Alaskan Senator Will Speak On Next Forum

By STEVE SEPLOCHA

Ernest Gruening, Senator of Alaska, will speak on "The State of Alaska" at the Forum, Tuesday, February 24. Senator Gruening, who was governor of Alaska from 1939 to 1953, will discuss the many ramifications of statehood for our young sister state.

Senator Gruening is well qualified to report on this strategic new section of the United States. From 1934 to 1939, he was Di-

New Gym Slated For Approval

The bill concerning construction of a new men's health and physical education building here has passed through the Legislature and now is in the hands of Governor Underwood awaiting final approval. Actual construction of the building should begin this spring on a tract of land east of the campus along Nineteenth Street.

Under the auspices of The State Board of Education, $1,315,000 of revenue bonds and $585,000 of student fees already received will finance the construction, acquire equipment and furniture, and pay other needed expenses.

Governor Underwood commented last Tuesday that he would sign the measure as soon as it reached his desk.

The bond payments will be deducted by the tuition fees which will approximate $737,782 annually. A new tuition rate slated for next fall demands $150 a year for West Virginia students and $400 a year for out-of-state residents.

Speakers Hold Personal Meets

Life Planning Week speakers will be available Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday (March 2-4) for personal meetings with students, according to Sharon Pickens, South Charleston sophomore, LPW Personal Conferences Chairman.

Students interested in meeting and speaking with the speakers may do so by going to the TV lounge on the second floor of the Student Union from 9 A.M. until 4 P.M.

Speakers tentatively scheduled for the Conferences are Rabbi Joseph Rosenbloom; Naval Commander Harold McNeil; Father Joseph Flynn; Dr. Arthur Beckett; Rev. Lloyd Barker; Rev. Norman Bromley; Rev. Kyle Haselden, and Mrs. Boz Johnson.

rector of the Division of Territories and Island Possessions, with jurisdiction over Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Virginia Islands, South Sea and Equatorial Islands, U. S. Antarctic Service and the Philippines.

Prior to 1934 he was editor and managing editor of many publications including the Boston Traveler, Boston Herald, New York Evening Post and The Nation and La Prensa. Senator Gruening was the founder of Portland (Me.) Evening News.

As a successful author, Gruening has written "The State of Alaska," "Mexico And Its Heritage" and "The Public Pays."

Senator Gruening will discuss Alaska generally, its peoples and customs, its mines and fisheries, its climate, geography, history, politics, and, with emphasis on its prospects for the future development.

A questioning period will follow the Forum with a prize being offered for the best question.

ERNEST GRUENING

Members of the 54th Legislature made their annual inspection of the campus Saturday afternoon.

The legislators commended the college for the appearance of its buildings and studied plans for the new men's physical education building to be built on the east side of Nineteenth street on land the college is now acquiring.

Coburn Will Speak At Baccalaureate Services

The Reverend John Bowen Coburn, D.D., Dean of the Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, Massachusetts, will speak at Baccalaureate services at Keith Albee Theatre, Sunday May 31, it was announced Wednesday by Dr. Stewart H. Smith, president.

A native of Danbury, Connecticut, Dr. Coburn has served as teacher, author, chaplain and rector.

From 1936 until 1939 he taught English and biology at Robert College, Istanbul, Turkey.

He was a Chaplain in the United States Naval Reserve at the Naval Air Station, Hutchinson, Kansas for two years. He also served aboard the USS Sheridan in the Pacific theater.

Ordained in 1943, Dr. Coburn was assistant minister at Grace Church in New York City, and later became Rector of Grace Church, Amherst, Massachusetts and Chaplain at Amherst College.

In 1953 he accepted the position of Dean at Trinity Cathedral in Newark, New Jersey. He began his present position in 1957.

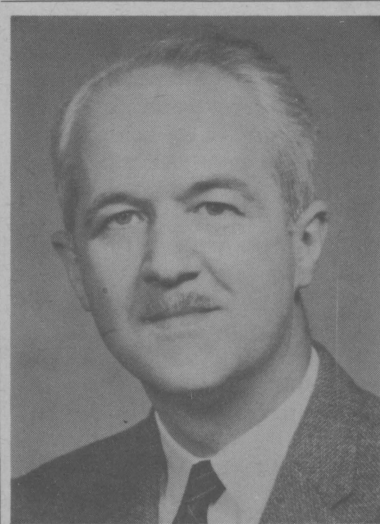

Dr. John Coburn has authored four books: "Prayer and Personal Religion"; "One Family in Christ"; "Professors Are People"; and "Priests In a Pagan Community."

Dr. Corburn has served as a member of the Board of Directors, Union Theological Seminary, and the Joint Commission on Ecumenical Relations of the Episcopal Church, and was a delegate to the Anglican Congress in 1954 and the General Convention in 1955.

His degrees include the Bachelor of Arts from Princeton University, the Bachelor of Divinity Degree from Union Theological Seminary, the Doctor of Divinity Degree from Amherst College and the Doctor of Sacred Theology Degree from Berkeley Divinity School.

JAMES W. GLADDEN

Sociology Professor Scheduled To Appear As LPW Speaker

Marriage and family life specialist Dr. James W. Gladden, professor of sociology at the University of Kentucky, will discuss the sociological aspects of "Conscience On Campus" during Life Planning Week (campus religious emphasis week) March 1-5.

Dr. Gladden is an authority in the fields of child development, marriage and family life, and the sociology of religion. Before becoming associated with UK, he was head of the department of sociology at Mount Union College in Alliance, Ohio, and served as a Methodist minister in Pittsburgh, Pa.

The sociologist is one of the most popular lecturers in his field, having an excellent background for lecturing on college campuses. He has been visiting lecturer on six Kentucky campuses and 16 other Southern universities.

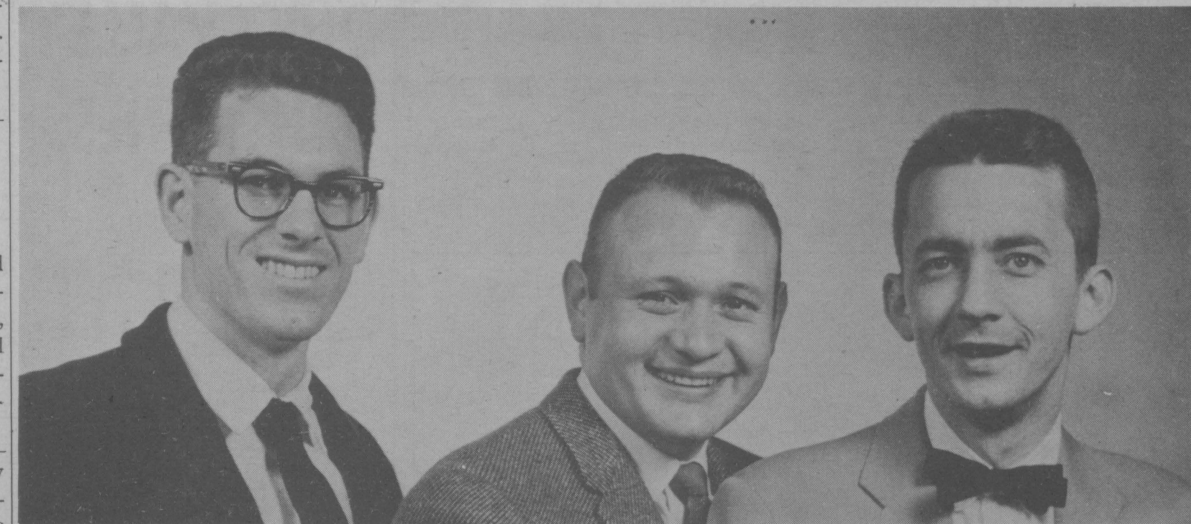

A leading Methodist layman, Gladden has wide experience in the counseling field, too, having served as regional consultant for the American Council of Family Relations with its national headquarters in Los Angeles, Calif., as a leading spokesman for the Southern Student Y. M. C. A.

Dr. Gladden received his Bachelor of Arts degree at Waynesburg College in Pennsylvania, his Bachelor of Sacred Theology from Westminster Theological School in Maryland, and his master's degree in education and doctorate of philosophy from the University of Pittsburgh.

The LWP speaker is listed in several professional publications including "Who's Who in the Midwest," "South," and "Kentucky." He is also listed in the Dictionary of American Scholars and is regional head of Pi Gamma Mu, social science honorary fraternity.

Dr. Gladden is married and has two children.

Blood Drive Results ??

By JOHN P. KILLORAN
Photography Editor

Standings in the campus blood drive program were announced Wednesday by Student Vice-President Gary Adams. The figures, together with the results of the spring blood drive to be held in early May, will determine the recipients of the annual blood trophies and awards.

According to Mary Mott Mossman, Huntington sophomore and Blood Drive chairman, the awards will consist of four trophies, two to be awarded in each division. The first place trophies will go to the organizations, both men's and women's, who compile the highest percentage of donations on a yearly basis. A trophy will go to groups with more than thirty members and one to groups under thirty.

Participation in the blood drive entitles the college to participation in the American Red Cross blood program, giving blood to students, employees of the institution and their immediate families.

The largest group of donors has proven to be the members of the Reserve Officers Training Corps Battle Group, under the command of Cadet Col. Joe P. Coffman, Birch River senior. The cadets are not eligible for the trophies, although they may register credit for their fraternity.

Results and standings for the men's and women's groups at this time are:

Fraternities	Number Donating	Percentage
1st Place—CAVALIERS	19	47.5
2nd Place—SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON	35	47.2
3rd Place—SIGMA PHI EPSILON	18	31.0
4th Place—Tau Kappa Epsilon	13	24.7
5th Place—Lambda Chi Alpha	6	23.0
6th Place—Kappa Alpha	6	15.0
7th Place—Alpha Sigma Phi	4	13.7
8th Place—Pi Kappa Alpha	6	8.6
Alpha Phi Omega	1
Veteran's Club	5
SORORITIES
1st Place—SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA	8	13.3
2nd Place—ALPHA XI DELTA	6	10.7
tie
2nd Place—PI KAPPA SIGMA	6	10.7
3rd Place—DELTA ZETA	6	10.3
4th Place—Alpha Sigma Tau	2	9.5
5th Place—Alpha Chi Omega	5	8.4

The above figures are not separated into "above or under thirty member" groups, and are intended only to show organizations how they stand. The drive is only half way over and as noted in the closeness of most standings may change considerably after the Spring blood drive.

Rogers Is New Editor

Bob Rogers, Huntington senior, was elected editor of The Parthenon at a staff election recently.

The election was necessitated by the resignation of Mike Maroney, Cedar Grove graduate student, as editor-in-chief. Maroney was graduated in January.

Rogers was formerly Managing Editor.

Jim Gilreath, Ronceverte senior, formerly News Editor, was elected Managing Editor.

Keith Ray, South Charleston junior, formerly Campus Editor, was elected co-News Editor.

John P. Killoran, Lewisburg senior, formerly special writer, was elected photography editor.

Three Will Go To MAC Meet

Marshall's Student Senate will be represented by three students at the Mid-American Conference Student Government Convention March 13, 14, 15, at Toledo University. Student president Asa Meadows, Huntington senior; Bobby Nelson, Whitesville sophomore, and Tom Stafford, Huntington junior, will take part in the convention as Marshall's representatives.

The convention will concern problems of the student governments of conference colleges. Workshops, discussion groups and "bull sessions" will highlight the program of the meeting.

Each conference taking part will be represented by from three to five students. Participating colleges will present problems for discussion pertinent to their campus activities.

On Campus

THE GIRL I LEFT BEHIND ME

It happens every day. A young man goes off to college leaving his home-town sweetheart with vows of eternal love, and then he finds that he has outgrown her. What, in such cases, is the honorable thing to do?

Well sir, you can do what Rock Sigafos did.

When Rock left Cut and Shoot, Pa., he said to his sweetheart, a simple country lass named Tess d'Urbervilles, "My dear, though I am far away in college, I will love you always. I will never look at another girl. If I do, may my eyeballs parch and wither, may my viscera writhe like adders, may the moths get my new tweed jacket!"

Then he clutched Tess to his bosom and planted a final kiss upon her fragrant young skull and went away, meaning with all his heart to be faithful.

"You can do what Rock Sigafos did..."

But on the very first day of college he met a coed named Fata Morgana, a girl of such sophistication, such poise, such savoir faire as Rock had never beheld. She spoke knowingly of Franz Kafka, she hummed Mozart, she smoked Marlboros, the cigarette with better "makin's". Now, Rock didn't know Franz Kafka from Pinocchio, or Mozart from James K. Polk, but Marlboros he knew full well. He knew that anyone who smoked Marlboros was modern and advanced and as studded with brains as a ham with cloves. Good sense tells you that you can't beat Marlboro's new improved filter, and you never could beat Marlboro's fine flavor. This Rock knew.

So all day he followed Fata around campus and listened to her talk about Franz Kafka, and then in the evening he went back to the dormitory and found this letter from his home-town sweetheart Tess:

Dear Rock,

Us kids had a keen time yesterday. We went down to the pond and caught some frogs. I caught the most of anybody. Then we hitched rides on trucks and did lots of nutsy stuff like that. Well, I must close now because I got to whitewash the fence.

Your friend,

Tess

P.S. . . . I can do my Hula Hoop 3,000 times.

Well sir, Rock thought about Tess and then he thought about Fata and then a great sadness fell upon him. Suddenly he knew he had outgrown young, innocent Tess; his heart now belonged to smart, sophisticated Fata.

Rock, being above all things honorable, returned forthwith to his home town and walked up to Tess and looked her in the eye and said manfully, "I do not love you any more. I love a girl named Fata Morgana. You can hit me in the stomach with all your might if you like."

"That's okay, hey," said Tess amiably. "I don't love you neither. I found a new boy."

"What is his name?" asked Rock.

"Franz Kafka," said Tess.

"A splendid fellow," said Rock and shook Tess's hand and they have remained good friends to this day. In fact, Rock and Fata often double-date with Franz and Tess and have heaps of fun. Franz can do the Hula Hoop 6,000 times.

All's well that ends well—including Philip Morris. Philip Morris ends well and begins well and is made of superb natural tobaccos by the same people who make Marlboros.

All-Stars Keep On Rolling Hanshaw, Poling Star In 2259-2077 Win

By TERRY PERDUE
Parthenon Sports Writer

The All-Stars continued to dominate the Intramural Bowling League by thumping a strong ROTC team, 2259-2077. This win marked the second straight time the All-Stars have exceeded the 2200 mark. Bob Hanshaw rolled a season high of 591 to lead the All-Star victory. Gary Poling also burned up the lanes with a three-game total of 574. Homer Anderson was tops for the ROTC team with 449.

In the other league action, KA led by Pete Groseclose's 429, edged SPE No. 2, 1791-1889. Al Poste was high man for SPE with 410.

SPE led the Cavaliers, 1875-1805, in a close one. Dick McDade led the winners with a 414 total. SAE No. 2, behind Mutt Foster's 431, stomped the Cavaliers No. 2, 2051-1546. SPE No. 1 racked up a total of 2057 to edge TKE No. 1 with 1884. In the closest game of the season, PKA's No. 1 squeezed by SAE No. 1, 1945-1925. O'Dell of the PKA team had a total of 446. Hoover of the losers had a 409 total. TKE No. 2 trimmed SPE No. 3, 1993-1957, despite a 435 performance by Joe Dial of the SPE TEAM.

After two rounds of the league, five teams are still undefeated. The following teams have two wins and no losses: the All-Stars, KA, SAE No. 2, SPE No. 1, and SAE No. 3. Next Tuesday, the 24th, the final round of regular league play will take place at the Spot Bowling Lanes.

Four games were played Monday night in the Intramural Basketball league. The Rascals No. 2 topped the century mark for the second time this season while downing the PKA Huskies, 103-43. Dan Wassum led the Rascals with 42 points, and Hal Frazier chipped in 28 for the winners. Keith Rife led the Huskies with 18 points. KA No. 2, led by Ed Patrick's 17 points, edged ASP No. 2, 36-32, in a close one. Louis Kaman pitched in 11 for the losers. Dewey Ballangee and Nick Nicholas ripped the nets for 12 apiece to lead the VM No. 3 to a 48-39 victory over ROTC No. 2. Gary Adkins chipped in 14 for the ROTC. PKA's Beagles trimmed the Vets, 44-37, behind Jim McDonald's 20 points. Ted McCray got 12 for the Vets.

Five games made up Tuesday night's card in the Intramural Basketball league. In a real thriller, the Hilltoppers squeaked past the Delberts, 46-44. Paris Hudnall and Jim Williamson led the Hilltoppers with 12 and 13 points respectively. Bill Johnson got 10 points for the losers. TKE

Green To Host High School Wrestling Meet

The Big Green's wrestling team will play host to the West Virginia High School Regional Wrestling Meet tomorrow at the gym at 7:30 P.M.

The preliminaries of the meet will be held at Barboursville High School at 3:00 P.M. today. The finals and semi-finals will be held at the Marshall gym.

The finalists of the meet will go to West Virginia University to compete in the W. Va. Inter-scholastic Wrestling Championships on Friday and Saturday, February 27 and 28.

Five teams have entered the regional meet including Barboursville, Cereda-Kenova, Logan, Madison, and Webster Springs.

Big Green Faces Tough St. Bonaventure Five

By WALT LEONHART
Sports Editor

Marshall's Big Green basketball team will face one of its stiffest tests of the season tomorrow night in Buffalo, New York, when it clashes with the Bonnies of St. Bonaventure.

The Bonnies have lost only two games this season. St. Francis of Pennsylvania, the team Marshall split two with this year, beat St. Bonaventure early in the season and Providence College knocked off the Bonnies recently, 53-50.

St. Bonaventure has already accepted a bid to the National Invitational Tournament and will definitely be one of the strongest teams that Coach Jule Rivlin's squad has met this year.

St. Bonaventure will not be a stranger to the Big Green. Only last year the Big Green and the Bonnies collided in the Cincinnati Invitation Tournament. Marshall won that one by about 15 points.

After tomorrow night's contest, Marshall won't be back into action again until Thursday night at Memorial Field House when it entertains the Morehead Eagles. The Big Green won a previous game from the Eagles in Morehead, 86-83.

Student Is Expert Horseman

By JUDY STEVENS

Martha Gerber, St. Marys sophomore, has been showing horses for eight years and riding since the age of six.

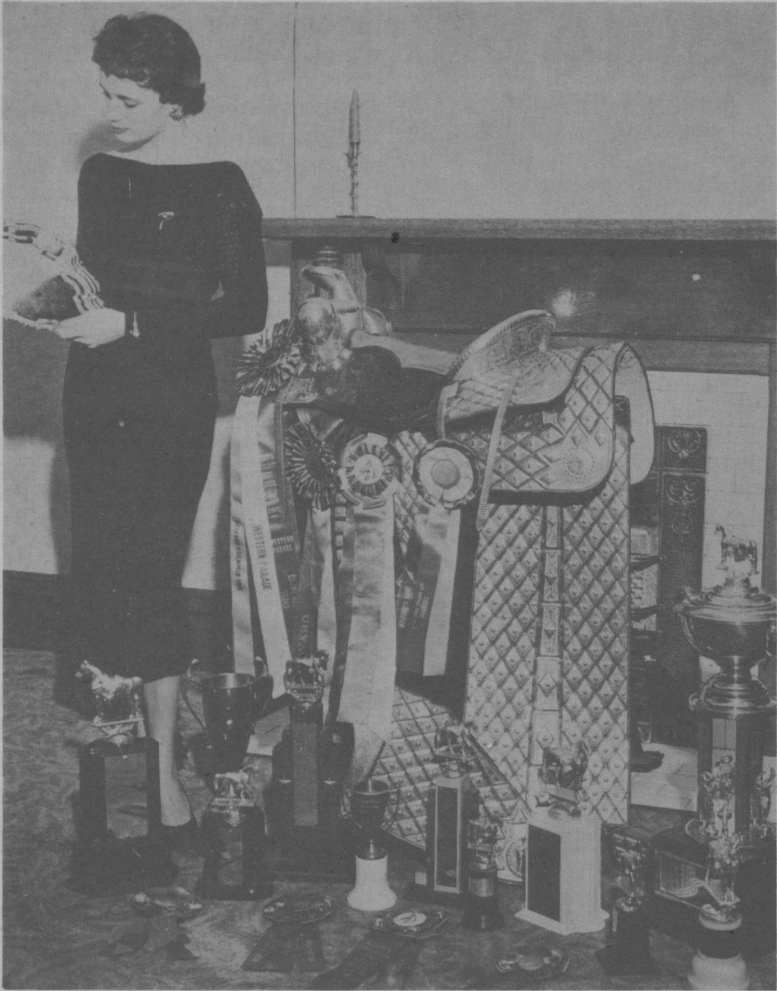

Martha took her first award at the age of nine in McConnellsville, Ohio. In 1951 she was Grand Champion in the Ohio State Children's Horsemanship Award in the Ohio Valley Circuit. Judging in this category was based on the rider's ability to handle the horse.

The Pony Class, Children's Horsemanship Class, Trail Class, Parade Class, and Palomino Class have all been phases of Martha's riding career. Approximately 153 ribbons, three-fourths of which are blue ribbons, and 31 trophies have been won for the most part while riding "Rex Pot o' Gold."

Rex is a Triple Registered, American Saddle Bred Palomino. He was Grand Champion Yearling in Springfield, Illinois, West Virginia Grand Champion Parade Horse in 1955 and Reserve Champion in 1956, and Champion Parade Horse in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, last summer. He also placed in the All-American Palomino Show in Eaton, Ohio. Each year Rex spends four months in training in Waynesburg, Pennsylvania.

While showing, "Rex" is donned in a sterling silver saddle, and Martha wears a hand-embroidered riding costume and hand tooled boots.

Martha feels that the height of her riding career is in the past, but she still enjoys riding for recreation.

Newest Fiction IRC Regional Available Here Confab In April

By HANIABLE HENSLEY

Persons interested in current fictional literature are well supplied with up to date reading matter by The James E. Morrow Library.

When compared with the New York Times Book Review Section, which attempts to rate books according to a cross section of the national interest, it was found that, more often than not, the top rated current books are to be found in the library.

Those books, not available at this time, are either on order, or under study so as to determine their potential value as good literature.

Musicians Attending Meet In Charleston

Representatives to the West Virginia All-State College Orchestra will include senior members of the local chapter of Music Educators National Conference, and the college orchestra.

The meeting began yesterday and will continue through tomorrow at Morris Harvey College in Charleston.

N.E.N.C. members will participate in the clinic exhibits, concerts and student chapter affairs.

The tri-state International Relations Club Convention is to be here April 17 and 18.

Schools in West Virginia, Ohio, and Kentucky having chapters of the International Relations Club will be sending delegates to the convention. Approximately three to five hundred delegates are expected to attend.

The purpose of the convention is to acquaint college students with the international problems of today. Speakers are now being chosen.

According to the president of the club, Fred Lowe, Pittsburgh, Pa., senior, there are many problems to be solved. The major problem facing the club is the housing for the delegates.

Anyone interested in helping with the convention should contact Fred Lowe.

CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

The Classical Association will meet on Thursday, February 26, at 4 P.M. in room M210. Mrs. Ernestine Jones, assistant professor of English, will show slides of her trip to Italy at this meeting. Carole Wallace is the president and Laura Jane Cox is the program chairman of the Association.
