Francis Lederer will play the lead role in "The Diary of Anne Frank" which will appear at the Keith-Albee Theatre on Tuesday, September 30, at 8:30 P.M. The Pulitzer Prize winning play is an adaptation of the book "Anne Frank: The Diary of a Young Girl" which was an actual diary kept by an adolescent Jewish girl during a two-year period she spent hiding from the Nazis in an Amsterdam attic with seven others of her faith. The play centers not on war, but on a heart-warming account of the lives of these people.

WHTN To Begin New Radio Series

Current Events Are Discussed On New Series

Top current events will be discussed on a new Marshall radio series for public school students on WHTN Radio on alternate Tuesdays at 10:30 A.M.

"Marshall College Presents—Background to Current Issues" is designed to stimulate junior and senior high school student interest in contemporary affairs.

The Huntington Advertiser will cooperate in the venture by publishing background articles for each subject on its weekly "School Page."

The radio series and newspaper articles evolved from ideas expressed by Marshall College social studies instructors and local junior and senior high school teachers who met to consider a solution to the problem of apathy in current affairs.

C. N. Fannin, assistant superintendent of schools, and Mrs. Mae Houston, supervisor of social studies in the schools, have voiced approval of the program.

Fifteen radio programs will be presented, starting September 30 and running through April 28. Marshall faculty members, civic groups, and Huntington professional men will deliver the talks.

Professor Gerald Phillips, assistant professor of social studies and originator of the idea, will serve as moderator for the radio series.

For school classes not able to hear the original broadcasts, arrangements have been made to record the programs. Interested schools may have the program after the broadcast by sending Professor Stephen D. Buell, director of educational radio at Marshall, a blank tape.

The schedule of programs includes:

September 20—United Nations; October 14—Elections, Alternative to Dictatorship; October 28—Time for a Change, Constitutional Change Through Amendment; December 2—How May the Arms Race Be Stopped?

December 6—The American President; January 6—The American Congress; January 20—The Supreme Court Under Fire; February 3—The Realities of Our Economy; February 17—The Russia We Face Today (I).

March 3—The Russia We Face Today (II); March 17—China in Transition; March 31—The Middle East Powder Keg; April 14—Taxes—Do We Get What We Pay For?; and April 28—Great Religions.

Only 41 Pages Of Chief Justice Ready To Print

By TOM ROSS
BULLETIN

Mr. Daniel Thornburgh, director of the Information Office, said Wednesday that only 41 of the 1598 Chief Justice's 252 pages are at the printer's and ready to be printed, while the remaining 211 pages are in stages of lesser refinement.

In a statement to The Parthenon, Thornburgh gave a brief progress report on the long overdue 1958 Chief Justice, concerning 1958 editor Durward Brewer's hopes of getting the annual out on time. The shattering of these hopes is narrated by the following progress report:

The Gray Printing Co. of Fostoria, Ohio, printers for the '58 Chief Justice, have 41 of the book's 252 pages ready for printing. The printers have an additional 91 pages which cannot be printed yet due to lingering questions about their make-up. Of the remaining 172 pages, all but approximately 5 per cent are ready to be sent to the printer. Thornburgh states that it should take at least eight or ten weeks for those final 172 pages to be completed and printed. All engravings have been made.

Marshall's Public Relations and Publications Committee, consisting of both students and faculty members, is working on this problem. This committee is doing its utmost to get the book out as soon as possible. This committee will meet today at 3 P.M. in the college council room. "The committee," said Thornburgh, "will meet with the '58 staff to take immediate steps to finish the book."

Graduate Grants Offered

The Woodsow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation has announced its 1958-59 program of 1,000 fellowships in the humanities, and in the social and natural sciences, to encourage undergraduates now in their senior year to undertake graduate work in order to enter the college teaching profession. As a new feature, a limited number of graduate fellowships will also be reserved for superior students now in their third year so that their future may be assured.

Students who receive a Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship will be paid $1,500 plus tuition and dependency allowances for a year of graduate study at any university of their choice in the United States or Canada. Students being detached from the armed forces before September 1959 are also eligible. Fellowships will be held over for those who must perform military duty before entering graduate school.

Candidates may not file applications directly, but will be sent application forms after personal nomination by a member of the faculty. Any student expecting to graduate in the spring of 1959 (or in special cases in the spring of 1960) may learn more of the details of this Fellowship by consulting the departmental chairman in his major field, or the local representative of the Foundation, Dean J. F. Bartlett of the College of Arts and Sciences.

A student may request any member of the faculty to nominate him or else a member of the faculty who is familiar with the student's work and interest in college teaching may write a recommendation directly to Fredson Bowers, 530 Cabell Hall, University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Virginia, who is Representative.

EDITOR'S MAILBOX

To the Student Body:

Studying should be of primary concern to every college student. However, there are other matters that have to be taken into consideration before you become a well-educated individual. Great men say that it is not only important to study but also to participate in the "extras" that the College makes available. They are there for the use of the student, so why not take advantage of them.

In the past, Student Government has been criticized for the fact that some activities have been poorly planned and attended and justly so in some instances.

The reason for this is due to the fact that too few students are interested in supporting it. This is where the main fault lies. Student participation is the "life blood" of our Student Government. Without it we shall fail. This year our Student Government structure has been completely reorganized. One of the main reasons for doing this was to enable us to work more new faces in our program. The opportunity is there. We are asking that you use it.

If you are interested in becoming familiar with Student Government and its work or if you want to start working on one of our commissions, we will be glad to have you come over to the office to arrange for an interview. Office hours are any afternoon between the hours of 1 and 4 o'clock.

Student Government is an instrument which makes it possible for all students to have a real part in any program that is sponsored by the College. To function properly your constant support is necessary.

Sincerely,
Asa Meadows,
Student Body President.

Geology Department Boasts New Museum Fossil Display

The latest addition to the Geology Museum, located on the third floor of the Science Building, is an Index Fossil display, prepared by George Waldeck, Huntington senior, under the direction of Dr. Raymond Janssen, professor of geology.

The display, which took two months' work to prepare, consists of fossils from all the known ages, which are arranged along with samples of the type of rock characterizing the era which they represent.

Waldeck prepared the exhibit in connection with a class in geological research. Some of the specimens are native to West Virginia.

Dr. Janssen pointed out, however, that all of them are not found in this area, simply because all of the types of rock listed in the index are not found here.

Use of the display furnishes students and any visitors with a visual and immediate look at the evolution of life from lower to higher forms as shown through the study and organization of the index.

The index is of particular importance because rocks of different ages may possess unlike chemical and physical structure, but their age can be readily determined because index fossils are categorized and appear only at certain times in history and then became extinct.

Band Plans Two Trips

The Marshall band is planning two trips in the near future. One is to the Kent State game on October 18 and another to the Ohio University contest on October 25.

A call has been made by Thomas O'Connell, band director, for new members. Emphasis has been placed on bass horn players. Anyone interested in the band is urged to contact O'Connell as soon as possible.

HOW GREEN WAS MY CAMPUS

Don't tell me: I know how busy you've been! I know all the things you've had to do in the opening days of the school year—registering, paying fees, finding lodgings, entering a drag race, getting married, building a cage for your raccoon. But now, with all these essentials out of the way, let us pause and join hands and take, for the first time, a long, leisurely look at our campus.

Ready? Let's go!

We begin our tour over here on this lovely stretch of green-sward called The Mall. The Mall, as we all know, was named in honor of our distinguished alumnus Fred Mall, inventor of the opposing thumb. Before Mr. Mall's invention, the thumb could not be pressed or clicked against the other fingers. As a result, millions of castanet makers were out of work. Today however, thanks to Mr. Mall, one out of every three Americans is gainfully employed making castanets. (The other two make croquet wickets.) Mr. Mall is now 106 years old and living in seclusion on a sea cliff in Wellington, Kansas, but the old gentleman is far from idle. He still works twelve hours a day in his laboratory, and in the last year has invented the tuna, the cuticle, and lint.

But I digress. Let us resume our tour. At the end of The Mall we see a handsome edifice called The Library. Here books are kept. By "kept" I mean "kept." There is no way in the world for you to get a book out of the library... No, I'm wrong. If you have a stack permit you can take out a book, but stack permits are issued only to widows of Presidents of the United States. (That lady you see coming out of the library with a copy of Girl of the Limberlost is Mrs. Millard Fillmore.)

Next to The Library we see the Administration Building. Here one finds the president of the university, the deans, and the registrar. According to ancient academic usage, the president is always called "Prexy." Similarly, the deans are called "Dixie" and the registrar is called "Roxy." Professors are called "Proxy" and housemothers are called "Hoxy-Moxy." Students are called "Algae."

Diagonally across The Mall we see the Students Union. It is a gay, mad place, frankly dedicated to the fun and relaxation of we undergraduates. Here we undergraduates may enjoy ourselves in one of two ways—with filter or without. We undergraduates who prefer filters, prefer Marlboro, of course. Oh, what a piece of work is Marlboro! The filter filters, the taste is smooth but not skimpy, mild but not meagre.

We undergraduates who prefer non-filters, prefer Philip Morris, of course. It is a natural smoke, a clean smoke, a flavorful, zestful, pure and peaceful smoke... Now hear this: Philip Morris and Marlboro each come in a choice of two packs—crushproof Flip-Top Box, or the familiar Soft Pack.

So now, as the setting sun casts a fiery aura over the spires and battlements of our beloved campus, let us hie ourselves to our tobacconist's and lay in a night's supply of Marlboro or Philip Morris, and then let us, lowing, wind slowly o'er the lea to our dormitories and sit upon our army surplus cots, spent but content, and smoke and dream and hark the curfew toll the knell of parting day. Aloha, fair campus, aloha!

Green After 2nd Win Against Morehead

Gardner, Goines Injured--Out Of Eagle Tilt

By WALT LEONHART
Co-Sports Editor

Tomorrow night in Morehead, Kentucky, the Big Green of Marshall will be looking for victory number two when it tangles with the Morehead Eagles.

Coach Herb Royer's squad will meet the Eagles without the services of two first unit regulars. Royer said Monday that halfback Roy Goines and guard Bob Gardner will miss the contest because of injuries received in last week's West Virginia State contest.

Royer said that Granville Zopp, a member of the third unit who saw quite a bit of action in the State tilt, will replace Goines. Goines and Zopp are both seniors.

Replacing Gardner will be Don Trimboli, a stocky 195 pound guard from Huntington.

Some good news came to Royer Monday when it was learned that halfback Johnny Rincich will be in good shape for tomorrow night's tussle. Johnny bruised his hip two weeks ago and Royer kept him out of the State game.

Monday the Big Green got a look at movies of the West Virginia State game. After the movies, Royer's views stayed the same as they were after the game Saturday night.

"I still think our offense needs a lot of work," he said, "especially in getting the linebackers out of play. State's linebackers were getting to our ball carriers all night."

The Big Green got some first hand information on its opponent for tomorrow night in a scouting report from end Bill Hillen.

Morehead, which lost a 46-20 decision to Virginia Military Institute last weekend, is led by quarterbacks Buck Dawson and Tom Sims. Sims was an all-Ohio Valley choice last year. But it was Dawson who stole the show in the VMI game by throwing a couple of touchdown passes. Dawson displayed his high school football at near-by Ceredo-Kenova.

Individual statistics of the West Virginia State game show that halfback Paul Miller was the standout performer for the Green. Miller not only was the top ball carrier with a 4.3 average but also did some phenomenal punting. Miller's six boots totaled 222 yards for a 37.0 average.

Sonny Sirianni, burley fullback from Clarksburg, W. Va., was his old, bull-like self by pounding out 31 yards in eight attempts for a 3.7 mark.

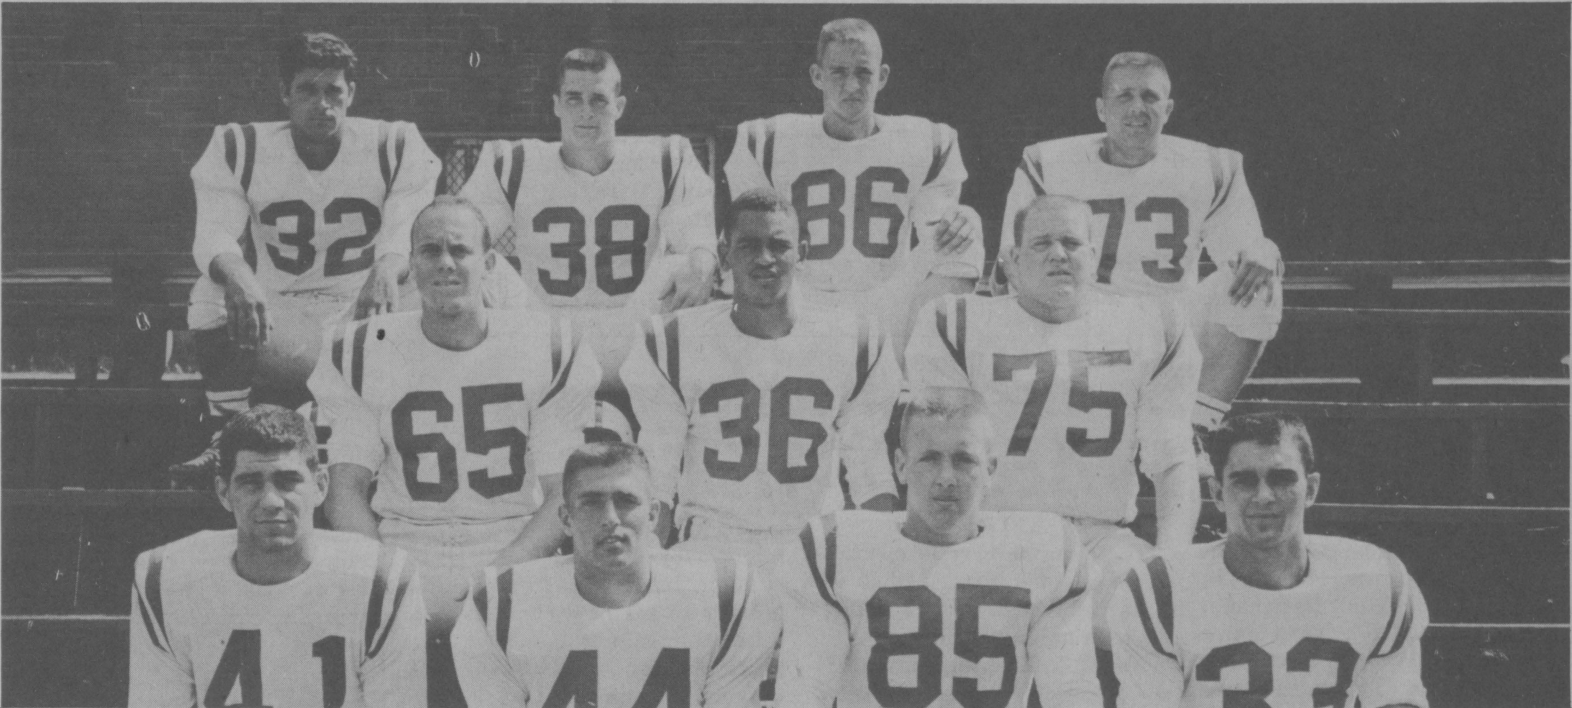

Bill Roberti was a surprise choice for the kick-off duties and responded beautifully by totaling 111 yards on three kicks for a 37.0 average.

PLACEMENT OFFICE

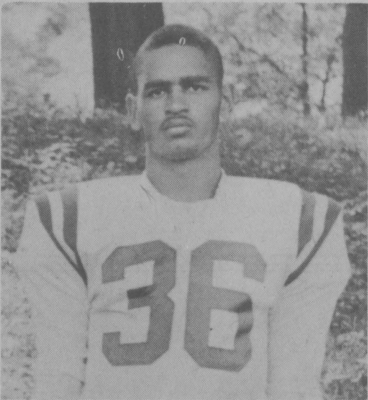

Seniors in the College of Arts and Sciences and Graduate School are asked to make provisions for registrations with the Office of Placement immediately.

No student will be allowed interviews or other services offered by the office unless his credentials are on file.

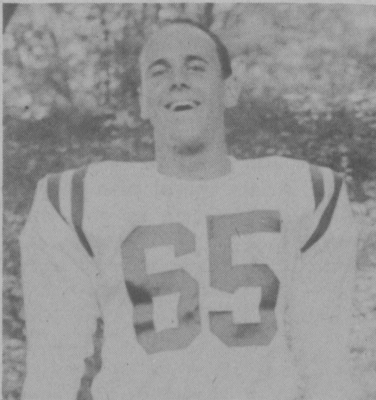

R. E. Alexander, Office of Placement Director, in urging registration, stated that private concerns have already contacted his office offering jobs to potential graduates when they receive degrees.

"On paper this is the best freshman football team in Marshall's history." This statement was made by freshman coach William "Bill" Chambers.

Coach Chambers and his two assistants Olen Jones and George Nesbit, have been putting their yearling chargers through their paces, stressing conditioning and offensive fundamentals. The reason for stressing offense, according to Chambers, is that "the boys have to unlearn their high school formations and get used to the brand of ball played at Marshall. To most boys defense comes more naturally so we concentrate on offense."

Right now Chambers has no definite lineup but there is plenty of competition for starting berths. This will be one of the heaviest Little Green squads in history. Linemen boast a 201-pound average with Roger Spurlock, the largest boy on the team, weighing in at 265.

Formosan Girl On Campus

Ho Man-Li changed her name to Mary when she was a much younger girl in Canton, China. Tuesday, Mary arrived by plane from Taiwan, Formosa, to be a student at Marshall under the West Virginia Educational Scholarship, which is given to foreign students.

Mary is taking a special one year program here for Educational Administration.

Upon arriving from Formosa, Mary said that she felt very lonely when she had to leave the other forty-seven students coming to America for the first time, but when she got to Charleston she said that she felt like crying.

Mary's family moved from Canton, China, when she was about fourteen years old. The reason for this move was due to the Communist taking over of the Chinese mainland and that her father was a colonel in Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist Government. From the mainland the family went to the island of Formosa to escape the unwanted domination from the Communists.

While living in Taiwan, Mary learned enough English to take a job with the U. S. Navy as a clerk typist for three years. Then she went into a commercial low college and then got a scholarship for education in America.

Mary has two younger brothers and a sister, the oldest brother is in college and the youngest brother is in the Nationalist Army. The father has since retired from the army and is now teaching school.

When Mary was asked what the people of Formosa thought of the war that was going on in their off-shore islands, she said, "The people want to go back to the mainland, their home. And we need your help."

Squirrel Monkey Is Mascot Of Tri Sigs

By KEITH RAY

Tri Sigma sorority is currently boasting a pet mascot that will be hard to beat. It's a squirrel monkey named Adam.

Adam is the proud owner(?) of Miss Betty Harris, a recent graduate contemplating graduate study who is living in the Tri Sig house.

Adam is two years old, weighs 15 ounces, loves to wear dresses, mad about peanut butter sandwiches, coca-cola and grasshoppers. He drinks milk from a tiny doll baby bottle. He is full grown.

Miss Harris says she had always wanted a monkey and when her chance came in Florida last year, she bought Adam. She says that he has many human attributes, among which are 15 different chants he uses to express his emotions such as hunger and thirst.

The monkey lives in a large cage with bars and trapezes to amuse himself. He is a favorite attraction at parties and many guests have returned just to see him perform.

Adam is gradually orienting himself to his new surroundings, Miss Harris said, and usually performs for guests now, although at first he was a little reticent to do so.

Adam is very tame and hasn't any really bad habits.

If you should happen to drop around to the Tri Sig house to visit Adam, be sure to take along a variety of the finest edible grasshoppers and you'll need no other calling card.

P. S. Adam might also appreciate a coke or two to go along with his meal.

receiving end, Alex Lawrence.

The defending champs field general Sonny Allen managed to fire a long pass to his end Jim Smith in the last seconds reminding to score their only touchdown.

In the opener, PKA No. 1 defeated the KA No. 1 by a score of 20-13. The Pikes were led by quarterback Max Lewis. Lewis and Co. started off with a quick touchdown. Lewis threw to Max O'Dell for the first score. Several plays later Lewis uncorked a 40 yard pass to Don Hensley. Once again the Pikes workhorse Lewis completed to O'Dell for another touchdown.

The second half was a little different. The KA's took command of the scoring. Jack Vital connected two passes both resulting in TD's. The first to Jack Young and the other to Jack Corron. Extra point was Vital to Young.

In Tuesday's tilts, the SAE No. 1 walked off with an easy victory over the LXA, 36-0.

Buddy Graham's running and passing ability made him the outstanding player of the afternoon. Graham threw 3 touchdown passes and ran 1 over. Graham also tossed 2 conversions. Dick Kearns accounted for the other conversion.

The second game of the afternoon pitted the "Spiders," Pikes No. 2 team, against the SAE No. 2 team. The contest ended in a 7-7 tie. During the sudden death playoff, the SAE's were able to move the ball farther than the Pikes in the five downs that were allotted. In doing this the SAE's were the victors. Ty Cobb ran a 70 yard kick-off for the SAE score, and passed to Tom Adkins for PAT. Jim Myers to Bob Morris for the Pikes score. Myers to Phillips for the conversion.
