SNEA Names Officers

Newly elected officers of the Student National Educational Association for the coming year are: Janice Montgomery, Marmet junior, president; Alicia Elkins, Mount Hope junior, vice-president; Glenyce Smith, Man sophomore, treasurer; and Janet Lee Bailey, Clear Fork, junior, secretary.

SNEA has approximately two meetings a month, according to the advisor, Dr. Thomas S. Turbyfield, associate professor of education. Annual dues are $4.00, which includes two magazines, the NEA Journal and W. Va. NEA Journal.

SNEA is the professional association for college or university students preparing to teach. The purpose of the organization is to provide members with opportunities to develop personal growth and professional competence; to gain an understanding of the history, ethics, and program of the organized teaching profession; to participate in co-operative work on the problems of the profession and the community; and to promote the cause of education.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, November 11, at 7 o'clock, in the laboratory school auditorium. The program will consist of a movie entitled "A Desk for Billy."

Career Guide Book Available

Senior men interested in a free copy of the annual guide to business opportunities, "Career 1959 for the College Man," can pick it up at the Placement Office.

The Placement Office is also publishing a bi-weekly bulletin of employment opportunities through January 1, 1959, at which time it will become a weekly publication.

Mr. Robert P. Alexander, Director of Placement, has stressed the importance of seniors turning in their credential folders immediately. Also some of the seniors have failed to fill out their folders at this time. It is very imperative that this be done in the immediate future.

secretary-treasurer, Jim Cassella, Weirton freshman; and social chairman, Gary Underwood, St. Marys freshman.

College Theatre Production To Run Through Friday

By JUDY O'DELL

The curtains open again tonight on the set of College Theatre's first production of the year, "Teach Me How To Cry," by Patricia Joudry. "Teach Me How To Cry" is a three-act drama divided into ten scenes. The play illustrates the effect people have in shaping other people's lives.

The play concerns Melinda Grant, the illegitimate daughter of a gentle but mildly demented seamstress, who is saved from a life of escapism by the love of young Will Henderson.

Will had to learn to face reality himself. He decided that the best way to come to terms with a world that he does not understand is to peer into the mysteries and devote his energies to unraveling them.

Will's parents object violently to his seeing Melinda. His father is a salesman who moves about from town to town with his family. Mrs. Henderson tries to overcome this erratic life by calling him a "demonstrator" and planning for the house that they will someday own.

Melinda through encouragement from her teacher tries out for the role of Juliet in her school play and wins the part. Polly Fisher, who always plays the leads and is the "popular" girl with poise and confidence is a born leader. She tries very hard to get the part from Melinda as she wants to play opposite Bruce, who has the part of Romeo.

Ann and Eleanor are two teenagers who follow in the shadow of the privileged Polly, admiring and emulating her.

The love story parallels that of the great classic, "Romeo and Juliet," as the two youngsters not only face parental opposition but social disapproval as well. However they see the answer to their problem in life rather than in death and Will and Melinda decide to be courageous when faced with separation.

Clayton Page, associate professor of speech and head of the College Theatre, directed "Teach Me How To Cry." Assisting him were Nancy Jett, Harrisville sophomore, and Judith O'Dell, Parkersburg junior. Co-ordinating lights, sound props and set is Carol Darlene Reynolds, Huntington junior, stage manager. Sound is being worked by James R. Brooks, Monaville senior. Wardrobe mistress is Elaine Novak, instructor in speech.

Playing tomorrow night in the roles that were double cast are John Teel, Pineville sophomore, as Will; Marian McColluch, Welch sophomore, and Margie Zekany, Logan freshman, and Nancy Fink, Charleston freshman, as Anne and Eleanor. Other cast members remain the same as the preceding night.

Curtain time is 8:15 and students will be admitted by presentation of activity cards. Non-students will be charged an admission fee of sixty cents.

FACULTY BASKETBALL TICKETS

Now is the time to get faculty season basketball tickets, according to Whitey Wilson, business manager of the Athletic Department, who has them on sale in his office in the gymnasium. Price is $6 per head, and Wilson says that he will try to hold to the same seats as last year whenever possible.

IRC TO MEET

"The Far East and Its Problems" will serve as a topic to be discussed at tomorrow's meeting of the International Relations Club. The meeting is scheduled for 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon on the second floor of the Student Union.

Leaders of the discussion will be James Gibson, Huntington attorney, and Tom Stafford, Huntington junior.

LXA INITIATES TWO

Two men were initiated into the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity during ceremonies at the home of Arthur G. Swavely, 2749 North Terrace, Sunday night.

The two include Roger Lee Cannaday, Barret sophomore, and Jan Douglas Baisden, Williamson sophomore. Several members of the chapter's alumni group were present, and assisted in the ceremony.

Home Ec Majors Begin Teaching

Eight home economics majors will begin their eight-week student teaching activities on off-campus teaching centers, according to Miss Reva Belle Neely, assistant professor of home economics, who is in charge of home economics teacher education.

As a part of their extensive program extending from November 10 through January 16, student teachers will live in the community in which they teach and will have full responsibility for the home economic departments of their respective schools.

They include Mrs. Janis Davis Thomas, Hamlin; Mrs. Carol Crum, Mt. Nebo; Mrs. Sandra Strom, Huntington; Glaray Adkins, Welch; Juanita Cobb, Clendenin; Bettie Lou Graham, Hurricane; Ellen Marie Jackson, Charleston; Sue Carolyn Legg, Boomer. All are seniors.

GERMAN CLUB

German Club members will meet tomorrow at 7:30 P.M. in the Honor Council Room for a regular meeting. Dr. Walter H. Perl, associate professor of German, is faculty advisor.

Pix Exhibit Is Shown In Library

By DENNIS ELLISON

The traveling exhibits from Popular Photography and the 14th annual "News Pictures of the Year" are now on display in the James E. Morrow Library basement.

The exhibits will continue through Friday, November 14. 100 photographs representing some of the finest examples of contemporary photography, including the work of leading professionals and amateurs from all over the world, are selected from prize-winning entries in Popular Photography's $25,000 International Picture Contests, held annually.

A wide variety of subject matter, ranging from the dramatic and human interest type of photographs to serene landscapes, can be seen.

The 14th annual "News Pictures of the Year" exhibit will feature all the top prize winners and finalists in this year's contest, the largest of its kind in the world today. It will also include prints from the nation's leading newspapers and magazine photographers.

The "News Picture of the Year" competition has become the most important press-photography competition, because it represents the culmination of the National Press Photographers Association's educational program, including short courses in photo-journalism at educational institutions throughout the country.

The still division of this year's contest was judged in ten different categories. This exhibit contains a cross-section of prints, numbering 120, from all categories in the still contest.

This year's exhibit will tour over 150 cities, being exhibited at leading colleges and universities, public libraries and museums, and thus, being viewed by more than two million persons.

SCA Prayer Groups Meet

Two SCA prayer groups met for the first time yesterday morning and this morning. The two groups will meet for devotions every Tuesday and Wednesday hereafter from 7:30 A.M. to 7:50 A.M. in room 122 of the Science Hall.

Students desiring to join a prayer group should contact Sandra Roush, New Haven junior and chairman of the prayer group project, in Laidley Hall. Sandra and Linda Matheny, St. Albans junior and SCA president, will each lead the devotions of one prayer group.

"Three Answers to Prayer" will be the topic of tomorrow night's SCA meeting.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

By Dick Bibler

Terry Elected To Presidency Of Campus Mothers' Association

Mrs. Beatrice Terry was elected president of the Campus Mothers' Association during a recent meeting. Other newly elected officers who will serve during the current school year include the following: Mrs. Margaret Warth, vice president; Mrs. Laura McNeil, secretary; Mrs. Helen Mott, treasurer; Mrs. Goldie Daken, Historian; Mrs. Henrietta Spence, publicity chairman; Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Bess Marple, program; Mrs. Marie Wright, Mrs. J. R. Hatfield, telephone committee.

The Campus Mothers' Association had its beginning on Marshall's campus last September at the request of Marshall president Stewart Smith. The association was formed to bring a closer relationship among the house mothers of the dormitories and the sorority and fraternity houses.

The association meets once each month during the school year. The house mothers try to make the rules and regulations for their various houses and dorms uniform so there will be less confusion.

This year's president, Mrs. Terry, has been at Marshall two years, serving as house mother for the Sigma Phi Epsilon. The vice president, Mrs. Warth, is the house mother at Laidley Hall. Mrs. McNeil, serving as secretary is beginning her second year with the Kappa Alpha. The new treasurer, Mrs. Mott, is beginning her first year at Marshall with the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Buell Will Conduct Discussion Series

Professor Stephen D. Buell of the speech department will conduct a series of discussions groups for Owens-Illinois Glass Company beginning November 15.

The series is designed primarily for the supervisors and foremen of the company and will concern communication problems between management and employees.

Consisting of four sessions, the series will include such topics as "Organized Thinking," "Improving Communication," "Personal Characteristics in Communication," and "Voice and Body Control."

ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA

Members of Alpha Lambda Delta, national women's honorary, are requested to be at the Honor Council Room Sunday, November 9, at 3:45 P.M., to have their Chief Justice photographs taken.

KAPPA OMICRON PHI

Members of Kappa Omicron Phi, national home economics honorary, will meet Tuesday, November 18, at 7:00 P.M. in Northcott 101 for a pledging service.

A social hour will follow at the home of faculty advisor Miss Cleo Margaret Gray at 1660 Fifth Avenue.

Mrs. Terri Reasor, Huntington senior, is president of the group.

CJ PICTURES

This week's schedule for Chief Justice pictures is given below.

Thursday, Veteran's Club, 11 A.M., Science Auditorium.

Friday, Newman Club, 11 A.M., Honor Council Room.

VET'S CLUB MEETING

Pictures of members of the Veteran's Club will be taken tomorrow morning at 11:00 A.M. in the Science Hall Auditorium, according to Bob Nelson, president of the organization. The pictures are for the club's spread in the 1958-59 Chief Justice.

Green Shutout By Miami Redskins Score 26-0 Victory

By WALT LEONHART
Co-Sports Editor

Marshall's Big Green went down to its fifth defeat of the season and its fourth straight Saturday night at Fairfield Stadium when it was shut out by a strong Miami team, 26-0.

The win was a big one for Miami as it gave it a second straight Mid-American Conference title and its fourth in the past five years. The Redskins have won the MAC crown six times in the 11 years they have been in the conference.

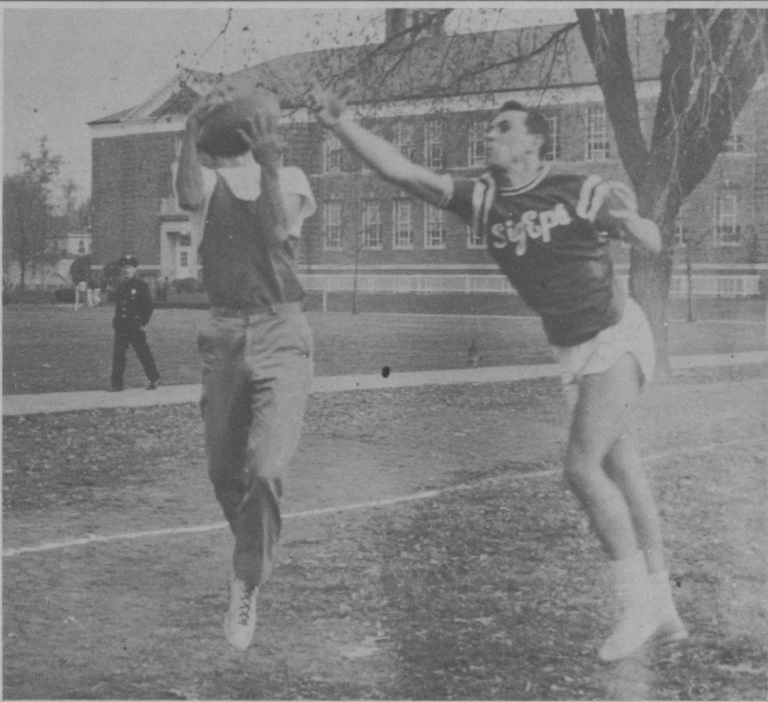

The Big Green won the toss and elected to receive. After three downs failed to gain first down Marshall punted. The Redskins got the punt and marched for their first of four touchdowns.

Harold Williams, senior Miami halfback, was the difference as he ran for three TD's and picked up some long yardage on end sweeps. Williams accounted for 115 yards rushing, two more than the entire Marshall team.

It can't be said that the Big Green didn't get a couple of scoring chances. A Bob Wagner to Dick Jackson pass gave the Green a first down on the three and on another occasion a Wagner pass put the ball on the seven and a first down. On both occasions Marshall fumbled and Miami recovered.

The first Miami TD was the result of a long drive on the ground. In fact the Redskins went to the air only twice, getting one completion and a net yardage of 10.

Marshall went to the air 19 times with seven of these completed. The seven passes netted 111 yards.

TOUCHDOWN RASCALS—Bob Force of the Rascals grabs Ed Lambert's pass for the Rascals second TD. Alex Lawrence, SPE, is the defender.

Green's Granville Zopp (24) picks up yardage against Miami as Sonny Sirianni (44) and Jim Maddox (11) block.

Rascals Cop Prelaz Issues Mural Title Wrestling Call

By TOM FOSTER

The Rascals, led by Bill Bias and Bob Force, dumped Sigma Phi Epsilon, 14-6, last Thursday afternoon to win the intramural touch football championship and preserve an undefeated season.

The Rascals were the "C" League champs with a 4-0 record and won three games in the playoffs, defeating TKE No. 1, 14-6.

The Sig Eps won the toss and elected to receive, but were forced to punt after being halted on their 45 yard line.

The Rascals took over and could not move the ball with both teams throwing up stiff defenses.

Bill Bias combined with Bob Force on a 15 yard pass in the second quarter to open the scoring for the Rascals. Bias passed to Warren Whitaker for the extra point. This turned out to be all that the Rascals needed to win the game, but they added another score in the fourth for insurance.

The Sip Eps scored their only touchdown in the third quarter as Bunny Naum passed to Tim Delbrugge, and then raced down the field to snare the pass from Delbrugge for the score.

Del Preston passed three yards to Force for the Rascals final tally in the fourth quarter. Bias added the extra point on a run and a 14-6 victory for the title.

Members of the championship Rascal team were: Bob Force, Captain; Leslie Hall, Delmar Preston; Bill Bias, Warren Whitaker, Jim Wiseman, Ed Lambert and Tom Minter.

Intramural basketball opened last Monday night at the gym with 36 teams entered. There are six flights and six teams to a flight. Monday night's action saw SPE No. 1 against KA No. 1 and TKE No. 1 against the PKA Hounds.

Varsity wrestling coach, Ed Prelaz is issuing a call to all mat aspirants to come out for practice Monday, November 17.

Any freshman weighing 123 pounds or up will be eligible to come out for the squad. Anyone with previous experience is invited to come out.

Coach Prelaz commenting on this year's team, said that, "We will have a much more experienced squad than last year and should show a lot of improvement."

Last year Marshall's matmen were handicapped by inexperience and turned in a 2-7 record.

Returning regulars are: Earl Rine and Chester May—130, Ken Adkins—137, Bob Lester—147, Granville Zopp—157, Ben Gillespie—167, Bob Wilson—177, and heavyweight Rudy Colombo.

Ben Gillespie turned in the best record last year with five wins and four losses.

Scenes From 'Teach Me How To Cry'

HERE DIANNE TINCHER AS MELINDA offers tea to Gretchen McCloud, playing the part of an instructor, Miss Robson. Her mother, Wendy Butcher, pours at right.

DIANNE TINCHER SHOWS WENDY BUTCHER a boat which Jack Walls has carved. Dianne and Jack play the role of lovers in the modern day "Romeo and Juliet."

DIANNE TINCHER, JACK WALLS, AND MARIAN McCULLOCH assemble together on the ruins of a bandstand. Jack, playing the part of Dianne's lover, takes a Juliet costume from Marian.

AS JACK WALLS ASKS MARIAN McCULLOCH for a dance she promised him, Dianne Tincher sits somewhat dejected at the left. Looking on in the rear is Margie Zekany.

A FAMILY ARGUMENT is getting into full swing here with Jack Walls, Charley Cummings, and Betsy Rucker as the characters.

JOHN MURPHY DEMONSTRATES the art and fine points of fencing to three admiring on lookers, Ellen Bromley and Sandra Sandy, and standing, Sheila Marsh. Sitting at left and not so admiring is Dianne Tincher, who is cast as a young lover trying to fleet reality.
