

Fall 9-2013

Welcome from the Co-Chairs. Knowledge Community for Student Leadership Programs Innovation Newsletter

Sherry Early

Marshall University, earlys@marshall.edu

Michael Baumhardt

Follow this and additional works at: http://mds.marshall.edu/le_st_faculty

Part of the Educational Administration and Supervision Commons, and the Leadership Studies Commons

Recommended Citation

Early, S. L., Baumhardt, M. (2013, September). Welcome from the Co-Chairs. Knowledge Community for Student Leadership Programs Innovation Newsletter.

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Leadership Studies at Marshall Digital Scholar. It has been accepted for inclusion in Leadership Studies Faculty Research by an authorized administrator of Marshall Digital Scholar. For more information, please contact zhangj@marshall.edu, martj@marshall.edu.

WELCOME

from the co-chairs

On behalf of our entire SLPKC Leadership Team, we'd like to be the first to welcome you to another academic year. We hope that the summer has allowed you the opportunity to unwind, rejuvenate, and come back ready to serve your students. Be assured that the SLPKC has been busy over the summer offering webinars, conducting research, representing our members at a national leadership collaborative summit, recognizing outstanding leadership programs, and much more. We are fortunate to have many of these summer projects highlighted within this newsletter.

Sherry Early, Bowling Green State University

As we head into the fall, we encourage you to use the many resources the SLPKC offers to plan and refine the leadership programs that your campus offers. Be assured that many more webinars, book reviews, and research is on the way throughout this semester to ensure that our campus leadership programs are robust as ever. If there is ever anything we can do for you or your campus, please do not hesitate to reach out to us. Best of luck this semester and we look forward to connecting up with you throughout the upcoming months!

Michael Baumhardt , University of Scranton