August 10, 1957.

Since many law schools select their freshman classes in the spring preceding their entrance, candidates for admission to next year's classes are advised ordinarily to take either the November or the February test.

The Law School Admission Test, prepared and administered by Educational Testing Service, features objective questions measuring verbal aptitudes and reasoning ability rather than acquired information. Sample questions and information regarding registration and administration of the test are given in a bulletin or information.

The bulletin and an application for the test should be obtained four to six weeks in advance of the desired testing date from Law School Admission Test, Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, New Jersey. Completed applications must be received at least ten days before the desired testing date.

Marshall Foundation Plans Fall Meeting

The Marshall Foundation Incorporated will have its fall quarterly meeting for the membership and Board of Directors Tuesday evening, October 2.

The members will meet in North Parlor of Old Main at 6 P.M. for a short tour of the campus. Following the tour, there will be a dinner in the Dining Hall.

Athletic Dept. And Robe Set Two Pep Rallies Tomorrow

Football enthusiasts will have their first chance to show some of their college spirit as two pep rallies, one tomorrow morning and one tomorrow night, have been scheduled for the student body.

The athletic department, headed by Athletic Director Bob Morris, will present a pep assembly in the Old Main Auditorium tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

Bob Alexander, president of the student body, is the master of ceremonies of this assembly and will introduce Mr. Morris, who will in turn introduce the members of this year's coaching staff.

One of the highlights of this annual assembly is "Swede" Gullickson's famed pep talk. "Swede" is intramural director and cross country coach.

Also featured in the morning rally will be the band, majorettes, and cheerleaders. The band will play while the majorettes and cheerleaders go through some of their routines. The cheerleaders will also teach the student body two new cheers, which will be used at the Morris Harvey game Saturday night.

This year the cheerleaders will all have new saddle oxfords, which were donated by the Anderson-Newcomb Company, of downtown Huntington.

Tomorrow night the Robe, men's honorary leadership fraternity, will present a pep rally and bonfire. All freshmen are required to attend this rally which will get under way at 7:30 P. M. in front of the Physical Education Building.

Joe Hunnicutt, Princeton senior, will be the master of ceremonies at the bon fire. Hunnicutt will introduce members of this year's football team.

ID Cards Obtainable This Week In Library

The Student Identification Cards are being distributed in Room 5 of the Library during the following hours:

Wednesday and Thursday, 8:30-11:30 A.M.; 1:15-3:45 P.M.; 6-9 P.M.; Friday, 8:30-11:30 A.M.; 1:15-3:54 P.M.; and Saturday, 8:30-11:30 A.M.

Service Frat Awards Chambers Scholarship

Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, awarded their annual service scholarship to Walter Scott Chambers, Huntington freshman.

The award is given to an incoming freshman boy, who in the fraternity's opinion, is outstanding in leadership and scholarship.

The one year scholarship consists of one hundred and twenty-five dollars. This is to be used for tuition, books, and lab fees. The money is obtained through the ugly man contest held annually by Alpha Phi Omega.

Chambers graduated from Huntington High School, where he was outstanding in leadership and scholarship. Among the clubs he was in were: Hi-Y, Band, Rho Club, and Math Club.

He was also vice president of the sophomore class, president of his junior class, president of the student council, won the sons of American Revolution award, and was chosen to go to Boys' State.

I.S.A. executive council will meet Tuesday at 7:30 P.M., in the Chief Justice Office.

An Open Letter

Editor, Parthenon:

Again this year as before we are confronted with the Freshman election. A class who has been on the campus only three weeks will elect four senators and a class president. This will comprise one-fourth of the Student Body voting power in the Senate.

I feel that these people, eager to take advantage of perhaps their first say in democratic government, will overlook the issues before them. As Speaker of the Senate, I can truthfully say that there is no need for high school "whoopsies" and individuals who are not capable of maintaining a scholastic average while enrolled in this institution to apply for these positions. Each year an average of two freshman Senators are lost because of scholastic inability and others appointed in their place.

Remember, Freshmen, this is no popularity contest and there is no room for people who will not accept responsibility.

We are running a $7,000 business this year.

Sincerely

AL WHEELER

Dr. J. C. Warner of Carnegie Tech, president of the ACS for 1956, was the keynote speaker. Dr. Warner highlighted the year in chemistry for the convention. He stressed the need for more training in the subject matter of science so there can be a better quality of teachers rather than a large quantity of teachers.

Musketeers Trounce Herd In Season's Opener - 30 To 6

Musky Defense Holds Ground Yardage To 36

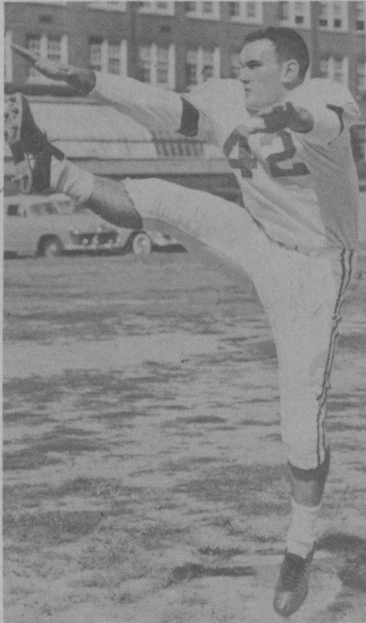

By GEORGE BENNETT
Asst. Sports Editor

Marshall opened their 1956 football season to a fired-up Xavier squad 30-6 in Cincinnati. Xavier scored in every quarter as they completely dominated the Big Green, who could only score in the last quarter.

Fullback John Wells went over from the three to score Marshall's touchdown in the final minutes of the game. Donzil Hall's try for the conversion was wide. The backfield of Wagner and Porter, quarterbacks, Ray Dunlap at left half, Wells at full, and Ricard Jackson at right half looked pretty good as they drove down field to set up the score.

Xavier scored their first touchdown on a 32-yard pass from quarterback Lane to Don Salvati. One of Marshall's six fumbles set up the second Muskie score early in the second period. Quarterback Bertomia climaxed the thirty-eight yard drive with a TD pass to Young for the final six yards. The Musketeers scored again in each of the remaining quarters.

Coach Herb Royer played his subs in the last of the game to give them some front line experience. In the statistical department Marshall did almost nothing. They netted thirty-six yards to 250 for Xavier, and five first down to 16 for Xavier. The Mus-

CROSS COUNTRY

Cross country coach "Swede" Gullickson issued a call for freshman candidates for the frosh cross country team. "Swede" indicated that the frosh would open here against Morehead, October 13, giving him only three weeks to get the team ready. Anyone interested should report to the gym any day at 3 P. M.

keteers had six completions out of eight passes attempted, for nine-two yards, while Marshall had five of twelve for forty-six yards.

Touch Football Opens Intramurals

The first touch football game of the fall intramural program got off to a slow start as the Sig Ep's won by a forfeit over the Lambda Chi's.

In the second game of the afternoon, shortly after the game started Cebe Price skirted the end for a touchdown to give the Pikes a 6-0 lead over the KA's. The final score was not available before the Parthenon press time.

The following is a schedule for the remaining weeks' games:

Tuesday, September 26, at 2:15, PKA No. 2 vs. Varsity M No. 2 and at 4:15 SAE No. 2 vs. Cavaliers No. 2.

Thursday, September 27, at 3:15, Varsity No. 1 vs. Cavaliers No. 1 and at 4:15 Rascals vs. PKA No. 3.

The following is a list of rules released by intramural manager "Swede" Gullickson to the participating teams:

1. Be good sports—win, lose, or draw, give opponents a cheer.
2. Play on schedule due to limited facilities.
3. State when you can play.
4. We never change a schedule when once posted.
5. All managers must aid in officiating.
6. Forfeitures must be written within 24 hours after contest in question.
7. I back all officials 100% on their opinions and decisions. Misinterpretations of rules will be heeded.

Inexperience, Costly Fumbles May Mean Change In Lineup

M.A.C. Briefs

By LOWELL CADE
Sports Editor

The tenth season of the MAC got off to a fast start last Saturday night when Bowling Green downed the Golden Flashes of Kent State 17-0. The first half went scoreless, then in the third quarter the Falcons pounced on a Kent fumble and went for the first of two touchdowns.

With both teams rated among the league favorites, the victory for the Falcons took a terrible stride toward the conference crown.

The MAC champs, the Miami Redskins, opened against George Washington and lost a close one to the non-conference foe.

The game, played at Miami, was a scoreless tie until the fourth quarter when the Colonials covered a Miami fumble on the Miami 41. From there they scored in nine plays and added the extra point, the deciding factor. Miami came right back with a score but failed on the try for extra point.

WAA TOURNEY

The Women's Athletic Association is sponsoring two tournaments this week. The tennis tournament will be this afternoon at 3 P.M., and the horse-shoe tournament will be Thursday afternoon at 3 P.M.

8. If you want a sport that is not on the intramural agenda, we will welcome it and be delighted to oblige.

9. All 3:15 games must be played by 4:15. If necessary, shorten 2nd half.

10. No street shoes on gym floor or tennis courts.

Inexperience seemed to be the prevailing factor in the defeat of the Thundering Herd Saturday afternoon at Cincinnati—along with a bad case of fumble-itis.

Coach Royer indicated that the Herd line, honeycombed with replacements, was no match for the fired-up Xavier line, in that the Musketeers had one game under their belts and the Herd line was just too short on experience.

Now that the team has made its first showing in actual combat, Royer indicated that every position on his starting lineup is wide open and any man proving he is a starter could find himself starting against Morris Harvey.

One of the big questions in the minds of the viewing and listening Big Green fans was what happened to the well established backfield and why the poor overall rushing total of 36 yards. Royer indicated that the backs never got a chance to get started.

However, despite the gloomy returns from Cincinnati, there were a few bright spots that turned up during the long afternoon. Royer was impressed with the showing of the second group, naming quarterback Bob Wagner and halfbacks Dick Jackson and Ray Dunlap as looking good.

Another bright point was the fact that the injured list was not increase, which is something to be thankful for.

Royer closed out by saying, "We'll be ready Saturday."

Fashion By The Foot . . .

By PATSY FRIEND

Put your best feet forward this season and they will probably be shod in black and varying shades of brown, tan, beige and green in a variety of fabrics.

Buttons and bows, as well as a smattering of buckles come into their own fashion rights this fall. Casual shoes for daytime wear that will carry over to dates as well are sporting tiny buckles and bows on low cut toes. Black is the most popular color in footwear this season while suede is the predominating fabric. Shades of brown ranging from tan to beige are also fashionable.

Special features on this casual day-time, date-time flat, worn by Nancy Naylor, Charleston sophomore, are the extreme low cut toe, pancake heel, and a small gold buckle across a tapered toe. Black is the most popular color in this type of shoe while suede is the preferred fabric. Buckles and small bows are attention getters on this season's flats.

A shoe that will go places with many types of apparel is this grey corkette loafer, ready to be worn with skirts and socks, or worn equally as well with hosiery. Worn with school clothes or sports wear, these shoes are popular because of their softness, suppleness, and sleek styling. Brown, tan, and beige are popular loafer colors this fall. A wide selection of colors, materials, and styles are being featured in shoes for school. Corkette, celtic leather buck and the ever popular smooth leather lead the fashion parade for loafers. Subdued colors such as grey, brown, beige, and black are more popular than the brighter shades of blue, red, and green which were more prominent a few seasons ago.

Heels this year are more extreme and fancier than in past seasons, allowing the imagination to run riot in the selection of heels for daytime or casual wear or for really dressy occasions.

This year's fashion plates will be wearing heels that have an extremely low cut, slim tapered toe, and thin heels. Heels have become a fashion focal point, with wooden heels, and the introduction of pin heels, which taper to a smaller point than a dime.

Again darker shades predominate with black, brown, tan, beige, and green being the most popular colors in this type of shoe.

Black is the overwhelming favorite in dress heels this fall, with open toes and heels contributing to a light, slim look. Rhinestones, an adornment which is a perennial favorite, are being used lavishly to form buckles and bows to add sparkle to dancing toes.

- West Virginia University
- Budd Thalman of the Daily Athenaeum has highlighted expected events on the University campus in calendar form. Here's the way it looks:
- Oct. 6—Crowd of 7,000 jam field house for Elvis Presley concert. Dean gives all women 3 a.m. permission in order that all may get Presley's autograph.

Nov. 17—Joe Smith, defeated candidate for vice president, crowns homecoming queen. Mountaineers are held at bay by the Purple Hurricanes of Furman and fail to score. A 0-0 tie means frosh must wear their beanies.

Dec. 18—Students leave for Christmas vacation. Frosh continue to wear beanies.

Jan. 8—University announces that for the first time in its history no one failed a subject during the first semester.

Mar. 3—Freshmen go to court to try and get rid of their beanies.

Apr. 20—School is cancelled for the rest of the summer. Student body is entirely too intelligent and WVU suspends classes and gives all student A's in every subject.

May 14, 1959—Student legislature passes a resolution allowing the freshman class of 1956 to get rid of its beanies.

CAVALIERS SMOKER

The Cavaliers, Independent men's organization, will have a smoker at 9 P.M. tomorrow night in the Student Union.

All non-affiliated men are invited to attend.

Straight from the 'My Fair Lady' trend in fashions is this buck herb green heel that sports this year's slim look with its low cut narrow toe. An added attraction is the new wooden heel. This type of shoe was fashionable back in the days when Grandmother was a girl, but modern women have taken a fancy to the lean trim look and have made this trend their own.

“Notes In Passing”

The vocabulary of the world of fashions is as mystifying to many women as are the terms of the medical profession to many of us. Knowing the new fall fashion terms will help you to be better informed as to what is going on in the fashion world and in the long run will help you to be better dressed if you know the present term for the item you wish to purchase when you walk into a shop.

Here are a few of the new fall fashion terms: Alpaca . . . long fine wool, used alone or with wool for this fall's furry-textured fabrics . . . Baroque pearls . . . pearls, irregularly shaped that are this-year fashion, day or evening . . . Bitter brown, a fabric and leather color that is pure, dark brown so near black that it's good with almost every color.

Brushed gold . . . gold that looks like satin, textured metal with luster, not shine . . . especially beautiful in compacts . . . Buffed leather . . . a soft shoe leather buffed to velvety textures that's smoother than brushed leather, heavier than suede . . . Layered skirt . . . skirt upon skirt of chiffon underlined with a rustling taffeta petticoat.

Overblouse . . . a blouse that is not tucked in . . . worn straight last season, now it's gathered by a drawstring just below the hips . . . Wrapped belt . . . a long, wide sash wrapped and tied so that no ends are hanging, usually silk of the foulard-print family.

Toque . . . a hat to look forward to in soft beaver felts. A brimless, Queen Mary pill-box with straight-rising sides . . . Jabot . . . a frill at the throat, good this year with the dress-up city or dinner suit . . . Dry beige . . . a natural stocking shade that doesn't commit itself to pink, yellow, or brown cast . . . good with all colors.

Gillie . . . a low-cut casual pump with a few lacings over the open vamp . . . Fresh-water pearls . . . the white pearl, for daytime or evening, it has a soft delicate luster without any ivory tint.

HERE AND THERE—Cavaliers smoker tomorrow night at 9 P.M. in the Student Union . . . K. A.'s took seven men into their fold Sunday . . . T.K.A. initiated two Wednesday night.

PINNINGS . . . Marilyn Rodriguez to Mickey Spinosi, P. K. A. . . . Judy Flint to Jim Crum, S. P. E. . . . Rosalee Hudson to Don McCorkle, Phi Mu Alpha . . . Gay Hensley to Leno Byrd, Lambda Chi . . . Shirley Fulton to Gary Given, T. K. E. . . .
